REMINDER: SATAN NOT YET CHAINED!

By Herbert W. Armstrong
God has given us significant and important victories very recently. He has opened new and extremely important doors for conveying His Gospel message to NEW AUDIENCES IN NEW AREAS! He has delivered us, for the time being, from the foreboding State of California lawsuit that hung like a foreboding cloud over us.

But we must REMEMBER—

The dropping of the lawsuit by the California attorney general was only a single battle victory — NOT THE END OF THAT WAR! And Satan is still on his throne, unchained, knowing he now has but a short time — and HE WILL NOT GIVE UP!

The attorney general of California and those politically behind him, beside those civil service bureaucrats in the attorney general's department, and the judges who were, to say the least, irritated by our dynamic resistance and refusal to "cave in" that God's Church put up, are angry and will yet seek to win a next round of this war, if possible.

I cannot read the attorney general's mind, but I would guess he would like to carry on his political crusade to become the governor.

There is, in this world, the way of life of self-seeking and of competition that leads to the ECSTASY of winning, and the AGONY of defeat. The attorney general and those whose interest is politically with him are not now going to just lay down and play "dead."

Already a new political movement is in evidence in Sacramento to try to introduce and pass another bill in the legislature that will amend the Petris bill, and restore that part on which the attorney general really based his lawsuit and claim to ownership and total supervision of churches.

Actually, the original bill, which the Petris bill rescinded, was aimed at cults like the Jonestown tragedy — cults that were not really responsible churches in the accepted sense. I understand there is another organization of some sort, claiming now to be a "church," which in reality is not a real church but engaged in a more or less criminal activity. Those embittered by the Petris bill still want legislation to go after these "cults" posing as churches for legal protection. But if they can now succeed, it may give the attorney general's office legal grounds for renewing his lawsuit against God's Church. I'm sure those of that view would rejoice if they yet could DESTROY the Worldwide Church of God, or take over its current assets. I say current assets, because there is NO WAY they can destroy or STOP the Work of the living God. But they could, if they ever won, take over what current cash assets are in Pasadena and perhaps millions of dollars worth of properties.

Anyway, remember we have won a crucial BATTLE — but not yet the WAR!

And remember, Satan is more subtle and diabolically clever than we, many times over. God set him on earth's throne when he was "perfect in all his ways from the time he was created." He rebelled, revolted, turned from the brilliant Lucifer to the cunning, evil Satan. God is allowing him to remain on that throne, deceiving and misleading an unsuspecting humanity UNTIL He who qualified is established on that throne, and Satan chained and put for a thousand years into the "bottomless pit," where he can no longer sway mankind during that Millennium.

If you don't fully realize it, Satan does — that now he has but a SHORT TIME left. And he hates most of all the ONE AND ONLY place on earth where THE GOVERNMENT OF GOD is administered — in this very Church of God! We are near, about, at, or just barely past, the time of Revelation 7 — the war in heaven, from which Satan and his demons are cast back down to earth. And what then?

"And when the dragon (Satan) saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman" (God's Church — us). Then, soon we are to be taken on the "two wings of a great eagle" to a place of safety and protection from Satan during the Great Tribulation.

Yes, SATAN KNOWS how close we are to that time. I was personally persecuted ever since I first wrote my first article and preached my first sermon during the old "Sardis" days by some of their ministers (NOT by their brethren)!

But the first time the Church (See CHAINED, page 8)

'SATAN DECEIVE AND USE ME? NEVER!!'

By Herbert W. Armstrong
For the moment, I was much discouraged and grieved. If you had lost a half dozen, a dozen or more of your "loved ones," how would you feel? It seemed for the moment that we had lost from the Church more than half of the top-ranked evangelists. The result of Satan's intensified wrathful attack against Jesus Christ and the Church at this END time! I mourn more over such a loss than one by death. Don't you?

Yet when I stopped to jot down the names of those evangelist-ranked, those still loyal and solid outnumber those gone two to one!

Yet I loved those who are now outside the Church. Jesus would understand. He suffered the same experience, when "from that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away? Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life" (John 6:66-68). And even one of Jesus' 12 apostles betrayed Him!

But if even Jesus suffered persecution, so must we who follow Him. And if He had to suffer seeing those who had been with Him turn away, so must we who are faithful in His Church today.

In actual fact, of those now out, I would shift the major guilt from them to the real enemy, Satan. He is the only real enemy. He is furious right now, intensifying his attack! I again warn all of you!

Yet if I say to one who is now out: "The real blame is not yours. Satan got to you — deceived you and thus used you against Christ and the Church," he would bristle up in self-righteous anger. He would say: "Satan deceive and use me? NEVER! You accuse me of being a minister of Satan? Satan could never deceive ME!"

No, I don't falsely accuse — I don't accuse such a former minister at all! I merely remove the principal blame from him and lay it where it belongs — on SATAN!

But do you think YOU are immune from the wiles and subtle deceptions of Satan? Are YOU stronger than Satan? DON'T SO UNWISELY UNDERESTIMATE SATAN! Satan is the strongest being or personage God ever created, except the other two archangels Michael and Gabriel. Satan DID get to the more than a half dozen top-ranking ministers in God's Church! Even though they themselves do not realize it.

But how? That is the important question. How? For if Satan could be cunning enough to have gotten to them, perhaps he could get to you or me — UNLESS we understand HOW, and WHY he got to them.

Let's think about that a while! Let's be sure the rest of us do not fall into Satan's trap! In what way did those now on the outside let their guard down? If we understand that — if we understand HOW Satan gets through to us, then we CAN be secure in Christ and in His Church.

There are certain ways in which we may "let our guard down" — make ourselves susceptible to being deceived and used by Satan, and also certain ways in which we may open the door for a demon to enter and possess us.

God's Word warns us to be constantly ON GUARD against Satan's wiles.

Let me give you some examples.

For instance, consider a man who was consciously pained by a feeling of inferiority. Everyone of us experiences an uncomfortable sense of inferiority at times. I'm grateful that God caused me to read someplace, when I was only 18 or younger, that it is indeed a wise man who knows his own weaknesses, his shortcomings and limitations, as well as his talents, abilities and strengths. I have ever since tried to know my own weaknesses as well as abilities — to correctly and properly assess myself. Where there were lack of strengths, and inadequacies, I have relied on the POWER OF GOD or avoided those fields or endeavors I was unfitted for.

But consider a man who did not do that. This man, troubled by a feeling of inferiority, tried to find a way to "kid himself" out of it — to convince himself that he was not inferior. He decided to become a "scholar." If he could regard himself as one of the elite scholarly, he reasoned, he would not have to suffer the feeling of inferiority. One talent this man certainly lacked was that of sound scholarship. He let a sense of VANITY lead him into this. Now vanity is the very foundation of Satan's philosophy. It is self-centeredness. It leads naturally to coveting, competition, resentment of authority over one.

So this man began to think of himself as a "scholar." He began to work on that which he was not fitted to do. He began a "scholarly" checkup on the doctrines of God's Church. In his "scholarly" research he began by misunderstanding Acts 17:11, where those at Berea "were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the (See SATAN, page 5)

Special Sabbath features fellowship, feasting

The Worldwide News was swamped with reports on the special Thanksgiving Sabbath from around the world. We appreciate the efforts of the brethren who sent in reports and photos and regret that we are unable to use more of them.

PASADENA — Church brethren enjoyed home-cooked food, dances and fellowship around the world Nov. 15 as they celebrated the Church's victory in this particular aspect of the legal struggle with the state of California. Pastor General Herbert W. Armstrong proclaimed that day a special Sabbath of Thanksgiving.

The recurring theme reported here was one of unity. After the 21-month lawsuit against the Church, brethren welcomed the opportunity to mark the occasion with a day of feasting — spiritually and physically.

The Sheridan, Wyo., and Billings, Mont., churches featured a blend of Montana beef stew and Wyoming cowboy chili, coupled with old-fashioned Rocky Mountain fellowship. Flowers decorated the tables in Rockford, Ill., while the church in Jacksonville, Fla., enjoyed various wines.

The Pasadena congregations enjoyed a special Friday night audiovisual Bible study by evangelists Joe Tkach and Ellis LaRavia, and partook of a chicken dinner between services the next day.

God's ministers worldwide exhorted the brethren to rejoice and give thanks. The Geneva and Neuchatel churches in Switzerland met together for the first time and marked the occasion by drinking a toast in honor of Mr. Armstrong and Church treasurer Stanley R. Rader.

"The feeling of joy was real," wrote Bernard Andrist, the Geneva pastor. "A spirit of peace and acknowledgement filled the air."

Thatcher dilemma: tough talk, few results

PASADENA — When Margaret Thatcher assumed office as Britain's prime minister in May, 1979, she warned her countrymen they were shortly in for hard times economically.

But nobody knew, including undoubtedly the prime minister herself, that 19 months later times would be this bad — with the prospect that the bleakest days have yet to come.

War on inflation

Mrs. Thatcher moved into 10 Downing Street (the official residence of the prime minister) with a grim determination to slash inflation, limit wage hikes, reduce government spending and put a lid on the increase in the country's money supply.

Only her first goal has begun to be reached. Inflation apparently topped off at 22 percent last summer and is edging downward. But virtually nothing else has been achieved. Instead, Britain is struggling through its direst doldrums since the Great Depression of the 1930s.

Every day brings more bad news of plant closings, impending bankruptcies and wholesale layoffs. The ranks of Britain's unemployed have swelled to 2.1 million, fully 8.4 percent of the nation's work force. In Northern Ireland, 15.3 percent of workers are now on the dole, and 11.6 percent are out of work in England's north.

In the quarter ending Sept. 30, industrial output plunged an alarming 9.1 percent. The Confederation of British Industry (CBI), an organization comparable to the National Association of Manufacturers in the United States, said in its quarterly, the state of the British economy was "the blackest ever."

The report said that the situation will probably get worse in the next quarter, with declining sales and rising unemployment. Seven out of 10 companies reportedly will have to lay off some of their workers in order to stay in business.

"We have not touched bottom yet," Sir Terence Beckett, director general of the confederation, was quoted as saying. "There is much more bad news to come."

Businessmen squeezed

Britain's beleaguered businessmen are caught in a crippling vise.

High interest rates — Mrs. Thatcher's main weapon in her attempt to control the growth in the money supply — make borrowing either expensive or prohibitive. At the same time, high interest rates have encouraged a flow of money into Britain, keeping the pound sterling at a higher rate than it otherwise would be. This, in turn, keeps the relative prices of British imports high.

British industry is intensively export-oriented. Every major exporting company reported sharp declines in profits for the first half of 1980.

Revolt among supporters

Mrs. Thatcher is now being confronted with a brewing revolt by the very people she counted on originally to help support her austerity program — the British industrialists.

In late November, CBI Director General Sir Terence Beckett urged a "bare-knuckle fight" against the government's policies. In a face-to-face meeting with Mr. Beckett, the "Iron Lady" prime minister got him to moderate his criticism, then placated the irate business community by lowering record interest rates on commercial borrowing from 16 to 14 percent.

Nevertheless, the prime minister shows no concrete signs of softening her stiff upper lip. "Our policies are perfectly right," she says, "there will be no change."

To critical business leaders she asserts: "They would like to have a slightly easier time. But I cannot offer it to them; the day of reckoning had to come."

Mrs. Thatcher is especially critical of business leaders caving in to demands by labor for exorbitant wage increases. "In this country," she says, "we've got used to annual wage increases and to paying ourselves far more for producing the same amount."

Reform that isn't

A major tenet of Mrs. Thatcher's economic overhaul was to reform the tax structure. Income taxes were cut — 15 percent in the highest tax bracket, less in lower groups — to encourage individual enterprise. But lost government revenue had to be made up somehow. In a rob-Peter-to-pay-Paul switch, the government nearly doubled the Value Added Tax (VAT) — a sort of national sales tax — to a uniform 15 percent from an average 8 percent.

The result is a net tax increase, with a higher burden falling on middle and lower income groups. Said economist Arthur Laffer: "Mrs. Thatcher's tax restructuring has lowered direct taxation, but has taken even more away through indirect taxation," which, he maintains, will result in "an overall increase in tax rates in one of the most over-taxed and over-regulated economies."

The British newspaper, Daily Mail, in a biting editorial Nov. 28, called on Mrs. Thatcher to "make a U-turn" — not to soften up the economy, but to fulfill the tough promises she originally made. It lashed out at the "cowardice and incompetence of the people around her," labeling the Conservative leadership a "fantasy world that passes for tough leadership."

Daily Mail editors demanded that Mrs. Thatcher "cut taxes not raise them" and "curb state borrowing... not find more and smarter devices for raising cash." Furthermore, they said, "she must tackle public expenditure and the swollen ranks of government 'employees' with a ruthlessness never before displayed by a British prime minister."

Lesson for America

Britain has been traveling down the wrong road for so long that some of Mrs. Thatcher's supporters argue that she needs at least 10 years to restore Britain's economic health.

Far before then, of course, the British public will make the final decision whether they approve of the prime minister's policies. Her five-year term of office expires in 1984. (With a clear majority in Parliament, Mrs. Thatcher is expected to survive repeated tests of confidence until then.)

Mrs. Thatcher is hoping that she will have enough time for her policies to be vindicated, that the British economy will bottom out long before 1984 and will be on the rebound. She believes "there will be very much better prospects" by 1984. "But if I give up, we will lose."

Looking at Mrs. Thatcher's plight, there could be a lesson for the incoming American government headed by President-elect Ronald Reagan. As the Daily Mail editors noted:

"When Mrs. Thatcher was elected, there was a new mood of realism about Britain, engendered, it must be said, entirely by her honesty, by her toughness, her willingness to put an end to drift, to call for sacrifice and marshal the will of the people to lift a demoralized country, its currency and its industry."

How familiar are these themes to those of Mr. Reagan's campaign. Will his rule be marked by similar governmental half-measures — in a time of pronounced economic decline?

Just one more thing

By Dexter H. Faulkner

"I wish my parents would stop talking so much and would listen more," says 13-year-old June. "If they would give me a chance to say what I've got on my mind, I wouldn't give them so much to have on theirs."

This is not an uncommon statement by teenagers in God's Church today.

If we really love our children, we must learn to know them as individuals. And for this we have to watch and listen and find out what he or she really is like.

In-focus listening, as I like to call it, is listening to a child in such a way that he is sure you know what he is trying to communicate to you. When a child knows that you understand how he feels and what he wants, he is much more willing to respond positively to discipline, especially when you disagree with him.

Nothing frustrates a child more than to be told to do something when he feels his parents don't understand his or her position. This does not mean catering to a child's demand or whim, it simply means listening to a child so that he doesn't feel you have ignored his thoughts and feelings when you use your authority.

Is that unreasonable? If we believe it is, we are not regarding our children as valuable separate persons.

Stop and think about it. When your child feels you have considered his position and feelings, you have lessened anger and resentment that could come back to haunt you later. Doesn't God the Father do as much for us? Christ said: "Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and you shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone? Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent? If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?" (Matthew 7:7-11).

To give a child or teen in-focus listening requires eye contact, with physical contact and focused attention if possible and if appropriate.

Acknowledging that you understand a child (even if you disagree with him) is usually helpful. Repeating a child's thoughts back to him or her is a good way to ensure that they understand that you understand. A child's thoughts and feelings may make a difference in your own understanding and actions.

I recall an incident with my 17-year-old son. It happened last winter. We let him go skiing at a nearby resort with three other kids. He was told to come home before 6 o'clock. During this time of the year it gets dark around 5 o'clock. It usually takes two hours to make the trip. At 6:30 I became concerned; at 7 I called the parents of one of the boys. They said the boys had not called as yet. By 7:30 I had all kinds of visions of disaster; my stomach and heart had switched positions. My wife was a basket case. My son arrived home at 8:10.

I was angry. I sent him to bed after giving him a lecture about responsibility and placed him on one week's restriction. (He was grounded.) I reacted without listening to what the boy had to say. Why? First, I was thinking more about myself than about the actual situation. I wasn't feeling well that night and wanted to get to bed early. I had a very busy schedule the next day. Secondly, my son was later than I expected, and he did not call to tell us that he would be late. I assumed he was totally negligent in the situation.

Thankfully, God has given me a wise son. He waited until the next day when I had recovered my composure and more understanding ways before giving me all the facts. He knows that I listen better (focused listening) when I am not upset. As it turned out, the boys took a safer way home, which was longer. Snow fell just before time to return home, making the roads icy and slippery. He was telling the truth; it all checked.

He was negligent for failing to call us when he saw he would be late. He promised to improve. (I might add he has and does to this day call to let us know if he is going to be even 15 minutes late.)

After apologizing to him for overreacting, I decreased the restriction to be commensurate with what he had done.

There are two lessons we, as Christian parents, can learn from the experience. The first is the importance of really listening to a child when he is communicating. I could have saved myself frustration and my son pain and possible anger and resentment toward me by listening to him before acting.

The other lesson is the importance of controlling our emotions at such times. When you stop to think about it, uncontrolled feelings draw disrespect from everybody. Why should we expect otherwise from our spouse or children?

We all lose our cool at times. But when we do, we shouldn't be afraid to apologize later, after things have calmed down. It is possible to create a beautiful thing out of a bad experience. It's amazing how pleasant communications can become when a family member is big enough to apologize when he or she is wrong.

Believe it or not, the times of warmth and closeness that usually follow are among those special memories that children and parents never forget. They are priceless indeed.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Feast issue

I thank you all at The Worldwide News for the Oct. 27 issue. The Feast itself was like the calm eye in the center of a hurricane to me.

I just cannot express how good it made me feel to read about our brethren keeping God's ways around the world! And particularly joyful were the lists of ministers and their sermons, for I had wondered and prayed for a lot of them and was so glad they had... kept the faith and grown more in God's grace.

Then the perspective on the California case brought out by Mr. Rader — "they will bite again" — but as the song says, "another one bites the dust," because God will not allow trials for no reason; and we know He will deliver us at the right time.

How many people can pick up a newspaper, see a photo from Carlsbad, Czechoslovakia, and expect to see a friend in that photograph! "Update," "Worldwatch," and, oh yes, "Just One More Thing" (Hi, Dexter).

Top of the list, of course, are Mr. Armstrong's thrilling plans.

Lifeline to Pasadena

Thank you! Thank you! for the W/N. Your work is necessary, vital — our lifeline to headquarters. The importance of your efforts was particularly evident during Satan's assault on the Church via the California attorney general.

Here in Montana, as was probably true in other areas, too, we had no idea what was going on at first. We didn't know what to do, how to pray, how to answer questions concerning this.

But almost immediately the W/N's started pouring in with graphic and in-depth information. You kept us abreast of all the events concerning California's invasion of God's Church. We received rapidly a clear picture of the situation so we could pray effectively.

tor Marc Segall reported that the Chico, Calif., celebration featured a "mile-long spread of food." The Kalispell, Mont., church enjoyed tables full of roasted venison, elk and moose.

A giant card was signed to thank Mr. Armstrong in the Tampa, Fla., church, while members devoured an iced fruitcake in Birmingham, England.

Two and one half hours of fellowship were enjoyed by members in Pittsburgh, Pa. The Chicago, Ill., West church did double duty, according to Paul Dzing. Besides enjoying a potluck meal and special services, 150 members came back the next night for a family social and costume party.

"A feeling of unity and purpose" was fostered at the Hazard, Ky., affair, while members in San Juan, Puerto Rico, enjoyed roast turkey.

Cliff Neill reported that the high point of the celebration in St. Albans, England, was a toast to the Kingdom led by pastor Paul Suckling. In Walldorf, West Germany, Karl Schmid drove several hours to celebrate with his accordion.

The evening in Salem, Ore., featured an "Itty Bitty Entertainment Show," while the brethren in Macomb, Ill., feasted on chocolate cake and orange sherbet.

San Diego, Calif., pastor Norman Smith gave God the credit for delivering the Church, "It was God's direct intervention that gave us the victory."

Sherbrooke, Que., brethren enjoyed a "super-deluxe buffet," and the Bermuda church featured an inspiring sermon, fresh flowers and sumptuous food.

As members around the world gave thanks to God, munched on cookies and cake, and spent hours in fellowship, the reports indicated that God's Church is united, looking forward to doing its part in completing the great commission.

God's Work in Britain increases by 31 percent despite inflation

PASADENA — God's Church in the United Kingdom is enjoying "steady and sustained growth," said regional director Frank Brown Nov. 21.

In Pasadena for the Ministerial Refreshing Program and a series of meetings, the evangelist reported that "God is really blessing His Work in the United Kingdom and Ireland — we have a 31 percent increase in income over last year, and Church attendance is up 9 percent over the same period."

FRANK BROWN

Strong leadership

Despite severe inflation and high unemployment, the churches are "strong and stable," he said. Mr. Brown attributed the continued growth and strength to Pastor General Herbert W. Armstrong. "He's the leader of this Work under Jesus Christ — brethren in the U.K. know that and firmly support him."

The evangelist reported: "We are restrained [in Britain] in that we cannot get The World Tomorrow program on government-controlled radio or television. However, we concentrate on other areas — notably in Plain Truth promotion."

The United Kingdom is a country that largely adopts a secular, humanistic philosophy, he said. "We don't have the acceptance of 'Christianity' that the United States has. Many people in the United Kingdom view religion as a relic of the past — a burden on civilization."

Using Mr. Armstrong's concept of preaching the Gospel so the unconverted and unchurched can see its importance, The Plain Truth has developed a strong circulation, according to Mr. Brown.

"The Plain Truth is fairly well-known in Britain, namely due to ship stations in the late '60s and extensive newsstand distribution," he said.

Good example

"Our best asset in the United Kingdom is the Church itself," asserted Mr. Brown. "We had a tremendous response from the Brighton community [W/V, Oct. 27] during the Feast."

"The overall attitude that God's Spirit produces is the best advertising we could have." Mr. Brown said that there are more than 2,000 baptized members in 41 congregations throughout the United Kingdom and Ireland, and approximately 3,000 attend

Sabbath services each week.

Mr. Brown also oversees the Work in the Scandinavian countries and East and West Africa for Mr. Armstrong. "God hasn't called many people as yet in these areas," he stated. "But an infrastructure is being built that will allow the Work to grow rapidly when the big push comes."

The evangelist reported that a problem exists in that many people in Africa will request a subscription simply because it's free. "We want to build a solid circulation around people who want to see what God is saying about this present evil world and the coming world tomorrow — not people who want an English-language magazine so they can learn English."

Mr. Brown sees continued growth as God continues to call people, but hardships may be forthcoming. "We hope people will be praying for God's Work over here," he said. "A deepening recession and high inflation with growing unemployment threatens to make life more difficult for the brethren."

Brethren in Zambia 'tuned in'

PASADENA — Despite separation, isolation and economic recession, the 60 members of God's Church in Zambia are "doing well," according to Jarrus David Kalisilira, 58, a member there who visited Pasadena last month.

"We don't have regular weekly church meetings," he said. "But we do have visiting ministers — we are so spread out; the ministers have a vast area to cover. Some have even had to fly more than 2,000 miles to see the brethren."

This year was the first time in this era of God's Church that the Feast of Tabernacles was celebrated in Zambia. Mr. Kalisilira was the Festival coordinator. "We don't have many of the conveniences that people in the United States have," he reported. "But we had a very inspiring Feast and hope to hold a full eight-day Festival in 1981."

He said there is a chance brethren from neighboring Zimbabwe (for-

JARRUS DAVID KALISILIRA (formerly Rhodesia) may come for a combined Feast at resort facilities near Victoria Falls.

Mr. Kalisilira said that despite an economic recession, the country offers a good climate for the Work to grow. "We hope one day to have The World Tomorrow broadcast on the air and a large circulation of The Plain Truth."

In contrast to other African countries, Mr. Kalisilira said that Sabbath-keeping was "not really a problem," because of the degree of religious tolerance in the area.

In spite of not being able to meet on a regular basis, Mr. Kalisilira says Church members "are very much tuned into the Church." He related that members there support Pastor General Herbert W. Armstrong enthusiastically, and wish they could contribute more to the "great Work of God."

"The brethren hope that Mr. Armstrong will be able to return to Africa and visit Zambia someday," he said.

Until then, Mr. Kalisilira stated, he and his wife Gertrude Nyindo and their nine children will continue to do "whatever we can" in God's Church. "We are always looking forward to the return of Christ."

AMBASSADOR ACTIVITIES

EDUCATIONAL FIELD DAY

Educational field day, an Ambassador tradition of former years, was reestablished Nov. 12 after an absence of nine years. Students had the choice of three trips during the day, affording them the opportunity of visiting three or four museums in the Los Angeles, Calif., area.

At the J. Paul Getty museum, a building styled after a Roman villa near the ancient city of Pompeii, students viewed a collection of Greek and Roman antiquities, and strolled through the elaborate gardens that feature the same types of trees, flowers and shrubs that might have been growing in the villa 2,000 years ago.

On display on the second floor were paintings representing all the schools of Western art since the 13th century, including works by Rembrandt, Rubens and Gainsborough.

Other places visited during the day were the Museum of Natural History, the Museum of Art, and the Museum of Science and Industry, all in Los Angeles.

In the evening students viewed the film Fiddler on the Roof in the Ambassador Auditorium. The film was introduced by faculty member Mark Kaplan, who explained the historical and social background of Jewish life in Russia around the turn of this century.

THANKSGIVING DANCE

"Lest We Forget" was the theme of the Thanksgiving dance Nov. 23, played host to by the senior class and attended by students, faculty and several special guests.

The dance took place in the college Student Center, with music provided by the college stage band, under the direction of Ross Jutsum. A 30-minute entertainment segment with songs and humor by the seniors was the main attraction of the evening, including an original composition by John Wheeler, entitled "Lift Up Your Eyes."

The theme for the dance was based on Leviticus 28 and Deuteronomy 28, where the blessings for obedience to God are enumerated, said John Curry, senior class president.

The Thanksgiving dance is the first major dance of the college year, with the senior class being responsible for the setup, decorations, refreshments and entertainment.

EXPLORER-ADVENTURER GIVES FORUM

John Goddard, explorer, adventurer and anthropologist, addressed Ambassador College and Imperial School students Nov. 4, and narrated films of his experiences in Asia.

Mr. Goddard began with his trip to Afghanistan, shortly before the Soviet invasion in December, 1979. He noted that the American-made roads he saw are now used by Soviet tanks.

The second country in Mr. Goddard's itinerary was Burma, a country virtually closed to the West until recently. He showed a Buddhist temple in Rangoon containing 50 tons of gold in the roof.

The final country of his travelogue was Thailand, of particular interest to the students because of the educational project in that country involving 12 Ambassador students. On this trip, Mr. Goddard attended a demonstration where 80 men from the Royal Thai army fought in a tug-o-war against one elephant. The elephant won easily.

Mr. Goddard has spoken often to the Ambassador student body in recent years, recounting his travels and experiences. As a boy of 15, he made a list of 127 lifetime goals he wanted to achieve, 107 of which he has fulfilled.

ROCK CLIMBING

Thirty members of the Ambassador Outdoor

Leadership Club (AOLC) headed for Stony Point in Chatsworth, Calif., Nov. 9 for a day of practical instruction in rock climbing.

Participants scaled cliff faces under the guidance of experienced rock climbers, and also learned how to rappel down again. The outing gave members experience in basic rock-climbing skills, said Ed Frampton, club president.

The AOLC was founded in 1978 to help students develop skills in an outdoor environment. Stress is placed on leadership training and survival in the wilderness, with frequent outings where club members learn such things as backpacking, map and compass use, and riflery. The club operates under the direction of faculty member Arthur Suckling.

word with all readiness (openness) of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were SO." This man did not search the Bible to see that God's truths were SO. He tried by UNSCHOLARLY human reasoning to prove the Church doctrines were NOT true.

This self-centered attempt led to doubts instead of faith, and to a spirit of competition against God's Church. Without perhaps realizing it, he had started himself out on Satan's way of vanity, coveting, competition, resentment of authority within God's Church and God's GOVERNMENT in His Church. He went out of the Church.

Three or four other ministers made the mistake of treating cheaply the GOVERNMENT of God in His Church. They did not consider carefully the real meaning and significance of a very pivotal and key statement of scripture, in Acts 3:19-21. The heaven must receive Christ "until the times of restitution" (restoration) "of all things." What is to be restored is centered around the GOVERNMENT of GOD, which Lucifer made inoperative. The Government of God has not yet been restored to all the world. It soon will be. Meanwhile, in this short "END time" that Government has been restored WITHIN GOD'S CHURCH! It is THAT GOVERNMENT Satan is wrathful against.

These ministers thought they had discovered a new truth, contrary to the teaching of God's Church. They knew well they should have come with it first to headquarters or to me personally, to make it official doctrine. Thus it might — if true — be shared with the whole Church worldwide. But they allowed a spirit of vanity, self-centeredness and competition to enter. They kept it from headquarters, but began teaching their "new truth" to their own churches.

But their "new truth" was gross and harmful error. They misled brethren — for the time being. They opened their minds for Satan to DECEIVE and to USE them!

If you allow a bit of self-centeredness, vanity, covetousness, envy or jealousy, spirit of competition or resentment of authority — especially that of the Government of God in His Church — to enter your mind — if you begin to act on such impulse, you have already started in Satan's way. For those attitudes and desires are ways of TRANSGRESSING God's Law — OF SIN!

"Satan is going about seeking whom he may destroy from God's Church and Kingdom. Don't let the one he destroys be you. We can be secure in Christ and in His Church."

And where does it lead? You take one such false step, accept one false "truth" and refuse to REPENT of it at once, and turn from it, you will then go on into more and more error.

For 54 years now, I have seen this happen — all too often to those I have loved. If people mourn and weep over a loved one who dies, HOW MUCH MORE have I had to mourn and suffer over the SPIRITUAL loss of a brother or sister in God's Church!

Let me illustrate. One is walking along in a thickly wooded forest on a moonless pitch-dark night. But just ahead of him is an experienced guide with a lighted lantern. If he follows that lighted lantern he will be led safely out of the woods. But if he turns aside just a step or two and hesitates, the light continues on out of his sight. Then he is really lost. If one turns aside from God's truth on just one point, or one doctrine, and does not quickly repent, the light of God's truth moves on. In his self-centered effort to find the light of truth, he now walks blindly in wrong directions. He takes more and more steps in the wrong direction. That is, he proceeds on into more and more error, all the while losing more and more of what truth he had.

God's Word, the Holy Bible, is "a lamp unto our feet" to guide us out of the darkness of error and into the daylight brightness of TRUTH. The oil that produces the light in the lamp or lantern, causing it to light up to our understanding, is the Holy Spirit (cf Psalms 119:105, Matthew 25:1-13).

So comprehend the illustration. We all were lost in the dark woods of sin. On first realization of it, with repentance and belief, we received a first portion of God's Holy Spirit. The Bible begins to light up. It is as many as are led by the Spirit of God that are the begotten sons of God (Romans 8:14). The Spirit of God, by lighting up the Bible, leads us a step at a time, into more and more truth, and a step at a time out of error and sin. But if and when you reject one point of truth, it is like stepping aside in the dark woods. You are no longer being led by the Spirit of God opening the Bible to right understanding. The light — the Spirit of God — leaves you. God's TRUTH marches on! It leaves you behind. You are in darkness again. Lost again in the darkness of sin! You stumble around in the thick dark woods trying to find the lighted lantern. But every step you now take is taking you farther away from the lighted lantern, proceeding on the SURE path out of the woods.

In other words, if you reject one point of truth, or take one step aside into a point of error — unless you repent immediately and get back to the light — you will take more and more steps into erroneous beliefs, and one by one give up the points of TRUTH you had seen and accepted.

Take the example of some ministers who left God's Church. Some tried to incorporate new "churches" of their own. But they were not GOD's churches. These men had all rejected one or more points of truth, or Church doctrine. They almost immediately began to add new points of false doctrine of their own — not of God. Soon they began rejecting points of TRUTH. Perhaps it was tithing. Perhaps healing. Perhaps voting in this world's governments.

Perhaps it was God's Government in the Church. Soon they were rejecting God's annual Holy Days and feasts. Soon they were rejecting more and more of GOD'S TRUTH and turning to more and more FALSE doctrines and errors. THEY, PROFESSING TO FOLLOW CHRIST in their new way, WERE GOING FARTHER and FARTHER AWAY FROM HIM. They were going closer and closer to Satan and Satan's way.

NOW HOW DID IT ALL START? It started, in every case, by taking one first step in Satan's direction — compromising — becoming "liberal" — or resenting and rebelling against GOD'S GOVERNMENT in His Church — or letting a spirit of SELF enter in — it could be self-righteousness, or self-centeredness in COVETING POWER. More than one has been led into spiritual darkness by coveting POWER in God's Church. Unfortunately, conferring on leading ministers

"I loved those who are now outside the Church. Jesus would understand. He suffered the same experience, when 'from that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away? Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life.'" such rank or titles as "Evangelist," or "Vice President," went to some heads, sparking a coveting of POWER in the Church. It almost seems strange — it was NOT in these men a lust or greed for more money — it was a coveting of POWER — of the TOP SEAT — of AUTHORITY, — or of the resentment of authority over them.

This makes me think of our little short-legged dachshund, "Sir Hans Armstrong," who wears a badge (around his neck), as "deputy sheriff." He "owns" our home, and always wants the chief seat. He will leap up into it and curl up in it. These men wanted "the chief seat" — at least in a certain department or part of the Work, and wanted to build their own little "empire."

How, then, do we "let our guard down" to let Satan deceive and lead us out of the Church?

It all gets back to THE LAW of GOD, and the "SIN QUESTION." "Sin is the transgression of the Law" (1 John 3:4). The Law is LOW where God's Spirit leads, the "lamp" — or its light (the Holy Spirit) leaves us.

God's LAW is a WAY OF LIFE. It is the way of outflowing LOVE — to God, and to fellowman. It is OBEDIENCE to God and His Law — even when that Law is the BASIS of God's GOVERNMENT in His Church! It is reverence and worship of God, keeping God's Sabbath; and it is love to neighbor. The transgression of the Law — SIN — is irreverence to God's Law in His GOVERNMENT in the Church — vanity, self-centeredness, coveting, resentment of authority (especially of God's GOVERNMENT in His Church), spirit of rivalry and competition, self-desire.

YOU LET DOWN YOUR GUARD AND ALLOW SATAN TO DECEIVE AND USE YOU when, once you have known the truth, repented, received God's Spirit, started on GOD'S WAY, you take a step away from that way, begin to liberalize, compromise with Satan.

Now what about DEMON POSSESSION?

Let's UNDERSTAND the difference between being DECEIVED and USED BY Satan, on the one hand, and being demon POSSESSED on the other hand.

It all has to do with the human MIND. Few, even psychologists, understand the makeup of the human mind. Like animals, man has a BRAIN. The brain is composed of physical substance. The brain, whether animal or human, SEES through the eye; it HEARS through the ear, smells through the nose. Thus it receives knowledge through the five senses of eye, ear, nose, palate for taste and sense of feel through nerves.

The brain alone, however, cannot think, except in the most elementary way. It cannot store up multiple millions of bits of memory and give itself instant recall to put these selected bits of stored-up knowledge together in the THINKING and REASONING process. Animals, with brain alone, cannot think, reason, make choices and decisions like a human. The human mind output is millions of times greater than that of animals.

Why? There is a portion of spirit in humans that imparts the power of intellect to the human brain. This "human" spirit acts as a computer. Whatever knowledge enters the brain through senses of sight, hearing, smell, taste or feel is automatically "programmed" and stored in the portion of spirit within the person.

This spirit empowers the physical brain with intellect. It enables the brain to have instant recall of any one or several pieces of stored-up knowledge from the spirit, and thus enables the brain to utilize these bits of related knowledge in the process of THINKING and REASONING.

This spirit is NOT the person or any part of the person, but something INSIDE the person. It is not a "soul." The person, made of matter, is the soul while breathing air and circulating blood by the heart. Human LIFE resides in the blood and the breath of air. The portion of spirit added to every human person from birth does not supply human life. Of itself, it cannot think or reason — the physical BRAIN does that. When a human dies, the portion of spirit leaves the body. It is preserved intact by God (Ecclesiastes 12:7) until the resurrection.

Since all knowledge enters the brain through the five senses, ONLY knowledge of the physical and the material is programmed and stored in the human spirit. The human, with this one portion of spirit residing within him from birth, cannot KNOW or comprehend SPIRITUAL knowledge. The normal human mind can deal with physical and material matters. But his PROBLEMS, troubles, evils, are spiritual in nature, and he CANNOT SOLVE THEM.

MAN WAS MADE TO NEED AN-

OTHER SPIRIT — the Holy Spirit of God — just as a human could not KNOW the things of human knowledge except by the portion of the spirit of man, which is in him, so he cannot know the things of God — spiritual knowledge — except by the addition of the Holy Spirit of God (1 Corinthians 2:11).

Adam had the "spirit in man," and access to the Holy Spirit (tree of life). What happened to Adam? He used his MIND with its "spirit of man" to CHOOSE a WAY OF LIFE contrary to the Law of God. His mind became carnal. SATAN SWAYED IT. Satan has been swaying all human minds from birth ever since — all EXCEPT THAT OF JESUS!

That is not demon possession. It is a voluntary CHOOSING to follow a WAY OF LIFE contrary to God's Law — the way of SIN. All have sinned. But such a person is IN HIS RIGHT MIND — HIS HUMAN MIND! He is deceived and used by Satan, but NOT demon possessed!

A demon-possessed person is just that — possessed by the demon. The demon has ENTERED, and taken POSSESSION. The person no longer has control of his own mind; the demon has taken possession of it!

When Jesus talked to the demon possessed, He did not talk to the man at all. He talked to the demon. The demon possessed cannot of themselves cast out the demon; they are no longer in possession of their own minds! Jesus by His authority cast demons out. So did the apostles.

Now how does one come to be DECEIVED by Satan and used by him? And how does one become demon possessed? We are talking about two different things.

ALL, except Jesus, since Adam, have been DECEIVED and led by Satan from earliest life. Satan begins working on and deceiving the human mind even during the first year of life — injecting his attitude of SELF-

A Voice Cries Out: What's Wrong with Business and Industry?

Has it, after all, contributed to a better modern world, or-?

WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION threaten to erase human life from the earth! What part have business and industry played in the modern society that now stands on the brink of human extinction?

Surely, when we look at modern business, industry and commerce we find the spectacle of modern development that excites enraptured admiration.

Or has this facet of civilization contributed to the CAUSE of humanity's has been the "GET" philosophy. In spite of materialistic advances, humanity's problems are spiritual—and the spiritual incentive has been "GET"—"ME FIRST!"

Result? In spite of materialistic advances there has been spiritual retrogression. Trouble, evils, suffering and anguish have engulfed the world.

"Is honesty the best policy?" A magazine survey put this question to 103 business executives, all high in their lines. An overwhelming majority doubted whether a strictly honest policy would enable one to rise to the top in the business world. Only two answered yes, and one of these said he knew he was

But that super-strong "Unseen Hand from Someplace" is now about to intervene. He sends a voice crying out with the world's only and sure hope! That intervention will save humanity from itself. A new and different world of PEACE, HAPPINESS and ABUNDANCE for all is that sure hope. Mankind won't bring it about. It will have to be done to humanity—and our motivation shall be changed from "GET" to "GIVE!" Agree or not—IT IS SURE!

CENTEREDNESS, vanity, coveting, competition, resentment of authority. But what about a top-ranking minister? He is one who, supposedly, had previously become aware of that, had repented of that self-centered way of sin, and turned to God's way.

He, if deceived by Satan and used by him, is one who, like Lot's wife, began to "look back" — even if just a little at first. He may have been willing to compromise on a minor point. He became a little "liberal" on some point. Or he let vanity, covetousness, desire for personal power, or self-righteousness, or disagreement on a doctrine, introduce a wrong ATTITUDE against the Church or God's way. I have explained all this above. One step in the wrong direction leads to another. He becomes "lost in the dark woods," so to speak. He is for the moment not being "LED BY GOD'S SPIRIT." Soon he will be misled on another point, then another. Or, he comes to a new "truth" and allows it to ignite a wrong attitude. He will go farther and farther away from God's REAL truth, and farther and farther into error. But HE IS STILL IN HIS "RIGHT," BUT CARNALED MIND — not necessarily demon possessed.

Humans were created and born with the "spirit in man" so as to NEED the addition of a second Spirit, the Holy Spirit of God. Now when one receives the Spirit of God, it DOES NOT POSSESS HIM! It does not TAKE OVER CONTROL of his mind. It OPENS his mind to NEW and to SPIRITUAL KNOWLEDGE. It is the spirit of a SOUND MIND (II Timothy 1:7).

How, then, does one open the mind to let in a demon?

I knew a woman, so far as I knew until demon possession, an admirable woman. She became happily married. In pregnancy there was a miscarriage. She made a terrible mistake. She blamed it on God. She became bitter and emotionally enraged and angry against God. This opened her mind to let a demon enter and possess her. I was called to cast out the demon. She was restored to her natural mind. She became pregnant again. A gain there was a miscarriage. Again she accused God, in emotional almost uncontrollable anger and rage. Again she was demon-possessed — only this time by several demons. (Read Matthew 12:44.) I was called again. A demon was using her voice and speaking. In the middle of an unfinished sentence, the voice commenced speaking about something else altogether. That voice was interrupted and another began speaking with her voice about an altogether different something, and yet none of it made sense. It was many demons, each interrupting the other.

Some Pentecostal people get to desperately seeking "the spirit." I have noticed they often say "the spirit" — not the "Holy Spirit," or the "Spirit of God." They cry out desperately to receive "the spirit." They say certain words, or short phrases, over and over hundreds of times, like "Glory, Glory, Glory, Glory, Glory," etc. Or, "Hallelujah," hundreds of times — or "Praise you, Jesus" over and over hundreds of times — until the words become meaningless and mere sounds. Their minds are virtually BLANK by the time the words by repetition become utterly meaningless. Sometimes a demon has entered in when they lost control of their minds.

Or, if one allows himself to go into an emotional rage so intense he had lost his mind, a demon could then enter and take control.

But a normal person, keeping a sound mind control, has not opened the door to allow a demon to enter and possess the mind.

I would never want to put myself into the hands of a psychiatrist or a hypnotist. If one would ask me to totally relax my mind, and let my mind be blank, I would immediately rise up and walk away. If I should obey I might open the door of my mind to a demon.

Under normal circumstances, however, NO ONE NEED FEAR A DEMON MAY TAKE POSSESSION — unless you open your mind by letting it be blank, or under control of another, or you lose your mind in an emotional angry rage.

But we do need to be ON GUARD against the wiles and deceptions of Satan. He deceives people by SELF-centeredness, vanity, lust and greed, especially of power, envy and jealousy, hostile competition, resentment of any kind, and especially resentment of authority, and most especially resentment of the GOVERNMENT OF GOD!

Satan is going about seeking WHOM he may destroy from God's Church and Kingdom.

Don't let the one he destroys be YOU!

We CAN be secure in Christ and in His Church.

Let me close, as the apostle Paul did his second letter to the Church at Corinth:

Brethren, ministers and even chief evangelists in God's Church: "EXAMINE YOURSELVES to see whether you are holding to your faith. Test YOURSELVES."

I have covered here, IN PRINCIPLE, what OTHERS did that caused Christ to take them out of GOD'S CHURCH! Don't think, "Well, all that applied to THEM — not to ME!" Be sure YOU do not start, even so little at first, in Satan's direction. Let no jealousy or contention of any kind against another — whether another member or another of YOUR RANK in the Work, even start to kindle in your mind! For GOD IS NO RESPECTER OF PERSONS. For if God spared not even the ANGELS that sinned (II Peter 2:4), He would no more spare YOU! I did not write this article in order to speak AGAINST those who are OUT, but to warn YOU who are still in, from the very TOP in the Church to the least.

We say we are back on the track now. We say we have TEAMWORK and harmonious cooperation at Pasadena. That had come at great COST. SEE THAT WE DON'T LET SATAN GET TO ANY ONE OF YOU!

If I had to take the MOST difficult action against even my own son, as Paul wrote, be zealous that "I may not have to be severe in my use of AUTHORITY which the Lord has given me for BUILDING UP and not for tearing down" (II Corinthians 13:5,10, Revised Standard Version).

as a body met with real persecution from Satan's earthly governments was this recent lawsuit! It was definitely PROPHETIC!

LET IT WAKE US UP!

Now Satan will try harder than ever. He will find new ways to persecute us. Even yet our attorneys advise me strongly NOT TO GO YET TO PASADENA! There are those waiting to grab me or serve papers on me! Not for any wrong or evil I have done — but pure persecution!

God through Peter says to us, "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about seeking whom he may devour; whom RESIST steadfast in the faith..." James writes: "Resist the devil, and he will flee from you."

Evangelist keeps tough schedule to encourage, exhort churches

By Rod Matthews

PASADENA — Evangelist Gerald Waterhouse is a hard man to keep track of. The last few months he has visited the Australian churches several times, acting as the interim ministerial supervisor there, awaiting the arrival of the new regional director.

He flew to Auckland, New Zealand, Oct. 17 to begin a two-week tour. When he had finished, 945 people had heard him in 10 locations.

The New Zealand Office reported: "Mr. Waterhouse's dynamic sermons hammered home the need for God's Church to be fully and completely back on the right track, following the direction of God's end-time apostle Herbert W. Armstrong. The members responded enthusiastically, gratefully appreciating the opportunity to hear such a powerful and inspiring message from one of God's evangelists and a personal emissary of Mr. Armstrong."

"Most of the sermons were around four hours in length, but many of the brethren took the opportunity to travel to other Church areas to hear even more about God's plan and purpose. Many commented that the sermons were so fast-moving and jam-packed with important principles and examples that it was very difficult to take notes until they heard the material for the second or third time!"

On Oct. 31 Mr. Waterhouse flew to Manila, Philippines, to spend eight days visiting the major areas of Manila, Baguio, Davao City, Iloilo and Cebu. It is difficult there for the members to assemble in the evening because of early closure of public transport, so Mr. Waterhouse had to work hard to cover as much as possible over the daylight hours of the weekend.

After leaving Manila Nov. 10, Mr. Waterhouse flew to Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. His itinerary included: Nov. 12 — Singapore (Bible study); Nov. 17 — Bombay (all-day service); and Nov. 18 — Colombo, Sri Lanka (Bible study).

TRAVELING ENVOY — Evangelist Gerald Waterhouse takes time out during his schedule to chat with Bombay elder Spaulding Kulasingam and his wife Cecilia (center).

On Nov. 17, he flew from Colombo to Johannesburg, South Africa, to begin a tour of churches. He was scheduled for a rest there to recuperate from the arduous travel and the tropical heat he experienced.

His South African itinerary included: Nov. 22 — Johannesburg; Nov. 23 — Bloemfontein; Nov. 24 — East London; Nov. 25 — Port Elizabeth; Nov. 26 — Cape Town; and Nov. 29 — Durban and Pietermaritzburg combined.

He flew to Zimbabwe (formerly Rhodesia) Dec. 2 to speak to the Bulawayo church, and on to the Salisbury church the next day. Then to Kenya for a Sabbath service. From Kenya, he plans to go to the British Isles. His schedule follows: Dec. 11 — Plymouth; Dec. 12 — Taunton; Dec. 13 — London and Radlett combined; Dec. 14 — Brighton and Godalming; Dec. 15 — Reading; Dec. 16 — Southampton;

Dec. 17 — Basildon; Dec. 18 — Ipswich; Dec. 19 — Norwich; Dec. 20 — Birmingham, Northampton and Nottingham; Dec. 21 — Bristol, Gloucester and Cardiff;

Dec. 22 — Carmarthen; Dec. 27 — Glasgow, Kilmarnock and Edinburgh; Dec. 28 — Aberdeen; Dec. 31 — Newcastle and Middlesbrough; Jan. 1 — Sheffield, Bradford and Hull; Jan. 3 — Dublin; Jan. 4 — Belfast and Ballymena; Jan. 5 — Liverpool and Manchester; and Jan. 6 — Lancaster.

He will travel to Oslo, Norway, Jan. 9 for a service with our brethren there. Jan. 10 he'll speak to the Stockholm, Sweden, church and Jan. 11 to the Aarhus, Denmark, church.

But that's not the end. It's on to West Germany.

Jan. 12 — Hamburg; Jan. 13 — Hannover; Jan. 14 — Dusseldorf; Jan. 15 and 16 — Bonn; Jan. 17 — Frankfurt, Mannheim, Stuttgart and Nuremberg churches; Jan. 18 — Salzburg and Vienna, Austria. (See EVANGELIST, page 12)

96 year old gives advice: Look to God's ministers

By Fred Whitehead

VANCOUVER, B.C. — Life hasn't been a breeze for John Mortimer McGloughlin, a 96-year-old member of the Church here. He was born in 1884 in Hildon, N.S., and as a youth he worked long hard hours on farms milking cows, driving horses, cutting cordwood, plowing and reaping hay. Times were difficult and occasionally he was without money or food.

In 1905 Mr. McGloughlin moved to Assiniboia (now Saskatchewan) to work on a farm. In 1912 he began his career with the Canadian Pacific Railroad — a career lasting 37 years. The first few years he cleaned and oiled engines, sometimes working 12-hour night shifts. In the bitter winter nights, when the temperature often plunged to 60 degrees below zero, he and his fellow workers hauled frozen engines into the shop. During his railroad career he was promoted to fireman, then engineer.

Mr. McGloughlin was married in 1919 to Nellie — his wife for 60 years — until her death last year.

One day in downtown Vancouver, Mr. McGloughlin found a copy of The Plain Truth, and soon he wrote in for a subscription. His interest was aroused after he heard a sermon by visiting minister Leslie McCullough. In February, 1975, at the age of 90, Mr. McGloughlin was baptized.

Mr. McGloughlin gives this simple advice: "The only way to find out what's right is from the ministers of God's Church — and govern yourselves accordingly."

Prayer deters devastating fire, hurricane

Church members were spared major damage when hurricanes struck the Florida coast and brush fires raged in Southern California. Following are reports of escapes from disaster.

DUARTE, Calif. — Robert and Marcia English escaped harm Nov.

16 when raging fires fanned by high winds engulfed the outskirts of this small Southern California town. Racing from their home at 5 a.m., Mr. English asked God to protect their property.

When the flames finally subsided several hours later, only charred remains stood in place of 55 homes, but the English home was unscathed. All structures surrounding their home were piles of rubble. Mr. English's home was untouched except for a few broken panes of glass and the loss of his fence. Mr. English noted that the fires actually crossed the fence, but stopped at the side of his home. Despite the closeness to the flames, the wall never caught fire.

Praising God for saving his home, Mr. English said the incident was a powerful witness to their neighbors. One said he felt the English home was protected because of their obedience to the Sabbath Commandment.

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. — Brush fires fed by fierce Santa Ana winds failed to stop a new congregation of God's Church from being raised up here Nov. 22, according to Carn Catherwood, pastor of the newly formed church.

Fires forced the evacuation of several Church families, but their

WANT YOUR PHOTOS RETURNED?

If you want your photos from "Local Church News," "Announcements," the baby coupon or feature articles returned, please include a self-addressed stamped envelope with the pictures. Write your name and address on the back of each photo with a felt-tip pen or use a gummed label, as the pressure from writing with a pen or pencil frequently damages the image on the reverse side. We also recommend including a piece of cardboard roughly equal in size to the inside dimensions of the return envelope for protection of your photos in the mail. These steps will greatly reduce expenses and time on our part and insure that your photos are returned undamaged. We thank you in advance for your cooperation.

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — Norman L. Shoaf, 72, died of cancer Nov. 15. Interment took place at Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery.

Mr. Shoaf, born in Hunterville, Mo., held various jobs during his life, including farming, carpentry and manufacturing. During World War II he served in the U.S. Army as an engineer on Alaska's Aleutian Islands.

Mr. Shoaf is survived by his wife Wanda, a member of the St. Louis church, and two sons, Norman L. Jr., a member of the Pasadena Auditorium P.M. church and an asso-

God's Church: family tradition

The following article is written by Marcia Briggie, wife of Montvale, N.J., pastor Lloyd Briggie.

MOUNT POCONO, Pa. — A proponent of five generations in the Worldwide Church of God, Cora Dunning Gruetzmacher, 94, died peacefully in her sleep Aug. 9. Some of her last words expressed hope and joy in meeting Christ in the Kingdom, where she would next open her eyes. The former Cora Dunning was born April 16, 1886, in Centerville, N.Y., and grew up on a farm there. She learned to knead bread by her mother's deathbed and kept house for her father and three brothers after her mother died.

Cora married Fred Carson and had two sons. Years later when Fred died, she moved to Brooklyn, N.Y., to make her living as a dressmaker and to marry Ferdinand Gruetzmacher. They bought land during the Depression and when World War II broke out a few years later, Mrs. Gruetzmacher built up a poultry farm while her husband worked in an aircraft manufacturing plant.

Meanwhile, her son Charles had married the former Bertha Haak. He and his family lived in Queens, N.Y. Mrs. Gruetzmacher would visit them there by way of the Long Island Railroad, carrying freshly killed chickens under her arm.

The Charles Carsons five children are Audrey Nickel, Elaine Vernon, Charlotte Spielberger, Charles Carson Jr. and Robert Carson. The three girls were baptized into God's Church. Elaine's two sons, Bill and Rick Guthy, have become members as well. Audrey and her husband Charles Nickel II were both baptized in 1959.

In an attempt to poke holes in Herbert Armstrong's conclusions and his son-in-law's "crazy religion," Charles Carson Sr. began to study the Church's literature and was converted shortly thereafter. Baptized in 1963, Mr. Carson is now a local elder in the Mount Pocono, Pa., church.

Ferdinand and Cora Gruetzmacher would have nothing to do with the Church. Privately, however, they would listen to the broadcast. Only when visited by James Rosenthal, now a minister in Harrisburg, Pa., and Dan Bierer, a minister in the Buffalo, N.Y., church, did Mr. and Mrs. Gruetzmacher realize they had requested counseling from representatives of the same Ambassador College with which their son's church was affiliated. They too were soon baptized.

Audrey and Charles Nickel II were blessed with four children. Robert, Charles III, Donna and Deborah are all members of God's Church.

Robert Nickel married Elaine Shiano in 1978, and they now live in Hackensack, N.J., with their 1-year-old daughter, Laura Michelle, who represented the fifth living generation in God's Church until Cora Gruetzmacher's death.

Mrs. Gruetzmacher is survived by her son, Charles Carson, and his wife Bertha, who reside in East Stroudsburg, Pa.; six grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; and one great-great-granddaughter.

Church treasurer travels east for week of talks and interviews

PASADENA — Church treasurer Stanley R. Rader returned here Nov. 25, ending a four-state tour where he spoke at combined services for several churches, and participated in more than a dozen interviews by the print and electronic media, including an interview by Joseph Hopkins of Christianity Today, according to Joe Kotora, an aide to Mr. Rader.

The tour began Nov. 16 in Toledo, Ohio, where Mr. Rader met with members of the Church there and enjoyed a potluck banquet.

The next day, Mr. Rader was interviewed on several radio and television stations, including the CBS, NBC and ABC television outlets. Mr. Rader's book was featured and segments of Pastor General Herbert W. Armstrong's 1974 Manila, Philippines, address were aired. Program host Bob Lawrence commented that Mr. Armstrong is "an absolutely incredible speaker."

Mr. Rader moved on to Buffalo, N.Y., Nov. 19, where he prepared for a number of interviews on the 20th and 21st. Thursday, he was interviewed by the Buffalo News.

He made appearances on radio stations WFXZ, WEBR and WGRO, and television station WBC. He also participated in a telephone interview with George Prentiss of WZIR-radio, according to Mr. Kotora.

The interviews continued the next day, with Mr. Rader appearing on WKBW-TV, WPHD-radio and the Newsmakers program on WGR-TV.

Sabbath services Nov. 22 in Buffalo featured a sermon by Mr. Rader. A potluck followed in the afternoon. Accompanied by his wife Niki, Mr. and Mrs. Kotora and aide John Kineston, Mr. Rader flew that evening to Charlestown, W.Va., where he spoke to the brethren and enjoyed another potluck dinner.

He granted an interview to the Charlestown paper Nov. 23 before flying to Pittsburgh, Pa.

Member Mark Hardway reported that the Church treasurer spoke to 600 persons at Belle Vernon, Pa. Mr. Rader spoke to the brethren about Mr. Armstrong's trip to the Mideast and discussed the pastor general's Wall Street Journal advertisements. He reported that the Church's enemies "are not destroyed—they are merely nursing their wounds."

After dinner, Mr. Rader was interviewed by the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette and taped an interview for WIBC-TV before appearing on a two-hour WTAE-radio talk show.

The next day, the Church treasurer was interviewed by WBCW-radio in Brownsville, Pa., WASP-radio in Uniontown, Pa., WCVI-radio in Connellville, Pa., and the Westmoreland County Tribune-Review. Following the interviews, the Church treasurer was interviewed by Joseph Hopkins of Christianity Today, according to Mr. Kotora.

PASADENA — La Pura Verdad, the Spanish edition of The Plain Truth, continues to be advertised in Central and South American newspapers. In Bolivia, small ads were placed in the two largest nationally circulated newspapers, El Diario and La Presencia.

La Pura Verdad circulation in this country of two million literate people never before exceeded 55; now it is more than 700.

Two ads placed in Buenos Aires, Argentina, newspapers several months ago and a special mailing to La Pura Verdad subscribers in Argentina netted more than 4,600 new subscribers. This helped multiply the subscription list there five times.

In Colombia, ads placed in El Tiempo, the largest circulating newspaper, prompted a radio reporter to call our Bogotá Office and tape a 20-minute interview with Pablo Gonzalez, church pastor and office manager. It was aired 45 minutes later, and spot ads were broadcast for 15 days following — free of charge.

More free publicity is coming from a member of the House of Representatives of Colombia. Calling the office requesting a subscription for La Pura Verdad, he explained that he wanted to run the same ad in his newspaper, La Voz Santandereana. This paper is widely read in political circles in Colombia — from the congress to the capitals of the departments (states) and municipalities.

Germany

An unexpected and pleasant surprise for the German-speaking area occurred in October when the West German railway offered us advertising space in all their monthly train schedules. The schedules are placed on every seat in all standard express trains and the prestigious Trans European Express trains. With a circulation of 1.5 million, the ad will appear in December (busiest month of the year on the trains) and the price was only one-third the normal cost.

British Moves

Following Peter Nathan's transfer from Britain to become regional director in New Zealand, David Stirk was moved to the Radlett Office. He previously pastored five churches in northeast England. Mr. Stirk will become business manager and administrator for the Scandinavian and East and West African areas, and will pastor the Borehamwood and Luton churches.

David Magowan will replace him in England and he will be assisted by Bernard Dowson, a local elder recently hired by the Church.

David Magowan's place in the Liverpool area was taken by Bob Harrison. Bob Boraker of the Radlett Office will temporarily pastor Mr. Harrison's former assignment.

Scandinavia

A card offering the booklets Does God Exist?, Why Were You Born?, and The Seven Laws of Success in English and Danish was inserted in each Plain Truth going to Scandinavia. Understanding of the English language in this area is good.

Canada

For the first time in 1980 Church attendance went over the 9,000 mark in Canada in October. This reflects the upsurge in new visit requests — up 42 percent in September over one year ago. New baptisms were up 40 percent and Church attendance 9 percent.

Robert Fahey, the new regional director of God's Work in Canada, is busy settling into his new assignment. He will be visiting several churches in the next few weeks to familiarize himself with the area. Montreal, Que., Toronto, Ont., and Winnipeg, Man., are on his itinerary.

Following are some manpower changes in Canada. Charles Bryce is transferring from Regina, Sask., to Vancouver, B.C., to become pastor of the lower mainland churches. Larry Griender and David Register, formerly working in this area, will transfer to the United States.

Finally, the CKO all-news radio network renewed the contract for The World Tomorrow program with the following improvements for 1981: The program will air six nights a week, Monday through Friday, and Sundays; spot ads for the program and booklets will be broadcast 300 times during the year at no extra cost; the network will attempt to open five new transmitters within a year or so and give coast-to-coast news coverage, and all 13 stations will carry The World Tomorrow program.

and Munich, West Germany; Jan. 19 — Basel, Switzerland; Jan. 20 — Zurich, Switzerland.

To conclude his European tour, he flies to the Netherlands for a Bible study in Utrecht for our Dutch brethren, then to Paris for a Sabbath service Jan. 27.

Throughout Europe simultaneous translations will be made.

It is an arduous schedule, and the last part is in Europe in the winter — not ideal circumstances. So please remember Mr. Waterhouse in his commission as a traveling envoy for Mr. Armstrong, and a vision-maker for the Kingdom of God.

Mr. Rader noted that The Wall Street Journal reaches people "who either own a piece of, or run, the nation." In the ads Mr. Armstrong comments on world conditions and the issues that confront business executives and professionals.

Mr. Armstrong offered the booklet, The United States and Britain in Prophecy, in an ad headlined "Staggering Turn in World Events is Due to Erupt in the Next Few Years," and the Mail Processing Center has been busy taking requests on the Wide Area Telephone Service (WATS) lines, said Mr. Rader.

The Church treasurer characterized the ads as "a new door opened for God's Work." He reported that the pastor general is planning to continue the ad campaign.

PASADENA — Ambassador College has accepted 41 students for January admission, according to Richard F. Ames, director of admissions for the college.

Deputy Chancellor Raymond F. McNair reported that the present student body is of a high caliber, stating, "Overall, I don't think we have ever had a better group of students."

Mr. Ames said that the 41 students were picked from 100 applications. "The students selected for Ambassador have very fine academic ability, leadership qualities and several other skills and talents," he stated.

He also reported that selecting students was difficult, as "we have many, many more qualified applicants than we can admit. Our challenge is to choose the best."

Pastor General Herbert W. Armstrong has set the maximum full-time enrollment at Ambassador at 500 in order to preserve the family atmosphere and promote learning, according to Mr. McNair. Enrollment this year is 492.

PASADENA — In an editorial entitled "Of Rocks and Religion" in the Dec. 1 Fortune magazine, Daniel Seligman urged President-elect Ronald Reagan to abolish or modify Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) guidelines designed to protect religious freedom.

The editorial objected to the stricter guidelines [WN, Dec. 24, 1979] issued by the EEOC in response to a U.S. Supreme Court decision involving Church member Larry Hardison. Mr. Hardison was fired by Trans World Airlines (TWA) for keeping the Sabbath, and the case reached the nation's highest court in 1977.

The court overturned previous decisions, ruling in favor of TWA. The EEOC clarified the employer's responsibility in 1979 by stating that an employer must accommodate religious beliefs of employees unless they create "undue hardship."

The editorial mentioned the Worldwide Church of God by name, stating that the Church "forbids Saturday work."

CHICO, Calif. — Pastor Marc Segall reported that the newsstand editions of The Plain Truth find their way into unusual places.

Volunteer distributor Rick Howe was attempting to secure a place for a stand in the lobby of a major hotel chain in Eureka, Calif., when the manager made a surprising offer, said Mr. Segall.

After looking through a copy of The Plain Truth, the manager said, "Let me have a supply of these each month and we will put one in each room."

The maid service now carries a supply of The Plain Truth and restocks the rooms with fresh copies as needed, Mr. Segall said. He reported that the service is free of charge.

SPECIAL SABBATH — Evangelist Gerald Waterhouse (center) sits amid Bombay, India, brethren on the special Sabbath of Thanksgiving Nov. 15. Seated to Mr. Waterhouse's left are Bombay elder Spaulding Kulasingam and his wife Cecilia. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D'Costa are on the right of the traveling evangelist.
