What our READERS SAY

African Student Listens

"Dear Mr. Armstrong:

"Two days ago I was listening to the radio and I was very interested in your evening Bible message. Will you please send me some of your Bible literature in case you issue them free? I am an African student from Kenya, East Africa, studying in this country."

Patchogue, New York.

Corrected!

"Your picture in last issue on page 4 was not showing the River Rhine, but the River Elbe by Hamburg, Germany."

Article Convinces Husband

"I have been following your articles on childbirth with great interest as we are expecting our fifth child.

It expresses my convictions exactly. I wanted to have my last baby at home but my husband would have none of it; however, since reading Mr. Ted Armstrong's article on having babies at home and it being written by a man, he has given me his consent to go ahead with this one, if the doctor will agree. We are 45 miles from the nearest hospital so there is a good chance that he will. So great big thanks for that article."

From Gibsons, British Columbia

Broadcast Witnesses

"It is astounding how many conversations I come across each day at work and in and around our neighborhood here, discussing your broadcast of the night before. It is getting positive results!"

Man from Ohio

Pastor Reads PLAIN TRUTH

"I have just finished reading the October issue of The PLAIN TRUTH. The article, 'Will You Get to Heaven?' is the best I have ever read or heard. I have in the past years tried to preach what the Bible has to say about heaven to my people, but many still will not let go of pagan ideas and let God tell them the truth. This article has been a real help to me. I will be very grateful if you will begin sending me The PLAIN TRUTH each month."

Pastor from Mississippi

Listener Buys Bible

"Everything you say is quite different to what I have been taught. We were not even given a Bible. I have now bought one to follow the scriptures through as I listen to you. I know you are speaking God's truth."

From Cairns, Queensland

Predictions Come True

"Dear Mr. Armstrong:

"For several years I subscribed to your magazine but finally cancelled my subscription because I didn't want to believe the things you had to say. However, so much of what you predicted seems to be coming true and past and current events involving our nation have made it impossible not to believe. Would you kindly renew my magazine subscription?"

Woman from Chehalis, Wash.

Bible Story Stirs to Action

"I must tell you what happened after we had read the first chapter of The Bible Story that we received. It was the one dealing with unclean foods. The children started looking around to see if we had any foods that were unclean, and we found that we were eating bacon and ham. Now those two items are off our menu."

Family from New Zealand

Convinced!

"Okay, we're convinced! We'd like to have a copy and look at your so highly recommended magazine. . . ."

Woman from Kent, Washington.

Soldier Quits Robbing God

"Please find enclosed a money order for . . . my tithes for August and September. I just decided in October that I shall quit robbing God of what is His and give what He has commanded to His true workers who publish His true gospel. Thank God for you and your wonderful staff."

OUR COVER

For this 28th Anniversary number, we show you, on our cover, an exciting contrast from the small, crude beginning of this Work of God, in the little inside room—without windows or ventilation—in Eugene, Oregon. To picture to our readers the majestic beauty of tone and character of the properties with which the Eternal God has blessed His Work after all these years, we have chosen this picture of the formal Italian Sunken Garden on the campus grounds of Ambassador College in Pasadena, at the World Headquarters of this great Work.

This magnificent garden was built by multimillionaire Hulett C. Merritt, who was the largest stockholder of the United States Steel Corporation. He had copied it from a fabulous Sunken Garden he had seen in Boston, Massachusetts. Mr. Merritt's mansion and fabulous grounds adjoined the Ambassador College campus. After his death, some six years ago, a group of financiers arranged the purchase of his estate, intending to donate it to Ambassador College. When these men failed to complete the purchase and donation, a number of our own Co-Workers stepped into the breach and completed it for us. This estate includes Ambassador Hall, our present principal class-room building.

Everything connected with this Work—its phenomenal growth in power and scope around the world—as well as such fine properties coming to us, has been providential.

Personal from the Editor

WITH this 28th Anniversary number, The PLAIN TRUTH takes one more important leap ahead.

Only last June it was increased from 32 to 40 pages. Now, with this issue, 8 more pages are added. You have in your hands, now, a magazine enlarged to a full 48 pages!

This latest expansion brings to me personally a very rewarding sense of satisfaction, with deep and heart-felt gratitude to the Great God who has prospered and built this great world-wide Work. It is one of the rich rewards God has given after 28 years of hardship, struggle, opposition, hard work and perseverance.

Mrs. Armstrong shares this gratitude and rejoicing, just as she also has shared those years of hardship and diligent industry as my constant loyal helper.

When The PLAIN TRUTH was stepped up to 40 pages, with the June 1961 number, I took our readers behind the scenes, to show you how this magazine is written and produced. I introduced to you, with their pictures, 23 key members of our world-wide staff.

Many of you will remember I left out Mrs. Armstrong's picture. But what an onslaught of protesting letters reminded me of that omission, demanding that we publish her picture! Well, we did, in the August number, even though she doesn't like to have her picture published.

In that June number, in my personal talk with our readers, I introduced you to our editors and various chief staff members, and, on a tour in writing, took you into the various editorial, research, production, printing, and mailing rooms.

In this 28th Anniversary talk with our readers, I want to bring you up to date on how this magazine, now read by a million readers on all inhabited continents around the world, has developed and grown from the very smallest, most insignificant possible beginning.

Also I want to show you, in this present number, pictures of our modern new Ambassador College Press building, located at one corner of the 30-acre campus in the very heart of Pasadena. I wish each one of you could visit the World Headquarters and Ambassador College, and I could have the privilege of escorting you in person over the campus on what we sometimes laughingly call "the $64 tour"—or, if we could visit Ambassador College in England together, and I could take you on what we laughingly term the "25-guinea tour" of the 175-acre grounds over there.

However, I will add, that when any of our readers may visit either place, if I am not available personally to take you on a tour of the grounds and buildings, there will always be staff members on hand who will greatly enjoy the privilege. We do extend you a warm and hearty welcome. We think you will enjoy it. But be sure to allow not less than two or three hours for the tour, at either place, Pasadena or England, for you'll not be able to see all you'll want to, even in that amount of time.

The vision of one day publishing The PLAIN TRUTH first came in 1927. I was unable to start it then, but the idea was generating in my mind. More than that, I began working out "dummy" copies of this "dream magazine" I hoped someday to begin publishing. I even worked out captions and sub-headings for articles—some of which I had written already, some of which I contemplated writing.

But, please stop and think a moment. How would just anybody who thought he would like to edit and publish a magazine get such a magazine started? At that time advertising businesses I had started had twice been wiped out from under my feet. I was reduced to

Vol. I No. 1

Is a World Dictator About to Appear?

We live today in the most anxious, agonous, anxious, agonous hours of earth's history. Today we stand on the very threshold of momentous events that will stagger the mind of mortal man. Just now it is like the still before a great and devastating storm. Everyone senses it!

The Last for World Power

Ever since the Pharaohs ruled in Egypt—on down thru ancient Assyria, Babylon, Persia, Greece, and Rome—there has been a lust for power to rule the world.

Today at least three major world powers seek to rule the world. Soviet Russia admits the theory of Communism cannot be proven until all opposition is wiped out, and the whole world is under its sway.

The amazing Tanaka Memorial of 1927, recently discovered and exposed, outlines a most astounding program of Japanese expansion, involving the defeat in war of the United States, and Russia, and then the whole world. This program calls for Japanese imperialism to the weight of immense imperialist actions during the past two years supply irrefutable proof of preparation to carry out the aims of this document. It is commonly known today

Will it be Mussolini, Stalin, or Roosevelt?

Everybody senses that something is GRONG with the world . . . that some mighty event is about to occur.

What is it? Bible prophecy tells! Here is a solemn warning . . . and it is the plain truth!

that Mussolini's whole aim is to restore the Ancient Roman Empire in all its former splendor, power, and glory—and Rome ruled the world!

Today Prime Minister MacDonald of Great Britain and President Roosevelt are striving to avert, or postpone, the next world war—while the nations prepare even more feverishly for WAR!

Three or four short years ago there would be another world war in five to seven years. They do not laugh and scoff today. Everyone knows the next world war is coming, and 900%. Every move for peace has failed!

What is Going to Happen?

Will some super-man now emerge? Will the nations get together and appoint a world dictator? Mortal man cannot prophesy the turns and trends of coming events. Only God knows the end from the beginning.

In words written, some nineteen hundred, some twenty-five hundred years ago, the Bible prophesies every outstanding phase of present world conditions—the depression, the unemployment, the topsy-turvy hoarding of gold, the topsy-turvy political conditions throughout the world, the modern church conditions, and present social conditions. It one advertising client, with a $50 per month income, and a family of six to support. I had no capital, but I did have some debts. In that predicament, how was I to start publishing a magazine?

Who would pay for having it printed? Where and how would I get subscribers or readers?

Well, don't laugh. The way was not open—then! But there is the saying, "where there's a will, there's a WAY!" I had the vision, and I had the will. The WAY had not yet opened.

But God Almighty was dealing with me. He dealt with me in rather tough manner—the going was surely rough. There was a reason. But already I had given my life over to Him to use as He saw fit. I still had years of intensive study, research, and personal change—both overcoming and development—to wade through. God knew He still had many rough edges to knock off spiritually. I was not yet prepared or ready.

But I never forgot or gave up the purpose and the determination that had been formed, that this magazine was going to become a reality. It was going to be called The PLAIN TRUTH. It was going to make the TRUTH, which is revealed in God's Word the BIBLE, plain so people could understand it. It was going to be a magazine of UNDERSTANDING! It was going to have life, verve, spirit. It was going to make the TRUTH so interesting people would want to read it!

Finally, in early summer, 1931, I was ordained and put into God's work as an evangelist full time, on salary of $20 per week. Then I began issuing a mimeographed Bulletin for the few church brethren who employed me, in the Willamette Valley of Oregon. But there still was no opportunity to start The PLAIN TRUTH.

In August, 1933, the "salary" was only $3 per week. This was the very bottom of the depression—the year President Franklin D. Roosevelt closed the banks. At that time I found I could not serve God faithfully on a salary paid by PEOPLE. It was a choice between serving the PEOPLE, or giving up their salary and trusting God alone for support, in order to KEEP HIS WORD faithfully, and be able to proclaim it honestly.

At the time I was holding nightly evangelistic meetings in a little one-room country schoolhouse eight miles west of Eugene, Oregon. That little campaign resulted in a new church of 19 members. Then, now that I was trusting GOD ALONE, for financial support, for His TRUTH—for EVERYTHING—God began to open doors for mass evangelism!

God knew how pitifully impotent and weak we were—especially financially, and in backing of numbers of people. So He opened the mighty door of RADIO. Of course, in the very smallest possible way at first. I have said so many times that God starts all things that He does through human instruments the very smallest. But if GOD plants the work, it will GROW, and ultimately it will become the BIGGEST of all.

There was a real reason. I still had to be tried and tested. Would I hold fast to God's Word—letting it correct where wrong, instruct and increase knowledge still new to me? Also I had to learn and gain by experience. The smallest wattage of radio power of any station on the air commercially was 100 watts. We started, the first Sunday in January, 1934, on such a station in Eugene, Oregon.

And now, at last, God made possible the starting of The PLAIN TRUTH! The radio broadcast provided the means of gaining subscribers, starting a circulation. By this time I had learned that GOD'S WAY is not to SELL His TRUTH. I could not charge those who received it a subscription price. I had to RELY ON GOD to supply, on sheer faith, the financial means.

And, at that time, financial means were about as near non-existent as possible. I had sent out a letter to the very

The BIGGEST News Fulfilling PROPHECY

What is the single most important fulfillment of PROPHECY that has occurred in this decade?

by Herbert W. Armstrong

YEARS ago, when I was advertising manager of a daily newspaper, the news staff and I were having a discussion.

"What would be the biggest, most sensational, 8-column banner headline that could possibly be written for any event that might occur?" asked the City News Editor.

There were many hypothetical events suggested.

"NEW WORLD WAR STRIKES" suggested one. This was several years before World War II.

"No," said a reporter, "even a bigger headline than a new world war breaking out would be this: 'NEW YORK CITY DESTROYED.'"

The City Editor grinned.

"Those are all tame," he jested. "I've got a bigger headline. Here it is: 'SECOND COMING OF CHRIST HAPPENED TODAY!'"

"Haw-Haw! Ho-Ho!" they all laughed. That is, all but me. "You win!" Yes, GOOD JOKE!

"You fellows may have to write that headline sooner than you think!" I said. "And you won't be laughing, then!"

"BEAST" Now Rising?

Recently Mrs. Armstrong and I were "honored guests" at one of our Ambassador Clubs at Ambassador College in Pasadena. These are after-dinner speech clubs. Nearly all men students, both at the Pasadena and the Bricket Wood (England) colleges are members of one of these clubs.

During the preliminary extemporaneous "Table Topics," abbreviated speeches of one minute or less, preceding the 6-minute prepared speeches, a question assigned was: "What is the most important prophecy fulfillment of 1961?"

Time was allowed only for three quick, brief answers—but there have been many more than three important fulfillments of prophecy within the past decade—events plunging this world progressively and swiftly toward ARMAGEDDON—the Second Coming of Christ—and, finally, the PEACEFUL WORLD TOMORROW, when mankind, at last, will find happiness, universal plenty, and joyous, abundant living.

So let's take a quick look at a few—and I will then tell you which, of all the many prophesied events actually now happening, is the most important!

These students at the Ambassador Club dinner had to think fast—and give an answer within a matter of seconds after hearing the question.

The first student called on for a quick answer believed the rise of the Common Market in Europe, starting the movement toward the prophesied final resurrection of the "Holy Roman Empire" was the most significant world happening of the past year.

Certainly that is a major development in world news—of tremendous importance viewed with a knowledge of THE PURPOSE being worked out here below! This is the prophesied symbolic "BEAST" of Revelation 17. On The WORLD TOMORROW program, and in the pages of The Plain Truth, we have been shouting to a heedless world for 28 years that this was going to occur—in OUR TIME.

Through these years, I have said that it would come as an ECONOMIC force, bringing unprecedented prosperity to Europe. But also, it is to become a political and military combine—a gigantic third power bloc in the world, that will include more population, greater man power, and possibly even greater military resources than either the United States or Russia.

When this giant combine—a United States of EUROPE—finally emerges as such before a startled and dumbfounded world, it will last only a very short time. It will fight against Jesus Christ, at His Second Coming! And that will be its END! Since it will rise but a very short time prior to Christ's Coming, and the END OF THIS WORLD—and since we see it actually beginning to be formed right now, IT IS OF TREMENDOUS SIGNIFICANCE!

It means that we are now only a very few years from THE END of this world, and the appearance of JESUS CHRIST as WORLD RULER.

Other BIG-News Events

We are living in unprecedented times. NEVER has the world seen times like these! We are in the LAST DAYS of this world! Prophecy fulfillment is literally leaping ahead! The fulfillments of prophecy are numerous! These events supply the BIG NEWS of the world today.

And no one—whether news commentator, government head, or ordinary citizen or subject—no one can UNDERSTAND the real meaning of this tremendous world news, unless he understands Biblical PROPHECY, and God's PURPOSE being worked out here below!

Just LOOK at some of the colossal events of world history, that have been occurring IN THIS VERY DECADE!

REVOLUTION IN THE WEATHER! God Almighty says HE controls the weather! He sends the rain on the just and the unjust—when He sends it! He causes it to rain, He says, on one city, and He brings drought on another city. In Joel 1, in Matthew 24, Mark 13, Luke 21 and John 13—in Revelation 6, and in other prophecies, a revolution in the weather — leading to unprecedented FAMINE by around 1970-72 is prophesied. In its wake is prophesied frightful disease epidemics! A THIRD OF THE

BIGGEST News Fulfilling Prophecy

PEOPLE OF THE U.S. AND BRITISH
COMMONWEALTH NATIONS WILL DIE OF THIS SCOURGE!

Already we are seeing the first beginnings of this. There is a revolution in the weather. Weather experts are alarmed!

Accompanying this, increasing and greater EARTHQUAKES are prophesied.
That, too, has been shaking this earth with increasing intensity during the past decade!

A third student named the decay—the progressive decadence within the United States and British Commonwealth nations as a most significant fulfillment of prophecy! Every kind of CRIME is on the rampant increase! Our FORM of godliness is increasing—along with a curiosity-interest in religion, and church attendance—but belief in the POWER of God, and living HIS WAY of righteous life is rapidly deteriorating.
Even the clergy, and students in seminaries—the future ministers of religion —are fast losing belief in a Personal
GOD, and in the BIBLE as His revealed authoritative Word. We are having a mounting divorce and re-marriage rate!
Broken homes are producing an avalanche of JUVENILE DELINQUENCY!
We are becoming a soft, pleasure-seeking, luxury-mad people.

We are having less and less respect for authority. Women are trying to take over the responsibilities of MEN, and men are becoming more and more UNmanly and feminine. Homosexuality and all forms of sex perversion and immorality are flooding our lands.

Our WORD is no good—we break our contracts. We are more and more sports-minded, but we want to take our sports sitting down, paying admission to WATCH others perform! Our health is deteriorating—our hospitals are overcrowded—and one in ten is becoming a MENTAL patient!

Because OUR SINS are INCREASING,
God Almighty says He is now just about ready to visit upon our peoples the most severe national PUNISHMENT ever suffered by any nations! He says He is going to use this EUROPEAN COMBINE now rising to DESTROY OUR CITIES (H-Bombs), and kill a third of our populations, after a third already have perished in the famine and disease epidemics! THIS NEED NOT HAPPEN—but it is certain unless our peoples REPENT, and turn to GOD and seek HIS WAYS! And you know they WON'T!

COMMUNISM

Then, look at COMMUNISM, and the uniting under this godless atheistic movement of the CHILDREN OF JAPHETH—the oriental world! Has that been BIG News? Ezekiel 38 shows definitely that some godless movement was going to bring those races together before the coming of CHRIST. They are to have MAN POWER (including women) in armies totalling TWO HUNDRED MILLION SOLDIERS! No army has ever yet remotely approached that vast number. Yet God says it will happen—SOON! (Rev. 9:16.) And the RED ARMIES already have the greatest man power of world history!

For 35 years, I have been saying—since long before China was brought into the Communist orbit—that these nations would be allied!

Another gigantic movement is just now beginning to attract public attention and to inspire BIG-news headlines, though it has been in process of forming for some time. A special article reporting the astounding FACTS will appear soon in The Plain Truth. That is the "ecumenical" movement among the organized religions that call themselves "Christian" today. Not only are Protestant bodies making more and more determined advances toward UNION—but the Eastern Orthodox Catholics are being courted—or are courting—and the Roman Catholic Church, although firmly refusing direct co-operation and all offers of COMPROMISE, nevertheless is encouraging all movements in this direction. She is extending every possible invitation for her protesting "wayward daughters" to come back into the fold—under absolute Papal RULE, of course!

Why is this movement so significant?

PROPHECY says there will be ONE professing "Christian" religion combined with, and actually HEADING, the new resurrected "Holy Roman Empire." They will STAMP OUT every other religion in the western world they are to conquer and RULE for the short space of 2 to 3½ years! Your Bible says they will persecute, and MARTYR all who do not bow under their yoke! Millions will be put to death for their belief in true BIBLE Christianity!

But this whole movement, in the early stages of merging, is not Christian. God names her. Through Isaiah 47 she is called the DAUGHTER of the ancient BABYLON. Hers is not the religion of CHRIST—but the ancient BABYLONIAN MYSTERIES, deceiving the world under a FALSE LABEL! The real name is not Christian. GOD calls her by her real name: "MYSTERY, BABYLON the Great, the mother of harlots" (Rev. 17:5). Yes, "MYSTERY, BABYLON" or, "BABYLONIAN MYSTERIES."

Another fulfillment of prophecy is MODERN SCIENCE, falsely so-called. It is new in the world. Of all the scientists who ever lived, 90% of them are in the present generation, alive today! God said, "KNOWLEDGE SHALL INCREASE." Much of it is false knowledge! Rapid transportation was to come (Dan.

12:4). Another tremendous development that has made the BIG NEWS, is the "Space Age" development. Jesus Christ said, "And as it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man." (Luke 17:26). It was undoubtedly still in the days of Noah, though after the flood, that his grandsons started building the tower of Babel. Noah lived after the Flood an additional 350 years. His three sons were nearly 100 years old at the time of the Flood. Children were born to these sons after the Flood—presumably almost immediately after. Babylon—and apparently the Tower—was built by Nimrod, who was prematurely killed before old age. Nimrod was the grandson of Ham, one of Noah's three sons.

Now I, myself, already have eight grandsons and three granddaughters—and I assure you I have not yet lived anywhere near 350 years since the first child was born to Mrs. Armstrong and me. We already have a grandson 19 years of age. Since Ham's son, Cush, probably was born only a year or so after the flood, and Nimrod was the son of Cush, it is highly probable Nimrod was born not more than 30 or 35 years after the Flood—and that he built Babylon about 115 years after the Flood

Just What do You MEAN— BORN AGAIN!

Don't be too sure you know! Many religious people talk about being "born again"—yet they don't really know what Christ meant by those words. The TRUTH is surprising, startling—here made so plain you will UNDERSTAND!

by Herbert W. Armstrong

LET'S be honest—don't some of these religious terms seem vague, meaningless, when you stop to think about it?

Do you know that most people who think they have been "born again" actually have no more real conception of what it means than the young man who said he "gave his heart to the Lord" at a revival meeting. When asked if he had his chest cut open so he could reach in, take his heart out, and hand it to the Lord, he stammered confusedly that he guessed he didn't really know what it did mean, when he had been told that he "gave his heart to the Lord."

It's about time the TRUTH of what Jesus Christ meant by being "born again" is made so plain you will UNDERSTAND! For He did not say or mean what most religious people think! And NOTHING IS SO IMPORTANT!

Even Preachers Deceived

When Jesus said we cannot enter into the Kingdom of God except we be BORN AGAIN, Nicodemus was confused. He didn't understand—but he did know that he had been BORN—once! And he knew that to be BORN meant that he was literally delivered out of his mother's womb, after having been begotten by his human father, and having been nourished by food through his mother so that, as a growing foetus, he developed and grew physically large enough to be finally BORN! That was no ethereal, imaginary, mystic, unreal event.

Yes, Nicodemus knew what it meant to be BORN! But Jesus was talking about being born AGAIN—a second time—not of material flesh—not after being physically begotten by his human father—but of the SPIRIT, after being begotten by the heavenly Father!

WHY cannot people understand? It's hard to believe, but YOUR BIBLE says that this whole world is DECEIVED!

Incredible though it seems, that is true!

Yes, even the clergy! Many large denominations of this world's organized religion ignore this subject altogether. Some refer to it, as a mythical, mystic, meaningless expression, casually and rarely, putting no emphasis on it as a doctrine or teaching. But a few put major stress on "a born-again experience"—without the slightest conception of what it means!

WHY this confusion of tongues? Actually, it has resulted from the greatest, most colossal and diabolical conspiracy ever perpetrated on mankind, which occurred between the years of 70 and 120 A.D.—actually beginning as early as 50 A.D.

The most tremendous discovery of this 20th Century—the most important acquisition of new knowledge—is the discovery of the true factual and authentic history of that gigantic organized conspiracy that resulted in deceiving the entire western world!

If it were truly UNDERSTOOD today what Jesus meant by being BORN AGAIN, the subject would be neither ignored, nor misrepresented in a pseudo-spiritual, mystic sentimentalism.

One religious leader, victim of the Great Delusion, gave this definition of a Christian: "One who has been born again, and washed in the blood of Christ." It will sound incredible to some, but emphatically that is not the Biblical definition. We shall make that PLAIN!

I have before me a religious weekly, in newspaper style, with a 3-column headline across the top of a 5-column front page, which says: "What 'Born Again' Means." It is a long article, continuing over on, and almost filling an additional whole page. But I read in vain to discover what this evangelist, with the title of "Doctor," thought the words really mean. He listed eight conditions, or religious states, which he thought resulted from the "experience." But what the words "born again" mean—what actually takes place, and how and when—or just what the "experience" is—he simply didn't know. After talking all around his subject, never getting down to it, he finally said the new birth is a "mystery" which we cannot understand!

But WE CAN UNDERSTAND!

God intends us to understand! YOUR BIBLE makes it PLAIN—yes, the PLAIN TRUTH—if you will only quit "interpreting," reading into it a supposed meaning carelessly assumed because it has been popularly taught—or representing it as a system of double-talk in which words do not mean what they say.

The BIBLE says what it MEANS—and it means precisely what it SAYS. Let's quit interpreting! Let's BELIEVE CHRIST, the Living Word of God!

A Contradiction?

There is a particular verse that has puzzled millions, discouraged thousands who didn't understand, and caused some to accuse the Bible of contradicting itself.

Look at this verse! It says—and means, literally: "Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for His seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God!" (I John 3:9).

Look at that! It says plainly, that after a man is "born of God" it is impossible to sin again.

Now is that a contradiction of verse 8 of the first chapter of the same

Book? Remember that in New Testament language the pronouns "we" or "us" refer to converted Christians. The unconverted are referred to as "they" or "them." An example is I Thes. 5. "For when they shall say, 'Peace and safety'; then sudden destruction cometh upon them . . . and they shall not escape. But ye, brethren, are not in darkness that that day should overtake you as a thief" (Verses 3 and 4).

Now compare the verse in I John 3:9 with the following, in I John 1:8-9: "If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we"—(already Christians who repented of, and had forgiven and wiped out, all previous sins at the time of conversion—so this is here referring to sins committed, though of course not deliberately and wilfully, after being converted)—"confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we"—(we CHRISTIANS)—"say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His Word is not in us" (Verse 10). Then, the next verse, I John 2:1: "And if any man sin, we (Christians) have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous."

Of course the Bible teaches that Christians should not sin. The first part of I John 2:1 (not quoted above) teaches that. The emphasis all through the New Testament is on rooting out sin—overcoming sin—growing in God's righteousness, always toward perfection.

But these and numerous other verses (especially the Apostle Paul's experience, Romans 7:14-25) say plainly that converted Christians do sin—though not deliberately and wilfully. Certainly it is not impossible!

Look at Jesus Christ Himself! The Scriptures say He did not sin—yet they teach plainly that at all times it was entirely possible for Him to sin. Jesus, in the human flesh, "was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin" (Heb. 4:15). No Scripture says that He could not sin.

So here we have many Scriptures showing that it is NOT IMPOSSIBLE for converted Christians to sin—it was NOT IMPOSSIBLE even for Jesus! Yet, in I John 3:9, we have the flat statement that, if and when we are actually born of GOD, we shall not be able to sin—IT WILL THEN BE IMPOSSIBLE!

THERE IS NO CONTRADICTION BETWEEN THESE SCRIPTURES!

The Source of Error

Nearly every error is based on a false assumption, taken carelessly for granted. The universal error, in this case, is the untrue ASSUMPTION that when one is converted—when one has fully repented, accepted Christ in faith, and received God's Spirit—or, as some state it, "been baptized by the Holy Spirit"—that he has then been "born again."

The colossal error is merely one of using incorrect terminology—yet the error is far-reaching, and totally hides from the world the overwhelming, ALL-IMPORTANT MEANING of being BORN of GOD! By this apparently slight misuse of terminology, a cunning devil has DECEIVED THE WHOLE WORLD as to what salvation is—what is the reward of the "saved"—what is the real PURPOSE of LIFE—the MEANING of SALVATION—the goal of God's Plan!

This misapplication of one word of religious terminology has deceived a confused world into viewing the matter of being "born again" as some ethereal, mystic "experience" one is supposed to "feel," or, somehow, though he sensed nothing, to have gone through when he professed Christ!

What most religious people—if they use the term—call being "born again" is simply MIS-NAMED. Actually, the term "born again" does not apply at all, nor refer to, the experience of a true CONVERSION—the receiving of God's Holy Spirit—or, as some phrase it, the "baptism of the Holy Spirit." Most, however, who use this latter term are as deceived as to what it is, as they are about being "born again."

The real SOURCE of this whole stupendous error is this: In the English language, we have two different words to express the two phases that occur in the reproductive process of all mammals.

The one, which is the very start of the new life, we call conception, or a begettal. All human and animal life comes from an egg-cell, which must first be fertilized, impregnated, conceived, or begotten (yes, we have all four of those words for this first initial phase of the reproductive process) by a sperm-cell from the FATHER. But NO ONE EVER calls this beginning of the process a BIRTH!

In the case of all mammals, the begotten egg-cell is called a foetus. In the human family it starts as small as a very tiny pencil dot. It cannot be BORN until, nourished on material food through the mother, in the uterus or womb of the mother, it develops and grows, physically, to a size averaging 6 to 9 pounds in the human family.

The phase of the process which in the English language we call being BORN is that process by which the foetus is delivered from the mother's womb, and out into the world comes a little baby to gasp its own first breath. It has then BEEN BORN!

But if you would try to tell a doctor, or a nurse, that the yet unborn foetus had already been born, as soon as you knew it had been conceived, or begotten, the doctor or nurse would surely think you ignorant, and probably try to explain.

The New Testament of the Holy BIBLE was originally written in the Greek language. And, in this case, the Greeks had only one word for the TWO vitally different phases of the process!

That Greek word is "genmao" (pronounced ghen-ah-ō). The Greek-English dictionary (lexicon) gives this definition of the Greek word: to procreate (properly of the father, but by extension of the mother); beget, be born, bring forth, conceive, be delivered of, gender."

Four of those definitions mean to beget or to conceive—but NOT to be BORN. To procreate means to beget. To conceive has the same meaning. Webster's dictionary defines "gender" as to beget, breed, generate. It does not refer to the birth. But three of the lexicon definitions of "genmao" mean the actual BIRTH: "be born," "bring forth," and "be delivered of."

Misleading Translation

Since the original Greek, in which the New Testament was written, has only the one word for both meanings—and since the "scholars" of our comparatively recent years who translated the Bible into English did not, themselves,

The Autobiography of Herbert W. Armstrong

The WORLD TOMORROW leaps ahead with the first daily broadcasting—now from Hollywood. Impact of the Work more than doubled. How a son was trained.

INSTALLMENT 42

WE COME, now, to April, 1942. Our elder daughter was happily married, and now our younger daughter was making determined efforts to achieve the same status.

On the Air—In Hollywood!

Her fiance, Vern Mattson, was in the Marines. She had word from him that his Division—the famous First Division U. S. Marines of Guadalcanal fame—was shipping out from New River, North Carolina. He didn't know where. The destination could be Europe. But his guess was the far Pacific, via the Panama Canal.

He thought they might stop off briefly at San Diego, Los Angeles, or San Francisco. It was a "long-shot" chance, but if they did, Vern and Dorothy wanted to be married—even if it should be no more than a three or four-hour stop-over.

In every war thousands of engaged couples face this same decision—whether to marry immediately or wait until after the war. My wife and I had discussed and argued the problem in the spring and summer of 1917—at the beginning of World War I. We had decided to let the chairman of my draft board make the decision for us. He said: "Get married." We did. And now we were hardly in position to throw any obstacles in Dorothy's path.

If the Marines did make a brief stop-over at one of the three California ports, there would be no time for him to come to Eugene, Oregon, or, after landing, for Dorothy to get to California.

Since we were at last ready, at the time, to add a Los Angeles station to the three we were then broadcasting over, it was decided that I should drive, with Dorothy, to Los Angeles.

The preceding summer Mrs. Armstrong and I had interviewed Mr. Kenneth Tinkham, manager of KMTR in Hollywood. He had agreed to accept the program when we were ready. He now cleared 9:30 Sunday mornings.

I rented a small apartment within walking distance of KMTR.

We were now ON THE AIR—IN HOLLYWOOD!

As I mentioned in the preceding installment, KMTR (now KLAC) had the very desirable wave-length of 570 kilocycles on the radio dial. This, combined with exceptional and unusual mechanical and transmitter advantages gave it a day-time signal almost equal to the average 50,000-watt station.

The mail response from listeners was at least double that of any of the three stations already used in the Pacific Northwest. I found our listening audience now doubled!

And Now—DAILY Broadcasting!

Within about two weeks a new opportunity came. When Mr. Tinkham called me to his office and offered it I didn't know whether to regard it as an opportunity or a temptation to disaster.

One of the leading Los Angeles radio ministers, Dr. Clem Davies, had been using two half-hour periods on KMTR daily, at 5:30 in the evening, and a morning half-hour. He was now changing to one program daily at the more expensive time of around 7:30 in the evening.

Mr. Tinkham offered me the 5:30 P.M. time Mondays through Saturdays, in addition to the 9:30 Sunday morning half-hour. The cost would be nearly six times the amount per week I was already paying KMTR. It had been a big leap ahead, in expenditures, as well as in numbers reached, to take on the Sunday broadcasting in the Los Angeles area.

The thought of meeting this tremendous additional increase in expenses was staggering. Where would the money come from? There was no time to send letters to Co-Workers to see whether they would—or even could—pledge enough to guarantee this mountainous increase in expenses. I had to grab that open time within 24 hours or lose it.

Our readers will remember that I had learned the costly lesson back in the period from November, 1934 to late in 1936. The door of KXL, Portland, had opened. We then were on only one station, our original KORE, Eugene. But instead of recognizing that the living Christ, who heads God's Work, had opened this door and expected me to walk through in FAITH, I wanted to rely on pledges from PEOPLE. When our brethren and Co-Workers pledged only half enough, I was afraid to incur the obligation. Christ did not open that door before me again for two whole years!

Now He had opened another door. To me, at that time, this was a stupendous door. It probably meant at least doubling the entire expenses of the whole Work—in one sudden jump! And I had to pay each week in advance, too!

I telephoned Mrs. Armstrong at the office in Eugene. The total balance we had in the bank at the moment was exactly the amount of one week's daily broadcasting.

Well, even if it was our last dollar, God had supplied TODAY'S need for this colossal opportunity He had opened to us! Jesus' sample prayer teaches us to ask, "Give us this day our daily bread." God does not often give us today our need for next year—though He tells us elsewhere it is right for us to lay up in the summer for the winter's need, and even to lay up ahead for our children and grand-children.

But I had learned the lesson at great price. This decision took courage. It took faith. God had opened now the biggest door so far. He had supplied the immediate need of that particular day.

I walked promptly through that door IN FAITH! Blind faith! I could not see where the money for a second week's daily broadcasting could come from. How could our income for the whole work suddenly double?

I decided that was GOD'S problem and responsibility. I committed it to Him, and wrote out a check for every dollar we had in the bank.

NOW WE WERE ON THE AIR, IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, SEVEN DAYS A WEEK! That was by far the most tremendous leap ahead so far!

Tremendous Response

But, miracle of miracles!—for once in our experience, the impact of this early evening DAILY broadcasting was as tremendous as the test of faith had been! Not once did I ask for contributions on the air, just as I had refused to do from the first broadcast in 1934. And the mailing address for free literature and The PLAIN TRUTH, offered on each program, was then Box 111, Eugene, Oregon.

Not only was there an immediate tremendous increase in mail from listeners—there was a corresponding increase in tithes and offerings arriving in Eugene.

The first week rolled by quickly. On the day the second week's advance-payment for radio time was due, I telephoned our office in Eugene. The money for the second week's broadcasting was in the bank! And, a week later, there was enough for the third—and then the fourth, and on and on! God continued, week by week, to supply the NEED!

This daily broadcasting was a new experience. At that time I had always spoken on the air from written script. During those war years it was required. To write the script for a half-hour broadcast, including the study and research for material, occupied my entire time.

It now became daily routine. Early in the morning, each day, I started getting the broadcast material assembled and outlined—then putting it on the typewriter. Around 4:30 in the afternoon I pulled the last sheet of paper from the typewriter. Then the walk of a mile or so to the radio station, and on the air at 5:30.

Once a week—it was Thursday evenings—after the daily program, I went to a restaurant for dinner, checking the evening newspapers and the weekly news magazine for war news I could use—then, whipping together an outline of the material, I went on to the recording studio to record the Sunday program for the three Pacific Northwest stations. Then a drive to the Burbank airport to put the large transcription discs into the air-express office.

It was a grind. But it was doubling the size, scope and power of God's

Work, and that was a rewarding thrill!

Training a Son

Week after week this routine continued. As the weeks passed, no word came from Vern Mattson. We learned later that the First Division Marines had sailed through the Panama Canal, and straight through the Pacific to Guadalcanal, where they made their spectacular landing in the very first offensive driving the Japanese back from the vast Pacific empire they had captured.

As soon as school was out, early June, Mrs. Armstrong called me on the telephone from Eugene.

"I'm sending Dick down to you on the next train," she said. "He's grown too big for me to punish, and I simply can't manage him any more."

Dick was then thirteen, and only about four months from reaching fourteen. He was sprouting up.

Two problems had presented themselves with our two sons. Ted (Garner Ted, but we always called him Ted), had always been a "little fellow"—short for his age. Dick had been of normal height for his age. But our readers will remember that Mrs. Armstrong, over my protest, had insisted on starting the two boys in the first grade in school together. I had finally acquiesced to this. Ted had always been, as a small boy, a favorite with his woman teachers.

Because Ted, 16 months younger, had always basked in the limelight wherever they were—"stolen the show" so to speak—Dick had developed an oversized inferiority complex. Here he was, sprouting up to a full man's height, almost fourteen, but seriously lacking in confidence.

It was some time after this—back in Eugene—that I discovered Ted working industriously and with a determined zeal on a muscle-building strong-man course he had found advertised in one of the magazines. Dick had always been taller, but now that Dick was sprouting up, and Ted had not yet reached that spurt to manly maturity, the difference in size had greatly increased. Up until this time the two boys had been closer buddies and pals than any two boys I ever knew. But now, Ted was suffering from a smarting feeling of inferiority. When I asked him what inspired this vigorously determined burst of energy, trying to build muscle, he replied,

"I'm getting ready to beat up on Dick. I'm tired of being pushed around, just because he's bigger than I am."

This is getting ahead of my story—for this occurred somewhat later. But let me state here that before Ted was able to develop enough muscle to "beat up on Dick" he, too, began to sprout up and finally reached full male maturity, exactly the same height as Dick—and both boys, finally, about 2½ inches taller than Dad. And, once Ted caught up in physical stature, the two boys were inseparable pals and companions again.

From the moment Mrs. Armstrong said she was shipping Dick down to me, I knew I had to find a way to help him overcome his inferiority complex.

I decided on a definite plan. About the second day he was with us in Hollywood—after showing him around Hollywood to some extent—I asked him if he would not like to go over and see a boyhood friend, John Haeber, who lived in Hawthorne, south of Los Angeles. The Haebers had spent a lot of time in Oregon, and our boys had become acquainted with John, about their age.

Next morning early I gave Dick enough money for car fare to Hawthorne and back.

"Well, Dad, I don't know the way. How shall I go?" Dick asked.

"Dick," I said, "you have to begin right now learning to be self-reliant and finding your own way around. You already have the Haeber's street address. Learn to 'carry a message to Garcia' on your own. I'm too busy getting the broadcast ready to tell you. Here's car fare. You're on your own. Find your own way. And be back here in time for dinner. Good bye, son."

What went on in Dick's mind at that moment I never knew. But I opened the door, he went out, and he was on his own. Somehow, he worked out his problem. He arrived at the Haebers', and was back in time for dinner. That was the beginning of my program for him.

A few days later I asked him if he would not like to spend the day out at the beach—at Santa Monica and Ocean-side. I gave him car fare. Again, I gave him no directions whatever, but told him to find his own way.

He was a little late returning. Somehow, he had lost his return car-fare in the sand. I do not remember now how he managed getting back to Hollywood—but he worked his own way out of his predicament without telephoning me for help. He lacked even the price of a telephone call, anyway.

A little later he mentioned going to the zoo. I didn't know where the zoo was, but gave him permission to go—again on his own.

Dick was learning self-reliance. He was developing initiative. He was finding his own way around. I planned to have Mrs. Armstrong and Ted come down before we ended our summer and returned to Oregon. One last thing remained in my plan before they came. I took Dick two or three times boating on the lagoons in MacArthur and Echo parks, taught him how to use the motor boats rented out there.

Now I was ready for Dick's final exam in his course in self-reliance, and overcoming a feeling of inferiority to Ted.

Filling the Biltmore

Dr. Clem Davies, whose time I had taken over on KMTR, had been holding regular Sunday services at the Biltmore Theatre, largest in downtown Los Angeles. About the time he relinquished the 5:30 evening time for the better 7:30 time, a dramatic or comedy show starring George Jessel was opening at the Biltmore.

This had forced Mr. Davies out of the Biltmore, and he had moved his Sunday services to an auditorium at the Ambassador Hotel.

Along in early July, probably close to the 10th, I heard that the Jessel show was ending its engagement and moving on to San Francisco. Immediately I went to the office of the manager of the theatre.

The last Jessel performance was to be Saturday night. Would the theatre be available on next Sunday?

"Why, yes, the theatre will be available," he said, "but you couldn't afford to rent it."

"How do you know I couldn't?" I demanded. "How much will it cost?"

"Now look, Mr. Armstrong," he persisted. "Dr. Davies had been holding services here a long time. It took him years to build up a good-sized audience. He took up three collections at every service—and he just barely took in enough to pay the rent. You've only been on the air down here about three months. You haven't had time to build up a fraction of Dr. Davies' following yet. Even if you took up five collections in your service, you'd never get enough to pay for it—and besides, I'd have to have the entire rent in advance. You haven't been on the air down here long enough yet to fill a big auditorium like the Biltmore."

"Well that's what I'd like to find out," I replied. "And I will not take up any collections at all! But how can I tell whether I can afford it, unless you tell me the amount of the rental?"

I think it was $175. And it was already Wednesday late afternoon.

I told him I would be back with the decision in a few moments. The Biltmore Theatre occupies one corner of the large block occupied otherwise by the large Biltmore Hotel. I went to the hotel lobby, and called Mrs. Armstrong at our office in Eugene by long distance telephone. Once again, we had just enough money in the bank to pay this rental in advance, and the price of postal cards for the Los Angeles district mailing list.

I dictated over the telephone an announcement to our secretary, instructing them at the Eugene office to have the announcement mimeographed on the cards, all addressed to those on the Southern California mailing list, and get them in one big package into the air-express office addressed to me, yet that same evening. It was then only about 15 minutes before closing time at the post office.

I dashed back into the theatre lobby and up to the manager's office, and wrote him out a check for the following Sunday's rental.

In those days, because of the war and fear of Japanese bombing, we were having blackouts every night. I had been advised that people in Los Angeles would not come out to a religious service at night. Theatregoers would attend the theatre for night performances—but for some reason people were afraid to attend a religious service at night. It merely demonstrated where people's hearts and interests were.

So the meeting had to be held on Sunday afternoon—I believe the time was 3:00 P.M.

Next day, Thursday, the large package of printed and addressed post cards arrived. I took them to the Hollywood post office. There was a vigorous protest about letting me mail them there. I had not bought the cards there. That post office lost the credit for the sale of the post cards, and objected to having to have charged to them the expense of handling. But I explained our emergency, and how there was no other way I could have done it. They finally took them.

Then on my program, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings, I announced the Sunday afternoon meeting at the Biltmore—and finally again, on Sunday morning. People received the post card announcements Friday and Saturday.

After the Sunday morning broadcast, Dick, Dorothy and I went back to our apartment very tense. Would enough people come to look like a fair-sized audience, or would the small crowd simply look LOST in that big theatre seating about 1900 people?

"Oh BOY!" Dick had exclaimed excitedly, as soon as he had heard I had rented the Biltmore Theatre. "I'm going to sit in a BOX! I've always wanted to sit in a box in a theatre. Now my Dad has rented the whole theatre. Oh BOY! I'm going to sit in a box at last!"

We took a streetcar to the theatre, arriving about 2:15. A few blocks away I noticed the streets were unusually crowded with people—especially for Sunday afternoon in downtown Los Angeles. I wondered what was going on!

We soon found out. It seemed all those people were going in one direction—toward the Biltmore theatre!

I thought it best that I not get involved in a hand-shaking experience until after the service, because I still had to prepare the sermon. So I went in through the rear stage door, while Dick and Dorothy entered by the lobby entrance.

I learned later what had happened. All of Dr. Davies' former ushers were on hand, and it seemed they had gotten divided somehow into two divisions. There was no one in charge, and there was a dispute over which group of ushers was taking over. Confusion reigned.

Dick's experience in self-reliance and initiative now paid off. Immediately he—not yet fourteen—took charge. He called all the ushers to one side.

"I'm Dick Armstrong," he told them, "and I'm taking charge here."

Then he snapped out orders. He said he would use all the ushers, since the crowds were literally streaming in—and each would do whatever he assigned. He then, without any previous experience, organized the two groups, assigned stations to each man, directed everything, and from that moment there was order and system.

Actually, it had never occurred to me we would have a crowd large enough to need ushers—and I would certainly not have known where to turn to obtain ushers, anyway. But God worked that out, supplied the needed ushers, and used Dick to restore quick order and system.

No Collections

Although I had never taken up any collections in any public evangelistic service—and have not to this day, and never shall—I did have two things done hurriedly on Thursday and Friday of that week. I had a sign painter turn out large lobby signs for the theatre, and I had two wooden boxes made, about the size of a shoe-box, with a slot in the top of each. These were placed at each end of the inner lobby of the theatre by Dick—to one side, and not in the direct path of the exits from the inner isles.

Actually, Dick did get to sit in his box—but by the time service was to begin, all the boxes were crowded full. Nevertheless, he went into a box, told them who he was, and the people managed to squeeze in a little closer and make room for one more.

The first floor and the balcony were packed solid, and the second balcony half or more than half filled. The attendance was 1750!

I had decided to conduct the service just like a broadcast—precisely on time! At precisely 5 seconds before 3:00 P.M., I walked briskly to the pulpit in the center of the stage, arriving at the pulpit at 3 to the second. Before I could say a word, I was surprised by an uproarous burst of applause. I had never seen or heard anything like that at a religious meeting. But I learned later that this was common practice in Los Angeles, and that ministers are commonly called “doctor” whether they possess any such degree or not. Up in the second balcony there was the blowing of a foghorn. A well-known Los Angeles character, who went along barefoot and with long flowing white hair and, I believe, in a white robe, whom I heard called “Father

Time,” had come in. But there were no others of that type.

As soon as the applause died down, I started with the usual, “GREETINGS, FRIENDS!”—then another burst of laughing applause. I said, rapidly, that although I loved to sing hymns as much as any of them, that right now we were in a WAR, prophecy was being rapidly fulfilled, and I had things of too great importance to say to take up time with either singing, or taking up collections. I said that I knew some would be disappointed if they could not leave an offering, and for those who wanted to, there were the two offering boxes in the rear lobby—but that they would not see them unless they went out of the usual path to find them—that we never took up collections, never asked for contributions either in such services, nor over the air.

Then I got immediately into my messmall list of church brethren asking pledges totalling $2.50 per week for the broadcast. I received pledges for only half of that, and had to take the other half on sheer faith.

How, in this state of affairs, was I to start publishing a magazine? It seemed impossible. But, as I said, there was a will. God had now provided the means of building a circulation—from radio listeners, starting the very smallest, of course. Now I was determined to find the WAY.

I had previously been getting out the little mimeographed news bulletin for the scattered few church members we were then working with. The WAY would have to be the mimeograph, not the printing press!

At the time, my family was still in Salem, and I was staying as guest of church members on a farm seven miles west of Eugene. At this time I did not even have a typewriter.

For that first issue of The PLAIN TRUTH, I borrowed an old typewriter from a neighbor out in the country. I had no mimeograph, so I arranged with the mimeograph sales office in Eugene to come in to their office and borrow the use of theirs.

The sole cost of "publishing" that first issue of The PLAIN TRUTH—Volume I, Number 1, February, 1934—was the cost of the few stencils, and the 600 sheets of mimeograph paper used to print about 150 copies, plus the postage I would have to buy later, after radio listeners wrote in requesting the "magazine." I imagine the whole thing cost perhaps about $5, and that Mr. Elmer Fisher, in whose home I was staying, paid the $5, though I do not remember those details.

I had no "scope" or stylus, with which to letter in the headlines. How well I remember holding those stencils up against the windowpane at that farmhouse of Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, with Mr. Fisher helping me hold it, while, with a pencil pinch-hitting for a stylus, I worked in the headlines for the articles by shaky freehand work!!

And so it was, that after 7 years, the conception that had come to mind back in 1927 of publishing The PLAIN TRUTH became a REALITY!

It was a crude, home-produced mimeographed "magazine," which perhaps no one else would have dignified by the word "magazine"—but, to me, it was the realization of a dream of SEVEN YEARS!

And now, after another four periods of seven years each, we come to the 28th Anniversary of that humble, crude, homemade first edition of The PLAIN TRUTH. Its circulation then, 150 copies!

For seven more struggling years, The PLAIN TRUTH had to remain a crude-looking mimeographed paper. It did not come out regularly every month. There was one two-year lapse. But, as recorded in the December, 1961 issue, in the 40th Installment of the Autobiography, the August-September, 1940, PLAIN TRUTH finally outgrew the mimeographing process, and beginning that issue, it has been a printed magazine. Even then, it was printed on lowest-cost mimeograph paper, only 8 pages, and, in order to afford cost of printing, a bi-monthly—every other month!

But, by the seventh anniversary of The PLAIN TRUTH, February, 1941, we were broadcasting on three radio stations—Eugene, Portland, and Seattle, with a listening audience of 150,000 every week. The PLAIN TRUTH circulation had multiplied from the original 150 copies to 4,000. The 40th and 41st Installments of the Autobiography have described how we still had to keep that 4,000 mailing list by hand, address all copies by hand, with only Mrs. Armstrong and me, and now, calling for volunteer helpers from the little church every two months for mailing.

Progress had seemed so very slow. Yet seven years had developed the work from virtually nothing to a more or less noticeable impact on the entire Pacific Northwest.

Another seven years brought us to February, 1948. Ambassador College had been founded. Its doors had first swung open to students—only 4 students—October 8, 1947. It was like starting all over again. The college, like the broadcasting and the publishing, had to start the very smallest. There was no endowment. There had not been even a down payment for the purchase of the original small block of campus property.

The Pasadena city Building Inspector had slapped a $30,000 headache on us that proved almost fatal. Every wall and ceiling of the 3 floors and basement of our first classroom building (now the Library) had to be torn out, and reconstructed semi-fireproof before we could open.

By that time we had a scattered national listening audience to the broadcast. Listeners from California, Missouri, Illinois, Texas, and perhaps one other state came to our rescue with either donations or loans of $500, $1,000 and even up to one loan of $5,000. One, who gave most of his life savings, later became chief custodian of the college. Another, from Missouri, later gave up his profession, came to Ambassador, added a Master's degree to the Doctor's degree he already possessed, and became Director of the very important Bible Correspondence Course—now with 60,000 enrolled active students. The son of another, then a young boy of around 5, is now a student at Ambassador. Yes, where one's treasure is, his heart goes also—and I think all who put their treasure into God's Work (and either their all, or a big portion of it), in those days to save God's college, have kept their hearts in it—and, we trust, shall, during eternal life for eternity!

February, 1948, found this work teetering on the very brink. People were talking about "when this thing folds up." It costs money to operate a liberal arts college. Many former brethren said I was a fool, and deserted the ship of God's Work. Perhaps, from a human viewpoint, no one but a fool would try to start a co-educational liberal arts college with no endowment, no capital, and with even every dime of income already obligated for regular operational purposes.

But this was not started from a carnal human viewpoint, or for selfish human purposes. GOD started it. It had to be started! The Work of God was ready to take on real national and worldwide expansion. This was going to require an educated and trained personnel. Whatever plant is not planted by the Eternal God shall be rooted up. But "this thing didn't fold up"—because GOD planted it! And whatever God starts, shall never be rooted up! He says He will never drop the Work HE has begun!

The college started in the same small crude manner as the broadcasting and publishing divisions of the Work—after 14 years—TWO periods of SEVEN! February, 1948, found us at the very lowest ebb. At the end of that month, early March, we were put off the air on our daily broadcasting, which, by that time, had been inaugurated. Only the Sunday broadcasts continued. The "$30,000-Headache" as we called it, had thrown us too far behind in paying radio bills. Yet enough loyal Co-Workers remained faithful to carry us through.

We were on the air again by October. The final supreme financial crisis had to be met December 27th that year. We had to pay a large payment of accrued interest and taxes, then falling due, in order to exercise our option to purchase the college property. It had been obtained only on a Lease-and-Option basis, for we had not even the price of a down payment.

Beginning about November 25th that year a miracle happened. Again God Almighty providentially came to the rescue of His Work. For 15 days, beginning about December 3rd or 4th, God caused Co-Workers to simply "rain money from heaven" upon us—so it seemed! For those 15 days, we received an income of $3,000, on the average, every day!

Nothing like that had ever happened in the history of this work. We had to have $50,000 to meet our deadline. It came! Exactly $50,000, no more! GOD SUPPLIED OUR NEED!

We were over the nerve-shattering hump at last. That 16-month period had been the nightmare of my life! In January, 1949, I felt I simply had to ask my Father to give me rest from financial strain for at least six months! I had been under constant financial pressure for 28 years, beginning with the reverses that struck my business in Chicago during the flash-depression of 1920.

God answered that request. Not only for six months—but from the moment of that real earnest and heart-rending request—because I had come to the place I felt physically and mentally unable to go through it longer—the nerve-racking tensions have been relieved. As we have said since, we do have financial PROBLEMS—very serious ones, sometimes—but from January, 1949 on, no more financial WORRIES, or nerve-shattering tensions. Our faith is often tried, to develop more patience. But we have learned the lesson of letting GOD carry the STRAIN!

During those early years of the College, The PLAIN TRUTH was forced to skip issues occasionally, and rarely did 12 issues come out in any one of those years. There was even a period when we issued a 16-page "Good News," largely edited by college students, instead.

But, by 1955, after another seven years, we were broadcasting overseas, starting the WORLD-WIDE proclaiming of Christ's Gospel. That year, beginning July, we went on television on about 13 stations from coast to coast—for a period of 6 months. However, after that we determined on a policy of more intensive DAILY broadcasting by radio, which then began to build up to the present more than TWENTY MILLION WATTS of radio power weekly, worldwide!

That is quite an increase from the original 100 watts weekly, 28 years ago! Today The PLAIN TRUTH has more than ONE MILLION READERS, with 365,000 copies, printed in three editions—Los Angeles, London, and Melbourne. The PLAIN TRUTH, a printed 8-page bi-monthly 21 years ago, after its first struggling 7 years of mimeographing, did later expand to 16 pages, then to 24, then to 32 and on a regular monthly basis. Last June it went to 40 pages.

And now, with this 28th anniversary number, it leaps up to a full 48 pages!

No, this Work of the living GOD did not fold up! Its impact now is WORLD-WIDE. But the biggest, most important phases of this great work still lie ahead of us!

I think it accurate to say that all that has gone before, up to now, has been preparation—building to a point of strength and power where, as I have said on occasion, we are now just beginning to start, to commence, to get ready to do the real BIG WORK!

The Message of God Almighty to mankind—the Message He sent by Jesus Christ, but which the world rejected—MUST, now, in these last days just before Christ's return, be proclaimed as a witness, into ALL NATIONS, with a power and impact that will shake those nations as if a super-earthquake had struck them!

They won't heed, except for a very few. We know that! But they MUST BE WARNED—and so powerfully, THEY SHALL KNOW THEY HAVE BEEN WARNED! The dynamic, living POWER OF GOD will see to it!

This, then, is what God has enabled us to give you as our 28th Anniversary gift to YOU—The PLAIN TRUTH finally enlarged to a full 48 pages! I sincerely hope you like it!

Financial Security for YOU!

Money troubles? How can you be SURE of a good income in 1962? Do you possess the KEY to financial strength through the turbulent years ahead?

by Roderick C. Meredith

WE ARE living in a time of political and economic CHANGE. It is already affecting your pocketbook!

Whether or not you make a particular study of world affairs, you have undoubtedly noticed that in the field of world trade America and Britain are losing out. You also may have noticed that in comparative political strength, we are plummeting down from our once virtually unchallenged position of world leadership.

New nations are sprouting up in Africa and Asia. The Communist menace is constantly enlarging. And—most important of all—a UNITED STATES OF EUROPE is rising before our very eyes in the area of the old Holy Roman Empire. As a trading power, the European Common Market is right NOW giving America and Britain a bad time on the world trade markets. This situation is prophesied to become worse!

There is SERIOUS economic trouble ahead for the English-speaking world!

President Kennedy told his November 8 Press Conference: "We have to begin to realize how important the Common Market is going to be to the economy of the United States. One third of our trade generally is in Western Europe.

"If the United States should be denied that market, we will either find a flight of capital from this country to construct factories within that wall, or we will find ourselves in serious economic trouble."

This is YOUR Problem

Speaking of the possible financial panic in the future, a respected financial expert recently stated: "No one is currently starting a run on the bank, yet the possibility exists. International speculators are not usually motivated by patriotism. The potential for speculation at the expense of the United States was never greater . . . the facts of international economics seem lost on the American public" (By Nate White, The Christian Science Monitor, July 28, 1961).

Are these economic facts lost on YOU, too? It may seem like a theoretical debate in the field of high finance at first, but it is destined rapidly to become YOUR PROBLEM.

As more and more foreign-made goods invade the American markets, the JOBS of American workers are going to become increasingly scarce. Our national gold supply is now at a dangerous level, and the very security and stability even of the dollars we do possess is indeed growing shaky! Within a decade, we are destined to experience the WORST DEPRESSION within our national history!

Do you know exactly when—why—what you can do to avoid suffering from this personally?

You Can KNOW What Lies Ahead

If you have had your eyes opened to see that The PLAIN TRUTH is, indeed, a "magazine of understanding," then you should quickly begin to realize that it is through God alone and through His true servants that you will find the real answers to these questions!

In His written Word, the God of heaven states: "Surely the Eternal God will do nothing but He revealeth His secret unto His servants the prophets" (Amos 3:7). God will ALWAYS reveal ahead of time His intervention in human affairs through His prophets, preachers or ministers. His true ministers will KNOW—not merely guess—what lies ahead. Perhaps you have noticed that in The PLAIN TRUTH magazine and over the World Tomorrow broadcast, we speak with AUTHORITY and we set forth in exact and specific detail what is going to take place in the major nations of this earth! It can be stated unequivocally that we are the ONLY religious organization that DARES to do this!

And it is HAPPENING right on schedule!

There is a REASON for this. In the New Testament, God says that He gives His Holy Spirit—imparting His mind, His understanding—"to them that OBEY Him" (Acts 5:32). In the book of Psalms, God inspired David to write: "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that DO HIS COMMANDMENTS: His praise endureth forever" (Ps. 111:10).

People can reason and argue until they are black in the face about whether or not it is necessary to obey their God and their Maker. But the FACT remains that people who refuse to obey God's laws do NOT have any real understanding of prophecy, of the DEFINITE events that are about to take place in our lifetimes, or of the purpose of God in human affairs and the real meaning of salvation itself! To receive God's spiritual and financial BLESSINGS, you can and must prove this to yourself and begin to ACT on this vital principle.

If you prove yourself willing to OBEY the God of the Bible, then he absolutely WILL back up His written promises and BLESS you financially or in any other category where you obey His laws and ask according to His will.

Financial Blessings?

If you are seeking the only real financial security in the years that lie ahead—and it IS REAL—then you had better begin to take the words of your Bible literally in this respect. First of all, Jesus Christ said: "But seek ye FIRST the Kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you" (Matt. 6:33). He had just been speaking of the need for food, clothing and material things. He said if we put first the very RIGHTEOUSNESS of God and obedience to Him, we WILL have these things added. This is a BINDING statement. It is also a basic principle upon which to base your life.

For in every phase of life, you should begin to obey the revealed laws of God—constantly seeking His will by earnest Bible study and prayer. You should ACT upon what you find revealed by God in His Word. Then He who controls ALL material things has promised to BLESS you with every material need.

He has PROMISED! And God doesn't break His promises!

This basic principle includes the whole field of your willingness to PROVE that this very work of God really IS God's work—acts as HIS representative proclaiming the advanced good news of the world tomorrow—and that the WAY OF LIFE it teaches should become YOUR way of life in obedience to God and His laws!

If you are going to claim God's financial promises, then you are going to have to truly seek FIRST God's Kingdom—not just "kid" yourself that you are while you put it second, third or fourth in your time, interest and study.

In the financial sphere specifically, God throws down a challenge to YOU. He asks: "Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, wherein have we robbed thee? In TITHES and OFFERINGS. Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation. Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and PROVE me now herewith, saith the Lord of Hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it" (Mal. 3:8-10).

In actual fact, this prophecy is referring to the modern-day "sons of Jacob" (verse 6), that is, the American and British peoples primarily! It means YOU and me!

Gods says our so-called Christian nations have ROBBED Him both in tithes and offerings! Many preachers and churches talk about tithing. But very few teach the binding authority of this LAW of Almighty God. For in all too many cases, they think all divine law is "done away." That is one reason why we are living in an increasingly LAWLESS age!

But the God of the BIBLE challenges you to PROVE whether or not this is a LIVING LAW that He stands behind and backs up from His throne in heaven! He tells you to BRING the tithes and offerings to His storehouse—to be used in HIS WORK. And one important thing you need to prove is where HIS work is really being done!

This law of tithing to which Malachi refers is that which was given to the nation of Israel in Numbers 18:20-26. But the principle of paying God the first tenth of one's income or increase was understood and OBEYED even by Abraham—"the father of the faithful"—long before the Old Covenant ever came into existence. In Genesis 14:20, we read how God sent Melchizedek as His priest to bless Abraham, and how, speaking of Abraham, "he gave him TITHES of all."

In the New Testament, we find that Jesus Christ—the AUTHOR of true Christianity—did teach tithing. In condemning the Pharisees for their wrong evaluation of things and their self-righteousness, Jesus Christ stated: "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For ye pay TITHE of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye have done [these weightier matters], and NOT to leave the other [tithing!] undone" (Matt. 23:23).

Yes, Jesus Christ said you should NOT omit the obligation of paying the first tenth of your income to Almighty God who gave you EVERYTHING. THIS IS Christianity—STRAIGHT FROM CHRIST! Is this kind of Christianity good enough for you?

Will you OBEY what the God of the Bible and the Christ of the Bible state in plain language? Both spiritual and financial BLESSINGS are yours if you will!

It Really WORKS!

In recent years we have had literally hundreds of letters coming to our offices from people writing in to say how they had been BLESSED after they began obeying God in the matter of tithing. Many of them found, very frankly, that they could not afford to do anything BUT tithe to God's work!

Perhaps some of their letters, reprinted word for word, will encourage you in this matter of obedience to the financial LAW of the Creator. A man from Morristown, Tennessee, recently wrote in: "I was expecting a new arrival in my family. I knew expenses would be heavy so I said to myself, 'I'll just skip my tithe for a few weeks, God will understand! From the day I started tithing until that day, I had not known the financial worry that I have experienced these few weeks. Today, I am not sure that I can afford to send this money, but then again I don't think I can afford not to send it.'"

You see, God holds you ACCOUNTABLE once you understand this precious knowledge! This man found that he was far worse off when he tried to "save" the tithe money and keep it himself!

A man from Western Australia recently wrote in: "I took your advice on the commencement of paying tithes to stop my financial troubles and fully admit I was very much down financially when I did start. That was roughly six or seven weeks back. Since that period, and at the height of the credit squeeze, work and money have been coming to me and I am now considerably better off than seven weeks ago."

You see, tithing "WORKS" whether or not the nation is in the midst of a financial crisis or credit squeeze!

A couple from Toledo, Ohio, write in: "Enclosed please find our tithes and offerings of $100. God has blessed us this summer many ways. My husband has been working steady, sometimes on two jobs. We have saved enough money for a down payment on a house of our own. My husband has always wanted to buy a house but we never could seem to save any. Since my husband started giving God all of his tithe without any pushing on my part, we have prospered and become more thrifty."

Notice that God doesn't rain the money down from heaven! He expects you to do your part. Yet, through His blessing you will be enabled to carry (Please continue on page 45)

Just What do You MEAN— BORN AGAIN!

UNDERSTAND God's Plan—they often translated the Greek word "gennao" into the English word "BORN" where it actually meant "BEGOTTEN."

Notice a few outstanding examples!

In John 1:13, the Authorized, or King James version of the Bible renders it: ". . . which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." This is an incorrect translation of the Greek word "gennao." In the American Revised version a marginal rendering says: "or, begotten," as it should be.

Other examples appear in John's first Epistle. Notice:

In the American Revised version I John 2:29 is correctly translated: "is begotten of Him"; but in the A. V. it is, incorrectly, ". . . every one that doeth righteousness is born of Him."

I John 4:7: The A. V. incorrectly has it: ". . . and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God." But the Revised version corrected this error, rendering it: ". . . is begotten of God."

I John 5:1, in the A. V., incorrectly: "Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth Him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of Him." Here, this same Greek word, "gennao," was inspired by the Holy Spirit three times in the same verse. The first time, the King James translators erroneously rendered it into the English word "born." The second time "gennao" is used in the Greek they could not render it "Him that was BORN" or "Him that 'borned'"—for it refers to the human believer, not God. Here they were forced to choose the correct definition of "gennao," in the past tense, as "begat." Then, since they already had to use the past-tense "begat" in that instance, they also correctly rendered it, in the third place the word occurred, "is begotten."

The Revised version also corrected this error, rightly rendering it: "Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is begotten of God, and whosoever loveth Him that begat, loveth him also that is begotten of Him."

One final example: I John 5:4—the A. V. erroneously renders it: "For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world, . . ." but the Revised version corrected it to read: "For whatsoever is begotten of God overcometh the world . . ."

Now quickly notice a few instances where the SAME GREEK WORD was correctly translated "begotten."

I Cor. 4:15 the Apostle Paul is talking to those converted under his ministry: "For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel." There, it is correctly translated, showing that Paul's converts at Corinth, as his "spiritual children," had been begotten of God, but not yet BORN.

The experience of conversion, in this life, is a begettal—a "conception"—an "impregnation"—but NOT YET A BIRTH! This we shall make PLAIN!

One more—Heb. 1:5—speaking of CHRIST'S begettal in the Virgin Mary. This verse shows that Christ, later BORN of God by a resurrection from the dead (Rom. 1:4), was an actual BEGOTTEN SON OF GOD, in a manner that no angel is, or can be. Angels are merely created beings. They are not actually begotten of God, so that in this sense they become His born sons, as Christ now is—and as we may also be. Notice the verse: "For unto which of the angels said He at any time, 'Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee?'"

Let CHRIST Explain!

If those who are deceived would listen to JESUS, and be willing to believe He meant what He said, THEY COULD UNDERSTAND!

Let's look at all that Jesus said! Let's understand what it means to be BORN of God—in what respect one shall be different after he is BORN of God—let's see WHEN this spiritual BIRTH takes place!

This man Nicodemus was a Pharisee, in an office of authority over the Jews. The Pharisees considered Jesus as "a religious independent"—they didn't endorse Him, they sought to discredit, persecute, and kill Him. Nicodemus didn't want to be seen talking to Jesus. So he came around under cover of darkness.

But Nicodemus did recognize that Jesus was actually sent by God, with a Message from the Creator to mankind.

Jesus said to him: "Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God" (John 3:3).

Immediately carnal-minded Nicodemus was as puzzled and confused as carnal-minded religionists today. But he knew one clear and specific fact they seem not to grasp—he knew what being BORN means!

"How can a man be born when he is old?" asked this Pharisee ruler. "Can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?"

Jesus was here talking about the actual spiritual BIRTH—not the begettal. Let us understand that. In this passage, the Greek word "gennao" is correctly translated "born." So, let us now see how Jesus explained this final spiritual BIRTH.

"Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is everyone that is born of the Spirit" (Verses 5-8).

Now LOOK AT THAT! Nicodemus had defined the only kind of BIRTH he knew—physical birth—and he knew it was not the conception, but the actual delivery out of a human mother's womb. Jesus accepted this explanation of the actual BIRTH. He did not say, "Oh, I'm not talking of being actually BORN, but merely of the conception." Jesus was here talking of being actually BORN!

But He was talking of being born of GOD, not of a human father. He was talking about a different, and a second BIRTH—a spiritual birth, not a human or physical birth. Yet Jesus used the physical birth as the exact type or illustration!

NOTICE! "That which is BORN of the flesh, IS flesh," He said. When an infant is delivered out of its mother's womb, it is born of a fleshly, human, physical mother whose ovum, or egg-cell, was given physical life by the fleshly FATHER. So, this human infant is born of the FLESH—and it is physical, material FLESH. Yes, Jesus was speaking of literal BIRTH.

NOW notice! Just as the infant born of the flesh actually IS flesh—a physical person—SO, in like manner, the man or woman, when BORN of the SPIRIT, actually will BE SPIRIT.

Is that so hard to understand?

GOD is not composed of matter. GOD is A SPIRIT—He is composed of SPIRIT—as Jesus explained, in John 4:24. But, God says He formed MAN of the "dust of the ground"—of MATTER (Gen. 2:7). So MAN is material FLESH. And those born of material, fleshly parents ARE FLESH—that's what they ARE. But God is A SPIRIT, composed of SPIRIT, and those BORN of GOD, the heavenly Father, become SPIRIT. They are no longer composed of material flesh—no longer human—no longer MORTAL; they then shall be, as Christ now is, composed of SPIRIT—then actually divine—IMMORTAL!

What is matter? It is anything that occupies space, and has weight. You can SEE matter—or feel it, or taste it, or smell it, or HEAR the vibrations of matter which we call sound. But you cannot SEE spirit. You cannot hear, feel, taste or smell spirit. But Jesus took the sense of sight as an example.

He compared the SPIRIT, of which those BORN of God shall be composed, to WIND. Nicodemus was a carnal-minded man. He could receive knowledge into his mind only through one of these five senses. So Jesus took a material substance, which this man could UNDERSTAND, which, so far as SIGHT is concerned, resembles spirit.

The WIND, he explained, blows wherever it wills. But it is INVISIBLE—and although you HEAR the sound of it, you cannot SEE where it comes from, or where it goes. "SO," he explained, "is everyone that is BORN of the SPIRIT." After people are actually BORN of God, they, too, shall BE SPIRIT, just as GOD is Spirit. They will be INVISIBLE to material human sight, just as angels are.

Now that ought to be plain. A converted person—one who has repented, accepted Christ as Saviour, received God's Holy Spirit, does have a changed attitude and outlook and purpose—his whole character begins to change, and travel in an opposite direction. BUT HE IS NOT INVISIBLE TO THE HUMAN EYES OF OTHER PEOPLE! He is not composed of SPIRIT. He is still composed of material flesh, even though God's Holy Spirit has entered, and now dwells in, and leads and influences, his HUMAN MIND.

He is now BEGOTTEN of God. The very LIFE and NATURE of GOD has entered into him, impregnating him with immortal spirit-life, exactly as the physical sperm-cell from the human father enters into the ovum or physical egg-cell when a new HUMAN LIFE is first CONCEIVED, IMPREGNATED, OR BEGOTTEN. But, just as that tiny ovum, as small as a pinpoint, is merely BEGOTTEN of its human father—NOT YET BORN—so the converted human is, at what we properly call conversion, merely BEGOTTEN of GOD the heavenly Father—NOT YET BORN.

He is still material FLESH, even though God's Spirit has now entered into his MIND. He is still VISIBLE.

And now he has about as much of God's Holy Spirit in him, by comparison, as the tiny human sperm-cell compares in SIZE to a baby being born. A human sperm-cell from which human life generates, is about one-hundredth part as large as the egg-cell, which is about the size of a pinpoint. The sperm-cell is much too small to be seen by the human eye, without a microscope.

Once entered into the human ovum, it must grow, from material food received through the mother, to a size averaging 6 to 9 pounds before it is ready to be BORN.

A newly converted human is actually BEGOTTEN of GOD. Such a person is, already, an actual begotten SON OF GOD. He can call God "FATHER." But he is not yet BORN of God.

Notice this, in I John 3:1: "Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called THE SONS OF GOD. . . Beloved, NOW ARE WE THE SONS OF GOD, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when HE (Christ at His second coming) shall appear, WE SHALL BE LIKE HIM, for we shall SEE HIM as He is" (I John 3:1-2).

WHAT We Shall Be

Now notice that! Understand WHAT we shall be, when we are BORN of God! Then, next we shall see WHEN we shall be born of God.

This Scripture, in this marvelous 3rd chapter of I John, plainly says that "WE"—meaning begotten, converted CHRISTIANS—are, now, already, the SONS of God. Yes, of course, and the tiny foetus no larger than a pinpoint in its mother's womb is, already, the SON (or daughter) of its human father, even though not yet BORN.

Next, this Scripture reveals that "it doth not yet appear WHAT WE SHALL BE."

Grasp that! Isn't it PLAIN? We are, later, to BE something different. Of course! Although we already are begotten SONS of God, we are still FLESH—still matter—still VISIBLE. But WHAT WE SHALL BE has not, yet, appeared. As Jesus explained to Nicodemus, we SHALL BE immortal SPIRIT. That is what we shall, later, be!

BUT, this Scripture continues—READ IT! — UNDERSTAND this wonderful, WONDERFUL TRUTH! — we know that, when HE, Christ, shall appear at His second coming to earth, WE SHALL BE LIKE HIM!

Now what shall HE be like? If you can know that, you can know what BORN-AGAIN Christians shall then be like—for they shall be LIKE HIM!

After His resurrection, Jesus was INVISIBLE, except when, by a process that is not explained, He was manifested, or made visible, to human eyes. Angels are normally INVISIBLE to mortal sight. Yet in many instances the Bible describes incidents when angels were made visible, so they could be seen—and they appeared like MEN.

After Christ's resurrection, two dis-

Communism, "Christianity" —and Double Talk

Communism and "Christianity" bedfellows? Not quite, but both have one striking thing in common!

by Herbert W. Armstrong

WHAT in the world could COMMUNISM have in common with interpreting the Bible? A great deal—only, very few have ever recognized it.

Communism, of course, is many things. It is a doctrine, based on the theories of Marx and Engels. It is a revolutionary program. It is relentless class war. It is a radical philosophy of history. It is a radical philosophy of society. It is a social system. It is an economic system. It is a political strategy. It is a world conspiracy.

One Thing in Common

But, though opposite or different in many respects, it does have one thing in common with organized "Christianity." And I definitely do not mean the original Christianity of Jesus Christ and the first-century Apostles. I mean the organized "Christianity" of our day, which interprets the Holy Bible!

Among other things, realized by too few, Communism is a system of double-talk. Interpreting the Bible, likewise, is a system of double-talk!

What Do You MEAN?—

Let me illustrate. Let me make it clear.

The purpose and proper function of words is to convey meaning from one mind to another, or to others.

When a person uses the word peace, he conveys to the minds of others a state of tranquility, absence of violent strife or war; a state of quiet, or rest. When one uses the word defense, he conveys to others the meaning of protection from harm or from change, and from without. When one uses the term political party, he conveys the idea of one of the political groups or divisions within a government, as a part of it, merely differing in certain areas of thought or method in policies, procedures or administration of that government.

When one uses the term life, he means existence—and, in respect to humans, conscious existence, as opposed to death; and the term death is used to convey the meaning of cessation of life.

Communist "Peace"

But when a Communist uses the word peace, he does not mean cessation of struggle or violence, and state of quiet rest at all. He means virtually the opposite. He means a state of stirring up struggle, strife and war; he means a state of violence, continuing until he and his "comrades" have imposed their ideas and concepts, their tyranny and their dictatorship rule on the whole world.

The word peace, to the Communist, means the state of chaos and violence and strife he can produce until the world lies prostrate in his clutch, enslaved into his kind of enforced quiet of non-resistance and docile submission to his dictates—which he envisions as being finally restful and "peaceful" to him, if not to his victims. But he uses the word peace to deceive those he is trying to conquer and subjugate.

When Khrushchev says he is for peace, he means he is in favor of all opposition just giving up, lying prostrate before his feet. He means he is coming with war and violence, but there will be peace if and when we submit in unconditional surrender—when we let him take all we have from us, and make us his slaves. He is always for PEACE—that kind of "peace."

When you hear Khrushchev say he is for PEACE, you need to know what he means by that word. He is using DOUBLE TALK. He doesn't mean what you mean—and he uses the word deliberately to deceive you. If he can make America and other nations think he is for peace, perhaps we will get real friendly and quit resisting—and just surrender to him!

Communist "Defense"

The Red Army is, they assure us, organized only for DEFENSE! In their double talk, they are not aggressors—WE are the imperialist aggressors!

Now look at this. UNDERSTAND the ridiculous absurdity of it!

Here we have peaceful America. We have no such national purpose as a goal to overthrow any other nation, or to force or impose the American form of government, or its system of society, on any other nation. We want to live and let live. When a national disaster happens in Japan, either the U.S. government sends big-scale generous help, or American citizens start a voluntary movement, making sacrifice and contributions on a large scale to send help.

When Germany, Japan and Italy form an Axis alliance and attack us in a dastardly surprise sneak-attack on Pearl Harbor, and we resist to the point of winning the war, then immediately we start sending them BILLIONS of dollars, and sympathetic and generous aid of all kinds, to rehabilitate them and rebuild the destruction they brought on themselves.

And yet, naive, generous, kind-hearted America—so says Khrushchev—is a reprehensible imperialist aggressor, trying to attack Russia!

You simply have to understand Communist double talk to comprehend that!

The Communist system of distorted and perverted thinking is this: Their idea of society, economics, and government is the only right idea—and therefore every other idea is wrong. Every other idea is against peace, and is their enemy. Even the static, peaceful existence of any other system of government, economics and society—and religion—is a menace and threat, for the reason they cannot have PEACE until we give up our concepts and ways, and surrender to them.

Consequently, they work their reasoning around to the idea that our very existence is an AGGRESSION against THEM. From this warped and diabolical point of view, our existence, even letting them completely alone, is disturbing their "peace" of ruling us—therefore, an attack by the Red Army to conquer us is only DEFENSE!

Isn't that "nice" reasoning? But it serves their PURPOSE to try to make the world think they are for PEACE, and their armies only for "defense." They use the trick of having one opposite meaning for a word to them, and another, but natural and normal meaning to us, in order to deceive us into letting them destroy and conquer us!

What Communist Party Is

Now to us, a political party is a political group within the national government—loyal to, and part of that government—but differing in certain concepts or methods of procedure or policy in the administration of that same government.

But here again, the "Communist Party" is merely a trick term to pull the wool over our eyes and deceive us—a means of getting a fifth column into our midst—of getting the ENEMY'S GOVERNMENT into our very midst, leading us to accept it as part of OUR government. Its only object is to DESTROY our government. Of course, if it could do this peaceably at the polls, it would—but it knows it can't, so it does stand for the VIOLENT OVERTHROW of the United States government.

Actually, the Communist Party is NOT a mere political party, in the sense Americans think of the term. It is a ruthless totalitarian Dictatorship. It is run, with absolute power, by a few men at the top—all of whom are completely subservient to one man who is Dictator Absolute. This one-man dictatorship is supposed to be necessary because there may be different interpretations of the Marxist philosophy. Therefore, to prevent division, they must have a Supreme INTERPRETER.

In practice, since Communists came to power in their first government, Lenin was its first supreme interpreter, then Stalin. After Stalin's death no one man was able to establish totalitarian domination over the small group at the top—the Politbureau—until Khrushchev emerged on top. In the meantime there was terrific struggle for this leadership. Some were ruthlessly murdered in the struggle for power before Khrushchev won out.

But Khrushchev's position as Secretary of the Communist Party gave him the inside track. The Communist Party is NOT merely a political party as part of the government of the U.S.S.R. It is not one of the political parties in America, which is part of the U.S. government. It is not part of ANY government. It IS a government—a WORLD government, which has set up, and therefore RULES the Soviet government in Russia. It is supreme over the Soviet government!

Instead of being another political Party as part of the party system of American government, it is a foreign government, whose sole purpose is to destroy, and overthrow, the government of the United States, and set up a foreign Communist government here instead, just as it set up such a government in Russia, in China, in East Germany, in Poland, Czechoslovakia, and other countries.

The Communist Party is outlawed in many countries. Yet its double talk has deceived many countries into allowing it to operate as one of its own country's political parties!

Interpreting the Bible Is Double Talk

Now notice the similarity between a method of organized religion, labeling itself "Christian," and this method of Communist propagandists.

As stated above, when one uses the word life, he means existence—and, in respect to humans, conscious existence—remaining ALIVE. He means being alive, as opposed to being dead. And when he uses the term death, he means the cessation of that existence—the STOPPING of that life, as opposed to still being alive.

Now in the Bible God uses words to mean what they say. Of course Jesus spoke in parables. But parables are not double talk.

True, Jesus specifically said that he spoke to the public always in parables, so that they would not understand—to hide, or cloud the meaning. He said it was not given to them to understand—NOT THEN. But he used no deception. He did not mislead them. He did not use terms which led them to believe the very opposite of what his words implied. He merely left them puzzled, without understanding, as He intended.

Of course, also, the Bible, in a very small percent of Scriptures, speaks in SYMBOLS. But a symbol is not deceptive, misleading double talk. As a parable is using one experience to illustrate a truth, so a symbol is the use of one term to picture something else having similarity in some form. For example, the term "mountain" is used to illustrate a great major nation, and "hill" represents a small nation. A "woman" in subjection to her husband is used to symbolize the Church in subjection to Christ. The relation is the same, so that the one pictures the other. Nations are sometimes represented as "trees." The natural olive tree is pictured as Israel—wild olive trees as gentile nations. Always there is similarity of nature, character, or function, so that one, far from having a misleading opposite meaning, actually illustrates the other.

But the Bible explains its own symbols. Nowhere does the Bible deceive, or resort to double talk!

But now look at Romans 6:23: "The wages of sin is DEATH; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." There is no double talk there!

Those words are neither symbol nor parable. They are not allegory. They are (Please continue on page 33)

The Bible Story

by Basil Wolverton

CHAPTER FORTY

MOB ATTACKS MOSES

SUDDENLY the mob closed in, pressing the guards against the underpinning of the platform. A few small stones shot out of the crowd and bounced off the platform, where Moses, Aaron, Joshua, and Caleb stood.

Those who attempted to hurl heavier stones were hampered by the surging mass of human beings. A few men managed to squirm past the guards and climb onto the platform. They crouched around the four figures who were already there, eyeing them threateningly. It was evident that these intruders were waiting for more to join them for the purpose of seizing Caleb, Joshua, Moses and Aaron.

At that instant a blinding flash came from inside the tabernacle. Even though the curtains of the structure veiled its full brilliance, the brightness was so intense that people were temporarily blinded. A moment later an ear-splitting roar rumbled out of the tabernacle. The ground quaked as though a whole mountain had been dropped from the sky!

The intruders staggered off the platform and into the struggling mass surrounding it. The words "Stone them!" abruptly ceased from the crowd. The only sounds now were those of alarm in the frantic scramble to draw back from the platform and the tabernacle.

Realizing that God had intervened, Moses and Aaron gave thanks and got to their feet.

"Have the ten traitorous scouts arrested and brought to my tent," Moses instructed Joshua and Caleb. "I must go now to the tabernacle to talk with God."

At the tabernacle God asked Moses after he had knelt inside the tabernacle,

"How much longer will these people vex me with their evil ways? How many more signs must I give them to prove that I mean what I say? Now I should have nothing more to do with them except to blot them out of my sight forever. Then, starting with you, I should build up a greater and a mightier nation!"

Here is where the course of history would have been greatly changed if Moses had let his vanity get the best of him. With Israel wiped out, Moses would have claimed Abraham's place as the "father of nations."

"But if you destroy all Israel," Moses replied, "the Egyptians shall hear of it. In fact, every nation on Earth will sooner or later know of it. Word has spread that you are the kind of God who dwells with His people, and Who leads them with a cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night. When news goes abroad that Your people died in the desert, the nations will believe that You lacked the power to bring them safely into the land You promised to them. I beg you, God, to forgive these people of their sins, but I'm not asking you to let go unpunished those who have stirred the people into wanting to return to Egypt instead of going on into Canaan."

There was a silence. It was painful to Moses, who couldn't be certain how God would respond. He realized that his mentioning the preserving of God's reputation in the eyes of other nations—especially Egypt—wasn't necessarily a strong point. God, with His perfect memory and awareness, wasn't in need of being reminded. Finally the Creator replied.

"Because you have prayed as you have for the Israelites, I shall forgive their sins as a nation. I shall not make a complete end of them. My reputation for mercy and power and glory will one day be known in every nation of the world." (Numbers 14:11-21.)

Moses was greatly relieved and heartened to hear these words from the Creator. He remained for a little while with his forehead to the ground. But just as he raised his head and was about to utter his deep thanks, God's voice boomed out at him again.

"I have just told you that I am willing to forgive the sins of the Israelites. At the same time, however, I will refuse them entrance into the promised land because they have broken their covenant with me. This means that those who have rebelled against me shall never come into Canaan! They shall die in the desert! This curse doesn't apply to those who are under twenty years of age—the very ones whose fathers complained that they would surely die in the desert because I couldn't protect them. Neither does it apply to obedient people such as Joshua and Caleb. But it does mean that most of Israel shall wander forty years in the mountains and deserts before reaching the land they have refused and hated. That is one year for every day required for the scouts to search Canaan!"

"But we have already spent most of two years coming to Canaan," Moses said. "Do you mean that we are to spend forty years going to a place that is only a few hours distant?"

"Inasmuch as you have already been nearly two years on the way," God replied, "it will require full thirty eight more. That is My judgment on Israel because of their rebellion."

Just a few minutes previously Moses had felt as though a great weight had been lifted from him when he was assured that the people would not be suddenly blotted out. Now the dismal outlook of thirty eight more years of leading the Israelites was something he could scarcely face.

"Where must we go from here?" Moses inquired wearily.

"You must leave tomorrow and start southward through the Arabah by Mt. Seir," God answered. "You must journey almost to the Gulf of Aqaba and then turn southwest into the desert where so many wanted to die. That is where the people over twenty years of age are going to die!" (Numbers 14:22-35.)

Told by God to carry this depressing information to the people, Moses and Aaron returned to the platform. A vast, murmuring throng was still present. Joshua and Caleb hurried to join Moses and Aaron.

The Ten Scouts Slain

"We didn't have to arrest the ten scouts," Joshua reported, pointing to a knot of people crowded around something on the ground. "They're all dead!"

"Dead?" Moses repeated in surprise. "How could it be that all of them would die at the same time?"

"We couldn't find out," Caleb explained. "Just a little while ago they were seen talking together over there. An instant later they were lifeless on the ground."

Moses quickly realized that God had taken their lives because of their false reports, but there wasn't time just then to be concerned about the scouts and their families. Moses had to tell the people at once what was in store for them. (Numbers 14:36-38.)

When he passed on to them what God had spoken, the people received the startling news with mixed emotions. Some were speechless. Others moaned and loudly complained. A small part of them were jubilant because of hoping to return all the way to Egypt. Most of them, sobered by the strange, sudden death of the ten scouts, were quite shaken by the outlook for the future. Many thought God wasn't fair. Only a fraction of them were willing to admit to themselves that by their bad conduct they had spoiled a wonderful future and had brought hardship down on their children.

"Remember," Moses concluded, "that from now on we no longer have the priceless blessing of God's guidance and protection. We are like a flock without a shepherd. Only yesterday God wanted us to go into Canaan. If we had obeyed, God would have scattered any Canaanites who might have tried to prevent us. But now we don't even dare stay here lest the people just over the mountains to the north come down and slaughter us! Be ready at dawn, therefore, to move southwestward through the Mt. Seir range and start south by the highway of the Red Sea!"

Rebels Plot By Night

That night was a restless one for Israel. The more the people thought about God's ruling to turn back, the more they wondered how they could make up for their sins. In fact, certain ones secretly met to plan what to do and how to organize the people into doing it.

Meanwhile, the Israelites were not the only ones aware of their blazing, all-night campfires. Alert and unfriendly eyes were peering down from mountain heights to the north, watching to see what the horde of people in the desert valley would do next.

Moses, too, was restless. He spent much of the night in thought and prayer. Very early in the morning he dropped asleep from exhaustion, only to be awakened by Joshua.

"People are breaking camp already!" Joshua exclaimed. "It isn't even daybreak, but there are rumors that thousands are leaving!"

Moses stepped out of his tent. Most of the campfires were burning low at this hour, and it wasn't possible, in the dense pre-dawn darkness, to see what was taking place. But in the still, cool air came the faint jangle of metal and the voices of men shouting commands to their shepherd dogs. Moses knew the sound well, and he sensed that a huge caravan was moving out. But why? And where was it headed?

"Should we call every available officer to try to stop them?" Joshua asked.

"No," Moses answered, shaking his head solemnly. "We're already in enough trouble without shedding blood among ourselves. Just try to find out where these early risers think they are going."

Aaron joined Moses before Joshua could report back. The light of dawn streamed in rapidly from the east, making plain to Moses and Aaron a long column of thousands, with their flocks and herds, slowly moving out of the camps. Moses was hopeful that he would discover the column moving through a defile to the southwest—the direction in which God had said they should go.

To Moses' dismay the light of dawn showed that the wide line of people was moving up a steep mountain pass to the north. This was the road to Canaan! This was the way these people had refused to take only hours before. Having been warned not to go in that direction, thousands of the Israelites were disobeying by sneaking off that way. (Verses 40-43.)

"The Amalekites and Canaanites are just beyond that mountain!" Moses exclaimed, clapping his hands to his head. "Probably they're armed and waiting! This could mean a terrible slaughter for all those people!"

Moses and those with him watched in discouragement as the thousands of Israelites and their flocks dwindled from sight in the distant pass.

"Even if all the rest of our armed men went after them," Moses said, shaking his head, "it wouldn't make much difference. God will not protect those who have departed nor those who would go to their rescue." (Numbers 14:40-43.)

Moses then instructed his officers to see that the tabernacle was packed and ready to move, and that the people should start breaking camp at once. He knew there was a possibility that their enemies, undoubtedly hidden in the mountains, would stage an attack on the camp.

Before the sun was very high, the remaining greater part of the Israelites was moving through the defiles to the southwest. Many a person left Kadesh before he wanted to, however, because of a hope to remain long enough to receive some word of what had happened to friends and relatives who had departed toward Canaan.

Alert and unfriendly eyes looked down from the mountains to observe the Israelites.

Meanwhile, the Canaan-bound Israelites and their plodding flocks and herds were close to the top of the pass that led northward from Kadesh. The way was rather narrow. Steep boulders lined the rough and rocky path over which the twelve scouts had passed only hours before.

Rebels Are Ambushed

Suddenly hundreds of armed men leaped out from behind the trailside boulders! Shouting as though demented, they came running and sliding down the slanting sides of the ravine that formed the pass, and charged at the startled Israelites with spears and swords. Hundreds of Israelites died even before they could get their weapons ready for action. Shrieking women and children turned and tried to run back down the trail, only to trip helplessly over one another. To add to the confusion, the herds stampeded and the flocks swarmed wildly in all directions.

The main body of Israelites gradually began to move backward. But by now a great number of the enemy—Canaanites and Amalekites—had almost sealed off their retreat by thronging across the pass below and south of the agitated column of Israelites. The Israelites had walked squarely into a vast death trap! (Verses 44-45.)

The Canaanites leaped from behind boulders and fiercely closed in on the surprised Israelites.

The slaughter that resulted was frightful. Even animals fell by sword and spear, though most of them escaped into the mountains. The people were not so fortunate. Within only minutes the pass was littered with the bodies of men and women. But because their numbers were so much greater than those of their attackers, part of them escaped and fled back toward Kadesh. The Amalekites and Canaanites took after them, pursuing some of them quite a distance to the south. Most of those who escaped hid among the rocks until the enemy was gone. Then they set out to try to catch up with the main body of Israelites that had departed to the southwest from Kadesh, which was also called Bene-Jaakan—named after the sons of Jaakan or Akan, black folk who then lived there. (Numbers 33:31 and Genesis 36:27.)

About sundown the Israelites made camp at a place called Hor-hagidgad, which was a few miles southwest of Kadesh. Hours later, when most campfires were either out or very low, there was great excitement from the north side of the camp. Weary, footsore escapers were beginning to arrive. Many who returned needed their wounds dressed. Some died. Others gave horrifying accounts of the bloody affair.

PLAIN WORDS, making a PLAIN STATEMENT, and they mean precisely what they say.

Now this Scripture uses the word "life" as the opposite of "death." The one, death, is the penalty of SIN. The other, life, is the opposite of death, and comes as God's GIFT. But it is a different life than this present temporary existence—it is eternal life. This says plainly that that ever-continuous eternal life is a GIFT which God has to give. That means we do not have it, now, or otherwise!

But when the professional clergy, who had inherited and accepted the pagan idea of the "immortal soul," came across this plain statement which made a liar of their "tradition," they resorted to INTERPRETING these words—they resorted to double talk!

Here is one of many places where organized "Christianity" uses satanic double talk to pervert God's Word—to deceive the people into accepting a meaning utterly different than the Bible plainly SAYS.

When the Bible says plainly that the wages—the penalty—of SIN is death, they twist this to mean that the penalty of sin is just the opposite of death—they say it means eternal life, but only in a different place, and condition. They say it is eternal life in the torture of hell fire—burning forever and ever, yet never burning up!

When Jesus Christ says the meek shall inherit the EARTH, they use double talk to make this mean that the saved go to heaven. They make salvation, or punishment, a matter of geographical location, while the Bible plainly SAYS it is a matter of condition—that man is mortal; the penalty of sin is DEATH; the soul that sins is not immortal, but it shall DIE (Ezek. 18:4, 20), but the gift of God, or salvation, is ETERNAL LIFE.

In other words, the BIBLE says it is a matter of CONDITION—the penalty of sin is the condition of DEATH—of being DEAD for eternity—eternal punishment, not eternal punishing. Salvation is being given a gift we do not already have—ETERNAL LIFE; that is, being put in the condition of being joyously ALIVE for eternity.

It is a matter of WHAT we are, not WHERE we go!

When the Bible uses the word DEATH as the very opposite of eternal LIFE in the same sentence, it means DEATH, as opposed to being ALIVE!

As I heard a contemporary of mine—a radio evangelist who also has a world-wide audience—say on his program, when he came to this passage,

"death" means "separation from God."

THAT IS PLAIN DOUBLE TALK! That is a LIE! That is an attempt to deceive!

If we are already IMMORTAL, so that eternal life is not what God says—a GIFT we may obtain under certain conditions He lays down—then what do these words, "eternal life" in this passage mean?

To interpret the Bible is to put a different meaning on its words—to resort to diabolical, satanic, deceptive DOUBLE TALK.

Interpreting the Bible is putting your own meaning into it, instead of receiving out of it GOD'S intended meaning. It is a method of saying to people: "The Bible doesn't mean what it says. God is a liar. You must believe what I tell you—what I make God's words mean. Believe ME, not God."

When you read, in Galatians 4:24, the words: ". . . which things are an allegory: for these are . . ." then continuing to explain what the allegory means, you are not left in doubt. The passage there was speaking in allegory—but it tells you so in plain language—and then explains its own meaning!

When Scripture says plainly, "Jesus spake a parable, saying, . . ." you know it is a parable. It says so.

There is no doubt, when we read in Revelation, first chapter, of the seven stars in Jesus' right hand (verse 16), and the seven candlesticks (verse 13), that these are SYMBOLS. Verse 20 tells us plainly that the stars represent angels, and the candlesticks represent churches. There is no deception—no double talk, there. No interpreting is needed. The Bible interprets itself.

To INTERPRET the Bible is to use the satanic, diabolical, deceiving methods of Satan and of Communism. It is a means of LYING.

WE NEVER INTERPRET THE BIBLE. The Plain Truth makes the Bible—which is Truth—PLAIN, because we know it means what it says, and says what it means. Yet I often receive letters from people telling me they are interested in "my interpretation of the Bible!"

PLEASE understand! The WORLD TOMORROW program, and The Plain Truth, DO NOT INTERPRET the BIBLE. Believe it as it is, in Christ Jesus!

sage, and closed the service right on the exact second—I think it had been announced to close at 4:15—just as the broadcasts have to end precisely on the second.

Later, when we opened the two offering boxes, what do you suppose we found? Yes, I think you guessed it! Exactly, to the penny, the precise amount of the expense of hiring the theatre, extra cost of janitor and electrician, the lobby signs, and the post-card announcements. That is, to the penny. THERE WAS EXACTLY ONE CENT MORE THAN THIS EXACT AMOUNT!

From the start of this Work of God He has supplied the need of the present—but never any more. To this day, God does not supply us today with the funds to finance His Work next month or next year. I am human, and I confess I would, humanly, like to be supplied at least a six months' cash reserve in advance. But to this day, now in 1962, God has never granted that. Sometimes we even have to ask Him today for yesterday's "bread"! But GOD HAS CONTINUED THROUGH THESE YEARS TO SUPPLY THE NEED, AS WE WALK THROUGH THE DOORS HE CONSTANTLY OPENS!

Dick's "Final Exam"

We engaged the Biltmore for the following two Sundays. We decided, for those two Sundays, to hold TWO services each Sunday afternoon. I'm not sure, now, of the exact time, but I think the first service started at 1:30, ending at 2:45, and the second service started at 3:30, ending at 4:45.

It was planned to have Mrs. Armstrong and young Garner Ted, then 12½ years of age, come down in time for the final Biltmore service, and our whole family would drive back together.

At each of these two services at the Biltmore, total attendance was estimated at 2,000. There were 1300 or 1400 at each service, with several who attended the first service coming back for the second. For this reason I preached different sermons at each service.

But I had another motive in getting

Ted down to Hollywood before returning to Eugene. I needed his presence for Dick's "final exam" in snapping him out of feeling inferior to Ted.

Our office secretary and her husband drove them down in our car, which I had left at home when we left in April. They were there three or four days, and it seems we started back to Oregon on July 31, after the final Biltmore service.

When they arrived, I explained to Dick that he would have to take Ted in tow.

"Now remember, Dick," I briefed him, "Ted is just a kid, not as old as you, and he's never been to Hollywood before. He'll be pretty green. I want you to look after him—take him places—show him Hollywood and Los Angeles. Take him boating on the lake in Echo Park, but don't let him handle the boat—he wouldn't know how."

During those few days, Dick was the complete leader. For the first time in his life he was made to realize that he was not inferior, but LEADER over Ted.

Dick passed this "final exam" with flying colors and a grade of "A." The feeling of being inferior to Ted was gone. And, it did no harm to Ted, for he did not realize, then, what was being done. However, it was some little time after this that Ted went into his intensive "muscle-building" program. And I might add, that all the days of Ted's student life at Ambassador College, he won the weight-lifting contest for his weight at the spring Field Day on our athletic field each year.

But Dick was still human. And it is human to go from one extreme to the other. Once back in Eugene, far from feeling whipped and inferior, Dick now was suddenly a "big shot."

It was a glamorous thing to have been in Hollywood. Dick had spent most of the summer there. The other boys had not been there.

So now I had to go to work on him again, and get him back in the "middle of the road." And with God's help this was achieved, and finally he came to have the supreme confidence that is FAITH IN GOD rather than confidence in self, and to have full assurance, yet in humility. That is a difficult state for any human to attain—but one of the supreme right goals of life!

How to GET RESULTS!

*You can punish your children in love—and GET RESULTS!
But to be effective, to really have it pay off, you need to know HOW to punish, what with, how often, how soon, how hard —and when NOT to spank!*

by Garner Ted Armstrong

THE MERE suggestion of spanking a small child, or "hitting" a child, as the psychologists like to refer to it, will send some into a veritable frenzy of indignant anger!

But why? Why SHOULD the human mind be so HOSTILE toward loving, kind, careful punishment by a parent who is earnestly teaching and guiding his child? It is because that mind is CARNAL! "For the CARNAL mind [natural, fleshly, not begotten of God's Spirit] is ENMITY toward God. It is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be!" (Rom. 8:7.)

God is love. But God PUNISHES every child upon whom He lavishes His heavenly love! (Heb. 12:5-11.) His very nature is that of a loving, just Parent who administers PUNISHMENT for His own children's good!

Not The "Last Resort"

As we saw in the last installment, the child psychologists say "The word 'punishment' should not appear in our dictionaries except as an obsolete word . . ." (Psychological Care of Infant and Child, Watson, pages 63-65). And advise parents that they usually "turn to this extreme as a last resort, and because they think that nothing else will work" (The Complete Book of Mothercraft, Parents' Institute, page 365).

But, as we saw clearly proved, the God-ordained method of spanking children for disobedience, and for instilling right habits in them at the early age when they cannot reason for themselves, is the BEST method! It's the God-GIVEN method. It's the way that really WORKS—that gets results!

We have seen what effective punishment should accomplish! How to aim for the long-range goals, and how to administer the first spanking!

The way of God is best—it is the RIGHT way—NOT the "end course in a series of happenings that has carried both parent and child away from feelings of love and understanding" as deluded men and women advise.

The abuse of children, the WRONG METHODS of punishment, and some extreme cases of childbeating have swung the child psychologists to the opposite extreme of the pendulum. The past several decades, they have advocated NO punishment whatever.

Because myriads of deceived parents have followed these spineless reasonings, the chiefs of our greatest law enforcement agencies have warned of coming mountainous crime waves unparalleled in the annals of history!

J. Edgar Hoover has said our very NATION is in stark DANGER from this terrible crime wave among youth that is the new phenomenon of our times!

For those parents who have begun to really see the truth of God—and who want to follow and practice that truth, these articles are written.

What Should You Use?

If you have really SEEN, and you know that you can and must punish your children when they need it—and do it in love—then you need to know HOW! What do you use?

You've heard of the old razor strap, the belt, the buggy whip, the ruler and pencil of the school teachers of a few decades ago. But should these implements be used?

We have already seen how two or three fingers of the hand should be used for a very young child, and first tested on your own forearm or thigh. Generally, it is best to spank with the hand. But, again, there are many cautions.

First, never try to spank a small child with the whole hand through his diapers! Before you would ever accomplish the job of administering a proper spanking to drive the lesson home, you might run the risk of injuring the child's back. The whole hand against one or two thicknesses of diapers would not really be felt except as a clubbing type of blow to the child.

As was already covered thoroughly, you should raise the corners of the diaper, and sharply spat the child with only two or three fingers! Make it be felt—but first try it on yourself to be sure.

Before continuing with these methods, let's understand where you should spank a child! It is certainly all right to spat the back of a child's hand as he reaches for a forbidden object, such as a lighted stove, china vase, or something he may pull down and break. In fact, as one author states, "A slap on the hand of the infant who is reaching for a forbidden object has the advantages of immediate and direct association with the misbehavior and of being quickly over. To do any good the slap must be sharp enough to be felt, but should not be severely painful." (As the Twig Is Bent, Hohman, p. 49.)

But these are the only areas in which you should ever spank a child! Either high on the backs and sides of the legs, directly on the buttocks, or occasionally on the backs of the hands. You should NEVER "box his ears" or strike a child about the head or face.

ANY time a parent is seen slapping a child on the face, or thumping him on the head, striking him anywhere else but the areas described, and then never hard enough to bruise or injure, that parent is probably punishing in ANGER, and is truly "hitting" the child—not really punishing in love!

Generally it is going to be better to spank with your own hand. That way, you can feel it, too, and you will be even surer you are not overdoing it.

Many parents utilize a small switch, which will sharply sting, but never break the skin or bruise. As the author already quoted said, "Spanking or netting small legs with appropriately small switches are only two of the methods that may be used." (As the Twig Is Bent, p. 49.)

Certainly, nothing in the old-fashioned buggy whip category should be used. An extremely effective implement is one of the lighter ping pong paddles, applied to the bare buttocks. (This I know from personal experience!)

With children from two to six or eight years, many parents use the father's belt. However, caution should be used in applying a belt. Certainly the end with the buckle, or any belt that has metal affixed to the portion to be used should NEVER be applied to a child. A very heavy, thick leather belt, especially if striking the child on the edges, if it is being used double, could inflict severe pain and even possible injury. Some parents literally do not know how hard they are striking their children! Therefore, even as was recommended in the application of one or two fingers to a very young infant, the parent should strike himself sharply once or twice on the thigh with the belt, just as he might test the temperature of the baby bottle on his wrist. In this fashion, you may always be sure of the exact strength of the blow, and you will not run the risk of "over punishing" or injury.

The old-fashioned idea of the "hair brush" is more mythical than factual, and with today's modern plastic hair brushes and the like, should never be used.

The place to punish a child is squarely on the buttocks! As has already been covered, very high on the sides of the thighs, or with a small switch, on the backs of the legs, would be equally as appropriate. HOWEVER, this must be wisely decided depending upon the severity of the punishment, and the implement used! Be extremely careful if punishing with a belt that only the shortest portion of the belt is used, and that it is not allowed to wrap around the child's little body, or in any way run the risk of striking so as to injure or cause severe pain. Use common sense—punish your child in LOVE—calmly—not in the heat of emotion—and you need not fear "over punishment."

It is very strongly recommended NOT to use anything that could properly be considered an "implement" for punishment short of one year of age! Parents are strictly cautioned to be extremely careful in the application of proper punishment to a very tiny child.

Now that we have discussed how spanking should be done, let us cover, in principle, other important things to remember.

It Must Be Prompt!

To be effective, spanking should always be prompt! Frequently, because of "embarrassment" in the presence of friends, being in a public place, driving in a car, or other difficulty which seems to make the immediate application of punishment somewhat problematic, parents will defer punishment until later time. This should never be done! The child (and the younger the child the truer this is), will tend to lose sight of the seriousness of his offense, and the exact relationship between the offense and the punishment meted out becomes somewhat unclear in his mind after a period of delay.

"Punishment, to be effective, must be prompt, especially with a very young child. Prompt punishment does not mean hasty punishment, in anger. Rather, it means bringing the results of an act close enough to the event so that a child, whose memory is short, will not have forgotten why he is being punished" (p. 179, Childcare and Training, Faegre and Anderson).

As the example already cited in a previous installment of the parents eating in a restaurant with a child, the parent should think more of the child and of the child's future than he does of the mere "opinions" of people seated around. He should quietly and calmly take the child out of the restaurant, apply the proper punishment, and return, rather than deferring the punishment until later.

"The fundamental in all discipline is to be sure you are right, then go ahead. Go ahead in a way which leaves no shadow of doubt whether you or your child wins. Whatever you do, do something decisive. Do not tell a child who coasts down a dangerous and forbidden driveway that he cannot use his coaster any more that day and then let him coax you into giving it back in five minutes. Do not spank a child and cuddle his tears away, murmuring: 'Daddy is sorry he had to spank you.'" (pp. 50-51, As the Twig Is Bent, Hohman).

Only when punishment is administered IMMEDIATELY after the offense, and especially is this true with a very young child, will it be truly effective. This is the only fashion in which the very young child can be expected to ASSOCIATE the immediate retributive chastisement with the wrong action.

The more swiftly the punishment can follow the act of disobedience, the more effective it will be! This is a principle which should NEVER be forgotten.

It Must Be CONSISTENT!

To punish for an infraction one day, and then to allow the same infraction without punishment the next day is totally confusing to a child.

"The habit of obedience should be developed by the second birthday and firmly fixed by the third. It should become automatic. By the end of the first year, the foundation should be laid. This foundation arises out of a firm, calm, CONSISTENT treatment of the child during the first year. The child will get his first lesson of obedience in learning inhibitions. There is something which babies should not do; mother says 'no' and sees to it that the baby does not do the forbidden thing [by punishing IMMEDIATELY if an infraction occurs]. The mother must be sure that the first lessons are absolutely successful. She must say 'no' only with good reason, but when she says it she must see that the child obeys" (pp. 148-149, Training Children, Pyle). (Emphasis ours.)

I have observed many parents make the gross mistake of totally inconsistent punishment and training. The underlying cause for inconsistency is that the parents have lapsed into the habit of punishing their children ONLY when the children finally "get on their nerves" to the effect that the parent becomes angry, and "lashes out" at the child in retributive haste!

Frequently, parents will say "But I DO spank him!" and then go on to argue "But it doesn't seem to do a bit of good!" ALWAYS, at the root of a statement such as this, is discipline that is totally ineffective because it is not being done consistently.

This is perhaps the most common of all parental failings in administering just and loving discipline! On one day, mother may spank little Johnnie for having pulled a knife out of the drawer. On the following day, she may totally ignore Johnnie as he plays with a whole fistful of knives and forks.

ONLY SPEAK ONCE!

Here, too, is one of the greatest errors of parents today.

"Johnnie! Get back up there on that chair and finish your dinner!" says the parent. But Johnnie ignores the parent, going about his own pursuits as if he had not even heard the voice of the parent. Most parents are taken in by this "ignoring" which all children will "try" with their parents, and so are convinced Johnnie really didn't hear the command! The command is repeated—and repeated—and repeated! FINALLY—the child may even be picked up and PLACED on the chair by the frustrated parent! OR what is just as likely (in the practice which I myself have observed on many occasions) after five or six fruitless admonitions, the parent himself may turn away from this futile attempt at child training and go back to his newspaper or other pursuits, letting the child have his own way! Parents who say, "Did you hear me?" are those who always speak more than once! Parents who say "What am I going to do with you?" are parents who always speak more than once! Parents who say "Am I going to have to give you a spanking?" are parents who ALWAYS speak more than once.

Have you been using these phrases? Do you speak more than ONCE to your children?

Speak to your child once! Then, if disobedience follows, IMMEDIATELY apply the proper punishment! It is only in this way that punishment can be truly effective!

It is truly amazing the degree to which a child's bearing may be sharpened by only speaking ONCE, firmly, and sharply! Thousands of parents seem to be in blissful ignorance of the fact that their children could be trained to literally "jump at the snap of their fingers" if they cared to use the diligence to gain this end. You may have heard of the children who were startled into humble quietude by the mere "clearing of the throat" of their father as a warning. You may have heard of other children who could have been silenced with a mere look. But by far the more average is the child who can't be quieted with a thousand admonitions, and who never listens to his parent!

This is such a common failing of parents that it deserves ample discussion! Check up on yourself! Begin to speak only ONCE!

If you want your child for something, simply say, "Johnnie, come here!" If the child ignores you, wait just a moment or two, then arise from your chair, calmly bare the child's bottom and apply about five or six good sharp swats! If Johnnie pretends he "didn't hear you!" and tearfully tells you he didn't realize you were calling him—you may be positively assured that if you explain the reason why he is being spanked, he WILL hear you the next time!

I have seen so many dozens, yes even hundreds of parents speaking time and time again to their children without any visual effect that it is truly amazing!

You, as a parent, should begin to speak to your child only once! Say, "Eat your dinner!" And then, if, after a few moments, the child is still toying with his food, showing disinterest, or daydreaming—calmly take him down from the dinner table, into another room, lower his pants and give him a good effective spanking! Allow him to remain in his room until the crying has completely subsided, and until he is settled down again, and then firmly place him on his chair and say, "Eat your dinner!" This time, you may be fully persuaded, the chances are far more likely that he is going to finish his dinner! However, let's assume he DOESN'T. What then? This brings up the next basic principle.

Always FINISH What Is Started

NEVER CEASE! Never quit! Never give up! Once you have begun teaching your child the meaning of the word "no," and to respond to a single command, don't ever give up! Let's assume your child does not learn to eat his dinner after this one spanking. If he eats only two or three bites after the first one, and then begins to toy with his food again—repeat the whole process. DON'T SPEAK AGAIN—you've already done that—simply arise from the table, take him into his room, and administer another spanking!

Perhaps it may seem unnecessarily harsh to you—but you should continue this process as long as is made necessary by your child's REBELLION!

There is going to come a time in the life of every child when he is going to "try" his parents almost to the breaking point. He will rebel. It may be over a simple thing such as eating his dinner, picking up his toys, coming when you call, going to bed quietly, or any number of things. My son, on one occasion, simply refused to blow his nose! My wife would say "Blow!", and wait, holding the handkerchief to his nose. He had been blowing his nose by himself for quite some months—there was no question but that he knew how. He rebelled. My wife spanked him, and then told him "Blow!" again. Again, he refused. My wife spanked him the second time. Finally, after my wife had been spanking him quite a number of times, she called me. I took over the situation, and he still refused to "blow!" I do not remember now—and I am sure my son Mark doesn't remember, either—it may have taken as many as fifteen or twenty separate spankings of six or eight licks each! However, after the last one—he BLEW!

Had I let my son win that battle—I may never have gained control of him again!

My child was not bruised—he was not injured—and the pain was all over in just a few moments!! But the LESSON he learned is still with him to this day, as he's rounding out his third year in school! My wife and I then explained to him that he would never have needed even ONE spanking if he had merely blown his nose as he should have—in the beginning! We impressed this firmly upon his mind, telling him that spankings are not enjoyable, they are not "fun" for anyone concerned, but that because we love him, we MUST teach him what is best for him, and what Almighty God requires, in order that he will grow up to be an obedient, loving, respectful child, always doing exactly what his parents tell him!

I have seen many parents spank their children once or twice for an infraction, and then give up because their children CONTINUED to rebel. This is disastrous to teaching real discipline.

Use CAUTION, however! NEVER go to an extreme and BEAT your child. Punish wisely, in LOVE!

Punishment, to be truly effective must always be JUST and graded to the nature and degree of the offense! Never punish harshly, or overly much for a small infraction! Never punish lightly, or too little for a major infraction! Use wisdom and judgment! I never punished very hard for reaching for a knickknack or teacup. I punished very firmly for running out into the street! The one offense, if repeated, might result in a broken teacup; the other, if repeated, might result in the loss of the life of the most precious possession any parent can be given!

Use RIGHT Psychology

Punishment must be adapted to the individual child! However, in explaining this, I may run the risk of having some parents retort, "My child never needs a spanking!" But this, after reading the inspired word of God on the subject, would be sheer ridiculousness! Any and every child NEEDS spankings! It is a vital, integral PART of his positive teaching and training! To be left without punishment is to be left without a very precious benefit given by Almighty God in His Supreme love for instilling a deep sense of respect, discipline, reliance, self-control and a settled, orderly, appreciation of loving authority.

Granted, some children are of totally different natures than others. Some are "easily upset" while others seem to be quite stoical, almost imperturbable. It may take only one or two sharp spats for one child to burst into a veritable flood of tears and repentance. It may take 10 or 12 for another child to show equal remorse. Surely, no one is in a better position to know and evaluate this than you—if you are wise and loving parents.

A child should always understand the PURPOSE of the punishment. Spanking should always be accompanied by the positive TEACHING as to how to do the RIGHT thing, as opposed to the wrong. Most parents have come to feel that spanking is entirely "negative." This is simply not true! Spanking should be, if properly utilized, the most positive method of child rearing there is. With the proper, kind and discerning TEACHING of the RIGHT action, both before and after the spanking, this gives a positive and negative side to the spanking procedure which will be lastingly beneficial. For example: If your child is frequently running in and out of the house, and leaving the door open, call him back, inform him of his mistake, and firmly tell him to always close the door after him when either coming in or going out of the house. Assuming he forgets within a few minutes and leaves the door ajar again, call him to you, show him the open door and administer a just spanking! THEN, take the child to the door, and have him close it. Have him then go in and out of the door five or six times, each time he does it, opening and closing it properly! Instill the HABIT of obedience. TEACH him the positive act he should be expected to do! In this way, with the positive teaching immediately following and accompanying the spanking for an infraction, a valuable and long lasting lesson may be taught.

Most of the time, your child is going to disobey "accidentally." He will disobey through carelessness, thoughtlessness, forgetfulness, or simply through a lack of understanding of what is expected of him. However—don't be deceived! There are many occasions when a child will DELIBERATELY disobey—and needs to be spanked accordingly!

Let your child know you believe in his underlying good intent! Frequently, the young boy or girl will say, quite tearfully, "I didn't mean to!" You should answer, "Of course you didn't MEAN to!" Explain to the child how you "understand" that he did it merely through carelessness or forgetfulness. But say "had I thought you would have done such a deed on purpose I would have punished you much more severely! I know and understand that you wouldn't have done this deliberately—TRYING to be disobedient—but because I love you, I must impress upon you that you should never do this through forgetfulness or carelessness again!"

Then, when the tears have subsided after a spanking, LOVE your children—take them up and show them some affection! NEVER allow the child to run from the one parent who has done the punishing to the other for the loving and the affection—but ALWAYS make sure the child is loved, first of all by the parent who has done the punishing!

The insipid misunderstanding and calloused indifference of some of the child psychologists is difficult to digest, indeed! One child psychologist advocated a pat on the head at bedtime, a handshake in the morning, and, now and then, a "nod of approval!" This, the parents were assured, was to avoid "too much mother love!"

What a loveless, cold and totally hopeless atmosphere it would be if a tiny child could expect only a pat on the head, a shake of the hand, and a nod of approval once in a while!

For a child of four, six, ten or fourteen—or any age—to come to a parent and say "I sure do love you, Daddy!" voluntarily, is one of the most loving and emotionally satisfying, joy-filled experiences of life! Granted, there may be such a thing as "overprotectiveness" on the part of some parents—and especially, some mothers! However, surely a lack of protectiveness, lack of parental love and direction is far more prevalent in today's society than "too much love!"

Yes, punishment when used properly, and in LOVE is a truly marvelous method of positive child teaching and training. God says:

"The rod and reproof give wisdom: But a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame!

"Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest; yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul" (Prov. 29:15,17).

Further, the Ruler of this universe, the God who gives you every breath of air you breathe also gives you an infallible promise that if you "train up a child in the way he should go," he will,

WEATHER in CHAOS —What does it mean?

Why has the world's weather become so VIOLENT and CHAOTIC? Read the little-known facts how the weather has affected history and how it will affect your nation's future.

by Robert C. Boraker

HURRICANES, floods, typhoons, tornadoes, and hailstorms — reports from all over the world reveal surprising CHAOTIC WEATHER PATTERNS! While some areas suffer from drought, others at the same moment are devastated by hurricanes and tornadoes.

Why?

The hurricane which hit America's Gulf Coast recently, was called the most fierce of the century! When "Carla" hit Port Lavaca with winds up to 173 miles an hour and ten-foot tidal waves, all but a thousand of its 10,000 residents had fled in one of the greatest evacuations in the face of a national calamity during modern times.

Killer tornadoes erupted in the backwash of dying "Hurricane Carla" and smashed residential areas of Galveston to rubble. The property damage due to the hurricane and tornadoes was fantastic and amounted to hundreds of millions of dollars!

And this is not all that has occurred in just the past few months. In the drought-stricken Los Angeles area, fires broke out and destroyed 456 homes valued at $24,000,000, including several film stars' and business executives' homes valued as high as $250,000 each.

And so it goes throughout the nation and around the world. But WHY is the weather in such turmoil? Will the weather become better or worse in the future? It's time you knew the facts behind it all!

Weather in History

Few people realize that the weather has played a vital role in shaping world events all down through history. First, there was the Flood during the time of Noah which totally changed the world of that time. Plagues of hail and fire were sent by God on the Egyptians in order to free the Israelites from slavery.

In more recent times, the weather has played an important part in determining the outcome of wars. The first example we have took place during the attempted conquest of England by the Spanish Armada in 1588.

Philip II of Spain was determined to conquer England and assembled what he thought to be the "Invincible Armada." The Spanish Armada comprised 149 ships compared to the 80 vessels of the English fleet. Despite these odds, the English decided to force an engagement when the Armada dropped anchor near Calais in the English Channel.

Lighting eight fire-ships, the British sent them down with the tide toward the Spanish line. The Spanish galleons immediately cut their cables and sailed in panic out to sea. Captain Drake resolved at all costs to prevent their return, and at dawn the English ships closed in and used almost their last shot before the sun went down. Three great galleons had sunk, three had drifted helplessly on to the Flemish coast—but the bulk of the Spanish vessels remained.

The work of destruction had been left to a mightier foe than Drake. Supplies fell short and the English vessels were forced to give up the chase, but the Spanish were unable to re-form—their last chance to do so being destroyed by a GALE. The wind was so violently against them that they were forced to steer in a circuit around the British Isles in order to return to their home port. And so failed Philip's plan for the invasion of England and with it his dream of world domination.

French Invasion Twice Foiled

The weather foiled two invasions of England attempted by the French. In 1759, when the French fleet at Brest attempted to join the troop transports assembled to carry on the projected invasion of England, the British pursued it to Quiberon Bay where it was attacked and destroyed in a heavy gale. A similar event happened once when God "break-est the ships of Tarshish with an east wind" (Psa. 48:7).

Napoleon also resolved to conquer England. But Nelson gained the victory at Trafalgar which finally shattered Napoleon's schemes for invasion.

Ten years later, it was through the power of British Arms, fighting with their Allies and helped by TIMELY RAIN, that Napoleon's career was ended at Waterloo. "If it had not rained the night between the 17th and 18th of June," wrote Victor Hugo, "the future of Europe would have been changed."

The Weather during World War I

During the 1914-18 War, the Germans planned to extend their air offensive by using Zeppelins which were to drift silently with the wind across the target. The first raid of this kind was made in 1917. Here is the account of that raid given in a London newspaper:

"Towards moonset on the evening of October 19, 1917, a fleet of eleven Zep-pelins left Germany in what were thought to be ideal conditions for an attack on London—light westerly breezes, clear skies, and a low-lying mist. Guided by the then novel method of radio direction-finding, nine of the aircraft reached the Metropolis, one passing over the West End and dropping a bomb in Piccadilly Circus.

"Meantime, an unforeseen cyclonic disturbance was forming off our south-west coast. While the ground mist thickened into fog, obliterating landmarks, the upper wind veered northward, and rapidly freshened from twenty to over fifty miles an hour at the invaders' height of 15,000 to 20,000 feet. The Zeppelins' directional radio apparatus failed, owing, it was believed, to the sudden intense cold, and, as a result, the raiders completely lost their bearings. All unawares, they were driven southward far off their homeward course" (The Observer, October 17, 1937).

Lt. Col. Sir Alfred Rawlinson, who was actively connected with the defense of London, declared: "On that night London was once more defended by 'Powers' which were beyond the control of defense . . . Our faithful and invaluable ally the wind continued to 'freshen' with most persistent and truly gratifying regularity" (The Defense of London, 1915-18, p. 218).

The weather brought about another victory for the Allies in 1918. On August 10th, the leading article in The Times reported: "The new offensive initiated under the command of Sir Douglas Haig is one of the greatest and most gratifying surprises of the war. Even the weather favored the Allies, for the assault was launched under cover of a thick mist. No offensive in which the British Army has participated has ever made so much progress on the opening day."

Reports received from German sources confirmed the significance of this remarkable and surprising change of events in the complaint that "the Allies were favored by thick fog."

The Miracle of Dunkirk

Many of the victories during World War II were due to favorable weather conditions. The weather made it possible for 335,000 men to be evacuated from Dunkirk. This evacuation would have been impossible had it not been for unusual weather conditions—a violent storm over France and a calm sea in the Channel.

The story of what happened at Dunkirk was reported in the London Daily Telegraph: "As the story is told, two great wonders stand forth; and on them have turned the fortune of the troops.

"I have talked to officers and men who have gotten safely back to England, and all of them tell of these two phenomena. The first was the GREAT STORM which broke over Flanders on Tuesday, May 28, and the other was the GREAT CALM which settled on the English Channel during the days following . . .

"The story of the strange armada which took the men from the beaches of Dunkirk is already familiar in outline. In its complete fullness it will probably never be known, but it is undoubted that there was such a calmness over the whole of the waters of the English Channel for that vital period of days as has rarely been experienced. Those who are accustomed to the Channel testify to the strangeness of this calm; they are deeply impressed by the phenomenon of Nature by which it became possible for tiny craft to go back and forth in safety.

"So the two miracles made possible what seemed impossible. In the darkness of the storm and the violence of the rain, formations which were eight to twelve miles from Dunkirk were able to move up on foot to the coast with scarcely any interruption from aircraft, for aircraft were unable to operate in such turbulent conditions" (July 8, 1940).

In his memoirs, Mr. Churchill reveals that Hitler undoubtedly believed "that his air superiority would be sufficient to prevent a large-scale evacuation by sea" (World War II, vol. ii, p. 68). But the Fuehrer did not take the weather into his reckoning, for on May 30, General Halder, Chief of the German General Staff, complained in his diary: "Bad weather has grounded the Luftwaffe and now we must stand by and watch countless thousands of the enemy getting away to England right under our noses." But that is not all!

After the episode at Dunkirk, Hitler made plans for invading England with his "Operation Sea Lion." UNFAVORABLE WEATHER again greatly added to the German difficulties.

In the German Naval War Diary, there is a laconic entry for September 17: "The weather situation as a whole does not permit us to expect a period of calm . . . The Fuehrer therefore decides to postpone 'Sea Lion' indefinitely" (The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich by William L. Shirer, p. 773).

Bumper Harvests

It takes good weather to produce abundant harvest. In 1942, England was blessed with bountiful harvests which were direly needed. The Minister of Agriculture made this comment on the B.B.C.'s 9 o'clock news broadcast: "Some Power has wrought a miracle in the English harvest fields this summer, for in this, our year of greatest need, the land has given us bread in greater abundance than we have ever known before."

The capture of Casablanca in Morocco was aided by good weather conditions. The Allied General Staff had been warned by weather experts that after October 1 the Atlantic swell off the coast of Morocco would probably be too high for landing purposes. But at midnight on November 6-7, Admiral Hewitt decided to risk the weather and go for Casablanca. The weather favored him. The sea went down, and on November 7, his large collection of ships was approaching the coast in fair weather with a northeasterly wind and a smooth sea (A Sailor's Odyssey by Admiral Cunningham, p 491).

The Invasion of Sicily

The weather was again a vital factor during the invasion of Sicily. How the weather aided the Allied invasion was related by Commander Anthony Kimmins:

"Beyond the horizon there were other forces, some even larger than our own, approaching Sicily to arrive with us dead on zero hour. But although we could not see them, we knew that there was one thing which was worrying them just as much as us—the weather."

"By all the rules one expects fine weather and a calm sea in the Mediterranean at this time of the year, but now it suddenly started to blow, a real blow, Force 6, half a gale, from the northwest. This meant that it would be blowing down the coast and that many of the beaches would have little lee. The surf would be terrific, and it would be almost impossible for our landing craft to force their way through and land their precious cargoes intact.

"We hoped and prayed that with sunset the wind would drop, but as the sun dipped over the horizon, the wind, if anything, seemed to grow stronger. It was strange and, to me anyhow, a terrifying feeling. In spite of everything that man's ingenuity could do to produce the most modern and up-to-date ships and landing craft; in spite of all the elaborate preparations: here we were, in the long run, at the mercy of the elements."

"The memory of how a gale had sealed the fate of the Spanish Armada sent a nasty chill down one's spine. Foul weather: the eternal enemy of the sailor. But there was nothing to be done about it, and the ships ploughed on with many of the smaller craft taking it over green as they wallowed in the high seas.

"But there was no turning back now, and as the darkness closed down and the ships ploughed on, I couldn't help thinking of some of the MIRACLES OF WEATHER which had already favored us in this war: Dunkirk; North Africa. Perhaps three times was too much to expect. Perhaps . . . and then it happened.

"With barely an hour and a half to go before zero hour, the wind suddenly dropped, the white horses disappeared, and the swell went down quicker than I have ever seen it do before. It was so sudden that it was almost miraculous, as if . . . well, put it this way, many a silent prayer of thanks was offered up" (The Listener, July 2, 1943).

The earlier unfavorable weather was actually a blessing in disguise. The enemy garrisons on the Sicilian coast had been on the alert for weeks. But the garrisons were lulled into a sense of security by the wild weather as they believed no one would attempt a landing in such conditions. They allowed their vigilance to relax, confined their small craft to harbor and themselves to bed.

The successful campaign in Sicily was soon followed by the invasion of the mainland of Italy and Mussolini's dramatic downfall. It marked, as President Roosevelt declared, "the beginning of the end."

D-Day Weather

Of all the miracles that took place during World War II, none would probably compare with the miracle of D-Day in 1944 when Allied troops landed in France to open the last campaign against Germany during that war.

Every hazard that could be eliminated had been eliminated. Every foreseeable risk had been covered, and then came that weather. The official story of the invasion weather forecast was reported in The Times:

"For months the meteorological section at Supreme Headquarters had been studying the relative advantages of May, June and July for weather. Using statistics, they found that the chances were about 50 to 1 against weather, tide, and moon being favorable for all services, land, sea and air . . .

"On the morning of the assault the wind had moderated, and the cloud was not only well broken, but its base was at least 4,000 feet high, ideally suited for the large-scale airborne operations. In the hour preceding the landings, when perfect conditions for pinpoint bombings were so essential, there were large areas of temporarily clear sky, and throughout the critical time medium and light bombers were unhampered" (September 9, 1944).

The invasion had been delayed for 24 hours because of bad weather. General Eisenhower made the "final and irrevocable decision" to proceed with the invasion on Tuesday, June 6. The importance of this decision was later revealed by the General when speaking in his home town:

"This day eight years ago, I made the most agonizing decision of my life. I had to decide to postpone by at least twenty-four hours the most formidable array of fighting ships and of fighting men that was ever launched across the sea against a hostile shore. The consequences of that decision at that moment could not have been foreseen by anyone. If there were nothing else in my life to prove the existence of an almighty and merciful God, the events of the next twenty-four hours did it . . . The greatest break in a terrible outlay of weather occurred the next day and allowed that great invasion to proceed, with losses far below those we had anticipated . . ." (Time, June 16, 1952).

What seemed to be an obstacle at the time to the Allies, was actually a blessing in many ways. The weather bluffed the enemy completely. "The German commanders were advised by their meteorological service that there could be no invasion in the period including June 6 because of continuous stormy weather. That is why D-Day forces, landing during a brief break in the windiest month in Normandy for at least 20 years, found so many German troops without officers, and why other enemy coastal units were having exercises at the time of the landings" (The Times, September 11, 1944).

"Preserved for Some Purpose"

The weather was favorable to the Allies in the last war because it was God's purpose for Germany to lose that war. The Air Minister of England, Sir Archibald Sinclair, summed up the matter when he addressed the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland:

"We have been most miraculously preserved. We must have been PRE-SERVED FOR SOME PURPOSE, and we must seek humbly to discover what that purpose is and be faithful to it . . . I feel sure that we must strive for the utmost for victory, and when we get victory it will solve none of the great problems which are troubling our hearts and minds, but it will give us opportunity.

"Then the question will come: what use . . . shall we make of that opportunity. The thing that seems clear to me is that we shall not succeed in making the most of that opportunity IF WE FORSAKE THE COMMANDMENTS OF GOD" (Evening Standard, May 21, 1943).

God allowed the Allies to win World War II in order for this work of the WORLD TOMORROW broadcast and PLAIN TRUTH magazine to have an opportunity to carry the Gospel of God's coming Kingdom to the world before the end comes (Matt. 24:14).

The WEATHER is an instrument in the hands of God through which He worked to bring victory to the Allies in the last war in the same way that He gave victory to the Israelites in their battle with the Philistines (I Sam. 7:10).

But the Israelitish nations of today—Great Britain, United States and north-western Europe—have forsaken God and His commandments. The world has forgotten that GOD CONTROLS THE WEATHER—"the Lord bath his way in the whirlwind (hurricane or tornado) and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet. He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers" (Nahum 1:3,4). Also read Matt. 8:24; Psalm 107:25 and 135:6,7.

God uses the weather to either bless or curse a nation (Job 36:27-31 and 37:1-13). Why is our nation suffering from bad weather conditions? It is because of SIN—transgressing the commandments and laws of God! (Lev. 26 and Deut. 28).

God is now punishing the nations of Great Britain and the United States. We can no longer expect favorable weather conditions. Russia, Germany and Europe, instead, will probably receive the good weather.

MORE CHAOTIC WEATHER IS COMING!—so says Bible prophecy (Rev. 8:5-12; 11:6; 16:21). There will be more drought (Amos 4:7-8), more rampaging floods, more violent storms, and MORE devastating hurricanes and tornadoes!

But you can be protected—IF you will REPENT now (Acts 2:38) and turn to God for His divine protection that He will give to those who are obeying and serving Him (Nahum 1:7).

Watch world events and PRAY that you will be accounted worthy to escape catastrophic weather YET TO COME!

What do you Mean—BORN AGAIN!

ciples were walking that Sunday afternoon, on the road to Emmaus. Suddenly Jesus appeared beside them. But, later,

He "vanished out of their sight" (Luke 24:31). The twelve disciples were in a room, with the doors closed, and probably bolted, because they were afraid of the Jews. There was no knock on the door. No door opened. Suddenly, as if from nowhere, Christ APPEARED.

HOW does Jesus Christ appear, NOW? What does He look like? He has now been BORN of God (Rom. 1:4). He was begotten of God, from the instant of conception in the womb of the Virgin Mary. But He was HUMAN and MORTAL—although begotten of God (differently than we may be, since His conception was divine, not human)—He was composed of MATERIAL FLESH, subject to human DEATH. He did die!

But, He was then BORN of God! HOW? But a Resurrection from the dead (Rom. 1:4). WHEN? At the time of His resurrection!

He ascended to heaven, to the very THRONE of GOD, that RULES THE ENTIRE UNIVERSE. He was GLORIFIED! He has been ever since. It is the GLORIFIED Christ who shall return to earth.

What does the GLORIFIED Christ look like? His eyes blaze forth like flames of fire! His feet glow like finely burnished brass. His face shines like the SUN, in FULL STRENGTH—so bright, it would blind your eyes if He were visible to you now! (Rev. 1:14-16; 19:12-13; Mat. 17:2.)

And THAT is the way YOU and I shall look, if and when we are finally BORN of GOD! These deceived people who talk about having had a "born-again experience" certainly don't look like THAT!

WHEN Born Again?

That tremendous, glorious event of being BORN of God is to take place AT THE RESURRECTION OF THE JUST—at the time of Christ's second coming to earth! Notice these PLAIN Scriptures! BELIEVE them!

Notice: "For our CITIZENSHIP (marginal correct translation) is (now) in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ (at His Second Coming): WHO SHALL CHANGE OUR VILE BODY, THAT IT MAY BE FASHIONED LIKE UNTO HIS *GLORIOUS BODY."

We are now FLESH—vile, corruptible flesh subject to rotting and decay. But, at Christ's coming, when we shall be BORN of God, this vile body shall be CHANGED, and made exactly like Jesus in His GLORIFIED BODY!

Yes, I know—this is probably TOO WONDERFUL for you to grasp!

But Scripture after Scripture piles up on us, CONFIRMING THIS TREMENDOUS TRUTH!

Look at the very Resurrection chapter, I Corinthians 15.

The BIBLE, which is GOD'S MESSAGE and INSTRUCTION to MANKIND, nowhere teaches any such thing as the PAGAN doctrine of an "immortal soul" going to heaven at death. It teaches that the soul is MORTAL, and shall DIE (Ezek. 18:4, 20).

But it does teach the RESURRECTION of the DEAD.

Now WHEN? At Christ's SECOND COMING!

"For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive, but every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits;"—that was more than 1900 years ago—"afterward they that are Christ's at His coming" (I Cor. 15:22-23).

That is WHEN—at Christ's COMING! And, notice, Christ is the "firstfruits"—the first of those who have been human to be BORN OF GOD by a resurrection from the dead! The true Christians—those that are Christ's—shall be made alive AT HIS COMING!

Now HOW? What kind of BODY? That question is asked in verse 35. Notice GOD'S answer:

". . . that which thou sowest"—bury in the ground—"thou sowest not the body that shall be" (Verse 37). The IMMORTAL body that comes up in the resurrection will NOT be this vile, rotting body of material flesh—but a DIFFERENT body. Continue: "But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased Him, . . . So is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption. . . . It is sown a natural body"—that is, of NATURE—MATERIAL FLESH—"it is raised a SPIRITUAL BODY"—composed of SPIRIT! "And as we have borne the image of the earthy"—material flesh—of the earth—earthy (verses 47-48)—"we shall also bear the image of the heavenly"—like GOD—like CHRIST in His glorified body!

"Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood" (human people of material flesh) "cannot inherit the Kingdom of God." (This is precisely what Jesus said to Nicodemus. This proves that the CHURCH is not the Kingdom of God. It proves also that no human of material flesh has been BORN of God.)

Continuing: ". . . We shall not all sleep" (be dead) "but we shall all BE CHANGED, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump" (the time of Christ's Coming): "for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we" (if then still living) "shall be CHANGED. . . . So WHEN this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on IMMORTALITY, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory!" (I Cor. 15:38-54.)

All true Christians who shall have died before Christ's coming shall rise first—in a resurrection—and then all Christians still alive, in mortal flesh, shall be instantaneously—in the twinkling of an eye—CHANGED from mortal to IMMORTAL—from material flesh to immaterial SPIRIT—from HUMAN to DIVINE, at last BORN OF GOD!

Christ Only the First

I have been the father of two sons. I am human—they, born of ME, were born HUMAN, as I am! When we are BORN OF GOD, we shall be of HIS VERY FAMILY—we shall be SPIRIT as He is Spirit—immortal as HE is immortal—divine as HE is divine!!

WHY does not organized professed "Christianity" KNOW that? WHY should that seem incredulous, impossible, or, even, to some, like blasphemy? WHY? The NEW TESTAMENT of YOUR BIBLE teaches that all the way through! Jesus taught it! Paul teaches it! Peter teaches it! John teaches it! The Holy Spirit INSPIRED IT, repeatedly!

You have seen, in Philippians 3:20-21, how, as stated just above in I Cor. 15, at Christ's coming our vile bodies shall be CHANGED, changed into SPIRIT, made IMMORTAL, fashioned like Christ's GLORIFIED BODY. That is when we shall be BORN of God. And THAT change does not take place in THIS LIFE! All these religious-professing people who think they have been "born again" HAVE NEVER EXPERIENCED THAT CHANGE!

Now we saw, I Cor. 15:23, that Christ, who was BORN OF GOD by His resurrection, was the FIRSTFRUITS of those to be resurrected—those to be BORN AGAIN!

Now believe other Scriptures which say the same thing!

Believe Romans 8:29: "For whom He did foreknow, he also did predestinate" (write for free booklet on meaning of predestination) "to be conformed to the IMAGE of His Son (Christ), that HE might be the firstborn of many brethren." Christ was born a SON of God by a resurrection from the dead (Rom. 1:4). He was only the first to be so BORN OF GOD, of MANY BRETHREN. We are to be in His same IMAGE—as He is, NOW! We are put on HIS SAME PLANE—as His BRETHREN—to be also BORN OF GOD—to become GOD'S SONS!

We are already begotten sons—IF really converted—but what we SHALL BE, in the resurrected GLORIFIED BODY—does not yet APPEAR—cannot yet be seen (I John 3:1-2).

God is to have MANY SONS born of Him. Of all these, JESUS was the first to be SO BORN. He is the ONLY human so far BORN OF God, though many have already been BEGOTTEN!

Believe Colossians 1:15, 18: Speaking of Jesus "who is the IMAGE of the INVISIBLE GOD, the FIRSTBORN of every creature. . . . the FIRSTBORN from the dead." Yes, just the first of many BRETHREN, in the very IMAGE of bright shining GLORY of the INVISIBLE GOD. And we are to be conformed to the SAME IMAGE (Rom. 8:29).

WHAT is MAN?

Now will you believe what God says in the Book of Hebrews?

WHY should God be concerned about human beings? From a small airplane we look like little ants down here. From a jet 5 to 6 miles high, people on the ground have shrunk so small they can't be seen. HOW TINY must we look to GOD? WHY should He have concern for us?

The question is answered in Hebrews 2, beginning verse 6. God made man a little lower than angels; but, in God's PURPOSE and PLAN, He has CROWNED man, as He first has Christ, with GLORY, and HONOR.

What is the GLORY with which Christ is now CROWNED? A crown denotes KINGSHIP—rule—authority—power. Jesus Christ said, just before ascending to heaven, that ALL POWER in the universe—in heaven and in earth—had been given to HIM.

In Heb. 1:1-3, it is revealed that Christ is God's HEIR—heir of ALL THINGS—the ENTIRE UNIVERSE—which He now has already inherited! He now is the BRIGHTNESS of God's GLORY!

Yes, His eyes like flashing flames of fire—His face shining bright as the full-strength SUN. He is the express image of GOD'S PERSON—and here the inspired Greek words mean stamped, or engraved with God's own perfect spiritual CHARACTER. He UPHOLDS ALL THINGS—see Moffatt translation, Heb. 1:3—He sustains, controls, RULES, the ENTIRE UNIVERSE! God Almighty the Father has delegated to Christ the administrative and executive power, rule, GOVERNMENT, of the UNIVERSE!

Christ's GLORY is such that now He sustains, upholds, controls, every force, energy, and power that exists EVERYWHERE—supreme POWER over the universe!

Yes, and as a BORN Son of GOD, Christ IS God! God Almighty His Father is God. They are two separate and individual Persons (see Rev. 5:1, 6-7).

How can this be? I suppose most people think of GOD as one single individual Person. Or, as a "TRINITY." THIS IS NOT TRUE. Genesis 1:1 gives God's name as, in the Hebrew, "ELOHIM." This is a uni-PLURAL name. It means more than one Person, but combined into the ONE FAMILY, which FAMILY is GOD.

Yes, the name "GOD" as God revealed it in the Hebrew language, is a name like FAMILY, CHURCH, or TEAM. There may be several individual members in ONE FAMILY. In I Cor. 12 we find MANY individual MEMBERS form the ONE CHURCH. And Jesus prayed that we, in His CHURCH, might be ONE in the same manner that He and God the Father are ONE GOD! (See John 17:11,21.)

Notice Heb. 1:6—the very angels are to WORSHIP CHRIST! If He is not GOD—that is, one of the members of the FAMILY, or the KINGDOM of GOD, then that would break the first Commandment! He is CALLED GOD in verse 8.

Now remember, the true Christian is an HEIR of God (Gal. 3:29), and a JOINT-HEIR with Christ (Rom. 8:17). We are to be GLORIFIED TOGETHER WITH HIM (same verse). Christ is now an inheritor—a possessor. WE are still only HEIRS—not yet inheritors—not until we are BORN AGAIN!

Now back to Hebrews 2. Remember we are CO-heirs with CHRIST—begotten SONS of GOD. Christ has INHERITED the entire UNIVERSE, which He now RULES. And in Heb. 2:6-8, we are told plainly that God's PURPOSE is to put ALL THINGS in subjection UNDER US. The Greek words translated "ALL THINGS" mean, simply, THE WHOLE UNIVERSE. God "left NOTHING that is not put under him"—verse 8—only, WE SEE NOT YET this entire universe put under the dominion of mankind!

No, you'll read in Genesis 1:28 that God, so far, has given HUMANS dominion only over the solid earth, the seas, and the AIR—but not yet OUTER SPACE which man is now trying to conquer!

But, God continues, verse 9, we see Jesus ALREADY CROWNED WITH GLORY AND HONOR—which, in chapter 1:2-3, is explained to mean KING with dominion over the whole UNIVERSE.

Now notice verse 10: "For it became HIM . . . in bringing MANY SONS UNTO GLORY, to make the Captain (margin, Leader, or Predecessor, or Pioneer) perfect through sufferings." And in verse 11 Jesus calls us His BROTHERS.

Oh, what matchless, transcendent GLORY God purposes for us—when we are BORN AGAIN!

WHY Not Now?

But, as we read in Heb. 2:8, we do not see YET all this GLORY having been inherited by any but CHRIST. WHY, then are we not YET born?

Because, when we are, we are to be given such POWERS to guide, direct, and control, that we have to BE TRAINED, and have the PERFECT SPIRITUAL CHARACTER developed in us so that we may safely be entrusted with such vast powers!

Scientists have learned to harness and control certain physical powers—nuclear energy, for example. And men DO NOT YET HAVE THE CHARACTER to be able to control rightly and guide such colossal power into safe and productive and beneficial channels. Men have turned that POWER into such tremendous stockpiles of DESTRUCTIVE and WAR-making force that there is now the power more than 50 times over to ERASE ALL HUMAN LIFE FROM THE EARTH!

So, before we may be even BEGOTTEN of God, we must REPENT of transgressing GOD'S SPIRITUAL LAW of LOVE—God's WAY to peace, happiness, abundance, and joy. Then, we must BE LED BY God's Holy Spirit which He gives us, IN THE WAY of God's RIGHT SPIRITUAL LAWS—in the way of RIGHTEOUSNESS.

Now LOVE is the fulfilling of God's Law. But it is a SPIRITUAL Law that is in inexorable motion—and it requires SPIRITUAL LOVE to fulfill it. This is "the LOVE of GOD, shed abroad in our hearts BY THE HOLY SPIRIT" (Rom. 5:5), which God gives only to those that OBEY Him! (Acts 5:32.)

God CREATED this universe. He is the REAL Supreme Ruler! He is not going to turn over that power to rule to any except those who will rule HIS WAY—who will OBEY HIM—obey HIS GOVERNMENT, and carry out HIS GOVERNMENT, UNDER HIM!

So, it is ONLY those that are LED BY God's Holy Spirit, in HIS WAYS who are the SONS of God (Rom. 8:14). And we have to begin OVERCOMING our own self-natures, the wrong WAYS of this world which have become fixed HABIT, and the devil. We must GROW in grace and Christ's KNOWLEDGE (II Pet. 3:18).

Yes, even as the unborn, but begotten human baby must GROW from its beginning size no larger than a pinpoint, fed on physical food—SO, once we are impregnated by GOD'S HOLY SPIRIT—HIS LIFE—WE MUST GROW SPIRITUALLY—fed on the SPIRITUAL FOOD of God's Word the BIBLE, and by PRAYER, and what fellowship is possible with truly begotten BRETHREN in God's TRUTH.

And UNLESS we do continue to GROW in spiritual character development, more and more LIKE GOD, we become like the unborn babe that miscarries—or like an abortion! AND SUCH SHALL NEVER BE BORN OF GOD!

Perhaps a basic error that has blinded nearly all professing "Christians" since the Great CONSPIRACY crept in as a Fifth Columnist—by which religious leaders of the BABYLONIAN MYSTERIES actually conspired to STEAL the NAME "Christian"—between 70 and 170 A.D., is founded on a MISTRANSLATION of Romans 8:15.

In the A.V. it reads, ". . . but ye have received the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father!" The marginal rendering for "adoption" is, properly, SONSHIP. But the theologians and "Higher Critics" have blindly accepted the heretical and false doctrine introduced by PAGAN false prophets who crept in, that the HOLY SPIRIT is a THIRD PERSON—the heresy of the "TRINITY." This LIMITS God to "Three Persons." This DENIES that Christ, through His Holy Spirit, actually comes now INTO the converted Christian and does His saving work on the INSIDE—"Christ IN you, the hope of GLORY" (Col. 1:27).

Peter plainly shows that the Holy Spirit entering INTO us means that we then become "Partakers of the DIVINE NATURE." The "Trinity" doctrine DENIES this.

Any Church, or preacher, that DENIES that CHRIST is actually COMING INTO each converted Christian, through His HOLY SPIRIT, IS ANTI-CHRIST!

And those are MANY, today. See I John 4:2, and II John 7. The expression "Jesus Christ IS COME in the flesh," as inspired in its original Greek language means, literally, PRESENT TENSE—that Christ is NOW COMING—and the way He now COMES in human flesh, is that He comes literally INTO every truly begotten child of God, BY AND THROUGH THE HOLY SPIRIT.

If the Holy Spirit were a third PERSON that would be IMPOSSIBLE!

That false doctrine, beautiful as it may have been made to sound, DENIES the presence of God's Holy Spirit within, to impregnate or BEGET us with the NATURE and the very LIFE of GOD!

That heresy DENIES the true BORN AGAIN experience!

That false teaching DENIES that the Church is the true BODY OF CHRIST—because, as it was the HOLY SPIRIT of God working IN the individual BODY of Jesus, who started God's present work, so it is that SAME SPIRIT, now working IN THE COLLECTIVE BODY of His CHURCH, which carries God's work on. Thus the true Church is the BODY OF CHRIST.

But the Holy SPIRIT is the SPIRIT that emanates from both the Father, and from CHRIST, and literally enters INTO us, begetting us, so that we may BE BORN as the VERY sons of GOD!

Yes, "BEHOLD, WHAT manner of love the FATHER hath bestowed upon us, that WE should be called THE SONS OF GOD!!" Yes, if converted, then already, NOW, we are the begotten SONS of the Eternal Living GOD!

SIN is humanity's one super ENEMY! SIN—the transgression of GOD's perfect spiritual LAW—has robbed the world of PEACE—has brought poverty, emptiness, misery, crime, heartache, WARS, and untold DESTRUCTION! But, when we are finally BORN of God, we SHALL NOT BE ABLE TO SIN—it shall then be IMPOSSIBLE—and we shall know only HAPPINESS, and JOY, and productive ACCOMPLISHMENT!

As CHRIST already, now, HAS GLORY, and POWER, so WE SOON SHALL INHERIT THE SAME!

For, as we read in P.romans 8:18-19: ". . . The sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be COMPARED with the GLORY that shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the CREATION—yes, the entire CREATION!—waits for the MANIFESTATION of the SONS of GOD—(when we shall be BORN of GOD!)

What WONDERFUL, almost INCOMPREHENSIBLE, GLORIOUS GOOD NEWS!

And the BEST NEWS is, that the COMING OF CHRIST is now drawing VERY NEAR! Just a very few more years! And then—the PEACEFUL, HAPPY, GLORIOUS WORLD TOMORROW!

All who NOW are begotten sons of God shall then be BORN—elevated from mortal to IMMORTAL, from decaying FLESH to SPIRIT—from HUMAN to DIVINE! And THAT TRUE BORN-AGAIN EXPERIENCE will be as incomparably more GLORIOUS than the fake, vague, meaningless, so-called "born-again experience" that deceived THOUSANDS think they have had, now, as the present transcending GLORY of CHRIST is superior to the status of sickly, diseased, sinning, suffering HUMANITY TODAY!

But, the Scriptures that break before our eyes this GLORIOUS GOOD NEWS, also warn us to TAKE HEED, and to MAKE OUR CALLING AND ELECTION SURE!

Financial Security

out plans for your family that you may have had to put off for years before you began to obey God's law of tithing.

How to Experience the Blessings God Offers You

Many people have assumed that God wants people to be poor, downtrodden, ignorant. Nothing could be further from the truth. Jesus Christ stated: "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more ABUNDANTLY" (John 10:10).

If you would experience the blessings everyone really wants, then carry out literally the suggestions contained in this article. Begin to seek God's will and His way FIRST. Take time to really STUDY the Bible and PROVE what God's will really is. Spend time in prayer and meditation. Since you are already reading The PLAIN TRUTH magazine, take time—with an open mind—to PROVE whether or not this is God's work through which He is speaking to the nations of the world and to you.

Then, as you prove God's will in ever greater detail, act on and OBEY each point as you prove it. Remember, God will not continue to pour out blessings on you or open up spiritual knowledge to you unless you OBEY the points of truth which have already been revealed.

When you have proved where God is working, then put your whole HEART into God's work—into preparing for His coming Kingdom and government on this earth. Jesus said: "Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal. For where your treasure is, there will your HEART be also" (Matt. 6:20-21). Give of your time, your treasure, your prayers and energies to carrying out the true work of God on this earth! In this age when we are threatened with human annihilation, NOTHING is more important! Learn to base your life on the TRUE scale of values!

Then, in relation to financial blessings, do your part. God expects you to work hard at your job. If you have a purpose in mind, and the Spirit of God to help you, you certainly WILL be able to do this. Your Creator says: "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy MIGHT; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest" (Eccl. 9:10).

In addition to working hard at your job, learn to use your head. Ask God for wisdom which He promises to give all of us (Jas. 1:5). In relationship to your job problems and other problems, learn to seek good advice and ACT upon it. God says: "Where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety" (Prov. 11:14). Instead of blundering from job to job—or failing to look ahead into the changes in your own field of work or your own plant or office—learn to seek wisdom from God and intelligent counsel from others in all these things.

Exercise FAITH

Then, after truly putting God's Kingdom FIRST, and after doing your part with zeal, claim God's promises in FAITH. KNOW that the God of heaven means exactly what He says in His Word! Realize that He will back up His promises, and bless you financially and physically for tithing and obeying the other laws concerned with blessings in this area of life.

One word of caution, however. Don't give up too soon! Don't begin to tithe for a few days or weeks "just waiting" for God to fail so you can turn sour and bitter. This is NOT faith. This is more like frustration!

Remember that God speaks of "the TRIAL of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perishes" (I Pet. 1:7).

So do your part with zeal and faith, and quietly and confidently EXPECT the answer to come. It WILL come in God's time and God's way. He may cause you to be promoted or blessed in the job you now hold. He may bless you with a new and better job. He may bless you through a gift, an inheritance, or simply—in an unusual way—opening up circumstances in your own way of life where you are able to save more on certain things than you ever dreamed you could and thereby come out way ahead financially.

But God always KEEPS His promises!

In the turbulent years that lie ahead, you need to come to KNOW the true God, to understand what is prophesied to happen so you will be better able to plan your life, and to OBEY His spiritual and financial laws so that you may have the only real source of SECURITY there is in this age.

The Biggest News

—or about 235 years before Noah died.

When Noah's grandchildren began building the great Tower, God said: "Behold the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now NOTHING WILL BE RESTRAINED FROM THEM, which they have imagined to do . . ." (Gen. 11:6). And so God confounded their language, dividing men into different races and nations, speaking different languages.

Up until OUR MODERN TIME, this has slowed technological, inventive, and mechanical development to a standstill, virtually. But, in the past 100 years, modern science has burst forth upon the world. People are now learning one another's languages. Today I can travel in the various nations of Europe, the Middle East, India, Southeast Asia—around the world—and everywhere in hotels, in stores, in airplanes, people understand English.

Already, on The World Tomorrow broadcast, the program goes out in not only English, but also Spanish, French, German and Russian languages. We are planning now for broadcasts in Japanese, Swedish, Italian, and other languages.

TODAY KNOWLEDGE IS INCREASING! Today man not only has invented the automobile, the steamship, the submarine, the railroad, the airplane, but NUCLEAR energy, by which he is able to blast human life out of existence! And, now, finally, ROCKETS, by which MAN has left the earth, and gone up into OUTER SPACE!

Today, MAN says he is going to go to the moon and back during this present decade of the 60's—and to Mars, and other planets, during the 70's!

ONCE AGAIN, man says he is going to GO UP TO HEAVEN!

But GOD ALMIGHTY still governs this Universe, and every force and energy and power in it! God Almighty gave man DOMINION over the solid earth, the waters in the seas, and the AIR (Gen. 1:28)—but NOT ABOVE THE AIR!

When man propels himself into outer space, he is invading GOD'S DOMAIN! When the men of ancient Babylon, IN THE DAYS OF NOAH, said they were going to build themselves a means of "reaching to HEAVEN"—invading God's domain—GOD ALMIGHTY CAME DOWN AND ACTED TO STOP THEM!

But He said, then, that unless He did stop them, NOTHING would otherwise be restrained from them. And so, today, IT IS NOT IMPOSSIBLE FOR THE INVENTIVE GENIUS OF THE MIND OF MAN to be able to go to MARS, THE MOON, AND OTHER PLANETS!

That is—UNLESS GOD COMES DOWN AND STOPS IT!

God has not changed!

God did come down! He did intervene! He did stop it, before!

HE WILL AGAIN! The dawn of the SPACE AGE signals the very IMMINENT coming back down to earth of CHRIST in all the supreme POWER and GLORY of God Almighty! He will stop it!

God has decreed that MAN, after he is BORN AGAIN, shall have dominion over the entire universe! Yes, after man has learned to OBEY GOD, and to direct the great powers of the universe according to GOD'S LAWS, constructively instead of destructively! BUT NOT YET!

So, the SPACE AGE is another signpost along the way, that says: "KINGDOM OF GOD—just a few years straight ahead!"

The MOST Important Fulfillment

Yes, it would be difficult to decide WHICH of all these stupendous events fulfilling prophecy is the most important!

But there is one other, hardly noticed by the world—greeted by no banner newspaper headlines whatever, which is the MOST IMPORTANT of all. It is the BIGGEST of the BIG NEWS of our time!

Of all the events of world history, up to now, the one MOST important to humanity, to GOD, and to posterity and the universe, was one the world as a whole took no note of, whatever, at the time!

It was greeted with no banner newspaper headlines! That event was the FIRST coming to this earth of Jesus Christ—His ministry, founding His Church, starting GOD'S WORK, His offering of His LIFE for the sins of the world, and His Resurrection and ascension to heaven.

The MOST IMPORTANT event that ever SHALL occur, is the supernatural intervention of GOD, to STOP the destructive course of MAN, to SEND CHRIST to RULE THE WORLD, and establish WORLD GOVERNMENT under the KINGDOM OF GOD—and to convert the WORLD!

And, while it is only the first PRELIMINARY phase of GOD'S DIVINE and SUPERNATURAL INTERVENTION, to bring PEACE, and to CONVERT THE WORLD—and a phase which GOD has been executing by and through poor, weak, but yielded and willing HUMAN INSTRUMENTS, the BIGGEST of the BIG news of world events in OUR TIME is that phase of God's direct supernatural INTERVENTION!

When Jesus Christ came, 1934 years ago, with the GOOD NEWS from God of THE WORLD TOMORROW—the world to be ruled by the KINGDOM OF GOD—that was the BIGGEST news ever released by a news-caster for mankind. But men HATED it—they "loved darkness rather than the light." They crucified Jesus because He proclaimed it!

Later, fifth-column pagans, religious leaders of the Babylonian Mysteries, appropriated the NAME of Christ, called themselves "Christian," and then blotted out of their doctrines everything vital that Christ taught, retained their own pagan customs, and branded the TRUE Christians as "heretics."

But Jesus Christ Himself said that, in OUR TIME, the first beginning of GOD'S INTERVENTION in world affairs prior to Christ's arrival to TAKE OVER ALL GOVERNMENTS and RULE the world, would be this:

"And this Gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached ["published"—Mark 13:10] in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the END [of this world] come." (Mat. 24:14).

This is the continuation, on an ever-expanding scale, once again, of the PROCLAMATION as a final witness to the world, of GOD'S MESSAGE which men hated and used every organized effort to stamp out, when CHRIST first brought it 1934 years ago!

God ordained that it should go, now, as His Message of Peace, and in LOVE, through human instruments of His choosing. When men scoff, scorn and reject the Message, as they do and will, finally God is going to deliver it BY FORCE, through the RULE of CHRIST. But before that, God is giving everyone who hears or reads this one final opportunity to accept HIS LOVE—His SALVATION, through the preaching in love.

But make no mistake! In a blinded, deceived world, it's hard for men to see—but it's TRUE—THIS MESSAGE IS TODAY GOING AROUND THE WORLD BY THE VERY POWER OF GOD!

This is GOD'S doing! It is the FIRST phase, to be accepted or rejected by man voluntarily, of GOD'S SUPERNATURAL INTERVENTION. That is FAR MORE IMPORTANT than anything MAN is doing, destructively, to fulfill Prophecy!

God always starts things, through His human instruments, the very smallest—and they grow to the BIGGEST. GOD started the work that proclaims The WORLD TOMORROW Message into every continent on earth—the work that publishes The Plain Truth—exactly 28

HOW YOUR PLAIN TRUTH SUBSCRIPTION HAS BEEN PAID

So many ask: "HOW does it happen that I find my subscription price for The PLAIN TRUTH has already been paid? HOW can you publish such a high class magazine without advertising revenue?"

The answer is as simple as it is astonishing! It is a paradox. Christ's Gospel cannot be sold like merchandise. You cannot buy salvation. Yet it does cost money to publish Christ's TRUTH and mail it to all continents on earth. It does have to be paid for! This is Christ's work. We solve this problem Christ's WAY!

Jesus said, "This Gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached (and published—Mark 13:10) in all the world for a witness unto all nations" (Mat. 24:14) at this time, just before the end of this age. A PRICE must be paid for the magazine, the broadcast, the Correspondence Course, or other literature. But HOW? Christ forbids us to tell it to those who receive it: "Freely ye have received," said Jesus to His disciples who He was sending to proclaim His Gospel, "freely GIVE!" "It is more blessed," He said, "to GIVE than to receive."

God's WAY is the way of LOVE—and that is the way of giving. God expects every child of His to give free-will offerings and to tithe, as His means of paying the costs of carrying His Gospel to others. We, therefore, simply trust our Lord Jesus Christ to lay it on the minds and hearts of His followers to give generously, thus paying the cost of putting the precious Gospel TRUTH in the hands of others. Yet it must go only to those who ask for it for themselves! Each must, for himself, subscribe—and his subscription has thus already been paid.

Thus the living dynamic Christ Himself enables us to broadcast, world-wide, without ever asking for contributions over the air; to enroll many thousands in the Ambassador College Bible Correspondence Course with full tuition cost already paid; to send your PLAIN TRUTH on an already paid basis. God's way is GOOD!

years ago, in the smallest possible manner. He knew He was choosing human instruments of very little power or strength (Rev. 3:8), and for that reason, He OPENED the powerful DOORS of MASS evangelism, of radio and the printing press. It started the smallest! Today, The WORLD TOMORROW is either the BIGGEST user of radio power on earth—more than 20 million watts per week—or at the present rate of growth soon will be!

The world pays little heed. The world takes God's BIG NEWS—the GOOD NEWS of His Kingdom—very cheaply. But it is THE VERY WORK OF GOD!

It is, unrealized by man, the BIGGEST fulfillment of Prophecy that has occurred in our time! It prepares the way before, and signifies the IMMINENCY of, the SOON COMING OF CHRIST, and the happy, peaceful, abundant, joyful WORLD TOMORROW!

This is no ordinary magazine you are now reading! May GOD open your eyes to its true significance, that you HEED its Message from GOD!

How to Get Results

when he is old, "NOT depart from it" (Prov. 22:6).

There are many methods of proper punishment—not all of them involving physical or corporal punishment.

Natural Consequences Sometimes Punish

Sometimes, natural consequences of a child's action may serve. However, this should only be done when the natural consequences of the act are not too severe, and no real injury or lasting harm is involved. Obviously, a parent should not wait until a child is severely shocked in order to teach a very young child not to pull out or play with electric cords. However, a child will often-times learn unassisted by the parents through natural consequences of his acts, how to get along in his surroundings. For example, he may, by bumping his head when raising up under the piano bench or the table, learn to crawl out from under any such obstacle before pulling up or standing. He will learn after one or two minor brushes with a hot radiator to avoid it.

Used as a method of punishment, the parent may warn a child crawling toward a hot (but not too hot!) radiator—"NO!" The child may disobey this command, and reach out to touch it anyhow! Obviously, if it is going to result in a severe burn, the parent should snatch up the child before the child is allowed to touch the radiator and apply corporal punishment in a right and loving manner. However, if it is merely going to result in a momentary pain, the natural consequence may, in all likelihood, serve to illustrate to the child that immediate retribution and pain will follow the disobedience of the "NO!" command.

Isolation

Isolation may be used as a proper method of punishment if the circumstances warrant it. Especially would this be beneficial if the child is being uncooperative in playing with other children. The simple "no!" command for a very young child, or a longer admonition, in the event the child is older, should always precede ANY form of punishment! If the child is taking toys away from others, or not playing in a cooperative manner, he may be secluded in his own room, or removed and taken to an isolated place (NEVER a darkened closet, cupboard, or small, confined place), preferably his own room. He may be made to remain there for a short period of time, or longer, dependent upon the circumstances.

Deprivation

Deprivation of some special toy, some particular pleasure, dessert after a meal, a trip to the store, or any number of things will serve as a lasting admonition for some offenses.

For example, a child who is old enough to talk and can understand such admonitions might be warned, "If you don't eat all your spinach, you shall not have any ice cream with the rest of us as dessert!" If the child persists in his rebellion, and does not finish his spinach—the parent should be firm, and DEPRIVE the child of the ice cream.

Voiced disapproval may be utilized in some instances. However, mere "nagging" at the child, constant recriminations and rebukes, or parental disgust shown over and over gain will do nothing more than frighten, dishearten and induce sulkiness in a child.

Never Use Shortcuts

None of the aforementioned methods should EVER, under any circumstances, supplant or substitute as permanent measures for corporal punishment! There are thousands of parents who will assure others that they can "reason with" their children, and therefore have never needed to spank them! There are many thousands of others who assure all who will listen that their children can merely be "shamed" as a result of any wrong deed, and have never "NEEDED" a spanking!

These are simple excuses and attempted "shortcuts," by parents who abhor and detest any usage of the God-given means of teaching and training children—corporal punishment! They are going to lead to heartache and serious troubles later—and it must be stated here, that even though natural consequences, deprivation of special pleasures, or disapproval are and can be used as effective means of punishment—they should never be used exclusively, or as a substitute for proper, loving, corporal punishment.
