WHAT'S PROPHESIED TO HAPPEN, NOW —
TO AMERICA AND BRITAIN ...................... 193
Events of the next five years may prove this to be the most significant book of this century.

People of the Western World would be STUNNED! — DUMB-FOUNDED! — if they knew!

The governments of the United States, Britain, Canada, Australasia, South Africa, would immediately institute drastic changes in foreign Policy — would set in motion gigantic crash programs — IF THEY KNEW!

They COULD know! But THEY DON’T KNOW!

WHY?
A STAGGERING TURN in world events is due to erupt in the next four to seven years. It will involve violently the United States, Britain, Western Europe, the Middle East.

It's already rather late for the free world to come awake to the real meaning behind current world events!

Why do not the world's leaders see what is coming? Why are the world's best minds unseeing — the heads of state, scientists, educators, editors, news analysts, bankers, industrialists, leaders in business and commerce?

They are totally unaware!

Why?

Because they have been falsely educated and deceived into closing their minds to the great causes behind world events and trends. This world has been falsely educated to ignore causes, and deal with effects! Yet all the world's problems and ills are, simply, a matter of cause and effect.

There is a cause that has produced strife and war; poverty, wretchedness, inequality; crime, disease, mental ills. But the leaders do not know!

World-Explosion Soon to Erupt

The world's leaders are the educated of the world. But they were not educated in basic truths — the foundations of right knowledge. The most necessary knowledge is not being taught!

They do not know what man is — or why! They know nothing of the purpose or meaning of life! They were not taught to distinguish the true values from the false.

They did not learn the real causes — the way to peace, to happiness, to universal abundance. Nor, the CAUSES of war, unhappiness, inequality, world-chaos.

They know nothing of the PURPOSE being worked out here below. Consequently they guide humanity on a course in conflict with that Purpose, wreaking havoc upon a distressed, suffering, unhappy mankind.

Lacking knowledge of the way to peace — the world does not have peace! Leaders talk of peace — they profess to work for peace — they cry out for PEACE — while they give approval and blind acceptance to the way that produces WAR!

This world has simply been GOING THE WRONG WAY!

This world is giving assent, and conferring civilization's acceptance on the ways that are the CAUSES of all the world's ills.

And now we are fast approaching the final grand smash EXPLOSION that is going to stagger the minds of man beyond the bounds of sanity!

Forces are at work today on plans, programs, conspiracies, movements, that soon will erupt into a WORLD-EXPLOSION of VIOLENCE and CHAOS such as never happened before, and never will again! Men today are tampering with forces of nature they lack the prudence, knowledge, ability and wisdom to control.

In this folly of educated ignorance, it has become fashionable today and intellectually titillating to ignore the GREAT BASIC CAUSE of all things — the FACT of the PURPOSE being worked out here below, and of the MASTER PLAN for its working out — of the invisible but Supreme Power now soon to intervene and drastically alter the course of history — before mankind blasts itself out of existence!

Unreal though it may seem to those steeped in modern educational deceptions, some 2,500 years ago the Supreme Power of the Universe inspired a man named Isaiah to write, quoting Him thus: "I am God, and there is none like me, declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, 'My counsel shall stand'" (Isaiah 46:9-10).

The great world Powers are formulating their policies — laying their plans. But the next five to seven years will see astounding events explode in a manner very different than the nations plan! WHY?

Never a Miss!

Because there is the Great God who says: "The Eternal wrecks the purposes of pagans; He brings to nothing what the nations plan: but the Eternal's purpose stands forever, and what He plans will last from age to age... The Eternal looks from heaven, beholding all mankind: from where He sits, He scans all who inhabit the world; He who alone made their minds, He notes all they do" (Psalm 33:10-15, Moffatt translation).

This same Eternal God said, "To whom, then, will ye liken me? or shall I be equal? saith the Holy One. Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things..." And again, "Behold the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance... ALL NATIONS before Him are as nothing..." (Isaiah 40:25-26, 15, 17).

Through His inspired Prophets, the Great God caused to be written, some 2,500 years ago, and preserved in writing to our time, prophecies filling approximately a third of the whole Bible. In them, He named every city of consequence of that time on earth—and also, every nation! And He foretold precisely what would, through the years, happen to every city and every nation!

In every instance, the prophecies CAME TO PASS!

What was prophesied HAPPENED to Babylon, to Tyre, Sidon, Ashkelon, Ashdod, Ekron—to Egypt, Assyria, Chaldea, Persia, Greece and Rome!

THERE HAS NOT BEEN A MISS! Those prophecies were ACCURATE.

For the astounding proof, write for the free booklet, The Proof of the Bible. Leaders in government—men of science—are without excuse when they dismiss without examination such astounding evidence of prophetic accuracy.

And now, in other prophecies, the SAME SUPREME GOD has foretold precisely WHAT IS GOING TO HAPPEN TO THE Best Minds — Total Ignorance

Yet the best minds in the world are in total ignorance of the unprecedented cataclysm that is about to strike!

And why have these prophecies not been understood or believed?

Because the vital key that unlocks prophecy to our understanding had been lost. That key is the identity of the United States and the British peoples in Biblical prophecy.

That key has been found!

We present it to those whose unprejudiced eyes are willing to see, in this book.

The events prophesied to strike the American and British peoples in the next four to seven years are sure!

That is why events of the next four to seven years may prove this to be the most significant book of this century.

God says: “Surely the Lord Eternal will do nothing, but He revealeth His secret unto His servants the prophets” (Amos 3:7).

These colossal world events, shrinking the first two world wars into insignificance, will come, on schedule, but not until the warning has been made available for those whose eyes are willing to see. This book gives you the key that will unlock closed doors!
Chapter I

THE LOST MASTER KEY
HAS BEEN FOUND

This may sound incredible, but it’s true! Editors, newscasters, foreign correspondents, do not understand the real meaning of the world news they report, analyze and discuss.

Heads of Government are utterly unaware of the true significance of the very world-shaking events with which they deal! They have no conception of where these events are leading.

Incredible? Perhaps — but true!

Winston Churchill declared before the United States Congress, “... he must indeed have a blind soul who cannot see that some great purpose and design is being worked out here below of which we have the honor to be the faithful servants.”
But he did not understand that Purpose! That great Purpose long ago was master-planned by the Master-Mind of the Universe.

There IS Purpose

It is true, though almost totally unrealized — mankind was put on this earth for a PURPOSE! And the Maker of mankind sent along, with the human product of His making, an INSTRUCTION BOOK to reveal that Purpose, and to guide man in happily, enjoyably fulfilling it.

But the human race has rejected the revelation and the guidance, and has preferred to stumble on in the darkness of its own futile reasonings.

About one third of that Instruction Book is devoted to basic EDUCATION — revealing to man the necessary foundational knowledge otherwise undiscoverable and unknowable—knowledge of what man is, why he is, where his destiny may lead, how to reach it and live happily along the way — revealing knowledge of the true values as distinguished from the false; knowledge of the WAY to peace, happiness, abundant well-being.

In other words, the most necessary of all knowledge — the foundation on which to build discoverable, ascertainable knowledge.

Another approximate third of that Book is devoted to history — to those events and experiences fulfilling the master plan during the first four millennia of man’s mortal sojourn, as examples for our admonition and guidance today.

And then approximately a third — grasp this! an entire third — of our Maker’s revelation to mankind is devoted to infallible prophecy — writing the history of future events, before they occur. These foretold future events reveal the great purpose being finally worked out — being brought to its completion!

Now see why heads of state, news analysts, and the great minds of our time do not comprehend the real meaning of world events as they are shaping up right now!

WHY THIS IGNORANCE

A rational and right knowledge of this great purpose — and of the Creator’s master plan — of where, in the progression of those foreordained events, we stand today — and of major happenings prophesied yet to occur — this knowledge is the essential basis for understanding the significance and true meaning of today’s dynamic world news!

Without this vital knowledge, none dealing in news gathering and news reporting — none responsible for government policies — can understand current world happenings or where they are leading.

And not one saddled with such responsibilities does know! WHY?

Two reasons, primarily!

1) They have been deceived by false education, appealing to the vanity of intellect, into prejudicial and disdainful rejection of the divine revelation, which alone can impart this understanding; and,
2) The vital key necessary to unlock closed doors of Biblical prophecy had been lost!

The great world Powers of our time have been, and are, the United States, the Soviet Union, Great Britain, Germany, France, and other western European nations.

The missing vital key is, simply, the identity of these great world Powers in Biblical prophecy! The staggering and cataclysmic world-shaking events soon to erupt upon a shocked, stunned, bewildered world relate directly and specifically to the United States, Britain, Germany and western Europe, and Russia.

Not knowing how and where these nations are specifically mentioned in basic and major prophecies, the educated of the world have been utterly blinded to the plain and simple meaning of prophecy!

Due to this lost key, more than anything else, the Bible has come to be discredited and rejected in this world's educational system. The unproved and unprovable theory of evolution has been craftily substituted as the foundational concept which becomes the supposed rational approach to knowledge.

The colossal tragedy of it! Our peoples, being thus falsely and deceptively educated from little children, have, in a supposed era of advanced rationalism and enlightenment, actually been groping around and floundering in the darkness of ignorance, misunderstanding and confusion, fatally unaware of the earthshaking catastrophe into which they are being directly plunged!

Shut Eyes — Closed Ears

Thus our peoples have forgotten and departed far from their Maker. They have shut their eyes, and closed their ears to His dynamic Revelation to mankind, which, to ears that could hear, thunders out the life-and-death warning to those in the responsible positions of Power!

Is it now too late?

Have our leaders become so blinded — so steeped in a deceptive false education — so stultified — that they cannot be aroused from slumber?

God help us now! Time is fast closing in on us!
But the all-important MASTER KEY has been found!
That key is knowledge of the astonishing identity of the American and British peoples — as well as the German — in Biblical prophecies!

This very eye-opening, astounding IDENTITY is the strongest PROOF of the inspiration and authority of the Holy Bible! It is, at the same time, the strongest proof of the very active existence of THE LIVING GOD!

An exciting, pulsating, vital third of all the Bible is devoted to PROPHECY! And approximately 90 percent of all prophecy pertains to OUR TIME, now, in this latter half of the twentieth century!

It is a WARNING to us — to our English-speaking peoples — of immediate and life-and-death import!

The prophecies come alive once their doors are opened by this now-discovered MASTER KEY!

This book will open, to open minds, this hitherto closed vital third of all the Bible. No story of fiction ever was so strange, so fascinating, so absorbing, so packed with interest and suspense, as this gripping story of our identity — and our ancestry!

Through it ALMIGHTY GOD gives momentous WARNING! Those who read, and heed, may be spared unprecedented cataclysmic tragedy soon to strike!

If our peoples, and their governments, will awaken, heed, and return to their Living GOD, then our nations may be spared!

God help us to UNDERSTAND!

PROPHECIES CLOSED UNTIL NOW!

ONE MIGHT ASK, were not Biblical prophecies closed and sealed? Indeed they were—until now! And even now they can be understood only by those who possess the Master Key to unlock them!

But we have reached the approximate end of 6,000 years of Biblical history. We have reached the end of an age! We are entering, right now, the world crisis at the close of the present civilization. We face, today, conditions such as the world never before has witnessed!

Stark Question of Survival

Today the big problem is the stark question of survival! For the first time in world history, the weapons of mass destruction exist which can erase all life from the earth.

Chiefs of government and world-famous scientists have been saying publicly we must adjust to living in fear of human annihilation, with no solutions in sight.

This world condition, in all its basic facets, is plainly described in the voluminous prophecies of the Bible. And there, alone, is the solution revealed! There, alone, may be found hope and assurance for the future—for a better world—for the peaceful and happy world tomorrow!

To those prejudicially cynical toward this Word of God I say: It is now your only hope! Science offers no solutions! The politicians and heads of government have no answers! In the Bible, alone, you will find the advance news of what is now certain to occur—and occur it will before mankind blasts itself out of existence!
But, another objector might ask, are not most of the prophecies outdated Old Testament writings, addressed only to the ancient nation Israel, of no concern to us in our time? And the answer is an emphatic NO! These scintillating, dynamic prophecies were, most of them, NEVER given to ancient Israel.

Prophecies For NOW!

The plain truth is, these prophecies were written for OUR PEOPLE OF OUR TIME, and for NO previous people or time! They pertain to world conditions of TODAY, and could not have been understood until today!

One of the very pivotal Books of prophecy is the Book of Daniel. Actually, the prophet Daniel was not the author of the Book known by his name. The Living God was its Author! The message was transmitted to Daniel by God’s angel. Daniel put to writing, to be preserved until our time, what he heard.

At the very close of his Book, Daniel wrote: “And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, ‘O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?’ And he said, ‘Go thy way, Daniel; for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end… and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand’” (Daniel 12:8-10).

So the prophecies of Daniel were CLOSED, sealed, locked up, until now! But today we are living in “the time of the end.” Today the “wise” DO understand! But who are “the wise”? Only those who fear and obey God—and who have the Master KEY to unlock the locked-up prophecies! God says: “The fear of the ETERNAL is the beginning of wisdom: a good UNDERSTANDING have all they that do His Commandments!” (Psalm 111:10.) And even most professing “Christians” refuse utterly to do that! No wonder they can’t understand!

And don’t forget, the specific KEY that unlocks these closed doors of prophecy is the definite knowledge of the true identity of the American and British nations, as they are mentioned in these prophecies!

Stop a moment and THINK!

If the prophecies Daniel wrote could not be understood by him—if they were “closed up and sealed till the time of the end”—till this latter half of the Twentieth Century—as the angel said, and as Daniel wrote—then they were CLOSED to the ancient Israelites of that day — they contained no message for Daniel’s time!

THINK a little further!

These prophecies could not have been given to, or known by the ancient Kingdom of Israel! Daniel wrote in and after the time of the Chaldean King Nebuchadnezzar’s invasion and captivity of the Kingdom of Judah, 604 to 585 B.C. But the Kingdom of Israel had long before been invaded, conquered, and its people moved out of Palestine — transported as slaves to Assyria — 721 to 718 B.C. (II Kings 17:18, 23-24), 117 to 133 years before Daniel wrote! Years before the Book of Daniel was written, most of the Assyrians, with those Israelite slaves, had migrated from ancient Assyria northwest toward Europe! How far northwest — where they finally settled — was not then known! They had become known as “the Lost Ten Tribes.”

But today, we do know!

Today, as Daniel wrote (12:4), knowledge has, indeed, increased! The whereabouts of the “Lost Ten Tribes” is one of the ancient mysteries now cleared up! But in Daniel’s day they were lost from view — as if the earth had opened her mouth and swallowed them!

Not For Old Testament Israel

Daniel’s prophecy, then, was not a message to the Old Testament Kingdom of Israel!

Now THINK FURTHER!

Nor was this prophecy a message for the Old Testament Kingdom of Judah! When Daniel wrote, the Jews already were slaves in Babylon! Daniel was one of the brilliant young princes of Judah, specially chosen for service in the king’s palace in Babylon (Daniel 1:3-6). Daniel’s strenuous duties in the Gentile King’s service did not allow him to deliver this closed and sealed message to the scattered Jewish slaves! In this condition of slavery, the Jews had no system of religious meetings — no priesthood. There was no such thing as a printing press — no way to print and distribute literature. And besides, the prophecy was “closed up and sealed, till the time of the end” — our time, now! The Book of Daniel was not a message for the Jews of Old Testament times!
FINALLY REALIZE:

It is emphatically clear that these prophecies pertain to NO TIME but to our time, in this Twentieth Century!
Then know this, further!!

The greatest mystery Book of the entire Bible, to most, has been the Book of Revelation. But the Book of Daniel is the key to the Book of Revelation. And in the Book of Revelation, solely and alone, do we find the world events of all prophecies correlated in order of time sequence. The Book of Revelation, then, holds the key for putting together all of the prophecies in proper time order! And the Revelation, too, was a closed and sealed Book—UNTIL our time, now, with the realization that the Living Jesus is the Revelator—and that He has stripped off the seals, and opened this mystery Book to right understanding!

And where does that lead us?

To the fact that PROPHECY GENERALLY was written and preserved for our time today! And some 90 percent of all prophecy pertains actually to this latter half of the Twentieth Century!

And the one central MASTER KEY to prophecies as a whole is the identity of the United States and the British nations in these prophecies for today!

These prophecies could not pertain to any time previous to our precarious present!

It may not be generally realized—but neither Britain nor the United States became great world powers until the Nineteenth Century! Suddenly, in the very beginning of the Nineteenth Century these two—until then small, minor countries—suddenly spurted to national power and greatness among nations, as no nations had ever grown and multiplied in wealth, resources and power before!

By 1804 London had become the financial hub of the world. The United States had exploded out of its swaddling clothes of the 13 original states, and acquired the expansive Louisiana Purchase. It was fast sprouting up to become the mightiest nation of all time! But Britain burst forth to greatness first, and until the world wars had become the greatest EMPIRE, or COMMONWEALTH of nations in all history!
THE LOUISIANA PURCHASE — the biggest single gain in territory for the United States. It opened up the vast Mississippi basin and put it under American control. It also included some of the best farmland in the entire world. Not only that, but vast mineral resources were also put in American hands. Finally, the purchase made further expansion to the Pacific Coast possible.

Could We Be Ignored?

Between them the British and American peoples had acquired more than two thirds — almost three fourths — of all the cultivated physical resources and wealth of the world! All other nations, combined, possessed barely more than a fourth! Britannia Ruled the Waves — and the world’s commerce was carried on by water! The sun never set on British possessions! Now Think!

Could the British and American peoples be ignored in prophecies of world conditions that fill a third of the entire Bible—when some 90 percent of all those prophecies pertain to national and international world happenings of our time, now?

Staggering?
Indeed it is! And yet, precisely as prophesied, Britain's sun has now set! As these same prophecies that foretold Britain's greatness revealed far in advance, Britain is already reduced to a second-rate or third-rate power in the world!

And the United States? Today, America finds herself heir to just about all the problems and headaches of international conditions in this post-World War II chaotic, violent world! And the United States has won her last war—even little North Vietnam holds her at bay, and, with many other nations, saps America's national strength, "and he knoweth it not," as God long ago foretold!

On the world scene NOTHING is so important, right now, as to know where the white, English-speaking peoples are identified in scores and hundreds of prophecies—prophecies which describe vividly our sudden rise to national power and reveal the causes of that greatness—prophecies that paint a crystal-clear picture of our present international dilemma—prophecies that open our eyes wide to see what, now, lies immediately ahead for our nations—and what our ultimate and final status shall be!

It bears repeating!
Events of the next five years may prove this to be the most significant book of this century!
Expect breathtaking surprises!
Expect startling, amazing, eye-opening facts until now hidden from your eyes!

NATIONAL GREATNESS PROMISED

ISRAEL—Yet the Jews Never Received It—WHY?

The American and British peoples are involved as the central powers in soon-to-occur world-shaking events that will dwarf the first two world wars to insignificance!

World events are fast shaping toward this super-colossal eruption so great that nothing like it ever happened in all history—or ever will again! Yet world leaders do not grasp it directly and specifically, even yet!

To understand the prophecies laying bare these impending events, we need to realize first, the facts of history leading up to them—and the astonishing REASONS.

Astounding Facts Come to Light

Consider first, some amazing facts!

Prior to World War II, the American and British peoples had acquired more than two thirds of the cultivated resources and wealth of the world! Yet, astonishing wonder though it be, we acquired nearly all of it rather suddenly, since the year 1800!

Never in all history did anything like this occur! Never did any people or nation spread out and grow so suddenly and rapidly into such magnitude of national power.

Yet we are beholding, before our very eyes, the diminishing and evaporating of this national greatness, wealth and power. In the case of Great Britain, it is disintegrating even more rapidly than it developed! Britain has been, almost overnight, stripped of her colonies and her possessions—source of her wealth—reduced to a second-rate or third-rate power.

"Mandate"
WHY?
There is a reason! It is bound up with history, and divine promises pertaining to Israel. Promises never yet inherited by the Jewish people!

And now, unless the people and the Government of the United States will heed, and take immediate and drastic action, the American nation is slated to go down even more suddenly to utter ignominy and loss of all national wealth, greatness and power!

And for the same reason!
It behooves us, without delay, to quickly review that history, and open our eyes to divine promises and warnings almost wholly unrealized by our peoples!

It is all connected with the generally ignored plain and simple Bible story that leads to knowledge of our incredible ancestry and modern prophetic identity. And it is the most amazing, the most fascinating story you ever read. Stranger than fiction—yet it is true!

Why Do WE Have Israel’s Bible?

Millenniums ago, this same national greatness, wealth and power was promised by the Almighty to Abraham. Yet few have ever noticed this astonishing fact in Scripture.

We must realize, if we would understand, a peculiar fact. The Holy Bible is the particular Book of a definite nationality—the children of Israel.

It is undeniable! Its history, from Genesis to Revelation, is primarily the history of one nation or people—the Israelites. Other nations are mentioned only insofar as they come into contact with Israel.

All its prophecy, too, pertains primarily to this people of Israel, and to other nations only insofar as they come into contact with Israel.

The Bible tells of these Israelites and their God. It was inspired by the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, committed to writing through Israelites exclusively, and was preserved until after the New Testament was written by these Israelites.

In its sacred passages we read that all the promises and the covenants of God, all the sonship and the glory, belong solely to Israel (Romans 9:4).
Yet we must face the astounding fact that our white, English-speaking peoples — NOT the Jews — have inherited the national and physical phases of those PROMISES!

How could this have happened?

The Bible is an Israelitish Book, preeminently of and for the Israelitish nationality, inspired by their God through their prophets!

Is it not, indeed, strange that we English-speaking peoples are today the greatest believers in and exponents of this Book of the Hebrew people — that of all nations we are the chief worshippers of Israel's God and Israel's Messiah — in name and in form, if not in truth and in deed?

The more these facts are realized, the more apparent it becomes that a full knowledge of these Israelites is necessary to a right understanding of the Holy Bible, which is chiefly concerned with them as a people.

And that, further, the more important this knowledge becomes if we are to UNDERSTAND the present status in the world of the American and British peoples — and their relation to unprecedented world conditions of this fateful hour!

Let us remember, as we approach this fascinating story, that the Bible is concerned with the material, the fleshly, the literal, racial and NATIONAL, as well as with the spiritual. Let us not spiritualize away national things, nor nationalize spiritual things. Let us UNDERSTAND the sacred Word of God as it is!

Nation Began With One Man

Before the days of Moses, there was no nation on earth known as God's particular nation. Prior to Moses there was no written Word of God — no inspired Scriptures — no Holy Bible.

Think of it! For more than two thousand five hundred years — two-and-a-half millenniums — mankind existed without any written revelation from God!

The only historic record of God's dealing with mankind prior to Israel is the revealed history of the Bible.

And — even more astonishing — only the first eleven of the fifty chapters of Genesis are devoted to the entire history of the world prior to Abraham, father of the Israelites!

Surprising? Only the first eleven chapters of the very first book of the Bible are used to record for us the history of the first approximately 2,000 years — more than one third of its entire span!

God began this world with just one man — Adam. Whatever God does through human agencies must start the smallest, and, like the grain of mustard seed, grow big. To this first man God communicated directly and personally. God revealed all essential knowledge otherwise inaccessible to the human mind.

The basic essentials of all knowledge — what is man? — why is he here? — what’s the purpose of life? — what is the way of life that will produce peace, health, prosperity, happiness and joy? — what is man’s end — his destiny? — God revealed this basis of all knowledge to the first man.

To Adam, God revealed himself — the Eternal Creator-Ruler of earth and all the universe. God revealed to Adam that he was, unlike animals, made in the form and shape of God, with powers of mind possessed by no other physical creature; with the potential, through free choice, of developing the very character of God and of inheriting eternal life in the Kingdom of God. To Adam God revealed the way of life that would result in everything man desires — peace, enjoyable life, happiness, abundant well-being.

To produce these blessings — to be the cause of such desired effect, God had set in motion His inexorable spiritual law.

But Adam listened to Satan and leaned to his own human understanding. He disobeyed God, rejected the way to every desired result, and set out on the human course of greed and vanity.

Mankind Spurns God’s Way

As men began to multiply on earth, Adam’s sons followed in his Satan-inspired human-nature course.

Prior to Abraham, only three are mentioned as accepting God’s way of life — only three during more than a third of the whole span of the history of mankind up to now! Abel was called righteous; Enoch walked with God; and Noah was a preacher of righteousness, which is, simply, obedience to God's government (Psalm 119:172). Aside from these three and possibly Shem, there is no record that any man, prior to Abraham, yielded to the rule of the Eternal God.

By the time of Abraham men had lost all knowledge of the true Creator-Ruler and of His revelation of His purpose, and the way of God to peace and happiness, and to life eternal. Man pursued his own ways and devices, walking contrary to the spiritual laws of God. Sin and violence filled the earth.

God Started His Nation With One Man

It was in such a world, strayed far from God and knowledge of the glorious benefits of God's rule and the worship of the true God, that one man was honest and upright, submissive and teachable, strong and purposeful. So God gave him a test-command of obedience.

To this man, Abram, God commanded, "Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will show thee: and I will make of thee a great nation" (Gen. 12:1-2).

Here was a command, which was the condition, and a promise, provided the condition of obedience was met.

And so now, as God had started the whole world with one man, He started His own peculiar nation in the world from one single man — Abraham.

As the world, which has strayed far from God and the blessings of God's worship and rule, was started with one man who rebelled against God and rejected His rule, so God's own flesh-born nation, from which is to be born the Kingdom of God, was started with one man who obeyed God without question, and accepted His divine rule!

Did Abram stop to argue and reason? Did he say — "Let's reason this out a bit first; here I am in Babylon, in the very center of all this world's commerce, society and gayety. Why can't you just as well give me this promise right here, where everything is pleasant and alluring? Why must I leave all this and go over to that uncivilized land?"

Did Abram quibble, resist, argue, rebel?

By your life, he did not!

The inspired Scripture account states, simply, "So Abram departed."

There was no arguing with God. There was no human reasoning that God was all wrong. There were no fool questions: "Why must I leave here?" "Can't I do as I please?"

There was no stopping to say, "Well, here's the way I look at it."

"ABRAM DEPARTED." Just plain, unquestioned obedience!

And God established this man, whose name He later changed to Abraham, as the father of His nation, Israel! To Abraham, and his descendants, were all the promises of God made. And we must become like Abraham, and through Christ one of his children, if we are to inherit the promise of eternal life in God's kingdom!
Of His peculiar flesh-born nation, Israel, the Eternal said: “This people have I formed for myself; they shall show forth my praise” (Isa. 43:21).

That prophecy shall yet — and soon — be fulfilled!

Dual Promises to Abraham

Few have realized it, but a duality runs all the way through the plan of God in working out His PURPOSE here below!

There was the first Adam, material and carnal; and there is Christ the second Adam, spiritual and divine. There was the Old Covenant, purely material and temporal; and there is the New Covenant, spiritual and eternal. God made man mortal, physical, of the dust of the ground and of the human kingdom; but through Christ he may be begotten of God to become immortal, spiritual, and of the Kingdom of God.

And in like manner there were two phases to the promises God made to Abraham — the one purely material and national; the other spiritual and individual.

The spiritual promise of the Messiah, and of salvation through Him, is well known by the most superficial Bible student. They know that God gave the spiritual PROMISE to Abraham of CHRIST to be born as Abraham’s descendant — and that salvation comes to us through Christ. But—and this will sound unbelievable, yet it is true—almost no one knows what that salvation is—WHAT are the promises of salvation we may receive through Christ—or how we may receive them, or WHEN—incredible though that sounds! But that truth belongs in another book.

What is essential to the theme of this book is the fact that God made also another, entirely different, most amazing national and material promise to Abraham which has been almost entirely overlooked.

Notice, now, again, how God first called Abram, and the twofold nature of His promises:

"Now the Eternal said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will show thee: and I will make of thee A GREAT NATION... and in thee shall all the families of the earth be blessed" (Gen. 12:1-3).

Notice the twofold promises:

1) "I will make of thee A GREAT NATION"—the national, material, promise that his flesh-born children should become a great nation—a promise of RACE;

2) "...and in thee shall all the families of the earth be blessed"—the spiritual promise of GRACE. This same promise is repeated in Genesis 22:18: "in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed." This particular "one seed" refers to Christ as plainly affirmed in Galatians 3:8, 16.

Right here is where those who profess to be "Christians"—and their teachers—have fallen into error and scriptural blindness. They have failed to notice the twofold promises God made to Abraham. They recognize the messianic promise of spiritual salvation through the "one Seed"—Christ. They sing the hymn "Standing on the Promises"—falsely supposing the "Promises" to be "going to heaven" at death!

This is a pivotal point. This is the point where professing "Christians" and their teachers jump the track of truth. This is the point where they switch off the track that would lead them to the missing Master Key to the Prophecies. They miss the fact that God gave Abraham promises of physical RACE as well as spiritual GRACE.

But the plain fact that the "great nation" promise refers alone to race—not the "one seed," of Galatians 3:16, who was Jesus Christ the Son of Abraham and the Son of God, but to the plural, multiple seed of natural fleshly birth—is made certain by God's repetition of His promise in greater detail later.

Notice carefully! Understand these promises!

"And when Abram was ninety years old and nine, the Eternal appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God; walk before me, and be thou perfect, and I will make my covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly... thou shalt be a father of many nations. Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be Abraham; for a father of many nations have I made thee" (Gen. 17:1-5).

Notice, the promise is now conditional upon Abraham's obedience and perfect living. Notice, the "great nation" now becomes many nations—more than one nation. This cannot refer to the "one seed," Christ. The following verses prove that.

"And I will make thee exceeding fruitful, and I will make nations of thee, and kings [more than one] shall come out of thee" (verse 6). Notice, these nations and kings shall come out of Abraham—physical generation—multiple seed, not just one descendant through whom scattered individuals may become Abraham's children, by spiritual begettal through Christ. (Gal. 3:29.) The scattered, individual Christians do not form nations. The Church, it is true, is spoken of as "a royal priesthood, an holy nation" (I Peter 2:9), but Christ's Church is not divided into "many nations." This is speaking of race, not grace.

"And I will establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee in their generations..." (verse 7). The "seed" is plural—"in their generations."

"And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan [Palestine] for an everlasting possession: and I will be their God" (verse 8).

Notice, the land—material possession—is promised to the plural seed, of whom He is their, not his, God. The plural pronoun “their” is used again in the 9th verse — “and thy seed after thee in their generations.”

But now examine this promise carefully!

The future of great nations rests on the promises the Eternal Creator made to Abraham! The only hope of life after death for anyone — regardless of race, color or creed — is dependent on the spiritual phase of these promises to Abraham — the Promise of grace, through the “one Seed” — Christ the Messiah!

How Much Land? — What Size Nations?

These are not casual, incidental, unimportant promises. These are basic — the foundation for establishment of the greatest world powers — the basis for any personal salvation spiritually — for any hope of eternal life for humans!

These are stupendous promises! The future of mankind is based, by the Creator God, on them!

Jesus Christ came “to confirm the promises made unto the fathers” (Romans 15:8) — which fathers were Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

A carnal cynic, whose mind is hostile to God and His promises, purposes, and ways, tosses these tremendous promises aside, saying flippantly, “Oh yeah? — but what kind of ‘many nations’? Twentieth century style? Nations of 100 million or more people? Don’t be ridiculous! Those men who wrote the Bible knew nothing of nations that would be ‘great’ by our twentieth century standards! They referred only to little nations like they were then — nations containing no more people than a small township or county today!

“And then how much land did this promise include? Was God supposed to have promised an inheritance out of the land of Canaan, as mentioned in verse 8 of Genesis 17? And then in re-promising this land to Jacob, all the land that was included was ‘the land whereon thou liest’ in Genesis 28:13. How much land was that? Not more than a tiny plot two feet wide, and about six feet long!”

A cynical objector actually argued thus!

So let’s answer the sneering closed-minded cynic!

Let’s check carefully, and see precisely what was promised under this phase of the Promises pertaining to race— the physical, material, national promises. I leave the checking of the spiritual phase of the Promises to be explained in other books, booklets, or articles.

How much land was promised?

A Cynic Argues

But first hear out the refutation of the criticizing cynic. “That promise” continues the objector, “of ‘many nations’ was written in Hebrew, and the Hebrew word for ‘nation’ is ‘goi,’ and for more than one, plural, it is ‘goiim.’ It merely means some people—it could mean just a little handful of Abraham’s children and grandchildren.”

I mention this, because a self-professed “scholar” did one time make this very ridiculous statement, and professed to reject this entire important truth on these arguments, primarily.

If the reader cares to check up on this Hebrew “goi” he will find it means “nation,”—or, in the plural, “nations,” or “peoples,” without regard to size of population. This is the word most often used—actually hundreds of times in the Old Testament—for the various nations of the world, including the largest nations. In the prophecy of Joel 3, verse 2, God says He will gather “all nations.” That is speaking of a time yet future, in this 20th century—and the Hebrew “goiim” is used. There the word “goiim” includes such nations as Russia, Germany, Italy, China, India—pretty big nations.

But God promised Abraham’s literal, human flesh-and-blood descendants should become “a great nation” (Genesis 12:2); “will multiply thee exceedingly” (Genesis 17:2); “thou shalt be a father of many nations” (Genesis 17:4); “And I will make thee exceeding fruitful, and I will make nations of thee” (verse 6); and, as we proceed along with other Promises and prophecies, we shall see that Biblical language describes these as great and large nations.

And how much land?

In Genesis 17:8, God promised “all the land of Canaan”; but in other Scriptures, He promised much more.

In Genesis 15:18: “In the same day the Eternal made a covenant with Abram, saying, 'Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt [the Nile], unto the great river, the river Euphrates.' The Euphrates is a considerable distance to the east, in the ancient land of Babylon, which is today Iraq — considerably east of Palestine.

But all of this objector's arguments are refuted and made ridiculous by the very next verse from the one he quoted, saying all that was promised was a plot about 2 x 6 feet. He could have read this next verse: "And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad to the west and to the east, and to the north, and to the south" (Genesis 28:14).

Here the size of the "many nations" is compared to the number of grains of dust in the earth. Elsewhere God compared the populations of these promised nations to the grains of sand on a seashore, and to the stars — UNCOUNTABLE for multitude.

As we proceed, the magnitude, and the reality of these promises will become quite evident!

Not Fulfilled in Jews

Again, notice carefully — the Jews have never been more than one nation. They are not, and never have been, many nations.

So here is an amazing prophecy — a solemn promise from Almighty God, that could not be fulfilled in Christ, in Christians, nor in the Jews. We must look for a number of nations apart from either the Church or the Jews.

Amazing as it is, we must do it or deny God's promise!

God put Abraham to the test, and Abraham, through faith, OBEYED — even to being willing to sacrifice his only son, if need be. And after that the covenant no longer was conditional. Now it became UNCONDITIONAL.

"By myself I have sworn, saith the Eternal, for BECAUSE thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son, that in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies [or, as correctly translated in the Revised Standard Version, "And your descendants shall possess the gate of their enemies." The Fenton translation renders it: "and your race shall possess the gates of its enemies" — so far the material, national promises of race]; and in thy seed [Christ] shall all the nations of the earth be blessed [this promise is spiritual, of grace]; because thou hast obeyed my voice" (Genesis 22:16-18).

The promise now is unconditional. God has sworn to make it good. God does not promise these things if Abraham or his children do certain things. He promises them to Abraham because he already has performed his part of the agreement. If these promises could be broken or annulled, then no promise in the Bible is sure!

These promises cannot be broken or annulled. Not if it be true that "Heaven and earth shall pass, but my word shall not pass away." Now God must perform His part without fail.

Notice an additional detail of the promise — the nations who are Abraham's racial descendants are to possess the gates of their enemies. A gate is a narrow passage of entrance or exit. When speaking nationally, a "gate" would be such a pass as the Panama Canal, the Suez Canal, the Strait of Gibraltar. This promise is repeated in Genesis 24:60 to Abraham's daughter-in-law: "Be thou the mother of thousands of millions and let thy seed possess the gate of those that hate them."

Notice, Abraham's descendants would possess vital geographic passageways of their enemies — those that hate them. This has never been fulfilled in the Jews; nor could it be fulfilled after Jesus Christ returns to rule the nations and establish world peace. This promise could only be fulfilled in the present world or else we must deny the Bible as God's revealed Word. We must look for a people forming more than one nation — yet all one people, children of Abraham — either now or in history who possess the sea gateways of the world, or we must deny the Word of God. It is a test of the inspiration of the Bible and of God's power to rule this world!

These two gates control both ends of the long sea passage from the western end of the Mediterranean, through the Suez Canal to the eastern end of the Red Sea. Both gates are in the hands of Britain.

A Nation and a Company of Nations

These tremendous promises were re-promised to Isaac and to Jacob. Ishmael, and Abraham's other sons were rejected from this Birthright. Esau, Isaac's son and Jacob's twin brother, sold it and was rejected. The promise, as confirmed to Isaac, is recorded in Genesis 26:1-5: "... I will be with thee, and will bless thee; for unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath which I sware unto Abraham thy father; and I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven; and I will give unto thy seed all these countries..." Notice! Twice God promised "all these countries." That is millions of times larger than the 2 x 6 feet plot our "intellectual" cynic contended for. Also, Isaac's descendants were to "multiply as the stars of heaven." That's thousands of times larger than a tiny "township."

To Jacob it is repeated in Genesis 27:26-29, where material blessing of wealth in the things of the ground is added, with the prophecy that heathen nations shall be ruled by the Birthright nations of Israel. "Therefore God give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness [margin: fat places] of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine: Let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee: cursed be every one that curseth thee, and blessed be every one that blesseth thee."

To Spread Worldwide

And again in Genesis 28:13-14, where the added detail that these nations of Israel shall eventually spread around the world is recorded. "And behold the Eternal... said, 'I am the Eternal God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed; And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south. . . ."

The original Hebrew for "spread abroad" means "to break forth." This promise places no limit on how far east, west, north and south Jacob's descendants should spread. Thus it indicates they would spread around the earth. This is confirmed in Romans 4:13: "For the promise, that he [Abraham] should be the heir of the world . . . ."

But this is not a promise that they shall inherit, own, and possess the whole of the earth, leaving nothing for Gentiles — that is, prior to the new earth; but rather that, in years and centuries to come, they would spread and occupy certain areas in various parts of the earth. Yet, in the new earth — after the millennium — Romans 4:13 shows the earth will be inhabited only by those who shall be Abraham's children through Christ.

There is a phase of this prophecy heretofore utterly overlooked — not before understood. Indeed these Birthright Israelitish nations have spread to, and occupied various lands or areas in many locations, around the world! This occurred after they were — 721-718 B.C. — driven in a captivity out of their own promised land of Samaria, in Palestine. The next verses complete this phase of the prophecy! "And behold," God continued, "I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest [God is here referring, not to Jacob personally, but his descendants who were to spread abroad in all directions] and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of" (Genesis 28:15).

This generally unnoticed, but significant prophecy will be fulfilled at the second coming of Christ. It is explained further in Jeremiah 23:7-8, and 50:4-6, 19-20, and other prophecies.
Re-promised to Jacob

Still later, God appeared to Jacob, whose name was changed to Israel, still further defining the makeup of these “many nations” thus: “And God said unto him, I am God Almighty: be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations shall be of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins” (Genesis 35:9-12). The Moffatt translation renders it “a nation, and a group of nations.” The Fenton rendering is “a nation and an Assembly of Nations.” The RSV translates it as in the Authorized Version, above quoted.

So the “many nations” are eventually to take shape as a nation — one great, wealthy, powerful nation; and another company of nations — a group, or commonwealth of nations.

Mark carefully this crucial fact! This is basic, if you are to grasp the all-important key to all Prophecy — the very key to the real meaning of the unprecedented world events of our living present!

This promise never has been fulfilled in the Jews. It cannot be “spiritualized” away by interpreting it as being inherited only through Christ. It could not pertain to the Church, for there is but one true Church acknowledged in the Bible, and it is not a nation, or a group of nations, but one Church of called-out individuals scattered through all nations. Yet this amazing promise must stand fulfilled, unless we are to deny the Bible and God’s sacred Word!

Here is the enigma of the ages! Is this a divine promise unkept? Thomas Paine and Robert Ingersoll lost faith in God and rejected the Bible because they believed these tremendous national promises were never fulfilled.

The very fate of the Bible as the revealed Word of God — the evidence of the existence of God — hangs on the answer to this momentous question. The Jewish people did not fulfill these promises. They do not refer to the Church. The world with its great church leaders does not know of any such fulfillment. Did God fail? Or has He made good this colossal promise unknown to the world?

The true answer is the most astonishing revelation of Bible truth, of prophecy, and of unrecognized history!

Chapter IV

THE SEPARATION OF THE BIRTHRIGHT AND THE SCEPTRE

Now we come to a most vital distinction, and a bit of Bible truth known to but a very few.

Very few, indeed, have ever noticed that the promises to Abraham were twofold. But the Bible itself makes sharp distinction between these two phases of the promises.

The spiritual promises — the promise of the “one seed,” Christ, and of salvation through Him — the Bible calls “the Sceptre.” But the material and national promises relating to many nations, national wealth, prosperity and power, and possession of the Holy Land, the Bible calls the “Birthright.”

Race, Not Grace

Let us understand the meaning of the terms:

“Birthright: native right or privilege” — Standard Dictionary. “Any right acquired by birth” — Webster’s. A birthright is something which is one’s right, by birth. It has nothing to do with grace, which is unmerited pardon, and free gift which is not one’s right. It has to do with RACE, not grace. Birthright possessions are customarily passed down from father to eldest son.

“Sceptre: kingly office; royal power; badge of command or sovereignty” — Standard Dictionary. The promised kingly line culminates in Christ, and involves grace to all.

We have seen how both sets of promises, right of birth, and gift of grace, were unconditionally made by God to Abraham. Both the Birthright and the Sceptre were re-promised by the Eternal to Isaac and to Jacob.

But the fact that should open your eyes, as a joyous truth newly discovered, is that from that point these two sets of promises became separated! The Sceptre promises of the kingly line culminating in Christ, and of grace through Him, were handed on to Judah, son of Jacob and father of all Jews.

But the astonishing truth is that the Birthright promises were never given to the Jews!

Let that be repeated!

REALIZE THIS! The Birthright Promises were never given to the Jews! What follows in this book will make that surprising fact plain indeed!

Birthright and Sceptre Separated

Read this! Turn to these passages — read them in your own Bible!

"The Sceptre shall not depart from Judah..." (Gen. 49:10).

"But the Birthright is Joseph's" (I Chron. 5:2).

Of course it is well understood that the Sceptre went to Judah, and was handed down through the Jews. King David was of the tribe of Judah. All succeeding kings of David's dynasty were of the House of David, tribe of Judah. Jesus Christ was born of the House of David, and the tribe of Judah.

Another eye-opening truth, completely unrealized by most people today, is the fact that only a part of the "children of Israel" were Jews.

Read that little understood fact again!

The full explanation and proof of this must be reserved for Chapter VI. Only those of the three tribes of Judah, Benjamin and Levi were Jews. While all Jews are Israelites, most Israelites are not Jews!

So UNDERSTAND! The Birthright Promise did not pass on to the Jews! But the Sceptre — the promise of Christ and of grace was passed on to the Jews!

"Salvation," Jesus said, "is of the Jews"! (John 4:22.) "The Gospel of Christ," wrote Paul, "is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth; to the Jews first, and also to the Greek" (Rom. 1:16). The promises of grace were handed down through Judah!
But the promises which the Bible terms "the Birthright" have not been understood at all. Few have understood the nature of the Birthright promises. Few have ever noticed that God made any promises to Abraham other than the Sceptre. Few know what's in the Bible!

Perhaps the reader will begin to realize that the Bible is the most misunderstood, misrepresented Book in all the world. Few, indeed, have really understood it.

Birthright Never Given to the Jews!

Fewer still have understood that these great national material promises were never given to the Jews!

The astonishing and vital fact the many have overlooked is "the Birthright is JOSEPH's." And, as we shall see later, neither Joseph nor his descendants were Jews! Astounding as it may be, it's TRUE!

This knowledge about the BIRTHRIGHT is the pivot of this entire truth which will prove THE KEY to the understanding of all PROPHECY! It's of supreme importance that you get this clearly in mind!

"Birthright," as defined above, includes only that which comes by RIGHT of birth. No one can receive eternal life as a right, from natural birth. If it were our right, inherited by birth, it would not be by GRACE! Salvation comes by GRACE — God's GIFT, by undeserved pardon — unmerited FAVOR. We can receive only material possessions as a right by birth. And when that right is passed down through generations to ever-multiplying descendants, it finally devolves into a NATIONAL inheritance. It confers only material possessions, power, or position. It does not bestow spiritual blessings. It is a matter of RACE, not grace!

There is another distinction between a birthright and grace we ought to understand. A birthright, as before stated, is normally passed on from father to eldest son. There are no conditions which the recipient is required to meet. The son does nothing to qualify for it. He receives it as his right for no other reason than that he happened to be born as his father's son. He has a right to it without earning it or qualifying to be worthy of it. He could, however, disqualify himself to keep, or even to receive it.
But the gift of immortality received by grace does have qualifying conditions! It is not your right, nor mine, to receive the gift of eternal life—to be actually born as God's Son—actually a member of the God Family!! Think what conditions would result if it were! A rebellious, defiant, hostile, God-hating criminal or atheist could shake his fist at God and say: "Look, God! I hate you. I defy you! I refuse to obey you! But I demand your gift of eternal life! It's my right! I want to be born into your divine family—to receive all the vast power of a Son of God, so I can use that power to oppose you! I want to make your family a house divided against itself. I will cause friction, hostility, hatred, unhappiness among all your children! I demand that power, as your gift, as my right, so that I may abuse that power—use it for evil!"

Grace Requires Conditions

Now think! Most professing "Christians"—and much teaching of what is called "traditional Christianity"—say there are no conditions—nothing that we must do to receive God's glorious grace! They deny that God requires obedience to His Law! They twist the truth around by saying that would be earning one's salvation! They do demand it of God, while they still rebel against His Government, refuse to let Him rule your life His way!

Think where that would lead! Understand this! Eternal life is, indeed, God's free gift. You can't earn it! But it is not your right! You cannot demand it of God as your right, while you defy God, rebel against His Government, refuse to let Him rule your life His way!

Therefore God has imposed conditions! Those conditions do not earn you a thing! But God gives His Holy Spirit to those that obey Him (Acts 5:32). He does not pay it—but the passage speaks of the Holy Spirit which "God hath GIVEN to them that obey Him." It still is a free gift!

A rich man might have seven men standing before him, and say: "I will give, as my free gift, $1,000 to any or all of you who will step forward to receive it." Their stepping forward does not earn it. It is merely the condition required to receive the free gift.

The word "grace" means unmerited, undeserved pardon!
God pardons those who repent! And "repent" means to turn from rebellion, hostility, disobedience. Repent means turn to obedience to God's Law. The fact that God chooses not to give this wonderful gift—this gift of immortality, which carries with it divine power—to those who would misuse it for harm and evil; the fact that He chooses to give it only to those who will rightly use it—does not mean it comes by works instead of grace. If there were no conditions, then everyone could demand it—and it would be received as a right by birth, instead of by grace! The very fact of grace makes necessary God's required qualifications. But it still is an undeserved gift! Obedience does not earn anything—that is only what we owe to God.

What the Birthright Conferred

Just what special material inheritance was passed on by the Birthright few have understood.

Yet it conferred the richest, most valuable material inheritance ever passed from father to son—the most colossal wealth and power ever amassed by man or Empire! The magnitude of this Birthright is staggering! Yet the churches, the religious leaders, the scholars and higher critics of the Bible, seem never to have read it.

It includes all the first phase of God's tremendous promises to Abraham. This legacy guaranteed on the authority of God Almighty, unconditionally, multitudinous population, untold wealth and material resources, national greatness and world power!

Not only had God promised a world-dominant nation and a company, or commonwealth of nations whose populations descended from Abraham would be as populous as the grains of sand of the seashore—as the stars for multitude; not only did He promise they should possess the gate (Fenton translation: gates) of enemy nations, which alone signifies world dominance and power; but the Birthright finally included vast material wealth and unlimited national resources. That was made plain in the blessing given to Jacob, as we shall soon see.
The Birthright Denied to Ishmael

Unless by divine interference, which occurred three times, the inheritance of the Birthright fell automatically to the eldest son in each generation.

Isaac was chosen by the Eternal to inherit both the Sceptre and the Birthright. Abraham had other sons. Ishmael was the eldest. But God chose Isaac, and “Abraham gave all that he had unto Isaac” (Gen. 25:5). Isaac, however, was Abraham’s firstborn lawful son. Ishmael was the son of Hagar, Sarah’s Egyptian handmaid.

Abraham loved Ishmael, his eldest son, and desired for him to have the Birthright.

“And Abraham said unto God, ‘O that Ishmael might live before thee’” (Gen. 17:18). Sarah his wife was barren.

“And God said, ‘Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Isaac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him. And as for Ishmael, I . . . will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly . . . and I will make him a great nation. But my covenant will I establish with Isaac . . .’” (Gen. 17:19-21).

Regarding the future nation to spring from Ishmael, the angel of the Eternal had said to Hagar, “he will be a wild man; his hand will be against every man, and every man’s hand against him; and he shall dwell ‘to the east’ [correct translation] of all his brethren” (Gen. 16:12).

Two clues are given here: 1) Ishmael’s descendants were to become a great nation but the Birthright nations were to be greater; and 2) they were to dwell to the east of their brethren—that is, of Isaac’s descendants who had the Birthright. The children of Ishmael have become the Arabs of today. The nation and company of nations who hold the Birthright must, therefore, be larger, wealthier, more powerful, and must be found geographically west of the Arab nations.

Abraham was the human type of God the Father, and Isaac of Christ. There are many parallels. Space prohibits expounding them here, except to note that if we are Christ’s we are Abraham’s children (Gal. 3:29), and Abraham is the “father” of the faithful (Gal. 3:7); that Abraham was called on to be willing to sacrifice his only [legitimate] son (Gen. 22:2) even as God gave His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ, for the sins of the world; that Isaac’s wife Rebekah is a type of the Church, and she had to fall in love with him and accept him as her husband before she saw him with her eyes; and the fact Isaac was born by promise, and by a miracle from God, even as Jesus was miraculously born of the virgin Mary.

Isaac had twin sons, Esau and Jacob. Esau was the first-born, and therefore the legal inheritor of the Birthright. But Esau undervalued it and sold it to Jacob.

Esau Sells the Birthright

God had chosen Jacob to possess these promises before the twins were born. But Jacob, influenced by his mother, instead of waiting on The Eternal, resorted to deception and took it from Esau.

The Eternal had said to Rebekah, regarding Esau and Jacob, that they were the beginning of two nations—“two manner of people.”

“The one people shall be stronger than the other people:” said God, “and the elder shall serve the younger” (Gen. 25:23).

Their descendants, then, were to become two different manner of people. Esau was hairy and red, but Jacob was white (verse 25). The story of Jacob’s premature and deceptive acquisition of the Birthright continues, in Genesis 25:26-34:

“And the boys grew: and Esau was a cunning hunter, a man of the field; and Jacob was a plain man, dwelling in tents. And Isaac loved Esau, because he did eat of his venison: but Rebekah loved Jacob.

“And Jacob sod pottage [boiled porridge — Fenton’s translation]; and Esau came from the field, and he was faint: and Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, with that same red pottage; for I am faint: therefore was his name called Edom.”

“Edom” means, literally, “Red Soup,” and is so translated in the Fenton version. It will prove another “key” to Bible understanding for the reader to carefully fasten in his memory the fact that “Edom” refers to Esau. Many prophecies pertaining to the present and future employ the name Edom. They cannot be understood unless it is realized that they refer to the descendants of Esau, primarily the Turkish nation today.
“And Jacob said, Sell me this day thy birthright. And Esau said, Behold I am at the point to die: and what profit shall this birthright do to me? And Jacob said, Swear to me this day; and he sware unto him: and he sold his birthright unto Jacob. Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentils; and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way: thus Esau despised his birthright” (Gen. 25:27-34).

Later, Jacob subtly took from Esau his blessing. The story of this deception is found in the 27th chapter of Genesis.

Jacob’s Deception

It was at a time when Isaac was old, his eyesight dimmed with age. Nearing the end of his life, he called Esau and requested that he go to the field and hunt for venison, prepare it and bring it to him. He would then bestow the blessing confirming the Birthright.

But Rebekah overheard, and sent Jacob quickly for two kids of the goats. These she prepared in the same tempting way that Isaac loved his venison. Then she took some of Esau’s clothes and put them on Jacob. Now Esau was very hairy, while Jacob was smooth, so Rebekah carefully placed the skins of the two kids upon Jacob’s hands, arms, and smooth part of his neck.

And so in this disguise, with his imitation venison, Jacob went in to receive his father’s blessing.

“And Jacob said unto his father, I am Esau thy firstborn” (Gen. 27:19).

Isaac was surprised he had found the venison so quickly, and became suspicious. Jacob lied again, asserting the Eternal had brought the venison to him. Isaac detected the voice was that of Jacob.

“And Isaac said unto Jacob, Come near, I pray thee, that I may feel thee, my son, whether thou be my very son Esau or not. And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jacob’s voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau. And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau’s hands, so he blessed him” (Gen. 27:21-23).
What the Birthright Included

And now notice carefully what that blessing included! This was quoted once before, in the preceding chapter of this book. "And his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son. And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the Eternal hath blessed: Therefore God give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine [Fenton’s translation: increase and possession]. Let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother’s sons bow down to thee: cursed be everyone that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee” (verses 26-29).

Note it! Materialistic promises, national in nature, every one! Not one of them pertaining to salvation. None having to do with the life after death. Nothing spiritual here! All pertaining purely to this present fleshly life!

Note it! National prosperity — rainfall, plenty of corn
The Dardanelles, Sea of Marmara, Bosporus that bisect Europe and the Middle East area. This key area, located in western Turkey, keeps Soviet aspirations in the Mediterranean Sea in check. The Turkish people, descendants of Esau, have been given this one gate. However, it too, has generally been under British control from Crete and Cyprus — and internally through political and military means.

and wine, the fatness of the earth, or, as the margin reads, the fat places of the earth — increase and possession. “NATIONS shall bow down to thee!” “Let people serve thee.”

When Esau returned and found how Jacob had supplanted him, he was very bitter. He pleaded for a blessing, too. But Isaac could not retract the blessing given to Jacob. So he passed on to Esau the following prophecy:

“Behold, thy dwelling shall be [correct translation: away from] the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above; and by thy sword shalt thou live, and shalt serve thy brother; and it shall come to pass when thou shalt have dominion, that thou shalt break his yoke from off thy neck” (Gen. 27:39-40).

“And Esau hated Jacob” (verse 41).

In verse 39, quoted above, the Hebrew preposition “min” should be translated “from” or “away from,” not “of.” Actually, the prophesied lot of Esau was more of a curse than a blessing. The Revised Standard Version translates it, “Behold, away from the fatness of the earth shall your dwelling be, and away from the dew of heaven on high.” Moffatt renders it, “Far from rich soil on earth shall you live, far from the dew of heaven on high.” Actually, the Hebrew words convey the dual meaning, and both have happened to Esau’s descendants.

Prophecy for Turkey

The sparse records of history, with other proofs, show that many of the descendants of Esau became known as Turks. Therefore we must remember that all prophecies pertaining to the latter days, referring to Edom, or Esau, refer generally to the Turkish nation.

In Isaac’s dying prophecy, he foretold that Esau’s descendants would come to a time when they should have dominion, and then break the yoke of the Israelites from off their necks. That has happened. The children of Israel, through sin, were driven out of the promised land that belonged with the Birthright. The Turks came to power and dominion, and for many centuries possessed that land.

Those descendants, the Turkish people, occupied Palestine 400 years before Britain took it in 1917. Esau’s descendants always have lusted for that land, central promise of the Birthright! The Turks have truly lived by the sword!

The Lesson for Us

But to return to our story. Before Jacob was born, God had spoken to his mother and revealed to her that Jacob should receive the Birthright. Instead, however, of waiting on the Eternal to bring this about in His own way, she schemed with Jacob to take it by lying and deception. There is a lesson here for us today.

As Isaac is, in a sense, a type of Christ, so Rebekah is, in a sense, of the Church, in which still dwells weakness and carnality.

Sometimes we become too much in a hurry. We ask the Almighty for things He has promised in His Word. Then we try to dictate to Him just how, and when it shall be accomplished! We need to learn to “wait upon the Lord.” He always does things in His way, and in His own time. And He distinctly tells us that His ways are not our ways! Once we commit a thing to the Almighty, let us have not only the trust, but the respect for the One so great, that we will leave the matter in His hands.

Had Jacob trusted the Eternal, instead of taking this into his own hands in a wrong way, the Birthright would have come to him more honorably. Under the circumstances, Jacob, which name means “supplanter,” had far more difficulty securing God’s blessing upon the precious possession than his predecessors.

But after years of trial and test — after finally wrestling all night through with the angel (Genesis 32:24-29) — after confessing his name as “Supplanter” — God bestowed His blessing upon Jacob, took away his reproachful name, and gave him a new, untainted name, “ISRAEL” — which means “prevailer,” or “overcomer with God.”

And thus we see that through Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the promises were handed down to one man at a time. There was no branching out, toward national growth, until the days of Jacob. For three generations it had been a “one-man nation.” But Jacob had twelve sons, and through them the future great nation and company of nations was started on its way.

Reuben Lost the Birthright

The next legal inheritor of the Birthright was Reuben, firstborn son of Israel, by his first wife, Leah. But Reuben, like Esau, lost it. And Joseph, eleventh-born of Jacob, but firstborn of Rachel, his second and truly loved wife, received it.

The Birthright belonged, legally, to Reuben, not Joseph. It is related in I Chronicles 5:1-2 how it fell to Joseph:

“Now the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel, (for he was the firstborn; but, forasmuch as he defiled his father’s bed, his Birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the Birthright [or, RSV, “so that he (Reuben) is not enrolled in the genealogy according to the birthright”]. For Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the chief ruler; but the Birthright was Joseph’s).

So at this point the two divisions of the Abrahamic promises — the Birthright, involving material and national promises, and the Sceptre, including the kingly and spiritual promises — were separated.

It is of first importance to keep in mind that the Birthright, including the promised land now called Palestine — the assurance of multitudinous population, material and national prosperity, dominance over other nations, was now given to Joseph and his sons.

Mark that well! This Birthright was not to be inherited by all the tribes of Israel! It was not given to the Jews! Only a part of the Israelites — the descendants of Joseph — was to inherit these tremendous national promises!

These material promises for this life, then, belonged to an altogether different tribe among the Children of Israel than the Sceptre promise of the kingly line culminating in Jesus Christ, which spiritual promise belonged in the Tribe of Judah!

These national promises of the Multitudinous Seed, then, became the possession of an altogether different tribe than the promise of the One Seed, Christ, who sprang from Judah! This fact of the two sets of promises, stressed in the preceding chapter, ought to be plain and clear to every reader by now.

Fix it permanently in mind. It is one of the vital keys to Bible understanding!

At the time of Jacob’s death, he and his sons were living in Egypt. We assume, of course, that you are familiar with the story of how Joseph was sold by his brothers into Egypt — of how he there became food administrator and prime minister, next under the king and in actual rule of the nation — of the seven years’ plenty, followed by seven years’ famine in which food had been stored only in Egypt under Joseph’s supervision — of the visit of Joseph’s brothers to Egypt in quest of food, and how Joseph induced them to bring their father and brother Benjamin down to Egypt, and finally, of the dramatic revelation of Joseph’s identity to his brethren, amid weeping and rejoicing.
And how prophetic that was! As we shall see, Joseph, in his descendants, shall soon once again have his true identity revealed to his brothers—and to the world. And how hidden from the world is that identity now!

Birthright to Joseph’s Sons

And now the time came to pass on the Birthright to another generation. Let us look in on the dramatic scene.

It occurred in Egypt, after Joseph had succeeded in having his father brought there, as well as all his brothers. Joseph, remember, was Prime Minister of the nation.

It was reported to Joseph that Jacob, his father, was ill. He took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim, sons of an Egyptian mother, and hastened to the dying patriarch’s bedside.

“And Israel strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed. And Jacob said unto Joseph, God Almighty appeared unto me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me, and said unto me, Behold I will make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee a multitude of people; and will give this land to thy seed after thee for an everlasting possession” (Gen. 48:2-4).

Notice carefully these promises!

The Birthright is about to be passed on to another generation. Notice that nothing whatsoever is said about all the families of the earth being blessed in his seed—the One Seed. Nothing is said about kings. Nothing is said about spiritual blessings whatever. THESE promises are those of the Birthright. THESE promises are of multiple seed—a multitude of people—and possession of the promised land. Now let us continue.

“And now thy two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, which were born unto thee in the land of Egypt before I came unto thee into Egypt, are mine; as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine” (verse 5).

Thus did Jacob adopt Joseph’s two sons, making them, legally, his own sons. THIS, no doubt, was done because they were half-blood Egyptians. Israel made them his own adopted sons, so the Birthright could be passed on to them. Notice, too, that in the first verse of this 48th chapter of Genesis,
BLESSING: GOLDEN WHEAT — MILLIONS OF ACRES

Manasseh’s name is mentioned first, because Manasseh was the elder. But old Jacob now mentioned the name of Ephraim first. Here we see supernatural guidance!

Jacob said to Joseph, “Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and I will bless them. Now the eyes of Israel were dim for age, so that he could not see” (verses 9-10).

The Birthright, remember, belongs legally to the firstborn, unless altered by divine interference. The inheritor of the Birthright, in receiving the blessing conferring it, should have Jacob’s RIGHT hand resting upon his head.

Name ISRAEL Given Joseph’s Sons

But once again the Eternal interfered in conferring this momentous Birthright!

Jacob, though blind so he could not see the lads before him, CROSSED HIS HANDS, “and Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim’s head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh’s head, guiding his hands wittingly, for Manasseh was the firstborn. And he blessed Joseph, and said, God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which fed me all my life unto this day, the Angel which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth” (verses 14-16).

Let who grow into this promised MULTITUDE?

Let whose descendants become that numerous seed, which shall number into billions?

Not Judah the father of the Jews — note it! — but EPHRAIM AND MANASSEH! Why have the eyes and understanding of church leaders and Bible students been blinded to this plain fact of Scripture?

Notice, Israel did not confer this blessing on just one, but on BOTH — “Bless the lads,” he said. This blessing went upon them jointly.
“Let my name be named on them,” was part of this blessing.

His name was Israel. Hence, it was the descendants of these lads, not the descendants of Judah, or the Jews, who were named Israel.

How clear it is, that the name “Israel” was to be indelibly stamped on Ephraim and Manasseh!

A shocking fact—and yet plainly proved, right before your eyes! And remember, this scripture needs no “interpretation” or “special meaning” or “hidden symbolism” for you to understand! Here is the plain, simple statement that Jacob’s name, which was changed to Israel, would become the very possession, and property—the label on the peoples of Ephraim and Manasseh!

Who, then, according to your Bible is the real Israel (racially and nationally) of today?

Ephraim and Manasseh!

Note it. Remember it!

Ephraim and Manasseh together received the right to the name “Israel.” It was to become the national name of their descendants. And their descendants were never Jews! Fix this fact firmly in your mind!

And thus it is, that many of the prophecies about “Israel” or “Jacob” do not refer to Jews or to any of the nations that are today the descendants of the other tribes of Israel!

Mark that well! Few, indeed, are the clergymen, theologians, or professed Bible scholars who know that today. Many refuse to know it!

Together the descendants of these two lads, Ephraim and Manasseh, were to grow into the promised multitude—the nation and company of nations. These national blessings are poured upon them jointly. These are the collective blessings which the lads together received. But not the other tribes!

Jacob Crosses Hands

But at this juncture, Joseph noticed that Jacob’s right hand was not resting upon the head of the firstborn. He endeavored to remove it.
BLESSING: FINE HERDS OF CATTLE

“Not so, my father,” said Joseph, “for this is the firstborn; put thy right hand upon his head. And his father refused and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he [Manasseh] also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude [or, company] of nations. And he blessed them that day, saying, In thee shall Israel bless, saying, God make thee as Ephraim and as Manasseh: and he set Ephraim before Manasseh” (Gen. 48:18-20).

Thus, the promises are no longer collective, possessed jointly. Jacob here was prophesying as to the blessings of each, individually.

As we have seen from the preceding chapter, the numerous seed was to become “a nation, and a company of nations.” Now we see that the “nation” to become truly great is to spring from the seed of Manasseh the son of Joseph. The “company of nations” is to grow out of Ephraim.

Together the descendants of these boys were to grow into a great multitude. Notice that, before dividing the promises, this dying prophetic blessing indicated plainly that the descendants of these lads should remain TOGETHER, and together grow into a great multitude, then becoming separated, Manasseh becoming a GREAT NATION, and Ephraim a still greater COMPANY OF NATIONS.

Here, then, is still another detail of the future national characteristics of these people. We must not look for the fulfillment among the sons of Judah. Nor among descendants of any other of the twelve tribes.

The promise of a future GREAT NATION, and a COMPANY OF NATIONS, together great for multitude, rich in national material prosperity, possessing the “gates” of the earth’s other nations, applies solely to these lads and the two tribes which sprang from them.

We might add here, too, that the tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh NEVER became such in ANY sense in the times of Bible history. Some might suppose the house of Judah was the nation, and the Ten Tribes the Company of nations. But NONE of these promises went to Judah. Nor were they to be fulfilled in any of the other tribes, save Joseph’s double-portion, the two tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh!
It was Ephraim who was to become the “Company, or multitude, of nations,” and Manasseh who was to become the great single nation. And these promises never were fulfilled in them, in times of Bible history.

If these promises ever have been fulfilled, we must look for their fulfillment between the close of Bible history and the present!

Prophecy for TODAY!

While still in the spirit of prophecy, Jacob called his twelve sons together to tell them what their posterity should become “IN THE LAST DAYS.”

Here are prophesies which should assist us in identifying the tribes of Israel TODAY — for surely these are the LAST DAYS! We shall here take space to consider only the destiny of Judah and of Joseph. Joseph’s descendants were actually divided into two tribes, Ephraim and Manasseh, and usually are called by those tribal names instead of the name “Joseph.” The fact that these tribes are here spoken of as “Joseph” plainly indicates that the prophecy applies jointly to Ephraim and Manasseh.

“And Jacob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you IN THE LAST DAYS . . .

“Judah, thou art he whom thy brethren shall praise: thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies; thy father’s children shall bow down before thee. Judah is a lion’s whelp: from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: he stooped down, he couchèd as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up? The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver [margin, ruler’s staff] from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto Him shall the gathering of the people be . . .” (Gen. 49:1, 8-10). The Hebrew word here translated “Shiloh” means the Messiah, as the Prince of Peace, or as the one “Seed” of Abraham. See Young’s Analytical Concordance to the Holy Bible.

Promised Joseph

Regarding Joseph, the combined Ephraim-Manasseh tribes, at this present day, Israel prophesied: “Joseph is a fruitful bough.” Here is pictured the Birthright promise of multitudes in fulfillment. "Even a fruitful bough by a well; whose branches [margin, daughters] run over the wall" (verse 22).

In other words, in the last days we are to find the children of Joseph a numerous people, a great nation and a company of nations, whose daughters, or children, shall "run over the wall" — that is, run over, or past, the nation's boundary.

In other words, be a COLONIZING PEOPLE!

Further, in the prophecy for Joseph in these "last days": "... the Almighty ... shall bless thee with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lieth under, blessings of the breasts, and of the womb: the blessings of thy father have prevailed above the blessings of my progenitors unto the utmost bound of the everlasting hills: they shall be on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of him that was separate from [margin: is prince among] his brethren” (Genesis 49:25-26).

We shall see that these descendants of Joseph, possessing these Birthright promises — to become numerous, to colonize, thus spreading to the “north and the south, and east and the west,” until they encircle the globe, to possess the “gates” of enemy nations — never returned to Jerusalem from Assyria, where they were driven with the Ten Tribes after 721 B.C., and were never again mixed with the Jews from that time!

Here are promises and prophecies which never have been fulfilled by the Jews, by the Church, by the American Indian, or other fanciful counterparts of modern Israel. But they are fulfilled today, if the Word of God is to stand!

Chapter V

THE DAVIDIC COVENANT

After the death of Jacob and his twelve sons in Egypt, their children grew in about two and a quarter centuries to a population probably between two and three million in that land.

But Israel’s children became slaves: “And Joseph died, and all his brethren, and all that generation.

“And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them. Now there arose up a new king over Egypt, which knew not Joseph . . . And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigour: and they made their lives bitter with hard bondage . . .” (Exodus 1:6-14).

Then God raised up Moses, fitted him in a special way to lead these children of Israel out of the bondage that had come to them in Egypt.

When they reached Mt. Sinai, in the peninsula wilderness, God made a covenant with them establishing them as a nation — His nation — among the kingdoms of the world. Their government was theocratic, with the civil, as well as the spiritual and religious laws, given direct from God. God Himself was their king and He ruled them by a system of Judges.

Israel’s First King Was GOD!

God was Israel’s only King! Israel was both Church and state.

In Acts 7:38, in the New Testament, we are told that the Israelites formed the Church in the wilderness. The name “Congregation” of Israel used throughout the Old Testament has the same meaning exactly as the word “Church” in the New. Israel, consequently, had more than one set of laws. God gave Israel a twofold form of government. The Congregation, or Church, was given ritualistic laws — animal sacrifices, meat and drink offerings, carnal or fleshly ordinances.

But Israel also was a civil government and as such God established civil officers and civil laws — statutes and judgments. The one great central code of law, basis for both Church the civil government — the overall spiritual code — was the Ten Commandments, spoken by God direct to all the Congregation, written with the very finger of God in tables of stone.

For several generations after leaving Egypt, God was their King! This history is found through the books of Moses, Joshua and Judges.

Each tribe kept separate by itself, but together they formed one nation in much the same manner as the United States is one nation composed of several states. Each tribe occupied its own land, or district.

The Levites became the priestly tribe, mingling throughout the other tribes, having no inheritance in the land and no separate territory (except for cities) of their own. To offset this, however, the children of Joseph were divided into two tribes — Ephraim and Manasseh — thus leaving twelve distinct and separate tribes, each occupying its own territory or province, in addition to the Levites who were sprinkled among the tribes.

All these years the Birthright and the Sceptre remained within the one nation — the Birthright, of course being handed down through the tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh, the Sceptre with Judah.

Dissatisfied With God

The children of Israel were human, even as you and I. They continually grumbled and complained. Their carnal minds were hostile to God and His Laws, even as human minds today (Romans 8:7).

Soon they became dissatisfied with God as their King and demanded that a man should be their king like the Gentile nations around them. So today, we want to be like the non-Christians around us instead of conforming strictly to the ways of God as we are instructed in His Word! Human nature has ever been thus.
When the elders of Israel came to Samuel demanding a man be made their king, it naturally displeased Samuel, their prophet. But the Eternal said: “Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected ME, that I should not reign over them . . . howbeit yet protest solemnly unto them, and show them the manner of the king that shall reign over them” (I Samuel 8:4-9).

Saul was their first human king. He refused obedience to God and was finally rejected. He was slain in battle. His sole surviving son, Ishbosheth, was slain after a reign of only two years (II Samuel 2:10). However, Ishbosheth never reigned over Judah. With this short reign over part of Israel, Saul's dynasty ceased. That is how God rejected him. His dynasty was cut off!

David's Dynasty Forever!

David succeeded Saul. David sat on the Eternal's throne. David’s son Solomon succeeded him, also sitting on the Eternal’s throne. “Then Solomon sat on the throne of the Eternal as king instead of David his father” (I Chron. 29:23, see also II Chron. 9:8).

I wish here to impress another special point. Before Saul, the Eternal had been king over Israel. These human kings were sitting upon the Eternal's throne. The Eternal — “LORD” — is Jesus Christ who was WITH the Father before the world was (John 17:5 and 1:1-2, 14). Jesus is both the “ROOT” and the “OFFSPRING” of David (Rev. 22:16). As the “Root,” the throne was His before David was born. David merely sat upon the Eternal’s throne. Secondly, as David’s lawful fleshly Son, this same throne shall once more become His right by inheritance, continuing David’s dynasty. And so, when Christ returns to earth, David’s throne will doubly be His right!

Now we come to a seemingly incredible fact — fantastic — almost unbelievable, but true! While David was king, God made with him a perpetual covenant, unconditionally, which God cannot and will not break!

This covenant is even more amazing, and less understood, than the unconditional covenant with Abraham!

I want you now to plant firmly in mind the specific nature and character of the covenant the Almighty made with David. For it is a vital link in the purpose and mission of Christ—an important key to Bible understanding!

In II Samuel 23:1, 5, we find: "Now these be the last words of David . . . 'God hath made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things and sure.'" In other words, a covenant that shall endure forever, and cannot fail!

Turn back to the seventh chapter of II Samuel for more specific details. God gave David this covenant promise at a time when David was much concerned over the Ark of the Covenant dwelling in a tent. David wanted to build a great Temple at Jerusalem.

"And it came to pass that night, that the Word of the Lord came unto Nathan, saying, Go and tell my servant David, Thus saith the Lord, Shalt thou build me an house for me to dwell in? . . . When thy days be fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels [Solomon], and I will establish the kingdom. He shall build an house for my name, and I will establish the THRONE of his KINGDOM FOREVER. I will be his father, and he shall be my son. If he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men: but my mercy shall not depart away from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before thee. And thine house and thy KINGDOM shall be ESTABLISHED FOREVER before thee: THY THRONE SHALL BE ESTABLISHED FOREVER" (II Sam. 7:4-5, 12-16).

Points to Notice

Notice carefully these points:
1) David’s throne was set up and established with Solomon, David’s son.
2) The throne—David’s throne (verse 16)—was established forever in Solomon (verse 13). Observe that nowhere says that when Christ comes, God will establish it in Him forever. It says it was to be established forever in Solomon.
3) What if Solomon, or the children of Israel, disobey? Would that cancel this covenant? Verses 14-15 plainly say that if they commit iniquity, God will chasten them with the rod of MEN, but will NOT break this covenant. The throne shall go on FOREVER just the same!

4) Notice particularly, in case of disobedience, God will NOT take the throne away as He took it from Saul. How did He take it from Saul? Saul's dynasty ended! No son of Saul ever sat on the throne. But Solomon's dynasty would not end. The punishment for disobedience would be chastening at the hands of MEN.

5) If, once established, as God did establish this throne with David and with Solomon, David's throne ceased from existence, EVEN FOR THE LENGTH OF ONE GENERATION, could we say it had been established FOREVER as God here promised?

Here is the fact as little realized as any in the Bible! Almighty God made an absolutely binding — just HOW binding we shall see! — covenant with David, UNCONDITIONALLY guaranteeing that there should never be a single generation from that time forward when there would not be a descendant of David, in UNBROKEN DYNASTY, sitting on David's throne, ruling over children of Israel! It was the promise of continuous, unbroken DYNASTY — all generations forever — that was guaranteed.

This is hard to believe! Yet God promised and unalterably guaranteed just that! There were no conditions. Nothing that would happen could prevent it. The sins of the people were not to change it. The promise stood immutable!

The END of the Record

But WHERE is that throne, today?

The history of the Bible records a line of kings, all descendants of David in continuous dynasty, down to King Zedekiah. But in the year 585 B.C. this last recorded king ever to sit on this throne was captured by the armies of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, his eyes put out, taken to Babylon, and there he died in a dungeon!

More, all his sons were slain! All the nobles of Judah who were not already imprisoned or enslaved at Babylon at that time were killed, so that none could remain to sit on the throne of David! The Chaldeans destroyed Jerusalem, burned the Temple and the king's houses, took the Jews, a captive, slave people to Babylon. There is certainly no record of any king of the line of David ruling over Judah from that day to this. However, the line of Jehoiakin to Jesus survived in Babylonish captivity — so Jesus was a descendant of David.

Some will say, however, that this throne is established today in Christ. But Christ has not yet taken over this throne! He pictured Himself as the nobleman (Luke 19:12) who went to a far country (heaven) to get for Himself a Kingdom, and, having received the right to the Kingdom, to return. Jesus Christ will not sit upon the throne of David until His Second Coming to earth, yet future!

But what of the nearly 600 years between King Zedekiah, and the birth of Christ? Who was reigning over Israelites, sitting on David's throne, during those generations? If no one, then we must conclude God broke His Word, or the Scripture has been broken!

The answer is a mystery more astounding than any tale of fiction! The BIBLE reveals it, step by step.

But, then again, some will point to the expression "I will establish," and conclude that possibly God meant that, at the Second Coming of Christ, He would establish that throne forever. And still that will not do. From whom would Christ take over David's throne, if that throne has ceased these centuries to exist? But God plainly promised He would establish that throne in Solomon: "and I will establish the throne of his [Solomon's] kingdom forever." He was not speaking of establishing it many centuries later in Christ — at His second coming. The "he" referred to Solomon — not Christ, for God said: "If he commit iniquity, I will chasten him." (II Sam. 7:14.)

But now I give you a scripture that ends all speculation as to when this throne was established: "Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel. Ought ye not to know that the Eternal God of Israel GAVE the kingdom over Israel to David FOREVER, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt?" The margin says, "PERPETUAL Covenant." (II Chron. 13:4-5.)

This shows the establishing of the throne was THEN in the past! God GAVE, did give, this kingdom to David, and His sons — not his son, Christ, but his sons, plural — continuously forever.

Now turn to the 89th Psalm.
"I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant, Thy seed [DYNASTY — Moffatt] will I establish forever, and build up thy throne to ALL GENERATIONS" (Psalm 89:3-4).

Note it! — this throne, established forever, was built up to all generations. God did establish that throne, beginning with David and Solomon. We have a record of it for a number of generations — as far as King Zedekiah, 585 B.C.

It was established to all generations, continuously, perpetually, forever! That term "all generations" certainly must include those generations from Zedekiah to the birth of Christ. Who occupied that throne during those generations?

Christ is not sitting on that throne now, but on the throne of Almighty God in heaven (Rev. 3:21).

So what about this present generation? Where is there a descendant of David today sitting in unbroken line of kings on the throne of David, ruling over children of Israel?

Can one wonder that men like Thomas Paine and Robert Ingersoll lost faith in the Bible? They saw these unconditional promises. But they could not see how they had been kept. But, if we have patience, WE SHALL SEE!

But to continue, in the 89th Psalm, beginning, now with the 28th verse.

"My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and my covenant shall stand fast with him. His seed [DYNASTY — Moffatt] also will I make to endure forever, and his throne as the days of heaven."

Consider, a moment, the meaning of this word "seed" in this sense. Moffatt's translation in Modern English, available at nearly all libraries and bookstores in cities, translates it, properly, "DYNASTY.” The RSV translates it "his [David's] line" — that is, continuous line or succession of sons, generation after generation. This "seed" is not the general population of the children of Israel. This is speaking of David's seed, or David's sons. His sons were to be KINGS. David was of the Tribe of JUDAH, possessor of the SCEPTRE, not the Birthright promise. His "seed," therefore, was the KINGLY line. So, literally, it means his DYNASTY, his line of successive sons.
Now while his throne is enduring through all generations, as the days of heaven, consider the next verse: “If his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments; if they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments; then will I visit their transgression with the rod and their iniquity with stripes. Nevertheless my lovingkindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail. My COVENANT will I not break nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips. Once have I sworn by my holiness that I will not lie unto David: HIS SEED [dynasty] SHALL ENDURE FOREVER, and his throne as the sun before me. It shall be established forever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven” (Psalm 89:30-37).

This is speaking of those generations when his children may DISOBEY and forsake God’s law. Some today are excusing their inability to locate this throne by saying the covenant was CONDITIONAL — that because the Children of Israel disobeyed God, the covenant was broken. But what does the Almighty say? If the children disobey and transgress, they shall be PUNISHED for their transgression — but NOT by the breaking of God’s unconditional covenant with David!

Some say Christ took over the throne. But He didn’t. Instead He was crucified, resurrected, and ascended to heaven. He SHALL come, and soon now, to sit upon that throne as the King of kings and Lord of lords. But how could Jesus Christ, when He returns again to earth, take over and sit upon a throne that long ago ceased to exist?

Will Christ Come to a Nonexistent Throne?

If the throne of David ceased with Zedekiah, then it does not exist today. And if it does not exist, how shall Christ sit upon a nonexistent throne? See Luke 1:31-32. And, since it was to continue through all generations, how about those many generations between Zedekiah and the birth of Jesus?

The very important fact that the glorified King of kings is coming to sit on an existing throne is further affirmed by the prophet Jeremiah.

In the 33rd chapter is a prophecy of events at the time of Christ’s coming in Supreme Power and Glory! At the time of writing this prophecy the prophet was imprisoned in Jerusalem. The armies from Babylon were taking the Jews captive. God said to Jeremiah, "I will . . . show thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not . . . concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down . . ." (verses 3-4).

Jeremiah knew the kings' houses in Jerusalem were being destroyed — the throne of David removed from Jerusalem. He was, as will be shown later, to be God's agent in rooting out that throne from Jerusalem. God was now revealing to him a reassuring fact. The throne of David would, in this end-time, be again planted in Jerusalem. God now reassures the prophet that the throne will rule continuously over Israelites until that time. It will be the same continuous dynasty. The Messiah will sit on an existing throne!

Here is the prophecy — of what is to happen at Christ's glorious coming to rule: "Behold the days come, saith the Eternal, that I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the House of Israel and to the House of Judah" (verse 14). NOTICE CAREFULLY! This promise, of David's continuous dynasty, is a promise to the HOUSE OF ISRAEL, as well as to Judah. Since the division into two nations, that throne had not been connected with ISRAEL — only with Judah. But the promise to be fulfilled at Christ's coming connects it with ISRAEL as well as Judah!

Continue: "In those days, and at that time, will I cause the Branch of righteousness [the Messiah] to grow up unto David, and He shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land" (verse 15). This speaks of Christ's rule as King of kings. Jesus, a descendant of David by human birth (Romans 1:3), was the righteous Branch, or offshoot of David.

Continue: "In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely . . . For thus saith the Eternal; David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the House of Israel . . ." (verses 16-17).

NOTE IT! It does not say David shall not, finally, after 2,500 years without a man on the throne, want for one. It says
David shall never—at any time—through all generations—want for a descendant to remain sitting on his throne!

And over who?

Throne NOT Over Jews

Not Judah! Read it in your own Bible! During these more than 2,500 years, David shall not want for a man to sit upon the throne of the House of Israel—not Judah!

The throne was, at the time God revealed this prophecy to Jeremiah, being rooted out of Judah. During these 2,500 years between then and Christ’s coming it was to be the throne of the House of Israel!

After the coming of Christ to rule, it is evident that Israel is again to offer sacrifices, burnt offerings and meat offerings. In Ezekiel’s prophecy, from the 40th chapter to the end of the Book, covering this period after Christ’s coming, these sacrifices are mentioned. But, after Christ’s return, when they are again to be offered, the Tribe of Levi will not have been destroyed—descendants of the priestly tribe will still be living. Notice, verse 18 of Jeremiah 33:

“Neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.” This does not say they shall have, all these years prior to Christ’s coming, continually offered sacrifices. Other scriptures show plainly they should not have been offered after Christ’s own sacrifice by Christians, and they were not by Jews after destruction of the Temple in 70 A.D.

But, other prophecies already quoted show just as plainly that David’s descendants should be ruling on David’s throne through all generations, beginning with Solomon.

Since many of the Levites undoubtedly remained among the Ten Tribes—or as we know many continued among the Jews—and since those remaining among the Ten Tribes have lost their identity along with all Ten Tribes—it is entirely possible that much, if not most, of the called true ministry of Jesus Christ through the centuries have been of the tribe of Levi.

Notice, now, how binding is God’s covenant with David.

“Thus saith the Eternal; if ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season; then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne . . .” (verses 20-21).

What People Say

Continue: “Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the ETERNAL hath chosen, He hath even cast them off? thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them” (verse 24).

That is what the people have been saying, as they were prophesied to say! The Jews were scattered among many, if not all nations — scattered individuals — but no longer a nation having its own government! And the Ten Tribes were supposed to have been “lost,” or to have gone out of existence, or to be just part of the scattered individual Jews! Yes, so they themselves have said — and so the world has said!

But what does God say?

Continue, next verse: “Thus saith the ETERNAL: If my covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed [dynasty] to rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy upon them” (verses 25-26).

The Test of Bible Truth

Strong words, those! Unless you can stop this old earth from turning on its axis—unless you can remove the sun and the moon and stars from heaven, says the Almighty, you cannot prevent Him from keeping His covenant to maintain continuously, through all generations, forever, from the time of David and Solomon, a descendant of David in one continuous dynasty on that throne!

He would not necessarily rule over all the House of Israel, or the Jews — but at least some of them, and enough to form a nation.

This cannot be applied to mean that there would not have been a continuous throne, or that it applies only to the "One Seed" — Christ — finally coming to rule. Notice, it says specifically, "so that I will not take any of his seed to be RULERS [more than one] over" Israelites. It is speaking of continuous, multiple RULERS — not one Ruler coming to sit on a throne that 2,500 years before had ceased to exist!

The COVENANT PROMISE to David is plain and definite. Either his dynasty has continued, and exists today, ruling over the House of ISRAEL (not the Jews), or God's Word fails!

Remember again, the SCEPTRE promise, which includes this line of kings until it culminates in CHRIST at His second coming: "The Sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a law-giver [margin, ruler's staff] from between his feet, UNTIL SHILOH [Christ] come; and unto Him shall the gathering of the people be" (Gen. 49:10).

Has the Sceptre departed from Judah?

Has the throne ceased? Or does it, as God so bindingly promised, exist today so that Christ can take over and sit upon a living, going, continuous throne when He comes?

The infallibility of the Bible is at stake! God's Word is at stake!

CHILDREN OF ISRAEL BECOME TWO NATIONS

The House of Israel is not Jewish! Those who constitute it are not Jews, and never were! That fact we shall now see conclusively, beyond refute.

After David's death, his son, Solomon, succeeded him to the throne over Israel. Solomon taxed the people excessively, and reigned in a gorgeous splendor probably never equalled before or since. He also married Gentile wives from outside nations.

Because of them, he burned incense and sacrificed to Moloch and other idols. As a result of this, "The Eternal said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and give it to thy servant. Notwithstanding, in thy days I will not do it, for David thy father's sake; but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son. Howbeit I will not rend away all the kingdom; but I will give one tribe to thy son for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen" (I Kings 11:11-13).

Israel Separated from David's Throne

Note it! It is the Kingdom, not part of it, which is to be rended away. It is the part, one tribe, which is to remain. And note — for right here is expressed the great why of this whole question — that, though Solomon himself deserved to have it utterly rended away, God will leave one tribe, not because of leniency toward Solomon, but "for David's sake"!

God has made a perpetual covenant with David, unconditionally, which He cannot, and will not break. David's dynasty cannot be broken! THAT is the reason the Sceptre promise is not destroyed; but the ruler is to be permitted to rule on, without a single generation's gap, over at least a part of the children of Israel.

In I Kings 11:26 you read of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, an Ephratite, or Ephraimite, Solomon's servant. He was made ruler over the "house of Joseph" — or Ephraim and Manasseh.

Speaking to Jeroboam through Ahijah the prophet, the Eternal says: "Behold I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee... Howbeit I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand... for David my servant's sake, whom I chose because HE kept my commandments and my statutes. But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it to thee, even ten tribes. And unto his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant [remember why] may have a light always before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen to put my name there. And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign according to all that thy soul desireth, and thou shalt be king over Israel" (I Kings 11:31-37).

These words make plain two facts: The nation, Israel, is to be taken away from Solomon's son, and given to Jeroboam. It is not just a tribe, or a few tribes, but the nation called by the title Israel which this Jeroboam, of the tribe of Ephraim, is to rule.

The ten-tribed kingdom was the one to which the national title "Israel" was given. For truly, the name "Israel" was named on the sons of Joseph! (Gen. 48:16.)

Wherever they are, the Bible calls them by the national name, Israel. To the world, their identity today is lost. But, in Biblical prophecy, it is they — not the Jews — who are called Israel! And they were in, and headed, the 10-tribed nation, Israel.

On the other hand, BECAUSE of His promise to David, the Eternal left one tribe, Judah, in Jerusalem under the sons of Solomon, so that a son of David might continue to sit on the throne of David over children of Israel.

God had promised David, unconditionally, that the time should never come when he should not have a son or descendant sitting on the throne ruling over children of Israel.

Now, in later actual history, we see that promise being carried out—that Covenant made binding! The children of Judah, though they do not constitute all the children of Israel—though not called by that national title, nevertheless are children of Israel, and thus God can keep His promise to David—can avoid abolishing the Sceptre promises made to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. And at the same time God can visit punishment upon Solomon, by taking away the Nation, Israel, and leaving a son of the Sceptre promise sitting on the throne over only one tribe. Note the very important point that, though a punishment must be inflicted, God does not break any of His promises.

David's Dynasty Rules Over Judah

God had promised that "the Sceptre shall not depart from Judah." He did not break that promise. Now note carefully that the ten tribes, rended away, are called by the title "Israel," and that the one tribe remaining under Rehoboam, Solomon's son, is called, merely, "Judah," or the "House of Judah." They go by their tribal name, while the ten-tribed kingdom continues to carry the national name "Israel."

Actually, the Nation, Israel, rejected its king and set a new king, Jeroboam, on Israel's throne. Actually, the tribe of Judah seceded from the nation Israel, in order to retain Rehoboam as their king. But now Rehoboam, David's grandson, became king of a new nation. That new nation was not the Kingdom of Israel. It was the Kingdom of Judah! Now see how it happened.

When Solomon's son, Rehoboam, succeeded to the throne, the people at once demanded that the heavy taxes imposed by Solomon be reduced. They sent their leader, Jeroboam, as spokesman, to Rehoboam.

Pledged Jeroboam: "Thy father made our yoke grievous; now, therefore, make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee" (I Kings 12:4-5).

The reply was: "My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions” (verses 6-14).

Israel rebelled. The command to the people was “To your tents, O Israel!” The challenge to the royal family was “Now, see to thine own house!” (Verse 16.)

“So Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day [the day this was written]. And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they sent and called him unto the congregation and made him king over all Israel: there was none what followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only” (I Kings 12:19-20).

Then “Rehoboam... assembled all the House of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin” (verse 21). Rehoboam commenced to fight to subdue and bring back the House of Israel, but God said, “Ye shall not... fight against your brethren the children of Israel... for this thing is from me” (verse 24).

Israel Divided into TWO NATIONS

Did you notice that it is now the ten-tribed kingdom—headed by the Ephraim-Manasseh tribes, with an Ephraimite as their king—the inheritor of the Birthright promises—which is called the House of Israel?

The tribe of Judah left to Rehoboam, with the Benjamites and, later, after Jeroboam kicked them out of office in Israel, the priestly tribe of Levi, is called in Scripture, not Israel, but the House of Judah. They are all actually children of Israel, but are no longer called, nationally, by that national title. This is emphasized so much because the common conception is exactly the opposite.

The average conception today seems to be that the tribe of Judah which remained carried the title “Israel.” Most people seem to think of the ten tribes as merely certain tribes driven out from the nation Israel.

But it is Israel which now sets up its kingdom under the Ephraimite Jeroboam, in the land of Samaria, north of Jerusalem. It is not Israel, but Judah—a mere three tribes broken off from Israel—which is left behind in Jerusalem.

The ten tribes were not broken off from Israel. Israel did not remain in Jerusalem. Instead, Judah was broken off from Israel.
Israel at War with the Jews!

Notice it carefully! The House of Judah, now including the tribe of Benjamin under King Rehoboam of David’s dynasty, was about to fight against the nation Israel — with its ten tribes headed by Ephraim and Manasseh.

Now let us have Scriptural proof that the ten-tribed people called Israel, often prophetically spoken of as Ephraim, are not Jews, and never were Jews! Remember that the term “Jew” is merely a nickname for “Judah.” Hence, it applies to the one nation, or House of Judah only — never to the House of Israel.

From any exhaustive concordance you can learn that the first time in all the Bible that the word “Jew” occurs is in II Kings 16:6. Nowhere in all the Bible before this, does the name “Jew” appear. Notice it!

Ahaz began to reign as king of Judah (verse 1). He sat on David’s throne (verse 2). At this time, a man named Pekah was king of Israel. King Pekah of Israel formed an alliance with Rezin, king of Syria, against Judah, and together the armies of Israel and Syria, allied, came up against Jerusalem. They besieged King Ahaz of Judah, but could not overcome him (verse 5). “At that time,” says verse 6, “Rezin, king of Syria [the ally of Israel, fighting with Israel against Judah] recovered Elath to Syria, and drove the Jews from Elath” (verse 6).

Note it! The first place in the Bible where the word “Jew” is used, we find Israel at war against the Jews!

Who drove the Jews out of Elath?

The ally of King Pekah of Israel! The army fighting with Israel against Judah. And the children of Judah who resided in the town of Elath are called Jews in a manner which distinguished them from the House of Israel, with whom these Jews were at war!

Observe the significance of that!

The first place in Scripture where the name Jew appears,

Four books of the Old Testament record the separate histories of the two separate nations — Israel and Judah. The map shows their general boundaries after they were divided.

the Jews were at war against Israel! They are of a different nation altogether. They are, individually, children of Israel. But they do not have that national title—House of Israel.

It is wrong to call the Jews of today “Israel.” They are not the nation Israel— they are Judah! And wherever Israel is today, remember that Israel as a national name does not mean Jew! Whoever the lost ten tribes of Israel are today, they are not the Jews! Wherever you see the name “Israel,” or “House of Israel,” or “Samaria,” or “Ephraim,” used in prophecy, remember this—it never refers to the Jews, but to Israel, who was at war against the Jews!

House of Israel NOT Jews

No place in all the Bible does the term “Israel” refer to the Jews exclusively. When the sense is not national but individual, the term “Israel” alone, or “children of Israel,” or, “men of Israel,” may, and sometimes does refer to or include the Jews. Such an expression, for instance, as “Ye men of Israel,” as frequently occurs in the New Testament, refers to Israelites as individuals in a collective sense, not a national sense. It usually refers to Jews as individual descendants of the patriarch Israel (Jacob).

Moses may not, Scripturally, be called a Jew. He was a Levite. Abraham was not a Jew. Neither was Isaac nor Jacob—nor Adam or Noah for that matter. The descendants of the patriarch Judah are racially Jews and also all who joined themselves nationally to the tribe of Judah—those of the tribes of Benjamin and Levi.

Jews are Israelites, just as Californians are Americans. But most Israelites are not Jews, just as most Americans are not Californians. The Jews are the House of Judah only, a part of the Israelites. But when these people are spoken of as nations, rather than as collective individuals, the term “Israel” never refers to the Jews. “House of Israel” never means “Jews.” The two tribes at Jerusalem under the Davidic king are called, merely, the House of Judah.

But of Ephraim and Manasseh, sons of Joseph, the dying Israel had said, “Let my name be named on them.” And truly they now bear the name of Israel.

From here on, the tribe of Judah, with Benjamin and the tribe of Levi, are called "JUDAH"—not ISRAEL. The ten tribes, headed by Ephraim and Manasseh from this time on are called "ISRAEL." They are not Jews, and never were called Jews!

From this time on, the children of Israel, twelve tribes in all, are divided into two nations!

And now, for the first time, the BIRTHRIGHT goes into one nation, ISRAEL, headed by Ephraim-Manasseh; while the SCEPTRE remains in another nation, called the "House of JUDAH." The two phases of the promises to Abraham now are separated into two entirely separate nations!

For many generations Israel and Judah remained as separate nations, in adjoining territories, having their own separate kings.

Why should ministers and professed Bible students be in ignorance of this, when four whole books of the Bible, I and II Kings, I and II Chronicles, are devoted to explaining it and recording the history of these separate, rival kingdoms? Look at the maps in the back of your Bible. There you will see the territory of each nation plainly shown.

Judah retained the city of Jerusalem, its capital, and the territory known as Judea. Israel occupied the territory north of Judea. Samaria became its capital city, and the House of Israel often is called "Samaria" in prophecy. This, too, is a vital "key" to understanding of prophecy. "Samaria" never refers to the Jews in prophecy—but always the ten tribes, the House of ISRAEL.

We want to impress, here, that Israel and Judah are not two names for the same nation. They were, and still are, and shall be till the second coming of Christ, two separate nations. The "House of Judah" always means "Jew."

This distinction is vital, if we are to understand prophecy. Because most so-called Bible students are in ignorance of this basic distinction, they are unable rightly to understand prophecy!

The next place where the term "Jew" is mentioned in the Bible, the House of Israel had been driven out in captivity, lost from view, and the term applies only to those of the House of JUDAH. There are no exceptions in the Bible!

Israel Rejects God's Rule

Immediately on becoming king over the House of Israel, Jeroboam (tribe of Ephraim) set up two golden calves, introducing idol worship in the kingdom. The account is found in I Kings 12:28-33.

Jeroboam was afraid lest his subjects, in going once a year to Jerusalem to keep the Feast of Tabernacles, should return to Rehoboam and he should lose his new throne. The introduction of idolatry was to prevent this and to keep the people home.

This idolatry with Sabbath-breaking (Ezek. 20:10-24), was the great national sin, which became such a curse to Israel. Generation after generation, God pleaded with the House of Israel to turn from tradition — from their fathers’ ways, and to return to keeping God's commandments. But, through nine different dynasties under 19 kings, Israel continued these national sins — sins so great in God’s sight, that finally God caused them to become a conquered, captive nation.

Now let us note a passage which has been consistently misinterpreted. In I Kings 14:15-16, we find, “The Eternal shall smite Israel [not Judah] as a reed is shaken in the water, and he shall root up Israel, out of his good land, which he gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them [not Judah] beyond the river, because they have made their groves, provoking the Eternal to anger. And He shall give Israel [not Judah] up, because of the sins of Jeroboam, who did sin, and who made Israel to sin.”

This is dealing specifically with the result of Jeroboam’s idol worship in Israel — in the northern ten-tribed kingdom which possessed the Birthright promises. It is THESE people who were to be rooted up and scattered beyond the river. Not the Jews. Yet this passage is quoted by nearly all students of prophecy as pertaining to the scattered condition of the Jews today — the very people to whom it does NOT apply. This gives one example of the fact that what we are here covering is a veritable key to an understanding of many long-hidden prophecies. Unless this is kept firmly in mind, prophecy can never be correctly understood.

The people which this passage says shall be rooted up and
JERUSALEM — CAPITAL OF JUDAH

SAMARIA — CAPITAL OF ISRAEL scattered beyond the river, never were called Jews. They were the people headed by Ephraim and Manasseh, possessors of the unconditional promises of becoming a great nation and a company of nations — becoming so numerous they number into the hundreds of millions, possessing the gates of enemy nations, becoming a colonizing people, spreading out till their colonies spread around the globe.

Yet, many who come to see this distinction between Israel and Judah — between Jew and the other tribes — after having seen it as a great new light, will, by force of years of habit, fall right back into the old rut and apply texts referring to Israel to the Jews!

The terms “House of Israel,” or “all Israel,” when the meaning is national, or the terms “Jacob,” or “Rachel,” or “Ephraim,” or “House of Joseph,” or “Samaria,” often used in the Bible in prophecy, RELATE TO THE TEN-TRIBE BIRTHRIGHT people, not to the Jews. This is a key, and a Master Key, to

Israël Driven Out and Lost!

And in the years 721-718 B.C., the House of Israel was conquered and its people were soon driven out of their own land — out of their homes and cities — and carried captives to Assyria, on the southern shores of the Caspian Sea! And then . . . LOST FROM VIEW!

“Therefore the Eternal was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of His sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only” (II Kings 17:18).

The Eternal removed who?
Israel!
It is Israel which was removed, and driven from the Eternal’s sight until they became lost from view.
Judah ONLY — only the Jews!
Israel is now gone! They became known as the LOST Ten Tribes and are so designated today.

Gentiles Replace the House of Israel

Now notice II Kings 17:22-23. “For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them; until the Lord removed Israel out of His sight, as he had said by all his servants and prophets. So was Israel [not Judah — not the Jews] carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day [written about 620 B.C.]."

Observe that the people who had the national title "Israel," and the Birthright promises, who were not the Jews, were CARRIED AWAY OUT OF THEIR OWN LAND — Samaria. They left that land — never yet to return!

Now note the following verse of this same passage: "And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof" (II Kings 17:24).

It is these foreigners who were living in the land of Samaria in the time of Christ, and who were called Samaritans in the Gospel records. It is well to keep that in mind. For the Samaritans of the New Testament were not in any sense a racial mixture with the Israelites. Only one individual — a priest — returned from among the captive Israelites to teach the newly planted Gentiles the corrupted religion of Israel (II Kings 17:27-28).

These people from the land of Babylon, however, did not follow God, nor God’s Ways, nor His religion. The very next verse shows this: “But every nation still made gods of its own, ...” (II Kings 17:29).

The general state religion of the Assyrians and Babylonians was the Chaldean Mystery religion. This was the religion of Simon the Sorcerer (Acts 8) who believed Philip’s miracles, appropriated the name “Christian,” and started a new counterfeit “Christianity” after the apostle Peter rejected him as being bound in “iniquity” — i.e., “lawlessness.” He took the name of Christ, rejected God’s Law, and added licentious false “grace” to the “Babylonian Mystery” religion, calling it “Christianity.” This false “Christianity” has deceived millions, down to this present evil generation!

A more detailed account of the captivity of Israel is found in II Kings 18:9-12, and 17:5-18.

Now the House of Israel began to “abide many days without a king” (Hosea 3:4). Since they were the people who carried the title “Israel,” it is they, not Judah, who must become lost in identity!

Israel, Not Judah, Lost

The Scriptures plainly tell us that Israel was to lose its identity, its language, its religion, its land, and its name.

In Deuteronomy 32:26, God had warned them through Moses: “I said, I would scatter them into corners, I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men.” That warning cannot be applied to the Jew!! The remembrance of the Jews has not ceased. The remembrance of them could not cease unless their identity and name were lost. This applies to the lost tribes, not to the Jews.

Now notice Isaiah 8:17: “And I will wait upon the Lord, that hideth His face from the House of Jacob.” Jacob’s name was changed to Israel. In other words, this applies to the House of Israel — the ten-tribed kingdom — who were cut off from the presence of God. They consequently lost the knowledge of the true God, and the true religion.

The Eternal would cease speaking to them in their own Hebrew tongue, but with “another tongue will he speak to this people” (Isaiah 28:11). This cannot apply to the Jews, who still read their Bible in the Hebrew tongue.

Isaiah 62:2: “And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory [after Christ returns]: and thou shalt be called by a NEW NAME, which the mouth of the Lord shall name.” While this prophecy refers, directly to the future, after Christ’s return, it has also been fulfilled, typically, foreshadowing that time, by the fact that Israel is known by a DIFFERENT NAME TODAY. That cannot apply to the Jews. They were known then, as today, as Jews.

Israel Never Returned

The House of Israel did NOT return to Palestine with the Jews in the days of Ezra and Nehemiah, as some erroneously believe. Those who returned to rebuild the temple and restore worship in Jerusalem at that time, 70 years after Judah’s captivity, were only those of the House of Judah whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried to Babylon.

Note well these facts.

1) In 721-718 B.C. Israel began to be “carried away out of their land to Assyria” (II Kings 17:23). They were soon ALL removed — completely. “There was none left but the tribe of Judah only” (II Kings 17:18). JudaH, only, remained.

2) More than 130 years later, Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon carried the Jews — JudaH — who only remained in Palestine away to Babylon. So NONE of the House of Israel dwelt in Palestine at the time of this captivity of Judah.

3) Those who returned to Palestine to rebuild the temple and restore worship 70 years after Judah’s captivity, were ALL of the House of Judah — all Jews — ALL of those whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away. They returned again “unto Jerusalem and Judah, every one unto his city” (Ezra 2:1).

ONLY those of the tribe of Judah, together with remnants of Benjamin and Levi, who constituted the house of JudaH, returned at that time (Ezra 1:5). “Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites."

There are, of course, those who reject this truth God has seen fit now, in our time, to reveal — and who falsely represent that all Israelites including the Ten-Tribed House of Israel, returned to Jerusalem at the time of Ezra and Nehemiah.

They will sift out instances where the word “Israel” is used in connection with individuals or people of the House of Judah, and represent that they are the House of Israel. Let it be repeated for emphasis: Jews are Israelites — but only part of Israelites are Jews. The term “Jew” is a nickname for the national name Judah. Jews are, truly, men of Israel — or people of Israel — but they are not of the nation called House of Israel, or King of Israel.

Those who refuse this truth turn to such a passage as this: “And the residue of Israel, of the priests, and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheritance” (Nehemiah 11:20). Because the word “Israel” is used, they will claim these are all twelve tribes. But it is specifically speaking of priests and Levites — and they are of the House of Judah, but not of the Ten-Tribed House of Israel. They were, truly the “residue of Israel” — the “residue” of the twelve tribes — they were Israelites — but they were not of the nation called House of Israel. They returned to their inheritance in the land of Judah.

Nehemiah says plainly: “These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity [the captivity to Babylon — captivity of Judah, not House of Israel], of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the King of Babylon had carried away . . .” (Nehemiah 7:6). And none of the Ten Tribes had been left in Palestine after the Assyrian captivity more than 100 years before (II Kings 17:18).

Ezra says: “And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication . . .” (Ezra 6:16). These were people of the

Ambassador College
Kingdom of Judah — not the Kingdom of Israel — but they were “children of Israel.”

Names and genealogies are given in Ezra and Nehemiah of those who went back to Palestine from Babylon — and none from any of the Ten Tribes! Consequently those in Jerusalem in the time of Christ were of these three tribes, not of the House of Israel. And most, if not all, of those converted were of the tribe of Benjamin, as Paul said he was.

The House of Israel became known as the lost Ten Tribes! Now known by another name, speaking a different language!

By what name are they known today? Whoever they are, wherever they are, it is they, and not the Jews, who are the birthright possessors. It is they, not the Jews, who, after the ending of their punishment in 1800-1803 A.D., must inherit the unbreakable promises to Abraham of national greatness, resources, wealth and power. It is Manasseh who, after 1803 A.D., when the Louisiana Purchase occurred, was to become the world’s greatest single nation — Ephraim a great commonwealth of nations! Who can they be, today?
Chapter VII

JEREMIAH’S MYSTERIOUS COMMISSION

We come now to one of the most fascinating phases of this strange story of Israel—indeed, the very connecting link between prophecy and present-day fulfillment—yet unrecognized by theologians.

After the House of Israel, the northern kingdom whose capital was Samaria, was driven into Assyrian captivity, 721-718 B.C., the Kingdom of Judah continued on in the southern part of Palestine known as Judaea. At that time Judah, as a nation, had not yet rejected the government and religion of God. God had continued to keep His covenant with David. David’s dynasty had continued on the throne over part of the Israelites—the House of Judah—the Jews.

But after Israel had become lost from view, Judah turned from the ways and government of God, going after the ways of the Gentile nations, sinning even worse than Israel, until finally the Eternal drove Judah, too, into national captivity and slavery.

Before Judah’s apostasy, God had said, through the prophet Hosea, “Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend...” (Hosea 4:15).

But later, the Eternal said to Jeremiah: “Have you seen what she did, that faithless one, Israel, how she... played the harlot?... and her false sister Judah saw it. She saw that for all the adulteries of that faithless one, Israel, I had sent her away with a decree of divorce; yet her false sister Judah did not fear, but she, too, went and played the harlot... Faithless Israel has shown herself less guilty than the false Judah” (Jeremiah 3:6-11, RSV).

Here, again, it is made distinctly plain that the 12 Tribes of Israel were divided into two totally separated nations. And yet opponents of the TRUTH revealed in this book deny these plain scriptures — and attempt to discredit us who reveal it.

Now see how Judah (the Jews) — more than 130 years after ISRAEL’S captivity — also was removed from their land. They were taken, as slaves, to Babylon — not to Assyria, where ISRAEL had been taken.

“And the Eternal said, ‘I will remove JUDAH also out of my sight, as I have removed ISRAEL, and I will cast off this city Jerusalem, which I have chosen and the house of which I said, My name shall be there’” (II Kings 23:27).

And so, more than a hundred and thirty years after Israel’s captivity, the time came when God caused the Jews, also, to be driven out of their land in national captivity and slavery.

Jeremiah’s Strange Commission

For this purpose God raised up a very special prophet, whose real call and commission few, indeed, understand.

This prophet was Jeremiah. Jeremiah played a strange and little realized role in this captivity.

Something of the importance of this mission may be gleaned from this significant fact: The Bible mentions three men, only, who were sanctified for their respective offices before they were born — and of these three Jeremiah was the first. The other two were John the Baptist and Jesus Christ!

The Eternal first spoke to Jeremiah when he was but a young lad, about, some evidence indicates, seventeen years of age. By the time his mission was completed, he was an aged, white-haired patriarch.

This vital, yet little-known call and commission is described in the opening verses of the first chapter of the Book of Jeremiah.

“Before I formed you in the womb I knew you,” the Eternal said to him, “and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations” (Jeremiah 1:5, RSV).

But Jeremiah was frightened — afraid!

“Ah, Eternal God!” he replied, “Behold, I do not know how to speak, for I am only a youth.”

But the Eternal answered, “Do not say, ‘I am only a youth'; for to all to whom I send you, you shall go, and whatever I command you, you shall speak. Be not afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you” (verses 6-8).

Then the Eternal put forth His hand and touched Jeremiah’s mouth. “See,” said God, “I have set you this day over nations and over kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down, to destroy and to overthrow, TO BUILD AND TO PLANT” (verses 9-10). Or, as this tremendous commission is worded in the Authorized Version: “to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to BUILD AND TO PLANT.”

Notice, Jeremiah was set over NATIONS — more than one kingdom. He was a Jewish lad, living in Judah. He was set a prophet over Judah — but not Judah alone. Over NATIONS — over KINGDOMS! He was set over these kingdoms to do two things:

First, to “pluck up,” or “root out,” to “pull down,” or to “overthrow,” and second, TO BUILD, AND TO PLANT.

Not Realized, Today

Look at it in your own Bible! Jeremiah was used of God as a prophet to warn the nation JUDAH of their transgressions against God’s government and ways. He was sent to warn this rebellious nation of the impending PUNISHMENT — the invasion and captivity at the hands of the Chaldean armed forces, unless they acknowledged their guilt and changed their ways. He was used as a go-between — an intermediary — between the kings of Judah and Babylon.

It is well known that Jeremiah was used in warning Judah of the impending captivity, and the “pulling down,” or “overthrowing” of the THRONE OF DAVID in the Kingdom of JUDAH.

It is understood generally that the House of Judah was invaded by the armies of King Nebuchadnezzar — that the Jews were taken captive to Babylon — that they ceased from being a kingdom — that there no longer existed a ruler of David’s dynasty on the throne over the Kingdom of JUDAH.

What, then, does this mean? Did God, at last, forget His covenant promise to DAVID that David’s dynasty should never cease — that David’s throne was established in Solomon to continue through ALL GENERATIONS FOREVER? Has God Almighty now forgotten that He had sworn that He would not alter this promise—even though the kings and the people rebelled and sinned?

The faithfulness of God is at stake. The inspiration of the Holy Bible as His revealed Word is at stake!

But note it!—see it in your own Bible!—Jeremiah was divinely commissioned to pull down, and to overthrow that very throne of David in Judah—but notice the second half of the commission . . .

To build and to plant! To build and to plant what?

Why, naturally, that which he was used in “rooting out” of Judah—the throne of David which God swore He would preserve forever! Jeremiah was set over not just the one nation, Judah—but over nations. Over the kingdoms—the Kingdom of Israel as well as Judah!

He was used in “rooting out” that throne from Judah. Then what was Jeremiah commissioned to do in Israel?

Ah! Note it! Notice the second half of his strange and little-understood commission—to build and to plant!

So far as the world knows, the last king to sit on that throne of David was Zedekiah of Judah. He was thrown down off the throne, and the throne rooted out of Judah in the year 585 B.C.—nearly 600 years before Christ!

What happened to that throne? Where was that throne between 585 B.C. and the time of Christ, 600 years later? We know Jeremiah did not plant and rebuild it in Babylon. God had promised that David’s throne should rule over Israelites through all generations—not over Gentiles. We have the history of the continuance of the Gentile throne in Babylon.

David’s throne was never again planted or built among the Jews! It was not reigning over the Jews in the time of Christ. The Jews were then under the Roman rule. Jesus did not ascend any such throne. The throne was not functioning in Judah—it was not existing at that place or over that people—it was not there for Jesus to take over. And Jesus said plainly that His Kingdom was not of this present age! Yet He was born to sit upon this very throne of His Father David (Luke 1:32)!

Yet that throne was divinely commissioned to be planted and rebuilt by the prophet Jeremiah—during his lifetime!

Jeremiah was set over both Judah and Israel. To be used in rooting out David's throne in Judah. But more! To plant and to build, then, of necessity, among the House of Israel, lo, these many days without a king — among lost Israel, now supposing herself to be Gentile! Therefore the identity and location of the replanting must remain hidden to the world until this Time of the End in which we live.

Tearing Down the Throne

The life and work of Jeremiah is a most fascinating story. The first chapters of the Book of Jeremiah are devoted to his ministry, warning of the impending captivity of the Jews. He warned the kings, the priests, prophets and people of Judah, delivering God's message. They threw him in prison — but they refused to heed, or obey God. Then God caused their captivity.

It is generally known that Babylon took Judah in three different stages. The first siege was in 604 B.C., a date about two years later than has been commonly reckoned, but a date now firmly established. The land did not completely pass into the hands of these Gentile Babylonians, however, until a full time-cycle of 19 years later, or 585 B.C. You can read the part played by Jeremiah in this captivity in the Book of Jeremiah.

But now notice an interesting fact. The last and final king recorded either in Bible or secular history as having sat on the throne of David was King Zedekiah of Judah. Remember his name. Now notice II Kings 24:18: "Zedekiah was twenty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah."

Now notice briefly a description of the final tearing down and rooting out of this throne of David:

"In the ninth year of Zedekiah, king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it. And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up . . . And it came to pass, that when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled . . . but the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, and brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment upon him. Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah. Moreover he put out Zedekiah’s eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon” (Jeremiah 39:1-7).

In the 52nd chapter, first 11 verses, we find almost a word-for-word description of the same events, adding, “and put him [Zedekiah] in prison TILL THE DAY OF HIS DEATH.”

These passages bring out these points:
1. The king of Babylon slew all the sons of Zedekiah who were heirs to the throne of David.
2. He also slew all the nobles of Judah, so as to leave no possible heirs for that throne.
3. Finally, after putting out Zedekiah’s eyes, the king who sat on David’s throne was himself taken to Babylon where he died in prison.
4. Thus, as it appears, and as the whole world has believed, the throne of David ceased, with no possible heirs, or sons, to keep the dynasty alive. Certain it is that from that day on the throne never again has existed in Judah, in Jerusalem, or among the Jews!

What About Jeconiah?

It is true that a former king of Judah was at that time in the dungeons of Babylon — and he had sons to continue David’s line. Former King Jeconiah, taken to Babylon in chains was restored to honor 37 years after the captivity (see II Kings 25:27-30). He was even given the title “king” along with numerous other captive, vassal “kings.”

One of Jeconiah’s sons was Salathiel who was the father of Zorobabel, the son of Royal Seed through whom Jesus Christ Himself traced His Royal ancestry back to David! (Mat. 1:12.) And Zorobabel — or Zerubbabel — was the man God caused Cyrus, King of Persia, to make a decree giving him the governorship — NOT THE CROWN OF A KING — to return to Jerusalem and rebuild the House of God, the Temple, seventy years after the captivity.

Yet neither Jeconiah, nor any of his sons or grandsons reigned as king in Judah.

But why?
If there was a descendant of the line of David who lived through the captivity, why wasn’t he restored to the throne when he was returned to Jerusalem?

Why? SIMPLY BECAUSE GOD WOULD NOT PERMIT IT!

It is God who makes kings — and unmakes them! God was determined to remove the crown of David from the ruling line of Pharez and place it on the head of a son of Zarah. Yet a royal line, straight from David had to remain in the area so the Christ could be born of David’s seed yet hundreds of years in the future. And God also had to keep His promise to David, that he, David, would never lack a descendant to sit on the throne! Many intricate and fascinating prophecies had to be carried out — some seeming contradictory — a difficult job to perform, an awesome commission from God to Jeremiah!

“As I live, saith the Lord, though Coniah [Jeconiah] the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence!” (Jer. 22:24.) God had determined an end for this line of kings, He was removing the crown — not permitting Jeconiah’s sons to reign on Judah’s throne!

God was turning over (OVERTURNING) the throne to another branch of Judah’s family.

God told Jeremiah forcefully, “Thus saith the Lord, WRITE THIS MAN CHILDLESS, a man that shall not prosper in his days: FOR NO MAN OF HIS SEED SHALL PROSPER, SITTING UPON THE THRONE OF DAVID, AND RULING ANY MORE IN JUDAH!” (Jer. 22:30.)

God spoke! Jeremiah wrote! History was designed and done as God said! Jeconiah had children — God Himself caused this fact to be recorded (see I Chron. 3:17; Mat. 1:12; II Kings 25:27-30) but as far as the THRONE OF DAVID was concerned HE WAS CHILDLESS — none of his children ever occupied that throne!

The crown had now been removed from the Pharez line, uprooted from — Judah — any immediate candidates to the throne killed, and Jeconiah in a Babylonian prison, written childless as far as the throne was concerned by the command of God Almighty!

Jeremiah has now accomplished the first part of his great commission. The throne has been rooted out, the kingdom torn completely down. Judah is now beginning her national punishment.

Where Did Jeremiah Go?

But what about the second part of Jeremiah's important commission?

NOTE THIS!! Jeremiah was among these captive Jews. He must be free to carry out the second part of his commission.

So, "Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, saying, Take him and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee" (Jeremiah 39:11-12). "And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him... behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which were upon thine hand. If it seem good to thee to come with me into Babylon, come; and I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear; behold, all the land is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go... So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward [money] and let him go" (Jeremiah 40:1-5).

So Jeremiah was left absolutely free to do as he pleased, supplied even with expense money, and given complete freedom, so that he might perform the second half of his mission. Where did he go?

We come now to an amazing, fascinating, thrilling part of the Book of Jeremiah which has been almost entirely overlooked.

"Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, to Mizpah; and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land" (verse 6).

Now this Gedaliah had been made governor over a remnant of Jews in the land by the king of Babylon, and since Jerusalem was destroyed, he had made Mizpah his headquarters. But the king of Ammon plotted with a Jew named Ishmael to assassinate Gedaliah. The plot was executed; the governor and part of the Jews, were slain. Jeremiah was among the survivors.

"Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard [from Babylon], had committed to Gedaliah . . . and carried them away captives, and departed to go over to the Ammonites" (Jeremiah 41:10).

Ah! Did you catch it? Read that passage again.

Among these Jews were the king's daughters! Daughters of Zedekiah, King of Judah and of David's dynasty!

King Zedekiah had died in prison in Babylon (Jer. 52:11). All his sons had been killed. All the nobles of Judah had been killed. All possible heirs of Zedekiah to David's throne had been killed — except the king's daughters! Now we see why Jeremiah went to Mizpah!

Jeremiah Escapes

Soon a man named Johanan replaced Ishmael as leader. And in fear of reprisals from Nebuchadnezzar and the Chaldean army, Johanan and the captains appealed to the prophet, "and said unto Jeremiah the prophet, Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and pray for us unto the Lord thy God . . . that the Lord thy God may show us the way wherein we may walk" (Jeremiah 42:2-3). They were like so many professing Christians today. They come to God's minister with solemn assurances that they surely do want to know God's Will— they promise, as did these, "we will obey the voice of the Eternal our God" (verse 6).

But did they mean it? Such people seldom do. Human nature wants to be good — or think it is good — but it does not want to do good.

The word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, and He told them not to fear, that He would protect and deliver them. But the people wanted to flee to Egypt. This the Lord warned them not to do. If they did, the sword of Nebuchadnezzar which they feared would overtake them there, and they would die.

"If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt," God said, "and go to sojourn there; then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which ye feared shall overtake you there . . . and there you shall die" (Jeremiah 42:7-16).

But, as people usually do, they rejected God's warning.
“Thou speakest falsely,” Johanan answered. “The Eternal our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt” (Jeremiah 43:2-3). “So Johanan ... and all the people obeyed not the voice of the Eternal” (verse 4).

People who loudly profess to want to do God’s will usually will not accept God’s Word as being His will, unless it is their will! Are you like that?

And so Johanan “took all the remnant of Judah ... even men, and women, and children, and the king’s daughters ... and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch, the son of Neriah [Jeremiah’s scribe, or secretary]. So they came into the land of Egypt” (Jeremiah 43:5-7).

On reaching Egypt, God warned these Jews again through Jeremiah that they should die there by the sword and famine, and “none shall return but such as shall escape!” (Jeremiah 44:12-14.)

Yes, a few in this company are under Divine protection. A Divine mission is to be performed. They shall escape! The Eternal continues: “Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah” (Jeremiah 44:28).

Under Divine Protection

Baruch was Jeremiah’s constant companion and secretary. It is important to note here God’s promise of protection to him: “Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel, unto thee, O Baruch ... Behold, that which I have built I will break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land ... but thy life will I give unto thee for a prey in all places whither thou goest” (Jeremiah 45:2-5).

Baruch’s life, like Jeremiah’s, was under Divine protection!

Now previously, the Eternal had said to Jeremiah, “Verily it shall be well with thy remnant.” The only “remnant” left for Jeremiah’s mission of transplanting the throne is the king’s daughters. “Verily,” continues the Eternal, same verse, “I will cause the enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction.” (Jer. 15:11.) This God literally did, as described in chapter 39:11-12 and chapter 40:2-6, which I have covered previously.

Notice, it is to be well with the royal material given to JEREMIAH WITH WHICH TO BUILD AND TO PLANT — and Jeremiah is to be protected and to go to a land that he knows not! Who else was to go to a land they knew not? The ten-tribed Birthright kingdom, ISRAEL!

So, Jeremiah and his little royal remnant are to escape out of Egypt, return to Judah, and then — where? To the place where the “lost ten tribes” had gone, as we shall see!

Now let Isaiah complete this prophecy:

“For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of Mount Zion: the zeal of the Lord of hosts shall do this. And the remnant that escaped of the house of Judah shall AGAIN TAKE ROOT DOWNWARD AND BEAR FRUIT UPWARD” (Isaiah 37:32, 31).

This same prophecy is found also in II Kings 19:30-31. It is a prophecy given through Isaiah in the 14th year of the reign of King Hezekiah of Judah, when King Sennacherib of Assyria threatened invasion of Judah. It was a prophecy to happen later — not during Hezekiah’s reign. Some critics, seeking to overthow this basic and important truth, argue that this same remnant is mentioned also in II Chronicles 30:6. But that event is not a prophecy, but a historic account of an event in the first year of Hezekiah — and that remnant did not escape from Jerusalem, but they were Jews who escaped from Sennacherib’s forces threatening invasion of Judah — they escaped into, not out of Judah. And nothing is said here about “taking root downward, and bearing fruit upward,” as in both Isaiah 37 and II Kings 19.

This prophecy is so important it is recorded twice! It does refer to the remnant to escape later — to Jeremiah’s escape.

This, indeed, is THRILLING!

This remnant with Jeremiah — at least one of the king’s daughters — shall take root downward! That is, BE REPLANTED!

And then bear fruit upward! Be BUILT!

Has God failed in His solemn covenant to keep alive David’s throne? Where was this planting and building? Can we find it in God’s Word?

We can! The place and the people among whom the throne was reestablished, are clearly identified!
Chapter VIII

THE MYSTERIOUS “BREACH”

Where did Jeremiah go with Baruch his secretary and one or more of the royal daughters of the king?

History stops short at this point. Enlightened students of Bible history have long known that the Ten Tribes—called by the name “House of Israel”—have been lost in identity and historic knowledge, and exist today among the Gentile nations, unrecognized.

Their identity, and location, is one of the things God has hidden from the world. Yet, in this end-time, when knowledge is to increase, when the “wise” are to understand (Daniel 12:4, 10), we shall find the secret revealed through prophecy which could not be understood until now.

But first, we must now consider a mysterious “breach” that occurred in the days of Judah, son of Jacob.

Judah was the father of the twin sons. The firstborn was royal seed, for through him the Sceptre promise was to be carried down. It seems the midwife knew twins were about to be born. It is recorded that just before birth one of the twins “put out his hand: and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, ‘This came out first.’” But the child drew back his hand, and the other was actually born first.

The midwife exclaimed, “How hast thou broken forth? this breach be upon thee: [margin, wherefore hast thou made this breach against thee?] Therefore his name was called Pharez,” meaning “Breach” (Genesis 38:27-30). The other twin was named Zarah.

Why should this strange occurrence be recorded in Bible history, unless this breach was to be healed between the sons or their descendants at some future time? Yet it never occurred in their lifetime.

Zarah, of the scarlet thread, had five sons (I Chronicles 2:6). Did a descendant of Zarah finally get the throne, in a manner healing the breach?

David, Zedekiah, Christ, all were of the PHAREZ branch—none of Zarah.

Now consider, 1) the fact of the breach means the transfer of the Sceptre from the Pharez to the Zarah line. 2) Such transfer never occurred before King Zedekiah of Judah, who was descended from Pharez. 3) Therefore it had to occur after Zedekiah was dethroned. 4) Since David's line (Pharez) is to remain on the throne through all generations FOREVER, it could only occur at an OVERTURN of the throne by a marriage between a Pharez heir to the throne and one of the Zarah line, thus healing the breach.

History shows the descendants of Zarah became wanderers, journeying to the north within the confines of the Scythian nations, their descendants later migrating to Ireland in the days of King David.

But meanwhile, the Pharez-David-Zedekiah line possessed the Sceptre—was HIGH—exalted. The Zarah line, feeling it rightfully should possess the Sceptre, and some day would, was low, abased—so far as royal power was concerned.

The Three Overturns

Now consider a much misunderstood passage of prophecy.

If you will begin reading at the 18th verse of the 21st chapter of Ezekiel, you will see plainly that the Eternal is here speaking of the captivity of Judah by the king of Babylon. And, beginning the 25th verse, He says: "And thou, profane wicked prince of Israel [Zedekiah], whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end, Thus saith the Lord God; 'Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: [As did happen, through the first half of Jeremiah's commission.] This [the crown] shall not be the same: exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high. I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: and it shall be no more until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.'"

Let us understand that clearly.
“Remove the diadem, and take off the crown.” King Zedekiah, of David’s dynasty, had the crown. This says it is to be removed. It was removed. He died in Babylon; his sons and all the nobles of Judah were killed.

“This shall not be the same.” The diadem is not to cease, but a change is to take place — the throne is to be overturned — another is to wear the crown. God’s promise to David is not to go by default!

“Exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high.” Who is “high”? King Zedekiah of Judah. Now he is to be abased. He is to lose that crown. Judah has been “high,” while Israel has been “low” — lo, these many years without a king (Hosea 3:4). The Pharez line has been “high” — the Zarah line “low.”

“I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no more until he come whose right it is.” What was to be overturned? The diadem, and the throne. Not once, it is to be overturned three times. Overturned by abasing Zedekiah, the House of Judah, the Pharez line, and exalting, now, the House of Israel, and one of the Zarah line! The first of the three overturns was performed as the first half of Jeremiah’s commission.

“And it shall be no more.” Does this mean the throne — the crown — is to cease to exist? Not at all! How could it be overturned two more times—that is, transferred from one to another, if it ceased to exist? How, after these three transfers of the crown, could it be given to Him — Christ — whose right it is, at His second coming, if it ceased altogether to exist? How could He who was “low” now be exalted by the crown, if that crown was to be no more? No, the meaning is, “It shall be no more overturned until the Second Coming of Christ!” And then it shall be given to Him!

God will not break His unalterable promise made to David! Through every generation David shall have a descendant wearing that crown! The second half of Jeremiah’s commission must now be performed. That throne must be transplanted, and again built.

The crown must be overturned — transferred to another! But where? To whom?
A "Riddle" and a "Parable" Tells!

The strange truth of the planting and the rebuilding of David’s throne is revealed in a “riddle and a parable,” couched in symbolic language never understood until this latter day. Yet it stands, today, so clearly explained a little child could understand!

It fills the 17th chapter of Ezekiel’s prophecy. The whole chapter should be carefully read. Notice, first, this prophetic message is addressed, not to Judah, the Jews, but to the House of Israel. It is a message to give light to the lost Ten-Tribed House of Israel in these latter days!

First, Ezekiel is told to speak a riddle, and then a parable. The riddle is found in verses 3 to 10. Then, beginning verse 11, the Eternal explains its meaning.

“Say now to the rebellious house [God says — the “rebellious house” being Ten-Tribed Israel (Ezek. 12:9), to whom Ezekiel is set a prophet (Ezek. 2:3; 3:1, etc.)], know ye not what these things mean? tell them...” and then the riddle is clearly explained. A great eagle came to Lebanon and took the highest branch of the cedar. This is explained to represent King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, who came to Jerusalem, and took captive the king of Judah. The cropping off of the cedar’s young twigs and carrying them to a land of traffic is explained to picture the captivity of the king’s sons. “He took also of the seed of the land,” means Nebuchadnezzar took also of the people, and the mighty of the land of Judah. “He set it as a willow tree. And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature,” means the Jews were given a covenant whereby, although they were ruled over by the Chaldeans, they might live in peace and grow. The other “great eagle” is explained to represent Pharaoh of Egypt.

Thus the riddle covers the first half of Jeremiah’s commission. Now notice what is revealed concerning the second part — the planting of David’s throne!

It comes in the parable, verses 22-24.

“Thus saith the Lord God; I will also take of the highest branch of the high cedar.” From God’s own explanation we have learned that the cedar tree represents the nation of Judah; its highest branch is Judah’s king. The riddle told us Nebuchadnezzar took the highest branch—the King. The parable now tells us God—not Nebuchadnezzar, but God—will take of the highest branch. Not the branch, but of the branch—of Zedekiah’s children. But Nebuchadnezzar took, and killed, all his sons.

God, through his prophet Jeremiah, is now going to take of this highest branch, and “set it” (verse 22).

“I will crop off from the top of his young twigs a tender one, and will plant it upon a high mountain and eminent,” continues the Almighty! Ah! “A tender young twig”! The twigs of this highest branch represent the children of King Zedekiah! Certainly a tender young twig, then, represents a daughter!

“. . . and will plant it.” Could symbolic language say plainer this young Jewish Princess is to become the royal seed for planting again of David’s throne? Where?

“. . . upon a high mountain and eminent,” says the Eternal! A “mountain” in symbol always represents a nation.

But Which Nation?

“In the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it,” answers the Eternal! David’s throne now is to be planted in Israel, after being thrown down from Judah! Could language be plainer?

“. . . and it [the tender young twig—the king’s daughter] shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar.” Did David’s throne cease with Zedekiah of Judah? Did God forget His covenant? No! Compare this language with the passage in Isaiah 37:31-32: “the remnant that escaped of the House of Judah shall again take root downward [be planted] and bear fruit upward.” It was planted in Israel, who removed from Judah! After this Hebrew Princess is “planted” on the throne, now in Israel—lost from view—that throne is to bear fruit. She is to marry, have children, and her sons are to continue David’s dynasty!

“. . . and under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell” (verse 23). “Lost” Israel, now having acquired the throne and become again a self-ruling nation, shall, in time, spread around
The Mysterious "Breach"

The earth gaining dominance and power. They shall inherit the unconditional promises of the BIRTHRIGHT, according to God's covenant with Abraham!

"And all the trees of the field" (verse 24). A "tree" in this riddle and parable is likened to a nation. In other words, "All the nations of the earth."

"...shall know that I the Lord have brought down the high tree." Judah, the high tree, having the throne 130 years after Israel had been taken captive, now is brought down to the low stature of slavery.

"...have exalted the low tree." For 130 years Israel had been a "low tree." Now Israel is exalted, becomes again a thriving nation with a Davidic king.

"...have dried up the green tree [JUDAH] and have made the dry tree to flourish."

Compare that language with that above quoted from Ezekiel 21:26: "Remove the diadem, and take off the crown... exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high. I will overturn..." etc. It is speaking of transferring the throne from Judah to Israel.

Israel had already been independent in Ireland for 4 centuries.

Israel in Ireland had already a kingly line onto which Zedekiah's daughter was grafted. The Irish Israelites were an ancient colony and had not gone into Assyrian captivity.

ISRAEL, headed by the tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh, who possessed the BIRTHRIGHT, now shall flourish, become prosperous in due time. "I the Lord have spoken and have done it."

Yes, that BIRTHRIGHT is in ISRAEL. Though LOST, though supposed to be a Gentile nation, they are the people who were to grow into the promised multitude — the great nation, and the company of nations, possessing the gates of their enemy nations, becoming a colonizing people spreading around the world, being blessed with national resources and wealth. And, when they become thus powerful and nationally dominant, remember David's throne will be found transplanted among them!

But WHERE did Jeremiah, with his royal seed for the transplanting, go to find the lost House of Israel? WHERE are they today? How was the “breach” healed, and how did a son of Zarah ascend the throne? Can we tell?

We can! The exact, precise location is revealed in Bible prophecy! We can pick up Jeremiah’s trail in actual history, besides!

ISRAEL'S NEW LAND

We are ready, now, to search out the actual location of the lost tribes of the outcast House of Israel. We know they exist today as a nation, and a company of nations, powerful, looked upon as Gentiles. And when we find them, we shall find the throne of David!

Many passages of prophecy tell of these people in these latter days. Prophecies not to be understood until this "time of the end." Prophecies containing a Message to be carried to these people by those to whom God reveals it!

First, fix in mind these facts:

The prophet Amos wrote, in the days of the 13th of the 19 kings of the House of Israel (Amos 1:1): "Behold the eyes of the Lord are upon the sinful kingdom [House of Israel—Judah had not yet sinned], and I will destroy it [the kingdom, or government, not the people] from off the face of the earth ... For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the House of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth" (Amos 9:8-9).

This prophecy usually is applied to the scattered condition of the Jews. But it has nothing to do with the Jews, or House of Judah, but refers to the ten-tribed House of Israel—driven to Assyrian captivity, then migrating from there and scattering among other nations BEFORE the Jews were taken to Babylon. This prophecy says that Israel, (not Judah), was to be sifted among other nations—these Israelites losing their identity—yet God has protected and kept them—"not the least grain shall fall upon the earth."
A New Homeland

It was during this time that the children of the House of Israel were to “abide many days without a king” (Hosea 3:4). That these people did sift through all nations is clear. Many New Testament passages indicate this. Although many of them still were scattered among various nations in the first century, A.D., a portion of them had become established in a definite location of their own by Jeremiah’s time — 140 years after their original captivity.

But these Israelites who possessed the Birthright eventually were to come to a new land of their own. The Eternal says, in II Samuel 7:10, and I Chronicles 17:9: “Moreover, I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will PLANT THEM [Jeremiah was commissioned to do the PLANTING of the throne among them] that they may dwell in a place of their own and move no more.” The context of the whole passage shows this refers, not to Palestine, but a different land where these scattered Israelites were to gather, after being removed from the promised land of Palestine, and while that land was lying idle and in possession of the Gentiles.

Notice carefully! After being removed from Palestine, being sifted among all nations, abiding many days without a king, losing their identity, they are to be “planted” in a faraway strange land now to become their own. And, NOTE IT! — after reaching this place, they are to move no more! That is, of course, during this present world.

While other prophecies indicate these Birthright holders were to become a colonizing people, spreading around the world, it is plain that the spreading out must be from this appointed place, which must remain the “home” seat of government for David’s throne.

Mark this clearly! Once this “place of their own” was reached, and the throne of David planted there, THEY WERE TO MOVE NO MORE. Therefore, the location of this people TODAY is the place where Jeremiah planted David’s throne more than 2500 years ago!

Therefore prophecies pertaining to this day, or to the location of this people just prior to Christ’s return, will tell us the location of Jeremiah’s planting. The House of Israel is yet to return, at Christ’s coming, to Palestine — yet to plant grapes in Samaria, their original country. Prophecies telling where they shall, in that future day, migrate from, will reveal the location of “lost” ten-tribed ISRAEL! The two succeeding “overturns” of the throne, too, must be located in this same general locale.

Lost ISRAEL Located

Without further suspense, let us see where prophecy locates these Birthright holders, now possessing the throne of David and having received earth’s richest national blessings.

Remember they are distinguished from Judah — the Jews — by various names, “Ephraim,” “Joseph,” “Jacob,” “Rachel” (the mother of Joseph), “Samaria” (the former home), “Israel.”

According to Hosea 12:1: “Ephraim followeth after the east wind.” An “east wind” travels west. Ephraim must have gone west from Assyria.

When the Eternal swore to David to perpetuate his throne, He said: “I will set his hand [sceptre] in the sea” (Psalm 89:25). The throne is to be “set,” planted, “in the sea.”

Through Jeremiah the Eternal said: “Backsliding Israel hath justified herself more than treacherous Judah. Go and proclaim these words toward the north and say, Return thou backsliding Israel, saith the Lord” (Jeremiah 3:11-12). Israel is clearly distinguished from Judah. Of course Israel was north of Judah while still in Palestine — but when these words were written by Jeremiah, Israel had been removed from Palestine more than 130 years — and had long since migrated, with the Assyrians, north (and west) of Assyria’s original location.

And in these last days messengers are to go “toward the north” (of Jerusalem) in order to locate lost Israel and proclaim this warning. So the location, we now find, is toward the north, also west, and in the sea.

The 18th verse, same chapter, says: “In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel [margin, to the House of Israel], and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers.” At the future Exodus, at Christ’s coming, they are to return to Palestine out of the land of the NORTH!

After saying, "How shall I give thee up, Ephraim?" the Eternal, speaking through Hosea, says: "then the children shall tremble from the WEST" (Hosea 11:8, 10).

Again: "Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the earth" (Jeremiah 31:8). This prophecy is for consideration in the "latter days" (Jeremiah 30:24; 31:1), and is addressed to "Israel" (verses 2, 4, 9), to "Ephraim" (verses 6, 9), and "Samaria" (verse 5). Here is added another hint — "the coasts of the earth" — evidently they are dominant at sea, and indicating they have spread abroad widely by colonization.

Referring to the House of ISRAEL (not Judah) in Isaiah 49:3, 6, God says: "Behold these shall come from far: and lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim" (Isaiah 49:12). In the Hebrew, the language in which this was originally inspired, there is no word for "NORTHWEST," but this term is designated by the phrase, "the north and the west." It means, literally, the NORTHWEST! The Vulgate renders "Sinim" as "Australi," or "Australia." So we now have the location NORTHWEST of JERUSALEM! And even spreading around the world.

Hence, Israel of TODAY — Israel of the day of Jeremiah's "planting" of David's throne — is located specifically as NORTHWEST of JERUSALEM, and IN THE SEA!

Let us locate this land more specifically!

The same 49th chapter of Isaiah begins with this: "Listen, O Isles, unto me." The people addressed, Israel, are called "O Isles" in the first verse and "O Israel" in the third verse. This term "isles" and "islands" is sometimes translated "coastlands."

The 31st chapter of Jeremiah, locating Israel in the "north country" says: "I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn. Hear the word of the Lord, O ye nations [Ephraim, Manasseh] and declare it in the isles afar off . . ." (Jeremiah 31:9-10).

Again: "Keep silence before me, O islands . . . thou, Israel, art my servant Jacob whom I have chosen" (Isaiah 41:1, 8).

In Jeremiah 31:7, the message to be declared "in the isles afar off” (verse 10), is to be shouted in “the CHIEF OF THE NATIONS.”

So, finally, today, as in Jeremiah’s day, the House of ISRAEL is IN THE ISLES, which are “in the sea,” the CHIEF of the nations, NORTHWEST of Jerusalem! A coast-dwelling, and therefore sea-dominant people.

Certainly there can be no mistaking that identity!

Take a map of Europe. Lay a line due NORTHWEST of Jerusalem across the continent of Europe, until you come to the sea, and then to the islands in the sea!

This line takes you direct to the BRITISH ISLES!

Of proof that our white, English-speaking peoples today — Britain and America — are actually and truly the Birthright tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh of the “lost” House of Israel, there is so much, we shall have space for but a small portion in this book.

Britain’s Hebrew Names

A most interesting fact is the Hebrew meaning of the names of the British people.

The House of Israel is the Covenant People. The Hebrew word for “covenant” is beriyth, or berith. After Gideon’s death, Israel followed the false pagan god Baal. In Judges 8:33, and 9:4, the word “covenant” is used as a proper name coupled with the name “Baal.” This is quoted in the English text, Authorized Version, without being translated, as “Baalberith,” meaning (margin) “idol of the covenant.”

The Hebrew for “man” is iysh, or ish. In English, the ending “-ish” means “of or belonging to (a specified nation or person).” In the original Hebrew language vowels were never given in the spelling. So, omitting the vowel “e” from berith, but retaining the “i” in its Anglicized form to preserve the “y” sound, we have the Anglicized Hebrew word for covenant, brith.

The Hebrews, however, never pronounced their “h’s.” Many a Jew, even today, in pronouncing the name “Shem,” will call it “Sem.” Incidentally, this ancient Hebrew trait is also a modern British trait. So the Hebrew word for “covenant” would be pronounced, in its Anglicized form as brit.

And the word for “covenant man,” or “covenant people,” would, therefore, be simply, "BRITISH." And so, is it mere coincidence that the true covenant people today are called the "BRITISH"? And they reside in the "BRITISH ISLES!"

The House of Israel not only was to lose its identity, but its name. It was to be called by a new name, since they no longer were to know their identity as Israel, as God said plainly in Isaiah 62:2, referring to these latter days, and to the millennium.

To Abraham, God said, "In ISAAC shall thy seed be called," and this name is repeated in Romans 9:7 and Hebrews 11:18. In Amos 7:16 they are called "The House of ISAAC."

They were descended from Isaac, and therefore are Isaac's sons. Drop the "I" from "Isaac" (vowels are not used in Hebrew spelling), and we have the modern name, "SAAC'S sons," or, as we spell it in shorter manner, "SAXONS!"

Dr. W. Holt Yates says, "The word 'Saxons' is derived from the 'sons of Isaac,' by dropping the prefix 'I.'"

Many confuse the Anglo-Saxons with the German or Old Saxons who still live in Germany. The German Saxons derive their name from an Old High German word, Sahs meaning "sword" or "knife." These sword-carrying Germans are an entirely different people from the Anglo-Saxons who migrated to Britain.

Dan a Serpent's Trail

As the Eternal intended that "lost" Israel was to be located and found in these last days, we should expect some kinds of signs or waymarks to have been left along the trail by which ancient Israel journeyed from Assyria, the land of their original captivity.

Speaking to Ephraim (verse 20), the Eternal says in Jeremiah 31:21: "Set thee up waymarks, make thee high heaps; set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest." In Scripture we find the "waymarks," or highway signs which they set up along the road they traveled.

In Genesis 49:17, Jacob, foretelling what should befall each of the tribes, says: "Dan shall be a serpent by the way." Another translation of the original Hebrew is: "Dan shall be a serpent's trail." It is a significant fact that the tribe of Dan, one of the Ten Tribes, named every place they went after their father, Dan.

The tribe of Dan originally occupied a strip of coast country on the Mediterranean, west of Jerusalem. “And the coast of the children of Dan,” we read in Joshua 19:47, “went out too little for them: therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem, and took it . . . and called Leshem DAN, after the name of Dan their father.”

In Judges 18:11-12, it is recorded that Danites took Kirjath-jearim, “and called that place Mahaneh-dan unto this day.”

A little later the same company of 600 armed Danites came to Laish, captured it, and “they called the name of the city DAN, after the name of Dan, their father” (verse 29).

So notice how these Danites left their “serpent’s trail” by the way—set up waymarks by which they may be traced today.

Remember, in the Hebrew, vowels were not written. The sound of the vowels had to be supplied in speaking. Thus, the word “Dan” in its English equivalent, could be spelled, simply, “Dn.” It might be pronounced as “Dan,” or “Den,” or “Din,” or “Don,” or “Dun”—and still could be the same original Hebrew name.

The tribe of Dan occupied two different districts, or provinces, in the Holy Land before the Assyrian captivity. One colony lived on the seacoast of Palestine. They were principally seamen, and it is recorded “Dan abode in ships” (Judges 5:17).

When Assyria captured Israel, these Danites struck out in their ships and sailed west through the Mediterranean, and north to Ireland. Just before his death, Moses prophesied of Dan: “Dan is a lion’s whelp; he shall leap from Bashan” (Deuteronomy 33:22). Along the shores of the Mediterranean they left their trail in “Den,” “Don,” and “Din.”

Irish annals and history show that the new settlers of Ireland, at just this time, were the “Tuatha de Danaans,” which means, translated, “Tribe of Dan.” Sometimes the name appears simply as “Tuatha De,” meaning the “People of God.” And in Ireland we find they left these “waymarks”: “Dans-Laugh,” “Dan-Sower,” “Dun-dalke,” “Dun-drum,” “Don-egal Bay,” “Don-egal City,” “Dun-glow,” “Lon-don-derry,” “Din-gle,” “Duns-more” (meaning “more Dans”). Moreover, the name “Dunn” in the Irish language means the same as “Dan” in the Hebrew: “Judge.”

The Overland Route

But the northern colony of Danites were taken to Assyria in the captivity, and thence with the rest of the Ten Tribes they traveled from Assyria by the overland route.

After leaving Assyrian captivity, they inhabited for some time the land just west of the Black Sea. Then we find the rivers “Dnieper, Dniester, and the Don.”

Then, in either ancient or later geography, we find these waymarks: Dan-au, the Dan-inn, the Dan-aster, the Dan-dari, the Dan-ez, and Don, the Dan, and the U-don; the Eri-don, down to the Danes. “Denmark” means “Dan’s Mark.”

When they came to the British Isles, they set up the “waymark” names of Dun-dee, Dun-raven, in Scotland and the Dans, Dons and Duns are as prolific as in Ireland. And so the “serpent’s trail” of Dan sets up waymarks that lead directly to the British Isles!

Ancient Annals of Ireland

Now briefly let us consider what is found in the ancient annals, legends, and history of Ireland, and we shall have the scene of Jeremiah’s “planting,” and the present location of “lost” Israel.

The real ancient history of Ireland is very extensive, though colored with some legend. But with the facts of Biblical history and prophecy in mind, one can easily sift out the legend from the true history in studying ancient Irish annals. Throwing out that which is obviously legendary, we glean from various histories of Ireland the following:

Long prior to 700 B.C., a strong colony called “Tuatha de Danaan” (tribe of Dan) arrived in ships, drove out other tribes, and settled there. Later, in the days of David, a colony of the line of Zarah arrived in Ireland from the Near East.

Then, in 569 B.C. (date of Jeremiah’s transplanting), Map shows Jeremiah's trip to Ireland. He set up the dynasty in Ireland, which was overturned and planted in Scotland and later moved to England.
an elderly, white-haired patriarch, sometimes referred to as a "saint," came to Ireland. With him was the princess daughter of an eastern king and a companion called "Simon Brach," spelled in different histories as "Breck," "Berech," "Brach," or "Berach." The princess had a Hebrew name "Tephi" — a pet name, her full name being "Tea-Tephi."

Modern literature of those who recognize our national identity have confused this Tea-Tephi, a daughter of Zedekiah, with an earlier Tea, a daughter of Ith, who lived in the days of David.

This royal party included the son of the king of Ireland who had been in Jerusalem at the time of the siege. There he had become acquainted with Tea-Tephi. He married her shortly after 585 — when the city fell. Their young son, now about 12 years of age, accompanied them to Ireland. Beside the royal family, Jeremiah brought with them some remarkable things, including a harp, an ark, and a wonderful stone called "lia-fail," or "stone of destiny." A peculiar coincidence (?) is that Hebrew reads from right to left, while English reads from left to right. Read this name either way — and it still is "lia-fail."

Another strange coincidence — or is it just coincidence? — is that many kings in the history of Ireland, Scotland, and England have been coronated sitting over this stone — including the present queen. The stone rests, today, in Westminster Abbey in London, and the Coronation Chair is built over and around it. A sign beside it labels it "Jacob’s pillar-stone" (Genesis 28:18).

The royal husband of the Hebrew princess Tea was given the title Herremon, upon ascending the throne of his father. This Herremon has usually been confused with a much earlier Gede the Herremon in David’s day — who married his uncle Ith’s daughter Tea. The son of this later king Herremon and Hebrew princess continued on the throne of Ireland, and this same dynasty continued, unbroken, through all the kings of Ireland; was overturned and transplanted again in Scotland; again overturned and moved to London, England, where this same dynasty continues today in the reign of Queen Elizabeth II.

The crown worn by the kings of the line of Herremon and the other sovereigns of ancient Ireland had TWELVE POINTS!

Queen Elizabeth on David's Throne

In view of the linking together of Biblical history, prophecy, and Irish history, can anyone deny that this Hebrew princess was the daughter of King Zedekiah of Judah, and therefore heir to the throne of David? — That the aged patriarch was in fact Jeremiah, and his companion Jeremiah's scribe, or secretary, Baruch? — And that King Herremon was a descendant of Zarah, here married to the daughter of Pharez, healing the ancient breach? — That when the throne of David was first overturned by Jeremiah, it was REPLANTED in Ireland, later overturned a second time and replanted in Scotland, overturned a third time and planted in London?

When Christ returns to earth to sit on that throne, He shall take over a live, existing throne, not a non-existent one (Luke 1:32).

And the British Commonwealth of Nations is the only company of nations in all earth’s history. Could we so exactly fulfill the specifications of the Birthright, and not be the Birthright people?

The United States expanded rapidly in national resources and wealth after 1800, but reached world dominance among nations later than the British Commonwealth. It became a giant World Power by the end of World War I.

The United States Is Manasseh

From the prophetic blessings passed on by the dying Jacob, it is apparent that Ephraim and Manasseh were in a large measure, to inherit the Birthright jointly; to remain together for a long time, finally separating.

In Genesis 48 Jacob first passed the Birthright on to the two sons of Joseph jointly, speaking of them both together. Then, finally, he spoke of them separately — Manasseh was to become the single great nation, Ephraim the company of nations.

And in his prophecy for these latter days Jacob said, “Joseph is a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well, whose branches run over the wall” (Genesis 49:22). In other words, Joseph — Ephraim and Manasseh jointly and together — was to be a colonizing people in this latter day, their colonies branching out from the British Isles around the earth. Our people have fulfilled this prophecy.

Together Ephraim and Manasseh grew into a multitude, then separated, according to Jacob’s prophetic blessing of Genesis 48.

But, how can we be Manasseh when a large part of our people have come from many nations besides England? The answer is this: A large part of Manasseh remained with Ephraim until the separation of New England. But our
At the zenith of power, the United States and the British Commonwealth possessed between \( \frac{2}{3} \) and \( \frac{3}{4} \) of the world's wealth and industrial might. These graphs illustrate the combined wealth of the United States and the British Commonwealth in twelve strategic natural resources, or areas of production in 1950-1951. In each of these key areas our two nations possessed more than all other nations of the world combined!
forefathers were to be sifted through many nations, as corn through a sieve, yet not a grain to fall to the earth, or be lost (Amos 9:9). Our people did filter through many nations.
Ephraim and much of Manasseh finally immigrated to England together, but many others of Manasseh who had filtered into and through other nations did not leave them until they came, as immigrants, to the United States after the New England colony had become the separate nation. This does not mean that all foreigners who have immigrated into this country are of the stock of Manasseh, but undoubtedly many are. Israel, however, always did absorb Gentiles, who became Israelites through living in Israel’s land and intermarrying.

Thus we have become known as the “melting pot” of the world. Instead of refuting our Manasseh ancestry, this fact actually confirms it.

The proof that we are Manasseh is overwhelming. Manasseh was to separate from Ephraim and become the greatest, wealthiest single nation of earth’s history. We alone have fulfilled this prophecy. Manasseh was, in fact a thirteenth tribe.
There were twelve original tribes. Joseph was one of these twelve. But when Joseph divided into two tribes and Manasseh separated into an independent nation, it became a thirteenth tribe.

Could it be mere coincidence that it started, as a nation, with thirteen colonies?

But what about the other tribes of the so-called “Lost Ten Tribes”?

While the Birthright was Joseph’s, and its blessings have come to the British Commonwealth of Nations and the United States of America, yet the other eight tribes of the House of Israel were also God’s chosen people. They, too, have been blessed with a good measure of material prosperity — but not the dominance of the Birthright.

We lack space for a detailed explanation of the specific identity of all these other tribes in the nations of our twentieth century.

Suffice it to say here, that there is ample evidence that these other eight tribes have descended into such northwestern European nations as Holland, Belgium, Denmark, northern France, Luxembourg, Switzerland, Sweden, Norway. The people of Iceland are also of Viking stock.

The political boundaries of Europe, as they exist today, do not necessarily show lines of division between descendants of these original tribes of Israel.
Chapter X

BIRTHRIGHT WITHHELD
2520 YEARS!

The most remarkable fulfillment of Biblical prophecy in modern times was the sudden sprouting forth of the two mightiest world powers—one, a commonwealth of nations forming the greatest world empire of all time; the other, the wealthiest, most powerful nation on earth today.

These Birthright peoples came, with incredible suddenness, into possession of more than two thirds—nearly three fourths—of the cultivated wealth and resources of the whole world!

This sensational spurt from virtual obscurity in so short a time gives incontrovertible proof of divine inspiration. Never, in all history, did anything like it occur.

But why did this unprecedented national wealth and power come to our Birthright inheritors only after the year 1800 A.D.? Why did not this national dominance come to the tribes of Ephraim-Manasseh millenniums ago—in the days of Moses, or Joshua, or David, or Elijah?

The answer is utterly amazing!

It will be made plain in this chapter.

A "Nation," and "Commonwealth of Nations"

Remember, now, the Birthright Promise was given to the two tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh—not to the other tribes or their descendants. These two Birthright tribes were part of the northern Kingdom of Israel.

Notice again the original promise: "A nation, and a company of nations shall be of thee" (Genesis 35:9-12).

Remember, in passing on the Birthright Promise the dying Jacob (Israel) said of Ephraim and Manasseh, sons of Joseph,
"let my name be named on them" (Genesis 48:16). Hence it is THEY — the descendants of Ephraim (British) and Manasseh (Americans) — not the Jews, who are referred to in prophecy under the names Jacob or Israel. Continuing, Jacob added, "and let them grow into a multitude."

Then, speaking of Manasseh and his descendants alone, Jacob said prophetically: “he also shall become a people [nation], and he also shall be great but truly his younger brother [Ephraim] shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a MULTITUDE [a company, or COMMONWEALTH] of NATIONS” (Genesis 48:19).

All Came Since 1800

In 1800 A.D. the United Kingdom and the United States were small and insignificant among the earth’s nations. The United Kingdom consisted only of the British Isles, a very small part of India and of Canada and a few little islands. The United States consisted only of the original 13 colonies and three added states. Neither possessed any great wealth or power.

But beginning in 1800 these two little nations began to sprout and to grow into vast national riches and power such as no people ever possessed. Soon Britain’s empire spread around the world, until the sun never set upon her possessions. Canada, Australia, South Africa, were given dominion status — made free and independent nations, ruling themselves independent of England — a company, or commonwealth of nations joined together, not by legal government, but solely by the throne of David!

But WHY Not Until 1800?

But again, why was that tremendous Birthright, which was promised UNCONDITIONALLY to Abraham, re-promised to Isaac and Jacob, never bestowed for millennia of time—until after 1800 A.D.?

The answer is amazing — exciting!

To understand this miraculous burst into world dominance, it is necessary to examine the very pivot of Old Testament prophecies — the 26th chapter of Leviticus.

Prophecy for NOW!

This remarkable prophecy pertains to our time, as well as giving warning to the people of Israel in Moses' day.

Few realize that the prophecies of the Old Testament pertain, primarily, to this 20th century — not, in many cases, to Old Testament times at all.

Most ministers and church leaders today were schooled in the theological seminaries of their particular denominations. They were taught, nearly altogether, from sectarian books, not from the Bible.

Many of these will say: "We are a New Testament Church," supposing Old Testament prophecies pertained only to Old Testament times, having no meaning for us today. That is an error and a delusion! Many Old Testament prophecies were never written for, nor read by or to the Israelites of those times.

The New Testament Church of God is actually built on the foundation of these Old Testament Prophets, as well as the Apostles (Ephesians 2:20).

Daniel wrote after both Israel and Judah had been removed from Palestine as slaves. He had no way to communicate his prophecies to his slave countrymen — and besides, the meaning was closed and sealed until our time, now (Daniel 12:8-9).

Ezekiel was a prophet, not to the Jews of the House of Judah, though he was among them in their captivity. But his prophecy was to be delivered to the House of Israel — driven out some 130 years before, and by Ezekiel's time lost from view. His prophecy was to be delivered to the House of Israel today, in this 20th century, by God's ministers who now know their identity!

And this prophecy of Leviticus 26, though written by Moses before the Israelites had entered the promised land, is one of dual fulfillment. It was a warning to those of Moses' day — but its final fulfillment, as we shall see, has taken place — and is now taking place — in our time. And, through the duality fulfillment, typical of so many prophecies, it is also a warning to the American and British peoples of impending events to occur within the next five to eight years! And this warning has been thundered in great power to these very Birthright Israelites during the past 34 years!

Leviticus 26 is the basic prophecy of the Old Testament. It contains a vital, living, tremendous message and warning for our people today!

The Pivotal Prophecy

In this central prophecy, God reaffirmed the Birthright Promise — but with conditions — for those of Moses' day!

The Birthright tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh were then with the other tribes — as one nation. Obedience to God's Laws would bring the vast national wealth and blessings of the Birthright to Ephraim and Manasseh not only — but the whole nation would automatically have shared it at that time.

Notice carefully that two of the Ten Commandments are mentioned for emphasis. These were the main test Commandments! They were the test of obedience, and of faith in and loyalty to God.

God said: "Ye shall make you no idols nor graven image . . . to bow down unto it: for I am the ETERNAL your God. Ye shall keep my Sabbaths . . ." (verses 1 and 2).

There was a condition — a great big "IF" — to their receiving actual fulfillment of this stupendous Birthright Promise in their time!

God said: "IF ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them; THEN I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield her increase . . ." (verses 3-4). All wealth comes out of the ground. They would enjoy bumper crops the year around, one harvest on the heels of another.

Verse 6: "And I will give peace in the land . . . and none shall make you afraid . . . neither shall the sword [of war] go through your land."

What a blessing! What nation enjoys continuous peace, without fear of invasion?

Of course, in this world, every nation has enemies. What if enemy nations attacked?

Verses 7-8: "And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword. And five of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight . . ." Since many nations in this world always have been aggressors, Israel would have been attacked. A nation with the military superiority to defeat all attackers would soon become the dominant, most powerful nation on earth — especially with resources and great wealth from the ground.

Verse 9: "For I will have respect unto you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish my covenant with you."

The Great Big IF

"BUT" — verse 14. Here comes the alternative, IF the conditions are not met: "if ye will not hearken unto me, and will not do all these commandments . . . I also will do this unto you; I will appoint over you terror, consumption, and the burning ague [fever], that shall consume the eyes [RSV: waste the eyes and cause life to pine away]; and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it. And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall rule over you . . ." (verses 14-17). They would be invaded, conquered, become once again slaves — as they had been in Egypt before God freed them.

Now what did happen?

These Israelites griped, grumbled, complained, doubted God, almost from the very night they left Egypt. God miraculously delivered them from the pursuing Egyptian army at the Red Sea. God sent manna and quails from heaven to feed them. God caused drinking water to gush from the great rock. But always they complained, showed a rebellious attitude.

The children of Israel, under Moses, came to the desert at the foot of Mount Sinai. There Moses was called up the mountain where God spoke to him. God here offered them the opportunity to become His nation — under His rule, and, upon obedience and loyalty to His government, to receive the fabulous national Birthright world-dominance.

The Eternal said, “Now, therefore, IF ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people, for all the earth is mine” (Exodus 19:5).

Notice — God did not force them to become His nation — a “peculiar” nation, different from the apostate gentile kingdoms. The choice was theirs!

The Beginning of a Nation

Moses returned to camp. He laid God’s proposed agreement (Covenant) before that vast congregation of perhaps two or three million people.

“And all the people answered together, and said, ‘ALL THAT THE ETERNAL HATH SPOKEN WE WILL DO.’” (Verse 8.)

For two days the people were specially prepared for a tremendous event. They were to hear the very voice of God from the mountain. On the third day, amid a fantastically tremendous supernatural display of thunder and lightning, and thick clouds swirling over the mountain, God’s tremendous voice — exceedingly loud — thundered in their ears the basic law of His Government — the great spiritual Law defining, in principle, God’s way of life — the way to avoid the evils besetting the world — the way that would cause peace, happiness, prosperity, abundant well-being!

That vast assemblage actually heard the very voice of the Eternal God, delivering to them THE TEN COMMANDMENTS!

The people were frightened! They trembled! It was an awesome experience which had never happened before — and has never occurred since!

Then, through Moses, God outlined in more detail His proposition for setting them up as God’s nation.

Again, the people answered with a unanimous voice, “All the words which the Eternal hath said will we do.” (Ex. 24:3.)
Moses wrote all the terms of this covenant — this agreement making these ex-slaves God's nation — this agreement which also was a marriage covenant, with the Eternal as husband, and the wife obeying her husband.

Moses read the terms and conditions — the “book of the Covenant” — before all the people. Again came the unanimous decision and agreement on their part: “All that the Eternal hath said will we do, and be obedient.”

Old Covenant a Marriage

The Covenant agreement between God and this people — called “The Old Covenant” — was then ratified and put into effect with blood (Ex. 24:5-8).

This “old covenant” was mediated by Moses. It married a mortal, human people to the Eternal. They became His nation. They had promised loyal obedience as citizens.

This “Old Covenant” was based on the Birthright promise God had made to Abraham. But human mortals, filled with the vanity, envy, lust and greed of human nature, seldom remain faithful. So the Living Christ is now soon coming, to be the Mediator of the New Covenant, based on better promises (Heb. 8:6-10 and 9:15). But the New Covenant will not be made with human mortals who do not keep their promises. God has been preparing — and still now is preparing — a people to be made immortal. These immortals are to be married to Christ. And He died, rose, and sent God’s Holy Spirit, “that He might sanctify and cleanse” this New Testament “wife” — “... that He might present it to Himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy, and without blemish.” (Eph. 5:26-27.)

The New Covenant will be made with a people who already have proved, by their Christian life of obedience, faith, growing in spiritual character and knowledge, and overcoming — a people then made immortal and holy and perfect.

The New Covenant is based on the Sceptre Promise made to Abraham — through the coming King of kings, Jesus Christ, of the very dynasty of David!
They Turn to Idolatry

But notice how these mortal Israelites performed.

After the old covenant between God and Israel had been ratified, God called Moses up into the mountain. Moses was kept there forty days, receiving detailed technical instructions for the Congregation (Church), and for the Nation — for with them Church and State were united.

After Moses had been gone some days, the people said to Aaron, “Up! Make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.” So they took their golden earrings and trinkets, and Aaron had it made into a golden calf for an idol.

Moses came down from the Mount, carrying the two tablets of stone on which the Eternal had engraved the Ten Commandments with His own finger. On seeing this golden idol, and the people worshipping it in merriment and dancing, he lost his temper, and in a rage, threw down the tablets of stone and broke them.

Of course, just as some very large religious bodies, claiming to be Christian, do today, they merely claimed this calf represented God — it pictured to them what they supposed God looked like.

After making this molten gold calf, Aaron proclaimed a Feast “to the Eternal” (Ex. 32:5), during which they worshipped before the idol. Go into a Church of England, or a Roman Catholic Church today, and ask the priest or official whether the images of “Christ” and of “Mary” are idols — whether they are not worshipping idols in pagan idolatry. They will indignantly say — “No! We don’t worship idols. We don’t worship the images. We don’t claim the images actually are Christ or Mary — only that they represent, or picture to us what Christ or Mary look like!”

Well, that is precisely the way all pagans always worshipped idols! But God’s wrath waxed hot at this (Ex. 32:7-11). God will not accept such worship!!! See also Deuteronomy 12:30-31. Read it!!!!

In the second year after leaving Egypt, God had moved the Israelites to a new camp in the wilderness of Paran (Num. 10:11-12).

Withheld 40 Years

God then told Moses to send twelve men — one leader or ruler from each tribe — to spy out the Promised Land and bring back a report on the land and its inhabitants. (Num. 13:1-2.)

These men were gone 40 days. On their return, all but two — Joshua and Caleb, misrepresented what they had seen, giving an evil report. When Joshua and Caleb reported the truth, the people tried to stone them. They accepted the evil report, complained against God, doubted, rebelled, disobeyed.

Have you ever wondered why these Israelites were 40 years in the desolate, barren, desert-and-mountain wilderness getting to the Promised Land? It was not because it required 40 years of travel. These men sent to report on it journeyed to it, walked all over it from one end to the other, and returned — round trip — in 40 days.

But because the people griped, disbelieved God, disobeyed, and refused to go forthwith to possess it; instead of deciding to march ahead and possess this great prize God wanted to give them, they despised it, lacked faith to go in and possess it, refused to march forward.

This Promised Land is a type of the glorious Kingdom of God, which the living Saviour, Jesus Christ, offers us. But today we, the descendants of those Israelites, despise it, prefer the “slavery” of sin, fail to exercise the faith to go on and possess God's Kingdom. We, too, rebel, disbelieve, and disobey! And those who thus despise it shall not enter that glorious Kingdom with eternal life in happiness and accomplishment!

To this rebellious population, God said, “Your carcases shall fall in this wilderness . . . ye shall not come into the land . . . save Caleb . . . and Joshua . . . But your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which ye have despised.” (Numbers 14:29-31.)

“And,” continued God, “your children shall wander in the wilderness forty years, and bear your whoredoms, until your carcasses be wasted in the wilderness.” (Verse 33.)

And now comes the “day for a year” principle:

“And the number of the days in which ye searched the land, even forty days, each day for a year, shall ye bear your iniquities, even forty years . . .” (verse 34).

And this punishment was, in fact, a withholding of the promised blessing for this duration of forty years.

Idolatry Again

That generation of Israelites was not allowed to enter the Promised Land. They spent forty years in the wilderness. Their children entered the Holy Land under Joshua’s leadership.

Then what?

They became so busy occupying their Promised Land, driving out the many little kingdoms, that during Joshua’s life and a little longer, they served God — and prospered. They were making a nice start toward inheriting — in their day — the tremendous blessings of the Birthright.

But, after Joshua died “and also that generation . . . there arose another generation after them, which knew not the Eternal, nor yet the works which He had done for Israel. And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the Eternal, and served Baalim: and they forsook the Eternal God of their fathers . . . And the anger of the Eternal was hot against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers that spoiled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could no longer stand before their enemies. Whithersoever they went out, the hand of the Eternal was against them for evil, as the Eternal had said, and as the Eternal had sworn unto them, and they were greatly distressed.” (Judges 2:10-15.)

So, precisely as God had warned, in verses 14-17 of Leviticus 26, God did appoint over them terror; they did sow their seed in vain, for their enemies ate it; God did set His face against them!

God’s Word stands!

What a pity neither individuals nor nations seem able to believe that!

But that was not the end. God is a merciful, forgiving
God. He gave them repeatedly another chance. Continue the history in the Book of Judges:

"Nevertheless the Eternal raised up Judges, which delivered them out of the hands of those that spoiled them. And yet they would not hearken unto their judges, but they went a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves unto them: they turned quickly out of the way . . . ." (Judges 2:16-17).

This happened repeatedly. Every time they were put under the yoke of another nation, as vassals, they cried out to God for deliverance. But also every time God sent a judge to free them, they quickly turned from God. As soon as things were going well for them, these people turned again to idolatry.

But were they so different from us, their descendants today? Most of us seek God only when in trouble — only when in our self-interest we feel we need Him!

Up until this time, though these people had complained, lacked faith, gone contrary to God repeatedly, nevertheless they still recognized God as their only Ruler. They may not have trusted in, or obeyed Him and His rule but partially, but they acknowledged no other Ruler.

They Reject God as King

But, in the days of Samuel, they rejected God as their national King — as their civil Ruler even. They demanded a human King, like all the unbelieving Gentiles. (I Sam. 8:1-7 — date, near end of 1112 B.C. — Ussher; probably one to three years incorrect.)

To reject God as Ruler was the greatest sin. Up until this time, they had recognized Him — had looked to no other as King. This seems to have begun the years of complete sin, for which God punished them.

Nevertheless, under the "Old Covenant" of Mt. Sinai, they were still God’s nation. God still dealt with them. He did not "divorce" them, until 721-718 B.C. as we shall see.

They suffered under Saul. They began prospering under King David, and in Solomon's reign they reached a considerable state of prosperity. However, they had not yet flowered out into the full predominant world-power status promised under the Birthright. And Solomon's prosperity turned him to idolatry. Again they were violating the condition for receiving the Birthright.

When Solomon’s son, Rehoboam, became king, he threatened to put still heavier tax burdens on the people. Thereupon the nation rejected Rehoboam, and set up Jeroboam, of the tribe of Ephraim, as king.

A Nation Divided

This caused division! In order to retain the Davidic dynasty, Judah thereupon seceded. With Benjamin, and most of Levi, they formed a new nation — the Kingdom of Judah! No longer did they have the national name, “Israel.” The people of this new-formed Kingdom of Judah are the ones who became known as the Jews! The people of the Kingdom of Israel, occupying the northern part of Palestine, north of Jerusalem, never were called Jews!

Now the Birthright and Sceptre promises were divided into two nations. Remember Ephraim and Manasseh shared the Birthright. If then inherited, the others of the Ten-Tribed Israel nation would have automatically shared it with them — since they were part of the same nation!

But under Jeroboam, the ten-tribed nation Israel completely violated God’s laws, particularly the two test Commandments. Almost the first act of Jeroboam was setting up idols. And he changed God’s autumn Festivals from the seventh to the eighth month. There is ample evidence that he also changed God’s Sabbath from the seventh to the “eighth” day (first day of the week). This will be shown in a later chapter.

Even after all this, God gave the nation every chance to qualify for the tremendous Birthright blessings. During the reigns of nineteen kings in seven different dynasties, God pleaded with them through His prophets.

But this rebellious nation showed no disposition to turn to God’s ways. They had been punished repeatedly. But they refused to learn the lesson experience should have taught them.

The Seven Prophetic TIMES

Now continue in Leviticus 26:

“And if ye will not yet for all this hearken unto me, then
I will punish you seven times more for your sins" (verse 18).

It is important to UNDERSTAND this!

This expression "seven times," is translated in the English from a Hebrew word which conveys a dual meaning. The original Hebrew word Moses wrote is shibah. It is defined as "seven times," and also as "sevenfold." The seven times implies duration or continuation of punishment. But the word also conveys the meaning of sevenfold, or seven times greater intensity of punishment — as, a punishment that is sevenfold more intense. In this sense, the meaning would be the same as in Daniel 4, where King Nebuchadnezzar, in a rage, commanded the furnace into which Daniel’s three friends were to be thrown, should be made seven times hotter. However, in Daniel 4 a different Hebrew word is used, which can mean only this greater intensity, and cannot refer to “times,” or number of years. But the Hebrew shibah, used in Leviticus 26:18 can mean this, or “times.”

Now understand the “seven times”— or seven prophetic “times.” For this is a prophecy.

In prophecy, a “time” is a prophetic 360-day year. And, during Israel’s punishment, each day represented a year being fulfilled. This “day for a year” principle is explained in two other passages dealing with the duration of Israel’s punishment.

One of these we have already covered. God punished that generation of Israelites Moses had led out of Egypt, by withholding from them entry into the Promised Land FORTY YEARS. That Promised Land was a beginning part of the Birthright. God punished them on the principle of a year for every day — forty years duration of punishment for the 40 days of transgression.

Ezekiel’s “Day for a Year”

In order to impress on the prophet Ezekiel the seriousness of Israel’s years of rebellion against God’s rule, and God’s laws which would cause great blessings, God imposed this very principle on him — but enacted in reverse.

The sins of the House of Israel had continued from their rejection of God as King for 390 years. Naturally God could not expect this prophet, in a human lifetime, to undergo the bearing of these years of sin on the basis of each day of sinning being borne by him a year. That would have required 2,000 lifetimes. So God reversed the actual application of the principle. Ezekiel was required to “bear” Israel’s sins a day for each year they had sinned. But it still was the “day for a year” principle!

Ezekiel was told to lie on his left side, in an imaginary siege against Jerusalem, pictured on a tile before him.

“Lie thou also on thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the House of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity. For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the House of Israel. And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the House of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year.” (Ezekiel 4:4-6.)

It is mentioned further in verse 9.

But in the other application of the “day for a year” principle, previously explained, where it applied also to a duration of punishment put on the People, the punishment was to be borne by them on the basis of a year of punishment for each day. Also in this case, the punishment was the number of years during which a promised blessing was withheld.

Now when we come to this expression “... then I will punish you seven times more for your sins,” in Leviticus 26, it is evident both by its manner of wording in the sentence, and by the fact of actual fulfillment, that it was speaking of a duration of seven prophetic “times,” or years. And on this “year for a day” principle, it becomes seven 360-day years—a total of 2520 days. And when each day is a year of punishment—in this case, as in Numbers 14:34, a withholding of a promised blessing—the punishment becomes the withdrawing of, and withholding the promised blessings for 2520 YEARS!

For that is precisely WHAT DID HAPPEN!

What is a “TIME”?

But now did you notice I said that a prophetic “time” is a 360-day year? Why not a year of 365 ¼ days? Why not a solar year?
In ancient Biblical times, a year was figured on a basis of twelve 30-day months. Previous to the time, in Moses’ day, when God gave His people the sacred calendar, the 30-day month was used.

Notice Genesis 7:11: “In the six hundredth year of Noah’s life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.” Now verse 24: “And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days.”

Next, Genesis 8:3-4: “And the waters returned from off the earth continually; and after the end of the hundred and fifty days, the waters were abated. And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat.”

So notice — the flood started on the 17th day of the second month. At the end of 150 days, the ark rested on Mount Ararat, on the 17th day of the 7th month. That was five months to the day. Five 30-day months are precisely 150 days. So months, then, were 30-day months!

We find it definitely figured this way in both Daniel and Revelation.

In Revelation 12:6, a prophecy of an event which in actual history did last 1260 solar years, is spoken of as “a thousand two hundred and three-score days.” So here, again, a prophetic day was a year in fulfillment. In Revelation 13:5 (referring to a different event but the same amount of time) this same period of 1260 days being fulfilled in 1260 solar years is spoken of as “forty and two months.” Now 42 calendar months, according to the calendar now in use, would not be 1260 days, but 1276 days — and, if a leap year occurred, 1277. Or, if the extra half-year happened to be the last half of the year, it would be 1280 or 1281 days. But the 42 months of Revelation 13:5 is the same amount of time as the 1260 days of Revelation 12:6. So the 42 months were 30-day months.

The same amount of days is spoken of in still different language in Revelation 12:14, as “a time, times, and half a time.” The “time” is one prophetic year; the “times” is two more prophetic years; and the whole expression is 3½ prophetic “times,” which is a literal 1260 days — or, 3½ years of thirty-day months. Seven of these “times,” then, would be 2520 days — and on a day-for-a-year basis, 2520 years!

Then in Daniel 12:7 the same expression “time, times, and half a time” is mentioned.

Enough space is being taken, here, to make this plain, clear, understandable. For this is basic to several key prophecies.

A prophetic “time,” then, is a 360-day year—or a plain 360 days. And, during those years of Israel’s punishment, as made plain by combining Leviticus 26:18, with Ezekiel 4:4-6, Numbers 14:34, and Revelation 13:5 and 12:6, each day of a prophetic “time” was one year in fulfillment. In Leviticus 26:18, and in Revelation 12:6 and 13:5, this meaning is verified and proved, by the fact that the prophecy was fulfilled in precisely the time indicated.

Birthright Withheld 2520 Years

Now back again to the pivotal prophecy of Leviticus 26. These Israelites had not listened to God — had not qualified to become recipients of the fabulous, overwhelming Birthright national blessing. They had broken especially the two test Commandments emphasized in verses 1 and 2 of this chapter. God had punished them, in the manner He had said He would, as described in verses 14-17.

Now God said, as quoted before, “And if ye will not yet for all this”— all He had punished them with, described in verses 14-17 — “hearken unto me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins.”

Because of the manner in which this is here worded, compared with the manner of wording where the “seven times” is again mentioned — and because the Birthright actually was withheld precisely 2520 years, it is certain that the meaning of the “seven times” in verse 18 is a duration of seven 360-day years, each day being a year in fulfillment — total, 2520 actual years! And the very enforcing of the “day-for-a-year” principle also implies a multiplied intensity of the punishment.

Actually, they had sinned the 390 years mentioned in Ezekiel’s prophecy (Ezek. 4:4-5).
Even from the time they rejected God as their national King, God allowed them to remain in the Promised Land those additional 390 years! During all these years God continued to send prophets to warn and plead with them. Had they repented and turned back to God and His ways, they still could have received the richest national blessing of all history. But they would not. Rather, they increased in sins!

So finally God took completely away from them— for a duration of 2520 years— this opportunity to reap such vast material prosperity and power.

Israel Becomes LOST

Finally God \textit{drove them out of the Promised Land!} All these 390 years of national sin (Ezek. 4:5), rejecting Him and His ways, God continued to deal with them. He kept contact with them. He sent His prophets to them. At any time, during these years of their rebellion, they could have repented, turned to God, and received this vast national status. But now, at last, God drove them \textit{out of His land!}

He \textit{removed them “out of His sight”} (II Kings 17:18). Again it is repeated (verse 23), He “removed Israel out of His sight, as He had said by all His servants the prophets. So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.”

\textit{From that time}, God sent no prophets to them. He gave them \textit{no more chance} to receive the greatest national blessing of all history— until the end of the 2520 years! He hid, as it were, His face from them! He \textit{removed them out of His sight!} He pleaded no longer with them!

They had not qualified for nor deserved His blessings! Now He left them a slave people, to shift for themselves. He left them to their own devices!

They had rejected even the \textit{identifying sign} by which they were to be known and recognized as God’s people \textit{Israel}. So now they \textit{soon lost even their identity!}

No longer were they known by the world as God’s people! No longer did they \textit{call themselves} God’s people!

They became \textit{lost!} The “\textit{lost Ten Tribes!”} Lost in name! Lost in identity! \textit{Lost} spiritually! They had \textit{lost} their tremendous Birthright — for a duration of many generations! In due time, as a second and third generation came along, they lost even their Hebrew language!

They regarded themselves as gentiles!
The world supposed they were gentiles!

Apostles to Britain?

Generations later, Jesus of Nazareth, well knowing where they had migrated, sent His twelve original Apostles to make known to them His precious gospel of God's Kingdom—God's government! It was the Apostle Paul who was sent to the Gentiles.

Did you never wonder why, after Acts 15:29, we read no more of the twelve Apostles? Except for a trip by Peter to Babylon, they had gone to "lost" Israel!

To the original Apostles, Jesus said: "These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying 'go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans [Gentiles] enter ye not. But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.'" (Mat. 10:5-6.)

Yes! The lost Ten Tribes!

But Jesus never begged, urged, pleaded with anyone to "get saved!" Nor did His Apostles! That is a modern "Protesttant" method. They proclaimed the truth merely, leaving it to every hearer to make his own decision whether to act on it.

Yes, the British Isles heard Christ's Gospel! But they accepted, instead, the idolatry of the druids, pagan worship, and the counterfeit "Christianity" of the Roman Babylonian mystery religion, and even spawned the devil's religion of the evolutionary concept!

Birthright Conferred at Last!

But, when that 2520-year withholding of the Birthright had expired, God was faithful to His unconditional promise to Abraham!

Not because of any British or American goodness, superiority, or worthiness, but because of God's faithfulness to His promise, beginning 1800, these two Birthright peoples suddenly burst forth as the greatest world powers in all history!
This national wealth and power came not because our peoples in any manner finally qualified for it. They never did! But consider:

The very fact of a withholding of the Birthright from them for a definite duration in itself implies a conferring of it at the end of the 2520 years. And remember, God had promised this Birthright to the descendants of Abraham unconditionally, because of Abraham's faithfulness and obedience (Gen. 26:5). God was bound by His promise to confer this stupendous national blessing, regardless of the righteousness or wickedness of the descendants. But God had not bound Himself to bestow it upon any one particular generation!

Thus God was able to offer it conditionally to Old Testament Israel in and after Moses' day. The people of those generations could have had it, upon compliance with the conditions! Denying it to those particular generations — withholding it for 2520 long years, even — did not violate God's unconditional promise to Abraham.

But the very fact of a withholding for the definite duration of 2520 years implies the direct conferring of that national blessing on expiration of that definite period of withholding — regardless of any further qualifying or deserving on the part of the people. This must be so, because of God's faithfulness to His unconditional promise to Abraham.

So — beginning 1800 A.D., after 2520 years — God did cause the Birthright nations — and them only — to become suddenly the recipients of such national wealth, greatness and power as no nation or empire ever before had acquired!

Together they — the British and Americans, descendants of only one original tribe, Joseph — came into possession of more than two thirds — almost three fourths — of all the cultivated resources and wealth of the whole world!

It sounds incredible! All other nations combined shared between them only little more than a fourth of the world's wealth. And that includes the nations descended from other tribes of Israel. It includes such nations as Germany, Italy, Russia, China — all other nations on the whole earth!

The most amazing fact of all history is this sudden skyrocketing from virtual obscurity of two nations to the most fabulous wealth and economic power ever possessed by any people — Britain became GREAT Britain — a gigantic stupendously wealthy Commonwealth of nations — the United States the greatest nation of history.

More amazing still are the unbelievably shocking facts of the present — of how — and why — we are losing it faster than it came!

WHY!

The incredible facts, the reasons, and what's NOW AHEAD will follow!
Chapter XI

WHY ISRAEL LOST IDENTITY

The mystery is now revealed! Not only the answer to what happened to the “lost Ten Tribes,” — but also why they so completely lost their identity!

The main vanguard of the Israelites — the northern Kingdom — who bore the national name “Kingdom of Israel,” — became a nation lost in all history.

So far as historic records are concerned, the earth might as well have opened her mouth and swallowed them.

History does record their captivity by Assyria, 721-718 B.C. They were removed from their cities, towns and farms in their northern part of Palestine, taken as slaves to Assyria, on the southern shores of the Caspian Sea.

But by 604-585 B.C., when the southern Kingdom of Judah was taken captive by Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, the Assyrians had migrated northwest — and the Ten-Tribed Israelites with them!

Utterly LOST

They were utterly gone!
They were lost from view!
How far northwest they proceeded, or where they finally settled, comes to a blank page in history.

How do historians and theologians explain this?

Not knowing the true answer, they explain it erroneously. They assume, in error, that all Israelites were Jews, and that the thirteen million Jews in the world today constitute the entire population of Israelites remaining alive at this time. Some theologians falsely claim that all of the ten tribes who went into Assyrian captivity in 721-718 B.C. returned to Jerusalem with the Jews who returned to build the temple there seventy years after JUDAH’s captivity, 604-585 B.C. But that is TOTAL ERROR. Only part of JUDAH went back. And they were all of the three tribes of Judah, Benjamin and Levi. Check the genealogies in Ezra and Nehemiah.

The Jews are supposed to be Israel — and all of Israel, because they never lost their identity!

THERE IS A REASON WHY the Jews did not lose their identity, while the House of ISRAEL did!

God had given them a very special everlasting COVENANT containing a SIGN OF IDENTITY.

The Special Covenant of "Identity"

It is not generally known or recognized that the ETERNAL made with His people, while still at Mt. Sinai, a separate, special, eternally binding COVENANT providing for a SIGN OF IDENTITY.

At this juncture, it must be pointed out that these people Israel were the only people on earth with whom God then dealt as HIS PEOPLE.

Remember Adam and Eve had rejected the symbolic “tree” that represented God’s Holy Spirit, and Father-and-son relationship with Him. Their descendants, cut off from God, strayed so far from His ways that by the time of Noah the earth was filled with corruption and violence.

After the flood, in two generations the world as a whole followed the apostate ways of Nimrod (Genesis 10:8-12; 11:1-9), and his mother-wife founded the apostate pagan religions that have engulfed and deceived the world ever since. This apostate religious system, started by Semiramis, flowed into all nations. In its perversions of truth, it evolved into different varieties, and appeared under different national names in different nations. But it was the same basic system of apostasy.

It cut the world off from God! And it grips a deceived world TODAY — in its various forms, called by the names of various religions.

God selected these children of Israel, because of the OBEDIENCE of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. While in servitude and slavery He called them as His people, to whom His TRUTH — His true religion and way of life and intended DESTINY for mankind should be revealed.

God’s TRUTH, and God’s way revealed to these Israelites is simply God’s TRUTH and His way for ALL PEOPLES IN ALL TIMES AND AGES!

Israel, had they followed God’s Ways, was intended to be a living EXAMPLE to all nations.

Jesus came, not to do away with God’s TRUTH or God’s way — not to bring a new religion — but to reveal additional Truth — about the coming Kingdom of God, and how we may be born into it.

True, Old Testament Israel was given certain sacrificial rites and rituals which served merely as a reminder of sin (Hebrews 10:1-4; and 9:10) only as a temporary substitute for Christ — until He should come. When the Reality came, the substitute was dropped. But God’s TRUTH and way remain eternally!

Therefore God was revealing, in these things to Israel, what is His way for all people of all time — including TODAY!

This special identifying COVENANT, then, ordained FOREVER, applies to all Christians today — to all who are reconciled to God as His PEOPLE!

This special eternally binding COVENANT is found in Exodus 31:12-17.

It has to do with one of those two test Commandments, which, we saw in Chapter 10, Israel was driven out and deprived of the Birthright for violating.

The Identifying SIGN

“And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily my sabbaths ye shall keep . . .”

Notice which day is “the LORD’s Day.” The Eternal calls the Sabbaths “my sabbaths.” The Sabbaths are His — they did not belong to Israel — they are not our days, but the LORD’s. THEY ARE NOT “the Jewish Sabbaths” or “the Gentile Sabbaths.”

The Sabbath is a space of TIME. That time, whenever it arrives, is not ours, but God’s.
And it applies the same to us, today, as to our forefathers then. If we appropriate it for ourselves—for our own use, whether work, pleasure, or what, we are STEALING THAT TIME FROM GOD!

Notice again! He said: “My sabbaths ye shall keep.” In Exodus 20:8 He commanded to “keep it HOLY”—God made it HOLY TIME, and commanded us to keep it holy—NOT TO PROFANE WHAT IS HOLY TO GOD.

Now study this special covenant a little further:
“...for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the Lord that doth sanctify you” (Exodus 31:13).

What tremendous meaning is packed in that portion of this sentence! Yet most people read right past it, failing to get the vital truth it contains!

Notice! Here is the purpose of the Sabbath. “...for it is a sign...”

What is a sign?
You walk down a main street in the business section of a city. Everywhere you see signs identifying stores, offices, factories. If you want to know what a sign is, just turn to the word in the “yellow pages”—the classified business listings—of your telephone directory. You will find such names as “Jones Neon Sign Company,” or “Smith Brothers Signs.” If you call one of them on the telephone and ask, “What do you make, or sell?” he will tell you that they make signs for business firms, institutions, or professional individuals to hang out in front of their place of business. The sign identifies whose establishment, institution, or office is inside.

It Identifies

A sign is a badge, symbol, or token of identity. You see the sign, “A. B. Brown, Furniture and Furnishings.” The sign identifies the owner. It tells you what kind of business he owns.

Webster’s dictionary defines a sign thus: “A publicly displayed notice on a building, office, etc., to advertise the business there transacted, or the name of the person or firm conducting it. Something indicating the existence of a thing; a token.” And, of course, there are the special technical meanings in mathematics, medicine, astronomy.
The word which Moses wrote, in the Hebrew language, which is translated "sign" is 'ôwth, and the Hebrew-English dictionary defines it as "a signal, as a flag, beacon, monument, evidence, etc., — mark, miracle, sign, token." A flag identifies a nation. A beacon is a signal to announce the existence of something warned about. A token is a visible sign; something that serves as an identifying signal to make something known, as a white flag is a token of surrender.

God commanded His people to keep His Sabbath as a sign. It is a sign between God's people and God—"... a sign between me and you," the Commandment says. It is a badge or token of identity. It advertises, or announces, or proclaims certain identifying knowledge. But what knowledge? God answers: "... that ye may KNOW that I am the LORD that doth sanctify you."

WHO Is God?

NOTE THOSE WORDS CAREFULLY!! It is the sign that identifies to them who is their GOD! It is the sign by which we may KNOW that He is the LORD!! It IDENTIFIES GOD!

But doesn't everybody know who God is?

ABSOLUTELY NO!

This whole world is deceived — so says your Bible. This world has a god — a false god — Satan the devil! He pretends to be "an angel of light" (II Corinthians 11:14). He has his religious organizations — his churches. Not all are Buddhists, Shintoists, Taoists, Confucianists.

Many have appropriated the very name "Christian," whose ministers, says your Bible, actually are Satan's ministers: "And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness" (II Corinthians 11:14-15).

But do they actually call themselves the ministers of Christ? Read the verse just before the two just quoted—Verse 13: "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ." Yes, Satan is the great counterfeiter.

He palms himself off as God. He is called, in your Bible, the god of this world (II Corinthians 4:4). He palms off his ministers as the ministers of Christ — accusing the true ministers of Christ of being "false apostles" to divert suspicion from themselves!

Does this world's "Christianity" really know the true God? It is deceived into believing it does, and a deceived world may be sincere in that false belief.

One's god is the one, or the thing, whom he serves and obeys.

But the True God is the One whom we should obey.

This world is not taught to obey God! Its false "Christianity" teaches that God's law is "done away." It actually puts human conscience, actuated by Satan's false teaching, in place of God's law! It does not teach, as did Christ, that we must actually live by every word of God — of the Bible!

It obeys Satan by sinning!

Satan, therefore, is this world's god!

The PURPOSE of the Sabbath

God gave man His Sabbath, for the purpose of keeping mankind in the true knowledge and true worship of the True God.

But how does the Sabbath identify God — how does it point to the True God, rather than the false? Does not Sunday do just as well?

Positively no!!

Notice Verse 17 of this special Sabbath covenant: "It is a sign between me and the children of Israel forever: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed" (Exodus 31:17).

It was on the seventh day of that Creation Week that He rested from the work of Creation. Not Sunday, the first day of the week. Only the seventh day of the week points back to Creation.

How does that identify who God is?

If you believe any one else or any thing else is God, I will prove that my God is the True God, because whatever else you may think is God was made or created by the True God. He who created and made everything else is greater than whatever He made — superior to anything else that could be called God.
CREATION is the PROOF of God — of His existence. It — the act of creating — identifies Him!

So God took the most enduring, lasting, imperishable thing man can know — a recurring space of time — the only day that is a memorial of THE ACT OF CREATING. He took the only day which points, constantly, every seventh day of the week, to God's resting on the seventh day of Creation Week from creating — to the existence of the Almighty, ALL-POWERFUL, ALL-RULING GOD — the CREATOR!

And God set that particular day apart from others as His day — God made that particular day sacred and holy to Him — designating it as the very day on which He commands His people to assemble for worship — the day man is commanded to rest from his own work and physical pleasure — and to be refreshed by assembling with other obedient worshippers in spiritual fellowship!

No other day is a memorial and reminder of CREATION. True, Satan has deceived a deluded world into supposing Christ's resurrection occurred on Sunday morning at sunrise — the very time which has always been the time of pagan SUN-worship. BUT THIS IS NOT TRUE! Write for our free booklet about the resurrection. (The RESURRECTION was NOT on Sunday!) You will be amazed! Also write for our special free booklet on EASTER. (EASTER is Pagan!) They are shocking eye-openers — and the TRUTH you can verify and prove at your public library.

The resurrection of Christ actually occurred on the Sabbath, not on Sunday! And, further, nowhere in the Bible does God tell us to celebrate the day of Christ's resurrection! That is a pagan custom of MEN, on apostate MAN'S authority alone — contrary to the commands of God!

Identifies PEOPLE of God

So here we find a GREAT PURPOSE in the Sabbath. It identifies GOD! The very day which God set aside for assembly and worship points as a memorial to WHOM we are to worship — the CREATOR-RULER of all that is!

But that is not all!

The Sabbath also was given as a SIGN which identifies WHO are the PEOPLE of God and who are NOT!
Notice! Not only does this special covenant say, “. . . that ye may know that I am the LORD . . .” but read the remainder of that sentence: “. . . that ye may know that I am the LORD that doth sanctify YOU” (Exodus 31:13).

Notice the tremendous meaning of that!

What does the word “sanctify” mean? It means “to set apart for holy use or purpose.” On the seventh day of the very Creation Week, the Eternal sanctified — that is, He set apart for holy use — the Sabbath day. But now we see that God says it is a sign that He, the Eternal, also sanctifies — sets apart from other people as HIS, for His holy purpose — those who are His people.

In Old Testament times His people were the people of Israel. In New Testament times, His people are those of God’s own Church — the truly converted, Spirit-begotten Christians!

But how does the Sabbath set them apart — separate them — from those who are not God’s own true people?

Well, if you have begun to keep God’s Sabbath holy, as He commands, you have found the answer already, by actual experience. If you haven’t, just start keeping God’s Sabbath holy as He commands you — and you’ll soon learn that you are automatically set apart from all other people!

Yes, Sir! The world — people you know — some of your family and relatives — business associates, or contacts — they will set you apart!

The Sabbath is God’s sign, which identifies not only God as Creator-Ruler, but it also identifies those who are truly His people!

But how?

Definition of God

Let me give you still another definition of God. Although the only Wise and True God is the Great Creator-Ruler of the universe, there are many false or counterfeit gods. Satan palms himself off to the deceived as God — and indeed the Bible plainly calls him the god of this world. Idols were worshiped as gods — and still are, today, even in so-called “Christian” churches. Whoever, or whatever you serve and obey is your god!
The very word Lord means ruler, master, boss — the one you obey! Jesus exclaimed: “And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?” (Luke 6:46.) If they did not obey Him, then He was not their Lord! So why did they call Him Lord, when He was not their Lord?

Then again, Jesus said: “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven” (Mat. 7:21). Only they who obey God can be His children, and enter His Kingdom! Your God is the one you obey!

Notice again: “Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey?” (Romans 6:16.)

Regarding idols as false and counterfeit gods, the second Commandment says: “Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them” — that is, obey them — “for I the Eternal thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity [disobedience] of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; And showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments” (Ex. 20:5-6).

The Real Test Commandment

How significant! The Sabbath Command is the only one of the ten which is a sign identifying who are the real and true Christians today! It is the real TEST Command!

A man may be honest and upright in his dealings with others — he may have a reputation of not lying or stealing. But that does not identify him — set him apart — especially as a Christian!

Many non-Christians honor their parents — at least so far as other people know. Many are regarded by others as truthful, true to husband or wife; many do not swear or use profanity; and most are not murderers — in the eyes of others.

But their supposed conformity to these Commandments does not stamp them as different — as being God’s people! Actually, few keep even these Commandments in the Spirit, but that is not obvious to the world. But it is very obvious to the world when one keeps God’s Sabbath!
THAT'S WHY FEW DO! People don't want to be identified as being apart from the world — as belonging to God, apart from the world!

People want to be identified in the eyes of others, as belonging to the WORLD — but feel ashamed to be identified, in the eyes of friends, business contacts, relatives, as belonging to God!

The people of the world are willing to acknowledge the other nine Commandments — but the Sabbath Command is the one they positively REBEL against! It is the one that is the crucial test of obedience!

It IDENTIFIES those who have surrendered their wills to God — who OBEY God, regardless of persecution or cost!

Oh, it SETS YOU APART, all right!

What a SIGN!

It identifies the TRUE God on the very DAY He set apart for assembly and worship.

It identifies the REAL people of God!

It identifies those who keep the Sabbath as being God's people — to the world that is! Actually few Jews really keep the Sabbath HOLY! It may not identify them to GOD as His people, spiritually! But they do at least acknowledge that particular day! And, even though in God's sight they profane it, IT IDENTIFIES THEM TO THE WORLD!

God's sign is one you accept voluntarily — of your own volition, or not at all. But the "Beast" (symbol of the coming resurrected, so-called "Holy" Roman Empire in Europe) has a MARK, which is soon going to be BRANDED ON, by physical FORCE! And it has something to do with "buying or selling" — trading — business — earning a living — having a job! (Rev. 13:16-17; Rev. 13 and 17.) Yes, this is the TEST COMMAND — the one on which YOUR VERY SALVATION and ETERNITY DEPENDS!

But Is It a COVENANT?

I have said that God made the Sabbath a SEPARATE, ETERNAL, and PERPETUAL COVENANT, entirely separate and apart from what we term "the Old Covenant" made at Mt. Sinai.

How, then, is it a COVENANT?

Let's define the word "covenant." Webster defines a covenent as: "An agreement between persons or parties. A solemn compact." A covenant is a contract, or agreement, by which one party promises certain rewards or payments, in return for certain stipulated performance by the other party.

The Old Covenant between God and the children of Israel made at Mt. Sinai imposed upon the people certain terms and conditions to be performed: the obedience to the Ten Commandments. It promised the reward of making Israel a nation "above all people." The promises were purely national, and material, for this world. The New Covenant is founded on better promises (Heb. 8:6), which consist of "eternal inheritance" (Heb. 9:15).

Once a covenant is signed, sealed, or ratified — confirmed — it cannot be added to (Gal. 3:15). Anything appearing beneath the signature is not legally any part of the covenant. You read of the actual making of the Old Covenant, and sealing it with blood, in Exodus 24:6-8. And notice, (verse 8), it concludes with the words "the covenant, which the Lord hath made with you." It was then already made — completed.

We do not come to the making of this special eternal Sabbath covenant until seven chapters later. It is, therefore, no part of the Old Covenant!

But, again, is it a covenant?

The wording in your Bible says it is! Notice, Exodus 31:16: "Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual COVENANT."

"Perpetual" means continuous, and unbroken. But was it to last forever? Read the following verse: "It is a sign between me and the children of Israel FOREVER."

Now what is the condition to be performed? The keeping holy of the Sabbath! "It is holy unto you," says God (verse 14). And what is the reward promised upon performance of the condition? It is not only a sign, but also a compact or covenant "between me and you," says God, "that ye may know that I am the Lord that doth sanctify you."

There it is! God promises to sanctify them — He will set them apart as holy — as His holy people! Can you ask for a bigger promise?
Yes, it is a covenant! It is a separate, totally different covenant. Even if one tries to argue that the Old Covenant is “abolished” and that therefore the Ten Commandments are abolished, he cannot argue that this covenant was to last only until the cross. This covenant is binding “throughout your generations” (verse 13); “a perpetual covenant” (verse 16), and “forever” (verse 17).

Sign for Israel ONLY?

“Yes,” says the rebellious one, who would argue his way out of obedience, “but it is between God and the children of Israel. It is throughout Israel’s generations; it is between God and the Israelites forever.”

Oh — then you admit it is binding FOREVER on ISRAELITES — and throughout their generations? There are two answers to that argument that will condemn you, if you so argue, into the LAKE OF FIRE!

1) No one can deny that this absolutely binds the people of Israel to keep the Sabbath FOREVER, and throughout their generations perpetually. Their generations are still going on. Therefore IT IS BINDING ON THEM TODAY.

Also you have to admit that salvation and Christianity are OPEN TO JEWS AND ALL ISRAELITES. The Gospel is the power of God “unto salvation to everyone that believeth; TO THE JEW FIRST, and also to the Greek” (Rom. 1:16).

So, then, the Jew can be a converted CHRISTIAN! Indeed, the Church at the beginning was nearly altogether Jewish! So the Jew, even though a Christian, in God’s CHURCH, is bound to keep God’s Sabbath as a perpetual covenant, throughout his generations, FOREVER!

Now, does God have two kinds of Christians? Is it sin for a Jewish Christian to break the Sabbath, and sin for all others to keep it?

Must Jewish Christians assemble on the Sabbath, and those of other nationalities on Sunday? Didn’t Jesus say a house divided against itself would fall?

Are there two kinds of Christians? Read Galatians 3:28-29: “There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are ALL
ONE IN CHRIST JESUS. And if ye [Gentiles] be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

So, since the Sabbath is binding today on the Jewish part of God's Church, and there is no difference — we are all one in Christ — it is also binding on Gentiles!

WE Are Israel

2) But there is another answer to this argument: The peoples of the United States, the British Commonwealth nations, and the nations of northwestern Europe are, in fact, the peoples of the ten tribes of the house of Israel. The Jewish people are the house of Judah.

But if the Sabbath is God's sign to identify His people Israel, then WHY DON'T OUR NATIONS KEEP IT TODAY?

The answer to that question is the answer to another: WHY are the Ten Tribes of the house of Israel called "The Lost Ten Tribes"? And why do our nations think they are Gentiles? WHY don't they know their true identity?

Ah, NOW we have a staggering, startling, surprising truth to reveal!

WHY Ten Tribes Became LOST!

Here's a dumbfounding TRUTH, far stranger than fiction! Here are FACTS, hidden for centuries, more intriguing than a mystery novel! WHY is the Sabbath called, disrespectfully, sneeringly, "the Jewish Sabbath"? WHY does the world think all Israelites are Jews, and that the Jews are ALL of the Israelites?

Here's an astonishing surprise to those who have believed that! The Jews are only a small minority of the Israelites.

Israel Lost Sign

Nowhere in all the Bible are any of the ten-tribed nation Israel called Jews. That name — Jews — applies only to the Kingdom of Judah. Jews are Israelites, truly — but only part of the Israelites are Jews!

Almost immediately on being made a king, Jeroboam became afraid that, when his people journeyed to Jerusalem to attend the annual Festivals, they would see and desire Rehoboam again for their king. He took swift action to protect his own position.

The tribe of Levi composed the priesthood. They were the leaders — the best educated. The Levites had enjoyed incomes two or three times larger than the other tribes — living off the tithes. With one swift stroke, Jeroboam demoted the Levites, set the lowest and most ignorant of the people to be the priests. He could control them! Thus he would control the religion, like Gentile kings had always done. Thereupon many, if not most of the Levites went back into the Kingdom of JUDAH — became known as Jews.

So immediately Jeroboam set up two great idols for his people to worship. He ordered the fall Festivals to be observed in the EIGHTH month, at a place in the north of Palestine of HIS choosing — instead of in the seventh month, and at Jerusalem as God ordered (I Kings 12:28-32). Also Jeroboam changed the Sabbath day from the seventh to the eighth — that is, to the day following the seventh day, which, actually of course, was the first day of the week. Thus he set the day for worship to coincide with the pagan DAY OF THE SUN, now called Sunday!

Through the rule of 19 kings and seven successive dynasties, the ten-tribed house of ISRAEL continued in the basic twin sins of Jeroboam — idolatry and Sabbath-breaking. Several of the kings added other evil and sinful practices.

Israel Made Slaves

But in 721-718 B.C., God caused the house of ISRAEL to be invaded and conquered by the Kingdom of Assyria. These Israelites were removed from their farms and their cities, and taken to Assyria on the southern shores of the Caspian Sea AS SLAVES.

But the HOUSE OF JUDAH — the Jews — a separate and different nation, were not invaded until 604 B.C.

Two or three generations after the captivity of Israel, however, the Chaldeans rose to WORLD POWER, forming the first WORLD-ruling Empire. Under Nebuchadnezzar the Chaldeans (Babylon) invaded JUDAH (604-585 B.C.).

of Babylon, and migrated northwest — through the lands that are now Georgia, the Ukraine, Poland, and into the land that is called Germany today. Today the descendants of those Assyrians are known to us as the German people.

The people of ten-tribed Israel also migrated northwest. Though the Assyrians had taken Israel into captivity, the Israelites did not remain as slaves of the Assyrians in Europe. They continued on a little further — into Western Europe, the Scandinavian peninsula, and the British Isles!

Now why did they come to be known as the “Lost Ten Tribes”?

They had lost their national identifying sign!

King Jeroboam had changed their day of worship from the seventh to the first day of the week — the Day of the Sun — Sunday! All succeeding kings followed this practice, as well as idolatry!

As long as they remained in the land of Israel, and called themselves “The Kingdom of Israel” their identity was known.

But in Assyria they were no longer a nation with their own government and their own king. They were mere slaves. They took up with the language of the Assyrians as succeeding generations grew up. They lost the Hebrew language as Biblical prophecy said they would. They lost all national identity.

After several generations, the tribe of Joseph — divided into the two tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh, came to call themselves British. They retained a few Hebrew earmarks. “Berith” or “B’rith” in Hebrew means “Covenant,” and “ish” means man. Thus, in Hebrew, “British” means “covenant man,” which, truly, they are.

The tribe of Reuben settled in the country that is France today. They had lost their national identity. But the French have the very characteristics of their ancestor, Reuben. Today, through our free booklet in the French language revealing this ancestry and national identity, thousands of French people are beginning to learn their own true identity.

The Ten Tribes, known as the house of Israel, lost their identifying tag — God’s Sabbath.

That is why they lost their national identity!
WHY Jews Are Recognized

But Judah kept the Sabbath! They did not continue long to keep it holy, or to keep it God's way — but they did recognize it, to this day, as the day of rest they acknowledge and observe.

Result? All the world looks on them as the chosen people of God! The world thinks they are Israel — not merely Judah!

The Jews' identity has NOT been lost! And, since their identity as racial descendants from the ancient Israel is known — and that of the far more numerous "lost ten tribes" is not known — the world supposes that the Jews are Israel, instead of Judah. The Jewish people believe it themselves!

And so, here again, the whole world is deceived, even as to the true identity of who really are the chosen Birthright people of God!

Yes, the Sabbath, God's day — the true Lord's day — is, after all, the day FOR OUR PEOPLE doubly — first, because it is for ALL people of God, even Gentile-born people who are now Christ's; secondly, because racially, even by flesh birth, it is God's Day which He gave our own forefathers, and commanded to keep holy forever!

WHY Israel Made Slaves

Do you know why the Kingdom of Israel was invaded by Assyria, conquered, removed from their land as slaves 721-718 B.C.?

Do you know why the Jews (Kingdom of Judah) were later taken captive, and scattered over the world? Both houses of Israel were sent into national punishment and banishment from Palestine because they broke God's Sabbath!

Does it make any difference? It certainly made a lot of difference to God! And He says He has not changed — He is the same yesterday, today, and forever! (Heb. 13:8.)

First, see why the Jews were invaded, conquered by Nebuchadnezzar, and taken into Babylonian captivity during the years 604-585 B.C.

Seventy years after that captivity, according to Jeremiah's prophecy (Jer. 29:10), many of the Jews returned to Palestine to rebuild the temple, and restore the worship there. The Prophet Nehemiah tells why they had been driven into captive slavery 70 years before:

“In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals... Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day? Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath” (Neh. 13:15-18).

There it is, in plain language!

Sabbath-breaking was a prime cause of Judah’s captivity!

It was so important to God that He punished His own chosen people with this most severe national punishment—defeat in war—being taken from their land, and made slaves in a foreign land!

Sin is defined by God as the transgression of His law (I John 3:4). His law says: “Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy... the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God.” To work on the Sabbath, to defile it by your own pleasure-seeking, doing business, etc., is a major sin, punishable by eternal death!

Jews Were Warned

The Jews were without excuse. They had been warned by the Prophets.

Notice the warning through Jeremiah:

“Thus saith the Eternal; Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day... neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers... But if ye will not hearken unto me to hallow the sabbath day, and not to bear a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day; THEN WILL I KINDLE A FIRE IN THE GATES THEREOF, AND IT SHALL DEVOUR THE PALACES of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched" (Jer. 17:21-22, 27).

That was the warning. The Jews did not heed it.

Now see what happened!

"Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard [today we would call him General of the Armies, or Field Marshal], which served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem, And burned the house of the Eternal, and the king’s house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire" (Jer. 52:12-13).

When God warns, the punishment is sure!

WHY Israel Defeated

Now see what happened to the other nation of Israelites, the Kingdom of Israel, 117 years before Judah’s captivity.

God had laid down the choice to these people in the days of Moses, long before they were divided into two nations. This was fully covered in Chapter 10, regarding Leviticus 26.

Now see what God said about it through the Prophet Ezekiel.

Ezekiel was given a message from God to the HOUSE OF ISRAEL (not Judah — the Jews). Ezekiel was among the Jewish captives, after their captivity, more than a hundred years after Israel’s captivity. By that time the Assyrians had long since left their land on the southern shores of the Caspian Sea and migrated northwest, finally settling in the land called Germany, today.

The people of the house of Israel also migrated northwest across Europe. But they did not stop in Germany. They continued on farther west and north — into Western Europe — France, Belgium, Holland, the Scandinavian countries, and the British Isles — where they are to this day, except for the Tribe of Manasseh, which much later migrated to North America and became the United States.

The Prophet Ezekiel was commissioned to “go” from where he was, among the Jews, to the HOUSE OF ISRAEL.

"Go speak unto the HOUSE OF ISRAEL," said God (Ezek.
3:1), and again, “Go, get thee unto the house of Israel” (verse 4).

But Ezekiel never took that message to the lost house of Israel. He couldn’t. He was a slave among the Jews.

Yet he is taking it to them, today, by means of having written it in his book in the Bible — and by the fact that it is being taken to those very people today by The Plain Truth and The World Tomorrow broadcast!

It is a prophecy! It is a message for our peoples today! You are reading it now! God help you to heed!

Prophecy to US, TODAY!

Speaking first of ancient Israel, God says, in Ezekiel 20:

"Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. And I gave them my statutes, and showed them my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them. Moreover also I gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the Lord that sanctify them" (verses 10-12).

Notice, the exact wording of the forever-binding Sabbath Covenant of Exodus 31:12-17! Now continue:

“But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in MY statutes, and they despised MY judgments... and MY sabbaths they greatly polluted” (verse 13).

Then God pleaded with their children, a generation later. Notice!

“But I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe THEIR judgments, nor defile yourselves with THEIR idols: I am the Eternal your God; walk in MY statutes, and keep MY judgments, and do them; And hallow MY sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the Eternal your God” (verses 18-20).

NOTICE IT!

The entire emphasis here is between GOD’S statutes, judgments, and Sabbaths on the one hand, and their FATHERS’ different sabbaths, statutes and judgments.

They were observing a DIFFERENT DAY from God’s Sabbath! They had already turned to the PAGAN’s day, today called SUNDAY — the day of the SUN and SUN-worship!

“Notwithstanding the children rebelled against me,” continued God, through the Prophet Ezekiel. “...they polluted MY sabbaths” (verse 21).

So what did God finally do — generations later?
He scattered them, in national captivity and slavery (verse 23).

But why?
“Because they had not executed MY judgments, but had despised MY statutes, and had polluted MY sabbaths, and their eyes were after their FATHERS’ idols” (verse 24).

THAT’S WHY! Did it make any DIFFERENCE?
But now, continue on in this amazing prophecy! Notice the prophecy FOR US, TODAY!

Speaking of a time, somewhere near seven to ten years from now, in our time, to our peoples, God says:

“As I live, saith the Lord Eternal, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with FURY poured out, will I RULE OVER YOU” (verse 33).

The expression “FURY poured out” refers to the SEVEN LAST PLAGUES, at the very time of the second coming of Christ (compare Rev. 16:1). The time when Christ will RULE OVER us is at and after His second coming. So this, then, is a PROPHECY for OUR TIME!

Every prophecy in the Bible showing where our people (Israel) will be, at the second coming of Christ, and the coming great Exodus back to Palestine, pictures them in captivity and slavery ONCE AGAIN.

Continue the prophecy: “And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered... with FURY Poured OUT. And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people [COMING EXODUS— Jer. 23:7-8], and there will I plead with you FACE TO FACE” (verses 34-35 of Ezekiel 20).

Notice it! This is the WORD speaking — CHRIST! He will then be on earth again in Person! And then He is going to plead with our people FACE TO FACE. That will happen to YOU, and to YOUR LOVED ONES — in possibly 7 to 10 years from now!
It's time to awake to the imminency, and the stark seriousness of this!

Perhaps only one lone voice is warning you! But God used one lone voice to warn the world in Noah's day — one lone voice in Elijah's day — one lone voice in the day of John the Baptist, and after he was put in prison, in the Person of Christ Himself!

If you rely on the majority of sinning people, you will suffer their penalties with them!

Notice how He will plead!

"Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord Eternal . . . And I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me . . . and ye shall know that I am the Lord" (verses 36-38).

How did He plead with them? He pleaded: "Hallow my sabbaths, instead of your fathers', so that you may know that I am the Lord."

And those of us who do go into Palestine shall know He is the Lord.

How shall we know?

By His Sabbath sign!

Read verses 42-44 in your own Bible! He says our people, when they are no longer rebellious, who will then be keeping His Sabbath, shall remember their ways in which they were defiled, and shall loathe themselves for their Sabbath-breaking!

This is pretty strong teaching! It is the Word of God speaking to you!
Chapter XII

THE BIRTHRIGHT—AT ITS ZENITH—AND NOW!

JUST HOW GREAT—just how powerful, and how wealthy did the British and American people become? And what is suddenly happening to us, now? Why has Britain already lost most of her colonies — her possessions — her resources, wealth, power and influence in the world? WHY is Britain no longer Great Britain—a great World Power?

WHY is the United States now discredited, despised, hated, throughout so much of the world? WHY could we not win the Korean war? WHY can’t the United States whip little North Vietnam?

First, realize JUST HOW GREAT — HOW RICH AND POWERFUL — the American and British people did become.

People are prone to take their status — and that of their country — for granted. Few realize what unprecedented affluence our countries enjoyed. We judge all things by COMPARISON. The average Briton, Australian or Canadian has never travelled through the illiterate, poverty-stricken, disease-infested backward areas of China, India, the Middle East or black Africa. He has not observed the squalor, the stench, the poverty and wretchedness in which the largest part of mankind lives.

Nor has the average American visited those vast underprivileged areas, nor even the countries of Europe — prosperous compared to the teeming illiterate masses — yet poor by comparison to American standards.

No, our people generally have not realized. Nor have they been grateful. Nor have they given God thanks, nor accepted the sense of responsibility imposed on them by their lavish blessings. Few realize that every desired, prized possession imposes, with it, the obligation of responsibility for its use. Does the 8-year-old boy who is given a shiny new bicycle by his parents feel a consciousness for the responsibility imposed on him — unless the fact is impressed on him by his parents — for the care of it, and the carefulness with which he must ride it to avoid injuring himself or others?

When God lavished on our peoples such wealth and power and economic possession as no peoples ever enjoyed, did we appreciate what we had, or feel the commensurate sense of RESPONSIBILITY for its wise and proper use?

WE DID NOT!

We didn’t even recognize how great was our blessing, let alone a sense of obligation for our custodianship before our Maker!

Just how great, then, was this Birthright blessing?

The Birthright WEALTH

Read again the prophetic promises of Genesis 22:17 and 24:60:

To Abraham God said: “. . . That in blessing, I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies” (Gen. 22:17).

And again, the inspired prophetic parting blessing upon Rebekah, leaving her family to become wife of Isaac: “And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, ‘Thou art out sister, be thou the mother of thousands of millions, and let thy seed possess the gate of those which hate them’” (Gen. 24:60).

On page 26 we have quoted the correct Fenton translation: “. . . and your race shall possess the gates [plural] of its enemies.’” As explained there, the “gates” of enemy nations are the strategic SEA GATES of entrance to or exit from these nations. Although all wealth comes from the ground, prosperity and affluence on a national scale always has come also by industry and COMMERCE. And commerce between nations has been transacted almost altogether by the SEA-LANES of the world — by SHIPS, and, within a continent, by railroads. How significant, then, Robert Fulton operated the first steamboat in 1803 — precisely when Britain and America suddenly began to multiply in national wealth! And also that it was the 19th century that saw the development of the railroads!

As explained before, since the Birthright pertains to nations, the "gate" of our enemies would be such passes as Gibraltar, Suez, Singapore, Panama Canal, etc.

Britain and America came into possession of every such major "gate" in this world! So we must be modern Israel. World War II hinged on these "gates." They had become not only strategic passes, but the world's greatest fortifications. But today, we have lost most of them — and it appears that soon Gibraltar and the Panama Canal, too, will be lost.

WHY?

Notice Genesis 39:2-23: "The Eternal was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man... The Eternal was with him, and that which he did the Eternal made to prosper." And God did prosper Joseph's descendants, Britain and America, with the fabulous Birthright promised Joseph's sons!

Consider Moses' dying, prophetic blessing, foretelling what would happen to each of the tribes in these latter days.

"And of Joseph he said, Blessed of the Lord be his land, for the precious things of heaven, for the dew, and for the deep that coucheth beneath, and for the precious fruits brought forth by the sun, and for the precious things put forth by the moon, and for the precious things of the ancient mountains, and for the precious things of the lasting hills, and for the precious things of the earth and the fullness thereof... let the blessings come upon the head of Joseph [Ephraim and Manasseh both]...

His glory is like the firstling [firstborn — Birthright holder] of the bullock, and his horns are like the horns of unicorns [Great Britain's national seal today]: with them he shall push the people together to the ends of the earth: and they are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh." (Deut. 33:13-17.)

Whoever is Ephraim and Manasseh today must have been in possession of the earth's choicest agricultural, mineral, and other wealth — the great gold and silver mines; iron, oil, and coal, timber and other resources.

What nations fulfill these prophecies? Why, only Great Britain and America!
More than half of all tillable, cultivatable, temperate-zone lands of this earth came, after 1800 A.D. into the possession of our two great powers alone! The rich agricultural lands of the Mississippi Valley; the vast wheat and grain fields of the Northwest, of Canada and Australia; the great forest lands of the Pacific Northwest and many other parts of the world; the gold fields of South Africa, Australia, Alaska and the United States; the great coal mines of the United States and British Isles; the natural waterfalls and means of power and motivation, and consequent prosperous industrial and manufacturing districts of England and eastern United States; the choicest fruit lands of our Pacific Coast and Florida. What other nations combined ever possessed such material wealth?

And nearly all this wealth came to us after 1800 A.D.!

The Actual Statistics

Just to what extent has Almighty God fulfilled His promises in us to the descendants of Joseph in these latter years since 1800 A.D. — promises of “the precious fruits brought forth by the sun...the chief things of the ancient mountains...and the precious things of the earth”?

Said Charles M. Schwab, steel magnate, before the Massachusetts Bankers Association, January 5, 1921: “Our United States has been endowed by God with everything to make it and keep it the foremost industrial and commercial nation of the world.”

World petroleum output in 1950 was almost 3,800 million barrels. Of this total the United States alone produced more than one half — nearly 52%. Together, the British Commonwealth and the United States produced 60% of the crude petroleum, not including our vast foreign investments.

But by 1966 that 60% of all the world’s crude petroleum output had been reduced to 32%.

Britain and America mined 1½ times as much coal as all other nations combined.

But by 1966 our portion of world production had shrunk to less than ⅓ of the world production — 30.9%!

Together, the British Commonwealth and America produced, in 1950, ¾ of the world’s steel — the United States alone producing almost 60% or 105,200,000 short tons in 1951.
We produced \(1\frac{1}{3}\) times as much pig iron as all other nations combined.

By 1966, this basic index of wealth had skidded down \(\frac{1}{3}\) (33.6\%) of steel production, and only 17.8\% (one sixth) of the pig iron.

We possessed nearly 95\% of the world's nickel (chiefly from Canada); 80\% of the world's aluminum; 75\% of the zinc. But where do we rate now? 3.6\% of world's nickel; 40.2\% of its aluminum (aluminium); 12.4\% of its zinc.

The British Commonwealth completely dominated the production of chromite (from South Africa). Today only 2.3\%. Together Britain and America produced \(\frac{2}{3}\) of the world's rubber, and dominated the world's copper, lead, tin, bauxite and other precious metal outputs. But now, we produce only 23.4\% of the world's copper, 9.9\% of its lead, no tin, and 6.3\% of its bauxite (16\% with Guyana).

The British Commonwealth produced \(\frac{2}{3}\) of the world's gold — about £266,000,000 ($$642 million) in 1950 — while the United States had three times as much gold reserve as the total for the rest of the world. But today the U. S. gold supply has been drained until the dollar is in serious jeopardy. The U. S. now produces only 5\% of the world's gold and, with the loss of South Africa, Britain will produce even less.

We produced and utilized \(\frac{2}{3}\) of the world output of electricity — the United States producing 283 thousand million kilowatt-hours in 1948, and the United Kingdom and Canada outstripping Russia, Germany and France combined.

But now we produce only 20.1\%!

Great Britain and the United States did possess well over half of the world merchant fleet tonnage. But today only 32.5\%. The British Isles constructed more vessels than any other place on earth. Today two or three Gentile nations outstrip Britain and America. We also possessed about \(\frac{1}{2}\) of the world's railroad mileage. Today, our combined railway freight shipping is only 26\% of the world total.

Israelites always were sheep-raising people. Joseph-Israelites did lead the world with more than 220,000,000 sheep, while all Gentile nations combined have only about 182,000,000. Australia produced nearly as much wool as all Gentile nations combined — over one thousand million pounds. Today only 58,316,000 head of sheep — 6.1% — and 8% of wool. This is exclusive of Australia, which alone produces 15.9% of the world’s sheep, and 29.2% of the world’s wool.

Of the foodstuffs including milk, cheese, butter, beef, the United States produces about a fourth of the world’s total — only a marginal decline over past years so far, but Britain must import nearly all of her food from countries that are fast slipping out of the commonwealth.

Whereas the United States alone once produced 73% of the automobiles, today the United States combined with U.K. produces 55% — 44% from the U.S. alone. Germany, France, Italy and Sweden are making huge gains.

Of the world total in telephones (about 180 million), the United States still has 49% — but proportionately it is considerably less than the 67% we had at our peak.

Americans now own 47% of the world’s radio sets and 69% of the world’s television sets. In each case, Britain is no longer second. The trend is the same in each category of electrical appliance. We still are the richest by far, but proportionately we have less.

How Did We Get It?

Now how did we come into possession of all this vast wealth of the earth? Did we acquire it through our own human wisdom, foresight, energy, ability and power?

Let Abraham Lincoln answer:

“We find ourselves,” he said, “in the peaceful possession of the fairest portion of the earth, as regards fertility of soil, extent of territory, and salubrity of climate... We... find ourselves the legal inheritors of these fundamental blessings. We toiled not in the acquirement or the establishment of them.”

Again, in his proclamation of April 30, 1863, for a nationwide day of fasting and prayer, this great president said: “It is the duty of nations, as well as of men, to own their dependence upon the overruling power of God... and to recognize the sublime truth, announced in the Holy Scriptures and proven by all history, that those nations only are blessed whose God is the Lord... We have been the recipients of the choicest blessings of heaven. We have been preserved, these many years, in peace and prosperity. We have grown in numbers, wealth and power as no other nation ever has grown; but we have forgotten God! We have forgotten the gracious Hand which preserved us in peace, and multiplied and enriched and strengthened us; and we have vainly imagined, in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these blessings were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own.”

And because Lincoln saw a nation who had forgotten God—a nation drunk with a success not due to its own efforts—a nation taking all the credit and glory to itself, this great president called upon the nation for a day of fasting and prayer to confess this national sin before God. The fate of the nation hung in the balance when he issued that proclamation. But God heard and answered that great national prayer offensive—and the nation was then preserved!

But today the threat to our fate is a thousand times more seriously hanging in the balance. And today we do not have a President or a Prime Minister with the vision, understanding and courage to bring our nations to their knees!

Abraham Lincoln knew these great material blessings had not been earned, but had been given to our people by the God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel.

And we should face the facts today and know that we were given all this vast unprecedented material wealth because God promised it, unconditionally, to Abraham. And He promised it to Abraham because Abraham obeyed God, kept God’s laws and commandments.

The Birthright blessing was denied our forefathers after Moses’ day because they refused to live by God’s laws.

And today God warns us, through many prophecies in Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Isaiah, Micah, and many others, that unless we of this generation repent of our sins, and turn to Him with fastings, and with weeping, and earnest prayer, He will destroy our cities, all our fortresses, by the hand of the foreign sword; that He will punish us at the hand of a cruel one; that we shall be invaded, defeated, reduced to slaves! God help our nations to heed that warning!

In conclusion, we ask: If we are not national Israel—so-called “lost” Ten Tribes—prosperous Joseph-Israel—Birthright Israel — actual inheritors of the Birthright blessings which were to be bestowed beginning 1803 A.D., then WHO ELSE CAN BE?

No other nation or combination of nations do or can possess these blessings of the Birthright — for we hold more than two thirds — nearly three fourths — of all the raw materials, resources, and wealth of this entire round earth, and all other nations combined share among them only a small part.

Do you know of stronger proof of the divine inspiration of the Holy Bible as the revealed Word of the Living God? Could mortal men have written, without divine inspiration, those prophecies we have considered in this book — made those PROMISES to Joseph-Israel, and, after a lapse of 2520 years, beginning the exact years of 1800-1803, have had power to bring them about in fulfillment? These are no small or trifling promises. They involve possession of the great wealth and vast natural resources of the whole earth.

Present these facts as a challenge to your atheist and agnostic friends. Ask them to answer, if they can, whether any but the power of the Eternal CREATOR Himself could have made and had committed to writing such promises thousands of years ago, and, at precisely the promised time thousands of years later, brought about their fulfillment!

How any American — any English-speaking inheritor of God's choicest material blessings — can, in face of such stupendous overwhelming fulfillment of prophecy — such awespiring demonstration of the power and might and faithfulness of Almighty God — accept and partake of these blessings, and then carelessly ignore God's WARNING that our sins today are INCREASING, or fail to get to his knees before the great Almighty, and repent, and INTERCEDE in heart-rending PRAYER for all Israelite nations, and HELP in every way he can to warn our people now of their impending PERIL, seems impossible to conceive.
Chapter XIII

And NOW WHAT?
The Prophecies for the Immediate Future

The Birthright, once we received it, was stupendous, awesome! — unequalled among nations or empires!

But what have our peoples done with that awesome blessing?

They were still ISRAELITES, even though they themselves knew it not!

They were still rebellious, "stiff-necked," stubborn!

Once the British peoples, and the Americans — the "lost" Israelites now supposing they are Gentiles — found themselves basking in the pleasant sunshine of such wealth and power, they were less willing than their ancient forefathers to yield to their God and His ways. They felt no need of Him, now! It seems few ever turn to God until they find themselves in desperate need or trouble.

But after God had withheld the Birthright 2520 years, and then, when our peoples deserved nothing from God, He had suddenly bestowed on us national blessings unparalleled in history — the unconditional PROMISE to Abraham had been kept! No longer is God obligated by His Promise to continue our undeserving peoples in world prestige, dominance, wealth and greatness. Once we had been given such unrivalled position, it was up to us whether we should keep it.

So now back to Leviticus 26. We had previously covered, in Chapter 10, verses 1 through 18. God said that IF, for all these previous punishments the Israelites would not listen to and obey Him, He would punish them the duration of 2520 YEARS.
THEN WHAT?
If, after that 2520 years of withholding the Birthright, our people — with the Birthright — still rebel, God continues, verse 19:

"And I will break the pride of your power; and I will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass...."

GOD HAS ALREADY BEGUN THAT!

We HAD Pride in Our Power!

God could not speak about breaking the pride of our national power, until after that Birthright power had been bestowed! He put our nations in the position of possessing the greatest national power any nation or empire ever possessed. We had great pride in that national power — in our national prestige.

I remember hearing President Theodore Roosevelt tell of His pride in that power — and how he used it when he was President. The Germans were sending a battleship steaming toward Manila Bay, threatening to take over the Philippines. The Philippines were then a United States possession. President Roosevelt sent the Kaiser a terse note demanding that the German warship be immediately withdrawn.

"The Kaiser didn't know, then, that I meant it!" snapped Mr. Roosevelt. "So I sent another note. Only, I didn't send this second note to the Kaiser. I sent it to Admiral Dewey, in command of the United States Pacific Fleet. It ordered the entire Fleet to steam full speed toward the German battleship, and if it did not turn around and go back, to sink it!" said Mr. Roosevelt with emphatic force! In those days, before World War I, WE HAD PRIDE IN OUR NATIONAL POWER!

... but We Lost It!

Today, even little nations dare to insult, trample on, or burn the United States flag — and the United States, still having power, does no more than issue a weak protest!

What's happened to the pride of our power?

We have already lost it! God said "I will break the pride of your power!" And HE DID!

Wide World Photos

KICK OUT THE BRITISH FROM THE PEACE FORCES

TOPIC

ΤΟ ΝΑΤΟ ΤΗΝ ΚΥΠΡΟ

WE DEMAND BRITISH SOLDIERS OUT OF THE U.N.O. FORCE.
Now, other prophecies reveal, we are to have soon (probably in about four years) such drouth, and famine, that disease epidemics will follow taking millions of lives. When our heaven is as iron, our earth as brass, we will realize rain does not come down from iron, and an earth hard as brass is not getting rain, not yielding food!

Verse 20: “And your strength shall be spent in vain: for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits.”

Well, we have been getting foretastes of that! That condition is coming! And I do not mean in 400 years — nor in 40 years — but in the very next four or five!

But will America and Britain heed?

They never have!

Then what? After all that, then what?

Verse 21: “And if ye walk contrary unto me, and will not hearken unto me: I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins.”

There, again, as in verse 18, (Chapter 10 of this book), is that Hebrew word, “shibah.” Actually, in the Hebrew in which Moses wrote, there are not the two Hebrew words, one meaning “seven” and the other “times.” There is just the one word, “shibah.”

As explained in Chapter 10, the word is defined as “seven times,” and also as “sevenfold.” The “seven times” conveys duration of punishment. The “sevenfold” meaning of the same word conveys intensity of punishment.

Now More INTENSE Punishment

Because of its use and construction in the sentence, and because of what actually happened, it is certain that in verse 18 this Hebrew word, “shibah” refers to duration of punishment — seven prophetic times, which, during this punishment, was an actual 2520 years!

But, also because of the very different sentence structure, and because there cannot now be another 2520-year withholding of what has now been bestowed, it is just as certain that the “shibah” in verse 21 refers to a sevenfold intensity of punishment.

Notice, the wording is entirely different in verse 21 than in verse 18. This time it is not worded "seven times more for your sins," but "seven times more PLAGUES." The expression "seven times" in verse 21 is descriptive of PLAGUES to be brought on them.

Intensity of Punishment!

So now, if 20th century Ephraim and Manasseh — Britain and America — refuse to turn to God in obedience — refuse to live THE WAY that causes, retains, and increases blessings, God will punish them in a manner far more INTENSE — and even strip entirely from them this colossal, unprecedented national blessing — RETURNING THEM TO CAPTIVITY AND SLAVERY — as continuing verses of this prophecy show.

Do you think so great a fall could not come to so great powers as Britain and America? Do you say, "It can't happen here?" Do you think the great God who was able to give them such unprecedented world leadership and power and wealth, is not able to take it away from them and throw them like their ancient forefathers, back into SLAVERY?

You need to OPEN YOUR EYES to the FACT that Britain's sun already has set!

You need to WAKE UP to the FACT that the United States, even still possessing unmatched POWER, is AFRAID — fears to use it — just as God said: "I will break the PRAISE of your power"! (Lev. 26:19); that the United States has stopped winning wars — that America is unable, with all its vast power, to conquer little North Vietnam! The United States is fast riding to the GREATEST FALL that ever befell any nation!

The HANDWRITING IS ON THE WALL!

You need, now, to UNDERSTAND the remainder of this prophecy of Leviticus 26 — and also of Deuteronomy 28 — and the many other prophecies relating to them and events almost immediately to VIOLENTLY affect YOUR life!

You need to look at the prophecies of Jesus, of Jeremiah, of Isaiah, and others, describing how much more INTENSE is to be the punishment God is going to lay on the British and American people in five to seven more years!

For MANY prophecies warn us of a CERTAINTY that it will be trouble such as NEVER happened to any nation or people!

Knowing our identity — knowing how the British and American peoples are identified in the prophecies — you need now to come aware of what is said about us in Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Daniel, Joel, Hosea, Amos, and the other prophecies — what Jesus foretold — as well as these prophecies written by Moses!

WHY This Intensity of Punishment

And you need, also, to know why a just and loving God is going to punish His chosen people — people He chose for a glorious purpose they have rebelliously refused to perform.

The very fact of punishment implies correction. We need to understand that correction is applied to correct wrong ways harmful to us — to turn us around into right ways that will cause desired blessings!

UNDERSTAND! God punishes every son He loves (Heb. 12:6).

Understand also human nature! People mistakenly think there is good in human nature. That is because human nature wants to be good — to consider itself — and be considered good, while it wants only to do evil. It wants the good result. But it wants to receive the good while it sows the evil. It somehow fails to grasp the truth that as we sow, so also shall we reap!

It's all a matter of cause and effect!

God's punishment only reflects God's love — turning us from causing evil results to the way that brings happy results! God is now about to stop us from bringing colossal evils on ourselves! God is not angry because we are harming Him — but because we are harming ourselves — whom God loves!

Punishment is Correction

The prophecies do not stop with revealing the unprecedented multiplied intensity of punishment already beginning to descend down upon America and Britain. The prophecies record also the result of that intensified punishment. The result will be a corrected people. The result will be an eye-opening realization of what we have done to ourselves.
supreme PUNISHMENT will teach us, at last, our lesson! The punishment will break our spirit of rebellion! It will lift us up from the cesspool of rottenness and evil into which we have sunk. It will teach us THE WAY to glorious PEACE, PROSPERITY, HAPPINESS, ABUNDANT WELL-BEING!

On beyond the frightful national calamities now descending upon us will come a BLESSING inconceivably greater than the national material Birthright we have possessed.

We have to learn that material goods is not the source of happiness. I have often mentioned the many rich men I have known — men whose bank balances were full — but their lives were empty! Material prosperity is indeed desirable — but it is not the source of happiness.

After all, real happiness is a spiritual commodity! The Birthright was only one of two major Promises God made to Abraham. The Sceptre Promise involved not only a dynasty of human kings. It need not have included them at all — had the Israelites retained and been obedient to God as their King. The Sceptre pointed primarily to Christ, and spiritual salvation through Him.

Our peoples have basic lessons yet to learn. The true VALUES are spiritual. Actually, God's Law is a spiritual Law. It involves physical acts — but it is based on spiritual principles. And it requires God's Holy Spirit dwelling in the mind to fulfill!

PUNISHMENT implies CORRECTION. Correction means a change of course. It means REPENTANCE — and repentance means turning around and going the OTHER WAY!

Now, before I give you these sensational prophecies, understand why national punishment must come, and who needs the painful correction! ONLY those need it who are sowing evil — who are transgressing God's right ways — God's Law! Those, and only those, who are bringing on themselves the evils that result from transgression.

And UNDERSTAND THIS: Although the NATIONS as a whole are to be put through this unprecedented punishment, yet those INDIVIDUALS who yield to accept God's correction without the punishment shall be protected from it! No ONE NEED suffer this indescribably intense tribulation!
Sevenfold More Plagues

Now notice again, what is laid down in Leviticus 26. After the national Birthright had been withheld 2520 years, and then bestowed — after God gave our peoples that national power, and has now, because of our national rebellion against His Laws broken the pride of our power — after He shall have punished us with unprecedented Drought and epidemics of disease in its wake — then if the British and Americans still continue in their evil ways — still refuse to repent and turn to their God, then: “... I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins,” says God.

Read that in the Revised Standard Version: “... I will bring more plagues upon you, sevenfold as many as your sins.”

What people do not seem to realize is that sin does bring upon the sinner the consequences of sin — the plagues of suffering. The Bible defines sin as the transgression of God’s Law (I John 3:4), and the Law of God is a spiritual law (Rom. 7:14).

Material Goods Not Enough

Let’s UNDERSTAND this!

I have said that money is not the source of happiness. Money can buy only material things or services. But there must be the spiritual content, as well as the physical, to happiness. Material things alone do not provide satisfying happiness. God’s Law is a spiritual Law. In other words, it is THE WAY to peace, happiness, abundant well-being. Going THAT WAY is what God supplied to CAUSE real happiness.

Conversely, then, can we not see that transgressing THAT way is to CAUSE unhappiness, pain and suffering, emptiness, heartaches, fears and worries, frustrations? All these evils are caused by transgressing God’s Law. The sinner is really plagued with these evils he brings on himself.

Now study again that 21st verse of Leviticus 26. Punishment is CORRECTION. To teach us the lesson we have failed to learn by experience, God is going to plague our peoples SEVENFOLD more than our sins already have plagued us — sevenfold more punishment than we have brought on ourselves!

Or, as in the Authorized Version, “seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins.” Sevenfold intensity of punishment — OF CORRECTION!

Slavery Once Again

Notice now verses 23-25 (RSV): “And if by this discipline you are not turned to me, but walk contrary to me, then I also will walk contrary to you, and I myself will smite you sevenfold for your sins, And I will bring a sword upon you ... and you shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.”

Slavery once again!

Get the real meaning of this! Our sins have brought punishment. This punishment we have brought on ourselves. If we still refuse to learn the lesson, and be corrected for our own good, God says, “I myself will smite you sevenfold.” We have brought the consequences of sin on ourselves — now God will Himself bring on us sevenfold more intense punishment — punishment that is CORRECTION!

Now read on to verse 27 (RSV): “And if in spite of this you will not hearken to me, but walk contrary to me, then I will walk contrary to you in fury [the seven last plagues — Rev. 15:1] and chastise you Myself sevenfold for your sins ... and I will lay your cities waste ... and I will scatter you among the nations.”

God is going to keep multiplying chastening — correction — upon our peoples UNTIL they DO turn from their evil ways — until they turn TO THE WAYS THAT CAUSE PEACE, HAPPINESS, PROSPERITY, ALL THE GOOD THINGS!

How unthinkable! — that our Maker shall have to force our peoples to be happy — to have peace — to be able to enjoy prosperity — to yield, to accept, of our own choice, eternal life in abundant well-being and joy for all eternity!

How unbelievable! — that human nature, desiring these blessings, has insisted stubbornly in going the way that cuts them off and causes PUNISHMENT — CORRECTION — and then refuses to be corrected until it is MULTIPLIED in intensity sevenfold! Yes, sevenfold three successive times!

How great is our God — and what love for our peoples He expresses, in patiently tolerating and correcting us UNTIL we accept the boundless BLESSINGS!
Chapter XIV
WHAT'S PROPHESIED TO HAPPEN, NOW—TO AMERICA AND BRITAIN

Just as God has bestowed on us such material blessings as never before came to any nations, now to correct us so we may enjoy such blessings, He is going to bring upon our peoples such national disaster as never before struck any nation!

Many prophecies describe this!

The Tremendous Prophecy of Micah

An important additional proof of modern Israel's identity is found in a fantastic, detailed and most specific prophecy found in Micah 5:7-15. It is speaking specifically about the "remnant" of Israel—modern Israel today—wherever he is. It describes the wealth, the beneficent dominance among nations; and then the coming downfall of the American and British Commonwealth peoples in detail!

Notice: "And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people [nations] as a dew from the Lord, as the showers upon the grass, that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men." Remember that dew and showers are absolutely necessary to agricultural productivity and are a symbol of national blessing and wealth from God.

Continue: "And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep: who, if he go through, both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver."

Again, this symbolism describes the last generation of Israel as a great power—as a lion among the other nations of the earth.
“Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.” They were cut off from the beginning of God’s Birthright blessing on America and Britain starting about 1803, and through the First World War, the Second World War and until the turning point of the Korean War at the end of 1950.

Since that time, however, these blessings are surely being taken away — and neither America nor Britain has come out on top in any major skirmish since that time!

So this prophecy shows that at the very time that we are a tremendous blessing to the other nations of the earth — for it is our peoples who have rescued the other nations of the world time and again through the Marshall Plan, the Point Four program, the Alliance for Progress, the hundreds of millions of bushels of wheat for India and other starving nations, etc. The Hoover Program saved up vast food supplies after World War I. It saved millions in other nations from starvation!

Anciently Joseph saved up the wheat and food, and made it available to others. Modern Joseph did also. But — we are stiff-necked and rebellious toward God and His Law, while our ancient forefather Joseph served and obeyed God with a whole heart.

It is our peoples who have been like a “lion” among the other nations of the earth — preserving in two great World Wars the peace of the world and stability for all human life on this planet!

Sudden Destruction

Yet, in this detailed prophecy, God says: “And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord, that I will cut off thy horses” — (war-horses, Moffatt translation), tanks, ships, rockets — “out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots: and I will cut off the cities [by hydrogen bombs?] of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds.”

God says HE will do this! God determines the outcome of wars (Ps. 33:10-19).

How plain can you get? Here God identifies the great peoples of the earth who are the most wealthy and beneficent, the most powerful — yet at the very time their power reaches its zenith He suddenly “breaks” the pride of their power (see Leviticus 26:19) and cuts off their implements of war and destroys their cities! Why?

Because, as the prophet continues to explain, we have too many “witchcrafts” and “soothsayers” — false ministers in our lands who refuse to preach with authority the commandments and ways of the Living GOD!

Therefore, God will punish and destroy us — unless we repent — just before and leading up to the utter destruction to come “upon the heathen” (verse 15), which will take place at the very end of this age and the second return of Jesus Christ as King of kings!

There is no other people that even remotely fulfill this great prophecy! But the American and British Commonwealth peoples fulfill it precisely!

As the “pride of our power” continues to be broken, as the British continue to lose their foreign sea gates and possessions around the earth, as newer treaties regarding the Panama Canal continue to be negotiated — lessening American control over this vital sea gate — as our gold supply ebbs forth from this nation, serious drought and famine increases, raging disease epidemics and race riots begin to take their toll, this focal prophecy alone represents giant proof as to where the modern “remnant” of the peoples of Israel reside today!

Punishment on ALL Nations!

It will now be made plain — from God’s own warning prophecies — that this greatest multiplied intensity of corrective punishment will fall on Britain and America — including British peoples in Commonwealth countries. And it will strike them down first!

But they are not the only nations to suffer corrective disaster. God is Creator of all other nations, too! God is concerned about the people and races we have called “heathen.” They, too, are human. They, too, are made in God’s own likeness, with potential of being molded into God’s spiritual and character image! God sent the Apostle Paul to gentile nations!

All mankind has rebelled against, rejected, and turned from God and His ways! There can never be peace on earth until all nations have been turned to God and His ways, ruled by His supreme government!
All mankind, right now, is caught in the vortex of the swiftly accelerating crisis marking the utter destruction of this world’s man-built, Satan-inspired civilization.

Through Jeremiah God says: “A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; for the ETERNAL hath a controversy with the nations; He will plead with all flesh”—how? Right now The World Tomorrow program carries His peaceful pleading worldwide—it has gone out in five languages—but the world, except for scattered individuals, does not heed this kind of “pleading.” The next words tell how God is now about to plead: “He will give them that are wicked to the sword, saith the Eternal... Behold, EVIL shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great whirlwind shall be raised up from the corners of the earth” (Jer. 25:31-32).

God will use Nazi-Fascist Europe to punish Britain-America. Then He will use the Communist hordes to wipe out the Roman Europe.

We are entering a time of world trouble—utter world chaos! There is war, strife, violence in Asia, Africa, South America—as well as Europe and North America. The population explosion is a worldwide threat to human existence. Crime, violence, sickness, disease, inequality, poverty, filth, squalor, degeneration, suffering—these infest all nations!

But, as salvation is given first to Israel, so is corrective punishment!

Our Great Tribulation

Notice Jeremiah’s prophecy:

“For thus saith the ETERNAL; We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace. Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child? Wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness? Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob’s trouble” (Jer. 30:5-7).

Remember—in passing on the Birthright to the two sons of Joseph—Ephraim and Manasseh—(Gen. 48:16)—Jacob said, “Let MY NAME be named on THEM”—on Ephraim and Manasseh—who today are Britain and America.
This tells ON WHOM this most terrible of national calamities is to fall — on Britain and America!

But now WHEN is it to fall? Do not assume this is referring to anything that did happen to ancient Israel. Read right on — see WHEN this prophecy is to be fulfilled!

Continue: “. . . it is even the time of JACOB’s trouble; but he shall be delivered out of it.” (After he has learned his lesson IN it!) “And,” (continuing from RSV) “it shall come to pass in that day, says the ETERNAL of Hosts, that I will break the yoke from off their neck [yoke of slavery], and I will burst their bonds, and strangers shall no more make servants of them. But they shall serve the ETERNAL their God and David their King, whom I will raise up for them.” (David, at the time of the RESURRECTION — at the very time of Christ’s COMING!)

So the time is just prior to Christ’s COMING— coming to liberate our peoples — even as Moses liberated ancient Israel from Egyptian slavery.

Jesus Foretold It!

Other prophecies speak of this same time of national calamity greater than any before.

The Apostles had asked Jesus privately WHEN His Second Coming would occur — and the END of this world, and the beginning of the happy WORLD TOMORROW. Jesus said the sign by which we might know when this is very NEAR would be when His original GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD would be preached in all the world as a witness to all nations (Mat. 24:14). But what else — just before His coming?

Jesus continued: “For then shall be GREAT TRIBULATION, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved [alive]: but for the elect’s sake those days shall be shortened” (Mat. 24:21-22).

Here is described the greatest time of TROUBLE — TRIBULATION — in all history, or ever to be. Jeremiah described it as “Jacob’s trouble,” so great “that none is like it.”
Daniel described the same most severe trouble of all history.

Speaking of a time now in our immediate future, Daniel foretold: “And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince [archangel] which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation, even to that same time.”

Same most intense punishment on Britain and America. And when? Continue, same verse, “...and at that time thy people shall be delivered [from this enslaved trouble], every one that shall be found written in the book. And many of them that sleep [are dead] in the dust of the earth shall awake [resurrection], some to everlasting life...” (Daniel 12:1-2).

The time is just before the resurrection of the just, at Christ’s coming. As Moses delivered the ancient Israelites from Egyptian slavery, so Christ is coming to deliver modern Britain and America from the now-impending Babylonish slavery. (See Deut. 18:15; Acts 7:37; Jer. 23:5-8.)

Jeremiah described it as a “yoke” on the necks of our peoples. Whose “yoke” of slavery? Isaiah tells us!

In verse 1 of Isaiah 47 the prophetic message is addressed to the daughter of Babylon. Not the Babylon of ancient days. Not Nebuchadnezzar’s Babylon of 600 years before Christ—but a daughter of that Babylon, now, in our 20th century. In prophecy a woman, or a daughter, means a church—a religious organization.

This particular “Lady” of this prophecy is pictured as a lewd harlot, and “a Lady of Kingdoms.” That is, a great church ruling over nations. This same modern “female” Babylon is pictured also in the 17th chapter of Revelation—there called a “great whore,” sitting on or ruling over “many waters,” which are interpreted in verse 15 as “peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.” Her name is there given as “Mystery, Babylon the great, the mother of harlots and abominations of the earth.” In other words, the Babylonian Mystery religion— the same religion as the ancient Babylon—but now grown great and ruling over many nations of different languages.

Her Kingdoms over which she ruled were called “The Holy Roman Empire” of 554 to 1814 A.D., briefly revived by Mussolini, and soon to have a last and final "resurrection" by a political-military union of ten nations in Europe (Rev. 17:8-14).

And the time of this "great whore" sitting astride the political-military "Beast" — they shall fight in war against the glorified Christ at His second Coming (Rev. 17:14).

Now back to Isaiah 47. God says to this Mistress of Kingdoms:

"I was wroth with My people [Israel — Britain-America], I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand [in tortured slavery]: thou didst show them no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke" (verse 6).

That yoke of slavery-without-mercy is to be laid on the U.S.-Britain by the coming united nations of Europe! It has started already, through the economic Common Market. Its leaders talk continually of political union — which means, also, military. So far they have been unable to bring about full political union. This will be made possible by the "good offices" of the Vatican, who alone can be the symbol of unity to unite them. Two popes already have offered their "good offices" toward such union.

The prophecy does not literally say so, but in all probability, by present indications, Germany will head this new world power. And Germany will try it once again — World War III. And this time, Germany will be allowed to succeed!

The ancient Assyrians migrated from their ancient land south of the Caspian Sea, northwest — and settled in Germany! The Germans of today are the same people — the very descendants — of the ancient Assyrians. So when you read about Assyria in prophecies pertaining to now, they refer to Germany!

So, history is to repeat! It was ancient Assyria which invaded the House of Israel, and carried them out of Samaria, into the Assyrian's own land.

And where, today, are the ancient Babylonians — the Chaldeans? They migrated west, and settled in Italy. Their religion was the Assyrian-Babylonian mystery religion. It is going to come as a breathtaking, awesome, shocking astonishment when the world learns that one Simon, the sorcerer of Samaria in the time of the original Apostles, leader of the BABYLONIAN MYSTERY religion, with the title of PATER, or PETER, meaning PAPA, actually appropriated the name of Christ, and the Christian principle of grace, which he turned into LICENSE, doing away with God’s Law (Jude 4), started what is today called “Christianity” — and that it is NOT, and never was, the outgrowth of the CHURCH OF GOD, founded by Jesus Christ and His Apostles!

This knowledge will soon burst on an incredulous world as a BOMBSHELL! People will be SHOCKED to learn how they have been DECEIVED! When God’s time comes, this “NEWS-Bomb” will be exploded!

What IS the GREAT TRIBULATION?

Now it becomes painfully CLEAR! The Great Tribulation is this SEVENFOLD INTENSITY OF CORRECTIVE PUNISHMENT with which God is now soon going to lay on Britain-America!

Notice a few brief excerpts from Ezekiel’s description of it!

“A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee: and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee: and I will scatter a third part [the remainder] into all the winds [slavery], and I will draw out a sword after them. THUS shall MINE ANGER be accomplished, and I will cause MY FURY [last PLAGUES] to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the ETERNAL have spoken it in my fury, when I have accomplished my fury in them” (Ezek. 5:12-13).

Further: “In all your dwellingplaces the CITIES shall be laid waste” (Ezek. 6:6). This could never have happened until the Hydrogen Bomb! Cities laid completely WASTE. ALL of them — “in all your dwellingplaces.”

Drought — Famine, First

Now let the prophet Joel add more.

Joel’s prophecy was for the far, far future — verses 1-3 of chapter 1. Then he shows a plague of different kinds of locusts, devouring the fruits and food crops — stripping off the bark from fruit trees. “He hath laid my vine waste, and barked my fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white” (Joel 1:7).

Continue — now comes devastating drought: “The field is wasted, the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth... because the harvest of the field is perished... all the trees of the field are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men” (verses 10-12). This is to happen just prior to the terrible plagues of “the Day of the Lord” (verses 14-15).

Continue the prophecy: “The seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered. How do the beasts groan! The herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate. O Lord, to thee will I cry: for the fire [hot sun] hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field. The beasts of the field cry also unto thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up...” (verses 17-20).

Next — Military Invasion and Defeat!

Next in time order, beginning chapter 2, the alarm of war:

“Blow ye the trumpet in Zion [alarm of war] and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the Day of the Lord cometh, for it is nigh at hand” (verse 1).

“Therefore also now, saith the Eternal, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: and rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Eternal your God: for He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth Him of the evil” (verses 12-13).

AT LAST! — Repentance in Tribulation!

Once God does add these repeated sevenfold-intensity of corrective punishments on our peoples — when they have had their wealth, prosperity, their land — the Birthright and everything they possessed and set their hearts on, TAKEN AWAY FROM THEM — AT LAST they will be humbled, and will cry out to God for mercy and deliverance!

Right now God’s WARNING MESSAGE of this terrifying greatest trouble of history is being THUNDERED over The World Tomorrow program into ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD — as a witness! Some FORTY MILLION people hear it every week! Some two and a half million are reading it in The Plain Truth!

We know only too well that the people as a whole will not heed!

We are grateful that God is laying it on the hearts of a few thousand every year to LISTEN (hearken — to use Biblical Authorized Version language) and to take it seriously — to REPENT and come to God through Jesus Christ as Saviour.

Yes, a few thousand every year — thousands PRECIOUS beyond estimate! But not the people as a whole. NOT NOW!

We know full well that the real HARVEST of our labors in God’s Work, preparing the way for Christ’s coming, is NOT NOW! But, when everything these peoples have been taken from them — when they are slaves in foreign lands — when they are cruelly treated, beaten, unmercifully even martyred and put to death — THEN millions of those who remain alive WILL CRY OUT to God — WILL REPENT — WILL TURN to live God’s way. That is when the REAL HARVEST from this present Work of God will be reaped.

Millions, then, will remember they heard Christ’s TRUE Message over The World Tomorrow — read it in The Plain Truth!

Then they will say: “That was the true Message, sent by God, after all!!” Many will take it lightly now — just as Israelites of old took God’s Message to them through His Prophets. But when these things really HAPPEN — when they realize NO ONE ELSE warned them — then they will KNOW just who are the real FALSE prophets today! THEN they will KNOW which is God’s Truth.

The pitiful, pitiful tragedy of it! This realization will come TOO LATE to save the many from this repeated sevenfold punishment! But, for millions, not too late for their salvation — for God’s GIFT of ETERNAL LIFE!
What's Prophesied to Happen, Now!

Millions Finally Converted!

Notice the prophecies of this very thing!

Return for a moment to Jeremiah's prophecy. The 30th chapter, from which I quoted, ends with these words: "...in the latter days ye shall consider it." The prophecy is for our time, NOW!

Read right on. Chapter 31 follows immediately:

"At the same time, saith the Eternal, will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people. Thus saith the Eternal, 'The people which were left of the sword [those still then alive] found grace in the wilderness, even Israel, when he went to find him rest..." (marginal rendering). Or, as in the RSV, "...when Israel sought for rest, the Eternal appeared to him from afar."

Or, as in the Moffatt translation: "...Those who survive the sword shall find grace in the dungeon." That is, in captivity and in slavery!

Continue, "Again I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: thou shalt again be adorned with thy tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dance of them that make merry. ...They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way [God's Law!!], wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born [Birthright-holder]. Hear the word of the Eternal, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, 'He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock'" (Jer. 31:4, 9-10).

Later Jeremiah was inspired to write: "In those days, and at that time, saith the Eternal, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping: they shall go, and seek the Eternal their God. They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, 'Come, and let us join ourselves to the Eternal in a perpetual covenant [the New Covenant] that shall not be forgotten.' My people hath been lost sheep: their shepherds [professing Christian ministers] have caused them to go astray..." (Jer. 50:4-6).

Later, in this chapter: "In those days, and in that time, saith the ETERNAL, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I leave as a remnant” (verse 20).

Hosea Summarizes It

This whole matter of Israel’s rebellion against right ways, of God’s driving them out, divorcing them, withholding the bestowal of the Birthright for 2520 years — and of Israel’s final redemption after the three additional sevenfold more intense corrective punishments, is summarized by the prophet Hosea.

But Hosea also becomes very concise, direct, and specific in detailing Britain-America’s national attitude right now!

To picture this whole course of infidelity, rejection, withholding of blessing, extreme correction, and final awakening of Israel, God directed the prophet to marry a whore — to picture what Israel was to God. She bore him a son. God instructed Hosea to name the son Jezreel, meaning “God will disperse.” For God said, “... I will ... cause to cease the Kingdom of the House of Israel ... I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel” (Hos. 1:4-5).

The Kingdom — the government — did cease at the Assyrian captivity — 721-718 B.C.

His harlot wife conceived again, and bore a daughter. God instructed that she be named “Loruhamah,” meaning “No Mercy” for, said God, “... I will no more have mercy upon the House of Israel; but I will utterly take them away.”

Later this lewd wife had another son. “Call his name,” said God, “Loammi [meaning NOT My People]; for ye are not my people and I will not be your God.”

Yet to Find the TRUE Riches!

“Yet,” continued the ETERNAL, “the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, ye ARE the sons of the Living God. Then shall the children of Judah [the Jews] and the children of Israel [“Lost Ten Tribes’] be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land [spread out far beyond their land — Moffatt translation]; for great shall be the day of Jezreel” (Hosea 1:6-11).

There, in brief, is a picture of the whole course of God’s dealing with Israel.

Today, our people say they are not “Israel.” That is, not God’s People! They think that the Jews, and the Jews only, are Israel. But very soon, now, they are going to know their identity. Thousands will learn it from this very book you are now reading. The millions will learn it at Christ’s coming!

In chapter 2, God says, in regard to our now having possessed the unprecedented wealth of the Birthright promise: “For she did not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Baal. Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness [her sin]” (verses 8-9).

But finally, Chapter 2, when the correction becomes intense enough, our peoples will acknowledge their transgressions, will repent, will seek their God!

God’s People — At Last!

“And it shall be at that day, saith the Eternal, that thou shalt call me ‘Ishi’ [“MY HUSBAND”], and shall call me no more Baali [“MY LORD”]” (verse 16).

“And,” concludes this second chapter, “I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, ‘Thou art my people’ and they shall say, ‘Thou art my God’!” (Verse 23.)

Then begins God’s message to our peoples today — especially to the British peoples!

“Hear the word of the Eternal, ye children of Israel” — (you people of the British Commonwealth, and the United States!) — “for the Eternal hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land. By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood touches blood. Therefore shall the land [of America and Britain] mourn, and everyone that dwelleth therein shall languish..." (Hosea 4:1-3).

To the modern ministers in the churches of Britain and America, God says: "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me; seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children. As they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore will I change their glory into shame" (verses 6-7).

Speaking of the coming manyfold intensity of corrective punishment, God says, "...in their affliction they will seek me early" (Hos. 5:15).

To Britain Today!

Speaking of modern Britain of today, God says: "Israel [Britain] indeed is stubborn as a restive heifer; how can the Eternal feed them now?" (Hos. 4:16, Moffatt translation.) God "feeds" His people today with His Word — His Gospel of the Kingdom of God — His warning of what is quickly to come! The British government would not allow any broadcasting facilities within its jurisdiction that might be used by God's servants to proclaim God's message of this hour to the British peoples!

But God was determined to get His Message to the British!

So, the first week in 1953, God's Message started getting into Britain from Europe — when The World Tomorrow program began going out on the superpowered voice of Radio Luxembourg!

When Radio Luxembourg was no longer effective for this Message, God raised up broadcasting stations on ships, anchored just outside Britain's jurisdiction. The World Tomorrow was then thundered over all of Britain daily, on seven of these ships. They were NOT illegal. They violated no law of man. They did proclaim faithfully THE LAW OF GOD! But the British authorities falsely called them "pirate" ships. They were NOT pirates. They were not marauders. They did not invade the land and pillage or steal. They harmed no one!

But most governments of man want to control what their people could hear or not hear! They want to control your thinking for you!
The British government and the national Church of England would LEGALIZE the revolting perversion of homosexuality! They would CONDONE heinous sins, but no door inside U. K. is open to broadcasting God's MESSAGE!

But God did get His Message to Britain.

God SAID it! God DID it!

God has said, "Surely the Lord Eternal will do nothing, but He revealeth His secret unto His servants the prophets" (Amos 3:7), and in the verse just before this, "Shall the trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid?"

God has said, IN YOUR BIBLE, that He would get the warning to His people Ephraim-BRITAIN. He has foretold: "Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke"... (and Britain is rapidly headed toward that prophesied desolation, now)... "among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be" (Hos. 5:9).

Also, God said of Britain and America: "Ephraim, he hath mixed himself among the people; Ephraim is a cake not turned [half-baked]. Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth it not. And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face: and they do not return to the ETERNAL their God, nor seek Him for all this. Ephraim also is like a silly dove without understanding; they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria [Germany]; when they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, as THEIR CONGREGATION HATH HEARD"—from The WORLD TOMORROW broadcast warning!!! (Hos. 7:8-12.)

Yes, God said long ago He would GET THE WARNING into the hearing of Britain.

Even though He had to do it FROM OUTSIDE BRITISH JURISDICTION, God moved miraculously to get His Message thundered to all Britain.

BRITAIN HAS BEEN WARNED!

And the British government has NO POWER whatsoever to prevent the manyfold INTENSITY of corrective PUNISHMENT a loving God is going to cause to strike!

GOD'S PURPOSE SHALL STAND!
They WILL Realize!

Some day, people will wake up to realize this is the Work of God!

Of British churchianity, God says, “The Ephraimites are wedded to idolatry; let them alone! — a drunken band, a lustful company, in love with shameful worship, not with my glory. When the whirlwind sweeps them off, they shall feel shame for their altars” (Hos. 4:17-19 - Moffatt translation).

God says, “I withdraw to my own place, till they feel their iniquity and seek my face, searching for me in their distress, crying, ‘Let us return to the Eternal, for He has torn us, He will heal us; He has wounded, He will bind us up: in a day or two [Authorized Version — after two days] He will revive us, and on the third day He will raise us to live under His care” (Hos. 5:15-6:2, Moffatt translation). The coming Great Tribulation probably will last about 2½ years — the “Day of the Lord” about one year — then comes the resurrection and second coming of Christ!

The entire Book of Hosea carries a blistering Message and warning to the British people today!

YOU Can Escape This Punishment!

God warns us through prophecy that our sins are fast increasing. And now the day of reckoning is here! The foreign sword already has attacked us. In this fearful awesome atomic age, World War III will start with nuclear devastation unleashed on London, Birmingham, Manchester, Liverpool, New York, Washington, Philadelphia, Detroit, Chicago, Pittsburgh, without warning!

God help our nations to wake up before it’s too late!

Yes, we are God’s chosen people Israel! Think what that means! Chosen, not for favors while we defy our God, but chosen for Service we have failed to perform.

We should shout for joy at the discovery of our true identity — and we should be brought to repent — and to turn to God — and to get back of this crusade by radio and by printed word to warn our people, and to call upon God in Real Heart-Rending Prayer for Divine deliverance.

The sevenfold more intensity of punishment now soon to come upon American and British peoples is, simply the prophesied Great Tribulation! It will be the most frightfully intense punishment, and time of trouble, ever suffered by any people!

Yet you need not suffer in it.

This terrifyingly severe punishment is, simply, the correction our peoples have made necessary to bring them to the ways of living which cause desired blessings, instead of terrible curses.

It is correction — for the peoples' good!

As God lives, this punishment is soon to strike!

This book gives the warning from God and His Word!

Will the U.S. and British nations heed?

They could, yet, avert this colossal national tragedy, if they would!

But if you — you now reading this — you as an individual — will be corrected, voluntarily, before God lets this indescribably horrendous chastening strike — if you come to real repentance, realizing how terribly wrong you have been — if you can see yourself as you really are — as a rebellious, wrong, evil person — and can surrender to the loving, All-Merciful, yet All-Powerful God — and make it an unconditional surrender — coming to Almighty God through the Living Jesus Christ as personal Saviour — then no plague shall come near you!! (Psalm 91:8-11) — but you shall be accounted worthy to escape all these frightful things, and to stand before Christ at His return (Luke 21:35-36).

Those in the true Body of Christ shall be taken to a place of safety, until this tribulation be over (Rev. 3:10-11 — applying to those faithful in God's Work now going to the world. Rev. 12:14; Isa. 26:20).

But you must make your own decision — and to neglect doing so is to have made the wrong decision!

God isn't kidding! This is for real! — to make it real plain with a couple of slang expressions!

Most people, we know only too well, will take this serious warning lightly — put it out of mind — turn to other immediate interests of NO importance by comparison! That is why a loving, just, and All-Wise, All-Powerful God is going to take away from them these unimportant counter-interests, and apply such intensified CORRECTION that they shall, finally, come to their senses, and turn to Him and His way which will bring them eternal happiness and abundant blessings!

But you need not have to suffer this intensified correction, greater than any trouble ever suffered by humans.

By God's direction and authority, I have laid the TRUTH before you! To neglect it will be tragic beyond imagination!
To heed it will bring blessings, happiness and GLORY beyond description!

The decision is now YOURS!
